SEC. 150.15 Lists of alien employees; when changes of vessel denied. Clearance shall not be granted any vessel until the list required by section 18 of the immigration act of 1917 (39 Stat. 879, 8 U. S. C. 1171) has been delivered to the immigrant inspector at the port of clearance, and the master has certified to the truth of the list and to the compliance with the provisions of section 18 of the said act (39 Stat. 879; 8 U. S. C. 1181) relative to the number of aliens employed on board the vessel at the time of sailing. Changes shall not be made in the list after it has been delivered to the immigrant inspector, except that the master may, before the departure of the vessel, report the illness or death of any alien employed on board, and may report the name of any alien who has been employed on board and who has failed to report for duty at the time of departure of the vessel. Such report shall be made to the immigrant inspector at the port of departure, if practicable, and if not practicable, to the immigrant inspector at the next port of arrival of the vessel in the United States.

EXTRACT FROM ACT OF CONGRESS APPROVED MAY 26, 1924, AS AMENDED

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 16. No alien seaman employed from admission into the United States under the immigration laws and employed on board a vessel arriving in the United States from any foreign country, whether for immediate transhipment or for ultimate departure, or for any other purpose, shall be permitted to land temporarily unless such alien seaman is in possession of a valid passport and a valid visa, if such shall be required by the President of the United States under the provisions of section 2 of the act of May 22, 1918 (40 Stat. 559), as amended by section 4 of the act of May 10, 1920 (41 Stat. 593), and is otherwise admissible under the immigration laws. Any alien seaman who shall land in the United States in violation of this section shall be deported as provided in section 19 of the immigration act of 1917 (39 Stat. 889; 8 U. S. C. 155).

SEC. 17. (a) The master, purser, or surgeon of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside the United States shall, before the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival has given permission to any alien seaman (except members of the crew who will be employed on board the vessel during her stay in port) to land temporarily or permanently, deliver to such immigration officer a list containing the name of every alien seaman employed on board the vessel, and such other information relative to such alien seaman as may be required by the Commissioner General of Immigration, with the approval of the Secretary of Labor, and shall sign such list and require every alien seaman named therein to sign his name in the presence of such master, purser, or surgeon. Such list shall be prepared and signed in such form and manner as may be prescribed by the Commissioner General of Immigration, with the approval of the Secretary of Labor, and shall be verified by the oath of such master, purser, or surgeon administered by any immigration officer. Such master, purser, or surgeon shall also deliver to such immigration officer such other information relative to such alien seaman as may be required by the Commissioner General of Immigration, with the approval of the Secretary of Labor, and shall be verified by the oath of such master, purser, or surgeon administered by any immigration officer.

(b) That any alien seaman who shall depart from the United States in violation of the provisions of this section shall be deported as a deserter. Such seaman shall be taken before a United States commissioner within three days after the vessel on which he arrived in the United States sails from the port of departure, and the master, agent, consignee, or owner of such vessel shall pay to the United States the sum of $1,000 for each such alien seaman, which sum shall be a lien upon the vessel, and may be recovered by libel in any district court of the United States within the district in which any such master, agent, consignee, or owner may be found or the vessel may arrive. The payment of such sum shall not relieve the vessel from any other lien to which it may be subject. The Commissioner General of Immigration, with the approval of the Secretary of Labor, shall report to the Secretary of State the name of any master, agent, consignee, or owner who shall have failed to pay the sum imposed by this section, and the Secretary of State shall thereupon withhold clearance papers from any vessel of the United States the master, agent, consignee, or owner of which shall have failed to pay the sum imposed by this section, and the Secretary of State shall thereupon withhold clearance papers from any vessel of the United States the master, agent, consignee, or owner of which shall have failed to pay the sum imposed by this section, and the Secretary of State shall thereupon withhold clearance papers from any vessel of the United States the master, agent, consignee, or owner of which shall have failed to pay the sum imposed by this section.

(c) If the Attorney General finds that deportation of the alien assumed on the vessel or which he attempt would cause undue hardship to such person by reason of the danger to life or liberty he may cause such alien to be deported to any country which may be designated by such alien and which shall agree to receive him, other than a country in which the Attorney General shall find that such alien's life or liberty would be endangered because of his race, religion, or political opinion. Any alien who shall be deported under the provisions of this act shall be deported at the expense of the appropriation for the enforcement of this act. Any alien who shall be deported under the provisions of this act shall be deported at the expense of the appropriation for the enforcement of this act.

AFFIDAVIT OF THE MASTER OR COMMANDING OFFICER, OR FIRST OR SECOND OFFICER

I, ... of the ..... do declare that the foregoing is a full and true list of all the crew promptly in said vessel from and not to have quitted per thereof upon the arrival of said vessel at any port in the United States, and that I have not, nor has any one to my knowledge or belief, on behalf of myself or of said vessel, or of the owner thereof, or of any person interested therein, made any bargain or contract, or given any bond or promise, or other thing of value whatsoever, by which any such seaman has been induced to ship on said vessel, or will be induced to remain on board and not demand his wages or quit the vessel before the end of the voyage for which he has shipped, and that I have not, nor has any one to my knowledge or belief, on my behalf, paid or agreed to pay any fee to any person for the procuring or providing of any such seaman, and that I have not, nor has any one to my knowledge or belief, on my behalf, received or agreed to receive any fee, commission, or other thing of value whatsoever, out of the wages or other remuneration of any such seaman, and that I have not, nor has any one to my knowledge or belief, on my behalf, paid or agreed to pay any fee, commission, or other thing of value whatsoever to any person for the procuring or providing of any such seaman, and that I have not, nor has any one to my knowledge or belief, on my behalf, received or agreed to receive any fee, commission, or other thing of value whatsoever, out of the wages or other remuneration of any such seaman.

I have noted the entry of section 30 of the Act of February 5, 1917, entitled "An Act to regulate the immigration of aliens to, and the removal of aliens from, the United States," and the penalties provided for the violation of the provisions of said section, and I understand that it is my duty to deliver to the immigration officer at the port of arrival a correct list of all the crew, and that I am not permitted to make any bargain or contract, or give any bond or promise, or other thing of value whatsoever, by which any seaman is induced to ship on said vessel, or to remain on board and not demand his wages or quit the vessel before the end of the voyage for which he has shipped, and that I have not, nor has any one to my knowledge or belief, on my behalf, received or agreed to receive any fee, commission, or other thing of value whatsoever, out of the wages or other remuneration of any such seaman, and that I have not, nor has any one to my knowledge or belief, on my behalf, paid or agreed to pay any fee, commission, or other thing of value whatsoever to any person for the procuring or providing of any such seaman.

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO MASTER

The list contained below shall be referred to and used as a check list by the Inspectors and by each master before sailing from any port or place during the current voyage.

Any deficiency found by the Inspectors or by the master in equipment or in the operation of any part of the required equipment must be reported at once to the owner or his representative with a request that the deficiency be remedied before the vessel sails from any port or place during the current voyage.

EXTRACT FROM ACT OF CONGRESS OF FEBRUARY 8, 1917

SEC. 32. That every master of a vessel shall be the last person to leave the vessel in the case of shipwreck, and it shall be his duty to remain by the vessel with his crew until they have all been saved from such peril, and he shall not abandon any person who may be in danger on board until he has first ascertained that the assistance rendered by him to others will not be dangerous to the vessel, crew, or passengers. Every master who violates any provision of this section shall be liable to a penalty of $1,000, and his license may be suspended by the supervising inspectors for a period not exceeding twelve months, or may be revoked, in the discretion of the supervising inspectors, upon the production of evidence sufficient to establish the guilt of the master in the opinion of the said inspectors.

EXTRACT FROM SUBDIVISION B, RULE 7

The Commissioners shall not be required to consider any vessel until the plans required by rule 6 have been approved, and the vessel is ready in all respects for the inspection provided for by these rules.

EXTRACT FROM ACT OF CONGRESS APPROVED MAY 28, 1954

SEC. 10. No person employed upon any steamboat from the United States shall be allowed to work more than ten hours in any one day unless in case of extraordinary emergency, nor more than six days in any one week, nor be employed in any part of the United States upon any vessel not provided with the safety appliances required by law for the protection of life and limb, nor be employed upon any vessel which does not comply with the provisions of law relative to the number of pilots, engineers, and other employees that may be required on board of vessels of different classes and tonnage.

SEC. 30. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel carrying on the navigation between any port or place in the United States and any foreign port or place, or between any port or place in the United States and any port or place in the Canal Zone, or between any port or place in the Canal Zone and any foreign port or place, shall not allow such vessel to depart from any port or place in the United States or the Canal Zone unless there is on board such vessel a sufficient number of licensed officers and crew, adequately certificated and documented for the service in which they are engaged, to operate the vessel with safety to the vessel, the crew, and the passengers, and such vessel shall not be navigated unless the officers and crew on board are adequately certificated and documented for the service in which they are engaged.

(b) Any person who violates any provision of this section shall be liable to a penalty of $1,000 for each such violation, and the vessel may be libeled therefor in the district court of the United States for any district in which such vessel may be found. Clearance may be withheld from any vessel which has on board less than the number of licensed officers and crew required by this section.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor finds that determination of the legal minimum number of licensed officers and crew necessary to operate a vessel with safety to the vessel, the crew, and the passengers, and to prevent undue interference with the navigation of the vessel, cannot be made in accordance with the provisions of subsection (a) of this section, he may, upon application of the owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel, determine the number of licensed officers and crew necessary to operate the vessel with safety to the vessel, the crew, and the passengers, and to prevent undue interference with the navigation of the vessel, and issue to such vessel a certificate specifying the number of licensed officers and crew necessary to operate the vessel with safety to the vessel, the crew, and the passengers, and to prevent undue interference with the navigation of the vessel, and such vessel shall not be navigated unless there is on board such vessel the number of licensed officers and crew specified in such certificate.

(d) Any person who violates any provision of this section shall be liable to a penalty of $1,000 for each such violation, and the vessel may be libeled therefor in the district court of the United States for any district in which such vessel may be found. Clearance may be withheld from any vessel which has on board less than the number of licensed officers and crew required by this section.

(e) If the Secretary of Labor finds that determination of the legal minimum number of licensed officers and crew necessary to operate a vessel with safety to the vessel, the crew, and the passengers, and to prevent undue interference with the navigation of the vessel, cannot be made in accordance with the provisions of subsection (a) of this section, he may, upon application of the owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel, determine the number of licensed officers and crew necessary to operate the vessel with safety to the vessel, the crew, and the passengers, and to prevent undue interference with the navigation of the vessel, and issue to such vessel a certificate specifying the number of licensed officers and crew necessary to operate the vessel with safety to the vessel, the crew, and the passengers, and to prevent undue interference with the navigation of the vessel, and such vessel shall not be navigated unless there is on board such vessel the number of licensed officers and crew specified in such certificate.

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO MASTER

The list furnished herein shall be inspected on board vessel by the Immigrant Inspector at the port of arrival and the number of persons therein checked with the list. The list of citizens of each nationality must be complete, and each person must be accounted for by birth, death, or manifest. The list must be signed by the master or commanding officer, or first or second officer, and sworn to before the Immigrant Inspector. Any false statement in the list will cause the vessel to be detained at the discretion of the Immigrant Inspector at the port of arrival, and the master will be liable to a penalty of $1,000 for each alien omitted from the list. Any alien found on board not listed will be deported at the expense of the vessel. Attention is called to the fact that the Immigration Act of 1924 requires that every alien entering the United States shall be in possession of an unexpired immigration visa, except as provided in section 3 of the Act, and that every alien applying for admission must establish to the satisfaction of the Immigrant Inspector that he is not excluded from admission by any of the provisions of the Act. Every alien who has been in the United States and who intends, upon his return from a temporary visit abroad, to apply for admission to the United States within one year from the date of his departure therefrom, should secure from the American consul at the port of departure a certificate stating that he is entitled to return, which certificate will be viséed by the Immigrant Inspector at the port of arrival and will be accepted in lieu of a new visa.

EXTRACT FROM ACT OF CONGRESS OF FEBRUARY 5, 1917, AS AMENDED

SEC. 36. That when a vessel of any kind is in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the owner, agent, consignee, or master thereof to deliver to the immigrant inspector at the port of arrival a complete list of all aliens on board such vessel, showing the number and such information regarding each alien as may be required by the Commissioner General of Immigration and the Secretary of Labor, and it shall be the duty of such owner, agent, consignee, or master to deliver to each such immigrant inspector at the time of inspection a list containing such information regarding any such alien not mentioned in the list delivered as aforesaid as may be required by the Commissioner General of Immigration and the Secretary of Labor, and it shall be the duty of such owner, agent, consignee, or master to deliver to the immigrant inspector at the time of the departure of any such vessel from a foreign port for the United States a list containing such information regarding each alien on board such vessel as may be required by the Commissioner General of Immigration and the Secretary of Labor, and it shall be the duty of the master of every such vessel to prevent any person from leaving such vessel until the immigrant inspector has boarded such vessel for the purpose of inspection, or has given permission for the departure of such vessel, and it shall be the duty of the master of every such vessel to deliver to the immigrant inspector at the port of arrival a true list of all the crew provided in said vessel from and from or hence outward for inward voyage, and the master, owner, agent, consignee, or purser of every such vessel shall severally make oath before the immigrant inspector that the list or lists by him delivered are true lists of all the persons who were members of the crew or who were discharged therefrom at the port of arrival, and that he has not, nor has any person to his knowledge or belief, secreted or concealed any such person with intent to prevent his inspection and detention. Any person who knowingly violates any of the provisions of this section shall be fined not more than $1,000 or imprisoned not more than one year, or both. The Commissioner General of Immigration and the Secretary of Labor shall have power to enter any vessel or vehicle in which they believe aliens are being brought into the United States, and to search the same and the persons thereon, and any such alien found therein may be taken into custody without warrant and returned to the port from which he came, or may be detained, in the discretion of the Commissioner General of Immigration and the Secretary of Labor, pending inquiry into his right to enter or remain in the United States. Any person who shall bring into the United States any alien not duly entered at a port of entry shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be punished by a fine not exceeding $1,000 or by imprisonment not exceeding one year, or both, in the discretion of the court. Any person who shall knowingly bring into the United States any alien not duly entered at a port of entry, or who shall knowingly harbor any such alien,

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO MASTER

The list described below shall be prepared on blank forms approved by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigration inspector boarding the vessel at the port of arrival and shall in no instance be delayed in the delivery of the list. The list of aliens on board must be prepared in the order of the ports of call of the vessel, and shall not be corrected or changed by the master after the vessel has arrived at the port of arrival. When an alien seaman is a "stowaway," a notation to that effect should be made on the manifest. In order to facilitate inspection, names of aliens employed on each vessel should be shown in the order customary in the service of the vessel, as well as the names of aliens who are to be discharged in the port of arrival; or who have completed or intend to complete their voyage as members of the crew and desire to remain in the United States; all cases in which duty ends shall be noted. Aliens who are to be discharged, or desire to remain in the United States, must be presented for inspection before any of the crew are landed. Any alien seaman on board any vessel arriving at a port of the United States who refuses to submit to examination by the immigration officers, or who is certified by the medical officer of the vessel to be suffering from any of the diseases or mental or physical defects which would be ground for exclusion under the immigration laws, shall be detained on board the vessel at the option of the master, subject to such regulations as may be prescribed by the Commissioner of Immigration and Naturalization. Masters of vessels will be required to detain any alien seaman who has been ordered deported, pending the completion of arrangements for his departure, unless such alien seaman shall deposit with the Commissioner of Immigration and Naturalization at the port of arrival a sum sufficient to pay the cost of his maintenance while detained on board the vessel and the actual cost of his passage to the country to which he has been ordered deported, or unless such alien seaman shall furnish a bond with sufficient surety, satisfactory to the Commissioner of Immigration and Naturalization, conditioned upon the payment of such cost of maintenance and passage. Masters will be required to report the illness or death of any alien seaman occurring on board the vessel, and to deliver the personal effects of deceased aliens to the proper immigration officer for transmission to the Department of Labor. Masters will be required to report the illness or death of any alien seaman occurring on board the vessel, and to deliver the personal effects of deceased aliens to the proper immigration officer for transmission to the Department of Labor.

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO MASTER

The list furnished below shall be prepared on blank forms approved by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigration inspector boarding the vessel at the port of arrival, and shall in no instance be taken from the vessel. The list of members of the crew of each vessel arriving at a seaport of the United States from any foreign port or place (except persons employed in the service of the United States, persons employed on ferryboats plying between the United States and foreign contiguous territory, and persons employed on vessels touching at the seaports of Canada, Cuba, Mexico, Newfoundland, Miquelon, Bermuda, the Bahama Islands, the Virgin Islands, Puerto Rico, Haiti, Santo Domingo, the Canal Zone, and the Hawaiian Islands) shall be delivered to the immigrant inspector at the time of the vessel's arrival at the first port of entry in the United States, and no person shall be allowed to land from any vessel arriving at a seaport of the United States until the list has been delivered to the immigrant inspector and the inspection of the persons on board the vessel has been completed, except that the master, commanding officer, purser, surgeon, and crew list officer may be allowed to go ashore for the purpose of attending to the business of the vessel, but not for the purpose of engaging in any other business, or of visiting, before the inspection is completed, any place where aliens may be. The list shall be prepared in the order of the alphabetical arrangement of the surnames of the persons listed, and the first name, middle name or initial, age, sex, calling or occupation, and nationality of each person shall be entered in the proper space provided for each on the list. The nationality entered shall be that of the country of which the person last became a subject, citizen, or denizen, or, if he has not become a subject, citizen, or denizen of any country, that of the country in which he last had a permanent residence before coming to the United States. The last place of permanent residence shall be shown by the name of the country, and the name of the city, town, or village in which the person last had a permanent residence before coming to the United States shall be shown as nearly as possible. The destination in the United States of each person shall be shown by the name of the city, town, or village. The last preceding visit to the United States shall be shown by the name of the city, town, or village in which the person last had a permanent residence before coming to the United States. The name of the vessel on which each person last arrived at a port of the United States shall be shown. The date of arrival at the port shall be shown by the day, month, and year. Each person's age shall be shown by the number of years last birthday. Sex shall be shown by the letter "M" for male and "F" for female. Each person shall be described as married or single, as the case may be, by the letter "M" or "S," respectively. A person shall be deemed to be married only when living with husband or wife. Persons temporarily separated shall be described as married. Each person shall be described as to calling or occupation by the term which most nearly describes the work in which he is engaged. Persons having no calling or occupation shall be described by the term "none." Each person shall be described as to whether he can read or can not read. Any person who can read some form of printed or written language shall be considered a person who can read. Each person shall be described as to whether he is in good or poor health, mentally and physically, having regard to any obvious facts. Each person shall be described as to whether he has been in prison or in a almshouse or an asylum for the insane within five years previous to his coming to the United States, or is a polygamist, or is coming to the United States in pursuance of a prearranged contract or agreement to perform labor, skilled or unskilled, or is an anarchist, or is coming for an immoral purpose, or is a person who believes in or advocates the overthrow by force or violence of the Government of the United States or of all forms of law, or who disbelieves in or is opposed to organized government, or who advocates or teaches the duty, necessity, or propriety of the unlawful assaulting or killing of any officer or officers, either of specific individuals or of officers generally, of the Government of the United States or of any other organized government, because of his or their official character, or who advocates or teaches the unlawful destruction of property, or is a member of or affiliated with any organization entertaining, advocating, or teaching any of the doctrines above specified, or who is a member of or affiliated with any organization that writes, prints, publishes, or distributes any book, paper, document, or written or printed matter advocating, inculcating, or teaching the doctrines above specified, or who is the author of any such book, paper, document, or written or printed matter, or who knowingly procures the same to be written, printed, published, or circulated, or who has been deported as an alien certified to have been a member of any of the classes of persons described in section 19 of the Act of February 5, 1917, or who is a person likely to become a public charge, or who has a loathsome or dangerous contagious disease, or who has been convicted of a felony or other crime or misdemeanor involving moral turpitude, or who is a vagrant, or who is under sixteen years of age and not accompanied by father or mother, or who is under sixteen years of age and accompanied by father or mother if the father or mother does not present a certificate from the United States consular officer at the port of embarkation showing that the United States consular officer has investigated the case and is satisfied that the person is not coming for any of the purposes mentioned in section 19 of the Act of February 5, 1917, and that the person is not within any of the classes excluded by section 19 of the Act of February 5, 1917. Each person shall be described as to whether he has a ticket to his final destination in the United States, whether he has been assisted in coming by any society or person, whether he has the price of his passage, whether he has any money, and if so, how much, whether he has any relatives in the United States, and if so, what relatives, and how near, and whether he has been in the United States before, and if so, when and how long he remained, and whether he has been in any penal institution or almshouse or asylum for the insane or supported by charity, and if so, in what place or places. Each person shall be described as to whether he is coming to join relatives or friends, and if so, what relatives or friends, and their name and complete address, and whether he is coming to a position to which assured, and if so, what position, and the name and address of the employer. Each person shall be described as to whether he is an owner of a farm, and if so, the number of acres and the value, and whether he has been deported at any time as an alien or as a member of any of the classes excluded by law, and if so, when and why. Each person shall be described as to whether he has been in the United States previously, and if so, when and how long he remained, and where he lived and what he did while here, and whether he has been in military or naval service of the United States, and if so, when and where he served and in what capacity, and whether he has been refused admission to the United States, and if so, when and at what port. Each person shall be described as to whether he has a ticket through to his destination, and whether he has been assisted in coming by any society or person, and if so, what society or person, and whether he has been given transportation by any railroad company, and if so, what railroad company, and whether he has been given any money by any relative or friend, and if so, what relative or friend, and how much money he has with him, and whether he has been employed in the United States, and if so, when and by whom, and whether he intends to return to the United States, and whether he is going to a place where a friend or relative has procured employment for him, and if so, what friend or relative, and what the name and address of such friend or relative is, and whether he is joining a husband, father, or other relative in the United States, and if so, what relative, and his name and complete address, and whether he has been in prison or almshouse or asylum for the insane or supported by charity, and if so, in what place or places. Each person shall be described as to whether he is a polygamist, or is coming to the United States in pursuance of a prearranged contract or agreement to perform labor, skilled or unskilled, or is an anarchist, or is coming for an immoral purpose, or is a person who believes in or advocates the overthrow by force or violence of the Government of the United States or of all forms of law, or who disbelieves in or is opposed to organized government, or who advocates or teaches the duty, necessity, or propriety of the unlawful assaulting or killing of any officer or officers, either of specific individuals or of officers generally, of the Government of the United States or of any other organized government, because of his or their official character, or who advocates or teaches the unlawful destruction of property, or is a member of or affiliated with any organization entertaining, advocating, or teaching any of the doctrines above specified, or who is the author of any such book, paper, document, or written or printed matter advocating, inculcating, or teaching the doctrines above specified, or who knowingly procures the same to be written, printed, published, or circulated, or who has been deported as an alien certified to have been a member of any of the classes of persons described in section 19 of the Act of February 5, 1917, or who is a person likely to become a public charge, or who has a loathsome or dangerous contagious disease, or who has been convicted of a felony or other crime or misdemeanor involving moral turpitude, or who is a vagrant, or who is under sixteen years of age and not accompanied by father or mother, or who is under sixteen years of age and accompanied by father or mother if the father or mother does not present a certificate from the United States consular officer at the port of embarkation showing that the United States consular officer has investigated the case and is satisfied that the person is not coming for any of the purposes mentioned in section 19 of the Act of February 5, 1917, and that the person is not within any of the classes excluded by section 19 of the Act of February 5, 1917

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO MASTER

The list described below shall be furnished on blank forms approved by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigration inspector boarding the vessel on the port of arrival, and shall in no instance be taken from the vessel. The list of crews of vessels (Form I-418) shall not be required on board, but shall be delivered by the master to the immigrant inspector upon the departure of the vessel on which he is to be employed. All crews in foreign trade, as soon as practicable after arrival at a port in the United States, shall be examined by the immigrant inspector. Crews in coastwise trade may be examined at the discretion of the immigrant inspector. "Crew" means all persons actually employed and signed on the articles of the vessel during her stay in port. "Master" means the master, commander, or other person having command of the vessel. "Vessel" means every description of watercraft or other contrivance used or capable of being used as a means of transportation on water, but does not include aircraft. "Port of departure" is the port at which the alien last embarked. "Port of arrival" is the port at which the alien first lands after coming to the United States. "Immigrant inspector" means any immigrant inspector, special inquiry officer, or other officer or employee of the Service designated by the Commissioner of Immigration and Naturalization to perform the duties of an immigrant inspector.

SEC. 30. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof (except foreign vessels touching only at ports on the mainland of the United States, Alaska, Hawaii, Puerto Rico, or the Virgin Islands, and not thereafter touching at any port or place in a foreign territory or possession of the United States other than the Virgin Islands) shall, before the departure of such vessel from the port of arrival, deliver to the immigrant inspector at such port a list or manifest of all persons on board such vessel, whether passengers or members of the crew, who are not citizens of the United States, which list or manifest shall be prepared and sworn to by the master or commanding officer of such vessel, or by the purser, surgeon, or chief officer of such vessel if the master or commanding officer is incapacitated by reason of illness or otherwise, or is dead, and shall be in such form and contain such information as the Commissioner of Immigration and Naturalization shall prescribe, and shall be subscribed by the master or commanding officer of such vessel, or by the purser, surgeon, or chief officer of such vessel if the master or commanding officer is incapacitated by reason of illness or otherwise, or is dead, and shall be in the form prescribed by the Commissioner of Immigration and Naturalization. Such list or manifest shall show the full name, age, sex, calling or occupation (if any), whether married or single, the nationality, last permanent residence, and final destination of every such person, whether he has been in the United States previously or not, whether he has a ticket through to his destination, whether he has been in prison or in a almshouse or an asylum for the insane or supported by charity, whether he is in possession of sufficient money to pay his way after landing, whether he has been deported from the United States, whether he has a relative or friend in the United States, and if so, whether such relative or friend is the husband, wife, father, mother, grandfather, grandmother, brother, sister, uncle, aunt, first cousin, son, or daughter of such person, and the name and complete address of such relative or friend in the United States; whether such person is coming to the United States in pursuance of a prearranged contract or agreement to perform labor of any kind, skilled or unskilled, for any person or company in the United States, and if so, the name and address of such person or company; whether such person has ever been refused a visa as an immigrant or as a nonimmigrant by any consular officer, or has ever been excluded from admission to the United States, and if so, the date of such refusal or exclusion and the reason therefor; whether such person has ever been arrested or convicted for any crime or misdemeanor, and if so, the date of such arrest or conviction and the reason therefor; whether such person is a polygamist; whether such person is an anarchist; whether such person believes in or advocates the overthrow by force or violence of the Government of the United States or of all forms of law; whether such person is a member of or affiliated with any organization, society, or group that believes in, advises, advocates, or teaches the overthrow by force or violence of the Government of the United States or of all forms of law, or that disbelieves in or is opposed to organized government, or that advocates the assassination of public officials, or that advocates or teaches the unlawful destruction of property; whether such person has ever been a member of or affiliated with any such organization, society, or group, and if not, every such organization, society, or group to which such person may have had any membership or affiliation; whether such person is coming to the United States to perform skilled or unskilled labor and is not exempted by the provisions of the immigration laws; whether such person has a ticket or sufficient money or other means with which to pay his passage to his ultimate destination, and whether such passage has been paid for by such person or by others, and by whom such passage was paid; whether such person intends to become a citizen of the United States; whether such person is under contract or agreement of any kind whereby the labor or services of such person will be paid for or furnished after entry to any other person or persons or company, partnership, corporation, or other employer, and if so, the nature of such contract or agreement; whether such person has been deported from the United States, and if so, how many times; whether such person is a stowaway; whether such person is coming in pursuance of the terms of any treaty or convention between the United States and any foreign country, and if so, the name of such country; whether such person is a person of constitutional psychopathic inferiority; whether such person is a person who has been convicted of or admits the commission of a felony or other crime or misdemeanor involving moral turpitude, or who admits the commission of acts which constitute the essential elements of such crime or misdemeanor, but only if the offense was committed or the admission was made subsequent to the effective date of the Immigration Act of 1924 (43 Stat. 153); and whether such person is a person who has been convicted of or admits having violated any law relating to the illicit traffic in narcotic drugs or marihuana, and if so, whether such person has been convicted of or admits having violated any such law after being excluded and deported or after having departed from the United States after such conviction. Such list or manifest shall show the place in the United States where such person is going, if known, and the name and complete address of the person or persons in the United States whom such person intends to visit or with whom such person intends to reside, if known, and such other information as may be prescribed by the Commissioner of Immigration and Naturalization for the proper identification of the persons listed. Every such master, commanding officer, purser, surgeon, or chief officer shall also deliver to the immigrant inspector at the time of the departure of the vessel from the last port in a foreign country at which such vessel may touch on her way to the United States a list containing the name of every person who has been ordered deported from the United States who is on board such vessel and who is not then destined to the United States, and the cause of deportation of each such person, and the final destination of each such person. Such list or manifest shall be prepared in such manner and contain such information as may be prescribed by the Commissioner of Immigration and Naturalization. Such list or manifest shall be subscribed and sworn to by the master or commanding officer of such vessel, or by the purser, surgeon, or chief officer of such vessel if the master or commanding officer is incapacitated by reason of illness or otherwise, or is dead, and shall be in such form and contain such information as may be prescribed by the Commissioner of Immigration and Naturalization. Such list or manifest shall be delivered to the immigrant inspector at the port of arrival, and shall in no instance be taken from the vessel. The list of crews of vessels (Form I-418) shall not be required on board, but shall be delivered by the master to the immigrant inspector at the port of arrival, and such vessel may not depart from the United States for foreign territory or possession of the United States other than the Virgin Islands until such list or manifest is delivered. "Master" means the master, commander, or other person having command of the vessel. "Vessel" means every description of watercraft or other contrivance used or capable of being used as a means of transportation on water, but does not include aircraft. "Port of departure" is the port at which the alien last embarked. "Port of arrival" is the port at which the alien first lands after coming to the United States. "Immigrant inspector" means any immigrant inspector, special inquiry officer, or other officer or employee of the Service designated by the Commissioner of Immigration and Naturalization to perform the duties of an immigrant inspector. (U.S.C., 1940 ed., title 8, sec. 136.)

EXTRACT FROM ACT OF CONGRESS OF FEBRUARY 5, 1917, AS AMENDED

SEC. 36. That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the master, commander, or other person in charge of the part of vessel last coming into the limits of the United States to report and present at the office of the immigrant inspector in charge at the port of arrival, and such vessel shall not be allowed to proceed to any other port or place in the United States, and no person shall be allowed to land from such vessel, except in case of accident, until the master, commander, or other person in charge of such vessel shall have reported and delivered to the immigrant inspector in charge at such port of arrival a list or manifest of all the persons on board such vessel, whether cabin passengers or members of the crew, who are not citizens of the United States, which list or manifest shall be prepared and sworn to by the master, commander, or other person in charge of such vessel, or by the purser, surgeon, or chief officer of such vessel if the master, commander, or other person in charge of such vessel is incapacitated by reason of illness or otherwise, or is dead, and shall be in the form prescribed by the Commissioner of Immigration and Naturalization, and shall contain such information as may be prescribed by the Commissioner of Immigration and Naturalization with the approval of the Secretary of Labor touching the right to admission of each person named therein, and such other information as may be required by the immigrant inspector in charge at such port of arrival. The list or manifest of passengers (Form I-418) shall not be required on board, but shall be delivered by the master to the immigrant inspector at the port of arrival, and such vessel may not depart from the United States for foreign territory or possession of the United States other than the Virgin Islands until such list or manifest is delivered. "Master" means the master, commander, or other person having command of the vessel. "Vessel" means every description of watercraft or other contrivance used or capable of being used as a means of transportation on water, but does not include aircraft. "Port of departure" is the port at which the alien last embarked. "Port of arrival" is the port at which the alien first lands after coming to the United States. "Immigrant inspector" means any immigrant inspector, special inquiry officer, or other officer or employee of the Service designated by the Commissioner of Immigration and Naturalization to perform the duties of an immigrant inspector. (U.S.C., 1940 ed., title 8, sec. 136.)

EXTRACT FROM 8 CFR 150

SEC. 150.15. Lists of alien employees; when deliverable. Copies shall not be required for vessels until the lists required by section 30 of the Immigration Act of 1924 (43 Stat. 166; 8 U.S.C. 131) have been prepared, and not then unless notice to the administrative inspector pursuant to said section or to that prescribed by section 32 of said Act (43 Stat. 166; 8 U.S.C. 136) has been made.

Inquiry to the administrative inspector should specify the date of arrival of the vessel, the name of the port from which it arrived, and the name and address of the person to whom the copies are to be delivered.

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 15. No alien seaman admitted from adjacent foreign territory or adjacent islands, other than an alien crewman employed on board a vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, or transiting through any such place, shall be permitted to land in the United States except temporarily for medical treatment, or because of injury or emergency, or for such period of time as may be necessary to secure transportation for his departure and subject to such conditions as may be prescribed by the Commissioner of Immigration and Naturalization, unless he is in possession of a valid unexpired immigrant visa or reentry permit or other travel document or is otherwise admissible under this Act. Such seaman may be granted a conditional permit to remain in the United States solely for the purpose of obtaining necessary medical treatment, or because of injury or emergency, for such period of time as may be necessary for such purpose. Such seaman may be granted a conditional permit to remain in the United States solely for the purpose of performing labor for a specific employer, for a period not to exceed four months, if the Secretary of Labor has determined and certified to the Secretary of State and the Attorney General that the employment of such seaman is necessary to the employer to prevent him from suffering undue hardship and that the employment of such seaman will not displace any worker then employed in the United States who is available for such employment. Such seaman may be granted a conditional permit to remain in the United States solely for the purpose of obtaining temporary employment as a member of the crew of a vessel other than the vessel on which he arrived, and such permit may be granted for such period of time as may be necessary for such purpose, but not to exceed four months, if the Secretary of Labor has determined and certified to the Secretary of State and the Attorney General that the employment of such seaman is necessary to the employer to prevent him from suffering undue hardship and that the employment of such seaman will not displace any worker then employed in the United States who is available for such employment. Such seaman may be granted a conditional permit to remain in the United States temporarily because of the refusal of a country to accept his return, or because the transportation of such seaman is unavailable or impracticable, or because such seaman cannot be returned because his country has severed diplomatic relations with the United States or has been occupied by military forces, or because such seaman is needed in the United States as a witness in connection with the trial of criminal cases under the laws of the United States, or because such seaman has been certified by a public health officer of the United States as helpful in connection with the control of communicable disease, under such conditions as may be prescribed in each case by the Commissioner of Immigration and Naturalization. Such seaman may be granted a conditional permit to remain in the United States temporarily as an alien crewman when, in the judgment of the Commissioner of Immigration and Naturalization, it is necessary for the purpose of prosecuting charges of violations of the immigration laws, or for the purpose of giving testimony in connection with the prosecution of such charges, and such seaman may be required to post a bond for his departure from the United States upon the completion of the purpose for which he was granted such permit. Such seaman may be granted a conditional permit to remain in the United States temporarily as an alien crewman when, in the judgment of the Commissioner of Immigration and Naturalization, it is necessary for the purpose of assisting in the investigation of the activities of persons who are engaged in the importation of narcotic drugs into the United States, and such seaman may be required to post a bond for his departure from the United States upon the completion of the purpose for which he was granted such permit. Nothing in this section shall be construed to entitle any alien crewman referred to in this section to be admitted to the United States under any provision of this Act other than this section, or to relieve any such alien crewman from the necessity of obtaining a visa if he is required by such section to obtain a visa as a condition precedent to admission. (June 27, 1952, ch. 477, title II, ch. 8, sec. 252, 66 Stat. 233.)

(a) Any alien seaman who shall not depart from the United States with the vessel on which he arrived, or on some other vessel, within the period of time specified by the immigrant inspector at the time of the granting of the conditional permit provided for in section 252 of this Act, or within such period of time as may be extended by the Commissioner of Immigration and Naturalization, shall be deported in the manner provided by section 19 of this Act to the country in which he was born or of which he was a subject or citizen at the time of his entry into the United States, or to the country in which he resided prior to his entry into the United States, as the Commissioner of Immigration and Naturalization may direct. Any alien seaman who shall not depart from the United States with the vessel on which he arrived, or on some other vessel, within the period of time specified by the immigrant inspector at the time of the granting of the conditional permit provided for in section 252 of this Act, or within such period of time as may be extended by the Commissioner of Immigration and Naturalization, shall be deported in the manner provided by section 19 of this Act to the country in which he was born or of which he was a subject or citizen at the time of his entry into the United States, or to the country in which he resided prior to his entry into the United States, as the Commissioner of Immigration and Naturalization may direct. Any alien seaman who shall not depart from the United States with the vessel on which he arrived, or on some other vessel, within the period of time specified by the immigrant inspector at the time of the granting of the conditional permit provided for in section 252 of this Act, or within such period of time as may be extended by the Commissioner of Immigration and Naturalization, shall be deported in the manner provided by section 19 of this Act to the country in which he was born or of which he was a subject or citizen at the time of his entry into the United States, or to the country in which he resided prior to his entry into the United States, as the Commissioner of Immigration and Naturalization may direct. Any alien seaman who shall not depart from the United States with the vessel on which he arrived, or on some other vessel, within the period of time specified by the immigrant inspector at the time of the granting of the conditional permit provided for in section 252 of this Act, or within such period of time as may be extended by the Commissioner of Immigration and Naturalization, shall be deported in the manner provided by section 19 of this Act to the country in which he was born or of which he was a subject or citizen at the time of his entry into the United States, or to the country in which he resided prior to his entry into the United States, as the Commissioner of Immigration and Naturalization may direct. Any alien seaman who shall not depart from the United States with the vessel on which he arrived, or on some other vessel, within the period of time specified by the immigrant inspector at the time of the granting of the conditional permit provided for in section 252 of this Act, or within such period of time as may be extended by the Commissioner of Immigration and Naturalization, shall be deported in the manner provided by section 19 of this Act to the country in which he was born or of which he was a subject or citizen at the time of his entry into the United States, or to the country in which he resided prior to his entry into the United States, as the Commissioner of Immigration and Naturalization may direct.

(b) Any alien seaman who shall not depart from the United States with the vessel on which he arrived in the United States from any foreign port or place, or on a vessel on which he arrived in the United States from any foreign port or place, shall be deported in the manner provided by section 19 of this Act to the country in which he was born or of which he was a subject or citizen at the time of his entry into the United States, or to the country in which he resided prior to his entry into the United States, as the Commissioner of Immigration and Naturalization may direct. Any alien seaman who shall not depart from the United States with the vessel on which he arrived in the United States from any foreign port or place, or on a vessel on which he arrived in the United States from any foreign port or place, shall be deported in the manner provided by section 19 of this Act to the country in which he was born or of which he was a subject or citizen at the time of his entry into the United States, or to the country in which he resided prior to his entry into the United States, as the Commissioner of Immigration and Naturalization may direct.

(c) If the Attorney General finds that deportation of the alien seaman on the vessel on which he arrived would cause undue hardship to such seaman he may cause him to be deported on another vessel at the expense of the vessel on which he arrived, and such vessel shall not be granted clearance until such expense has been paid or it be otherwise guaranteed to the satisfaction of the Attorney General.

(d) Any alien seaman who shall not appear upon the conference manifest of the vessel on which he arrived in the United States from any foreign port or place, or who shall not be found on board such vessel upon her departure from the United States, shall be presumed to have remained in the United States for the purpose of permanent residence therein, and shall be reported to the Commissioner of Immigration and Naturalization for such action as may be deemed necessary. (U.S.C., 1940 ed., title 8, sec. 203.)

EXTRACT FROM ACT OF CONGRESS OF FEBRUARY 5, 1917, AS AMENDED

SEC. 36. That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the master, commander, or other person in charge of the part of vessel last coming into the limits of the United States to report and present at the office of the immigrant inspector in charge at the port of arrival, and such vessel shall not be allowed to proceed to any other port or place in the United States, and no person shall be allowed to land from such vessel, except in case of accident, until the master, commander, or other person in charge of such vessel shall have reported and delivered to the immigrant inspector in charge at such port of arrival a list or manifest of all the persons on board such vessel, whether cabin passengers or members of the crew, who are not citizens of the United States, which list or manifest shall be prepared and sworn to by the master, commander, or other person in charge of such vessel, or by the purser, surgeon, or chief officer of such vessel if the master, commander, or other person in charge of such vessel is incapacitated by reason of illness or otherwise, or is dead, and shall be in the form prescribed by the Commissioner of Immigration and Naturalization, and shall contain such information as may be prescribed by the Commissioner of Immigration and Naturalization with the approval of the Secretary of Labor touching the right to admission of each person named therein, and such other information as may be required by the immigrant inspector in charge at such port of arrival. The list or manifest of passengers (Form I-418) shall not be required on board, but shall be delivered by the master to the immigrant inspector at the port of arrival, and such vessel may not depart from the United States for foreign territory or possession of the United States other than the Virgin Islands until such list or manifest is delivered. "Master" means the master, commander, or other person having command of the vessel. "Vessel" means every description of watercraft or other contrivance used or capable of being used as a means of transportation on water, but does not include aircraft. "Port of departure" is the port at which the alien last embarked. "Port of arrival" is the port at which the alien first lands after coming to the United States. IMPORTANT NOTICE TO MASTER

The list described below shall be prepared on blank forms approved by the Department and may be ready for delivery to the immigration inspector possibly the vessel at the port of arrival, but shall in no instance be taken from the vessel. The list of changes or additional members of crews (Form 6A) shall not be required on board, but shall be delivered by the master to the principal immigration officer at the port of arrival (Form 6B) before any member is allowed to land.

EXTRACT FROM ACT OF CONGRESS OF FEBRUARY 5, 1917

SEC. 36. That upon arrival by vessel in the United States from any foreign port or upon the departure of any vessel from one port of the United States to another, every master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer of such vessel shall deliver to the immigrant inspector at the port of arrival a list or manifest of all aliens, including accompanying wives and children, who may be on board such vessel, setting down the following information in regard to each alien: Full name, age, sex, married or single, calling or occupation, whether able to read or write, nationality, last residence, seaport for landing in the United States, final destination if any beyond, whether having a ticket through, whether the passage is paid by himself or by other person or by the government, whether in possession of money, and if so how much, whether going to join a relative or friend, and if so what relative or friend and his name and complete address, whether ever before in the United States and if so when and where, whether ever in prison or almshouse or supported by charity, whether a polygamist, whether an anarchist, whether coming by reason of any offer, solicitation, promise, agreement, or arrangement of any kind to perform labor in the United States, whether connected with any labor trouble, whether an idiot, whether deaf, dumb, blind, or crippled, and whether any relative or friend will be supported by him until able to work, and such other information as may be required by the Secretary of Labor. The master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer of any such vessel shall also report the names of all aliens employed thereon at the time of the arrival of such vessel at any port of the United States, and shall not permit any such alien to land at any port of the United States until a permit so to land has been granted by the inspector in charge at such port, except as provided in section 37 of this Act. Upon the refusal by the master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer of any such vessel to deliver such list or any part thereof, or upon the refusal of the master to deliver a separate list when required so to do, or upon the refusal of any such master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer to furnish the information required by this section, or upon the giving of false information in response thereto, he shall be liable to a penalty of $10 for each alien concerning whom such information is required, but not furnished, or concerning whom false information is furnished, and no clearance shall be granted any vessel liable to such penalty until the same is paid or sufficient security given therefor, but clearance may be granted prior to the determination of any question relative to such penalty upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such penalty.

EXTRACT FROM SUBDIVISION B, RULE 7

PAR. 6. Clearance shall not be granted any vessel until the list required by section 36 of the Act of February 5, 1917, shall have been delivered by section 35 of the Act, and a like number of duplicates to the administrative time prescribed by rule section 37 to time prescribed by section 38 of the Act, and a like number of duplicates to the administrative time prescribed by rule section 37 to time prescribed by section 38 of the Act, and a like number of duplicates to the administrative time prescribed by rule section 37 to time prescribed by section 38 of the Act of February 5, 1917, have been delivered by the master to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the same, and, in the event such list is not delivered, while it remains unlawful for such alien to land, clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine.

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 16. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws and employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any foreign country shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or hospitalization, or because of sickness or injury certified by the medical officer in charge at the port of arrival, and then only under such regulations as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe for the protection of the United States. Any such alien seaman who shall land in the United States in violation hereof, except as provided in section 3 hereof, shall be deported in the manner provided by section 19 hereof, and shall be deported to the country to which he belongs, or from which he came to the United States, at the expense of the appropriation for the enforcement of this Act, unless the master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer of the vessel on which he arrived in the United States shall pay the cost of his deportation and shall furnish a bond in such amount, not exceeding $300, as may be required by the Secretary of Labor, conditioned that such alien seaman shall be deported in such manner and within such time as may be prescribed by the Secretary of Labor. Such alien seaman may be required to remain on board while in port or detained on shore, as may be necessary to assure his deportation, and shall be deported on the vessel on which he arrived in the United States unless the Secretary of Labor finds that deportation on another vessel or in another manner is to be preferred, and shall not be granted clearance until such expenses have been paid or the payment guaranteed to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor finds that deportation on another vessel or in the manner provided in the preceding paragraph would cause undue hardship to such alien seaman by reason of whom such detention occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance during the detention of such alien seaman in respect of whom such detention occurs, except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination of the Secretary of Labor to do so, shall pay to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $1,000 for each alien seaman in respect of whom such detention occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance during the detention of the immigrant inspector on board, after such inspection or to which such seaman if required by such immigration officer at the time of arrival for examination by the medical officer). Secretary of Labor to do so, shall pay to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $1,000 for each alien seaman in respect of whom such detention occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance during the detention of such alien seaman on board after such inspection or to which such seaman if required by such immigration officer at the time of arrival for examination by the medical officer). Secretary of Labor to do so, shall pay to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $1,000 for each alien seaman in respect of whom such detention occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance during the detention of such alien seaman on board after such inspection or to which such seaman if required by such immigration officer at the time of arrival for examination by the medical officer).

(d) Every alien seaman who shall not depart from the United States in all cases shall furnish a personal physical examination by such immigration officer at the time of arrival for examination by the medical officer).

(e) Every alien seaman who shall not depart from the United States in all cases shall furnish a personal physical examination by such immigration officer at the time of arrival for examination by the medical officer).

SEC. 50. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside the United States who shall refuse to obtain such seaman on board such vessel when ordered by the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival for examination by the medical officer, or because of sickness or injury certified by the medical officer, or to have such seaman on board such vessel when ordered by the immigration officer at the time

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO MASTER

The list described below shall be furnished on blank forms authorized by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigration inspector at the port of arrival and shall in no instance be taken after the vessel has cleared. The list or manifest shall be prepared and signed by the master or commanding officer of each vessel, and in case of his death, illness, or absence, by the first officer, second officer, or other person next in command. It must be delivered intact to the immigration officer at the port of arrival and must be legible. Any changes or additions necessary to be made in the list must be made by the officer who prepared it, and each such change must be initialed by him. Should the list be illegible, or should any changes or additions be made by persons other than the officers who prepared the list, the master will be required to certify to each such change or addition before the list will be accepted. Each list must be signed in ink by the master, commanding officer, purser, or surgeon of the vessel (first choice preferred), and the place of signing must be stated. Erasures must be initialed by the person making them. Carefully follow the headings of the columns, and see that your answers are in the proper columns. Do not abbreviate, and do not use ditto marks. Make no change in the form of the list. Number consecutively, beginning with number 1 for the first passenger in each class on each vessel. Write the name of each passenger in full, giving the Christian name first, then the surname, as Mary Smith, not M. Smith. Give the age of each passenger, and if less than 1 year, state whether in months or days, as 6 months or 10 days. Write "male" or "female" after each name, as the sex may require. Give the calling or occupation of each passenger, if any, as clerk, servant, laborer, etc. Do not use such indefinite terms as "gentleman," "lady," "none," or "scholar." Give the nationality of each passenger, as Scotch, Irish, Welsh, English, German, Swedish, Norwegian, Finnish, Russian, Polish, Dutch, Belgian, French, Spanish, Portuguese, Italian, Austrian, Hungarian, Servian, Croatian, Bohemian, Slovak, Greek, Turkish, Armenian, Syrian, Japanese, Chinese, Hindu, East Indian, Mexican, Cuban, Haitian, or other West Indian, Central American, South American, Pacific Islander, Filipino, Negro, or other race or people. IMPORTANT NOTICE TO MASTER

The list described below shall be printed on blank forms approved by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigrant inspector at the port of arrival, and shall in no instance be taken from the vessel. The list of changes of ship's name, number of vessel (Lloyd's only) shall not be inserted on board, but shall be delivered by the master to the principal immigration officer at the port of arrival; or there continue as long as such officer may be on board the vessel for the purpose of boarding the vessel at quarantine. Such list shall be delivered by the master to the immigrant inspector boarding the vessel at the port of arrival, and shall in no instance be taken from the vessel. Any change, addition, or omission made in such list otherwise than as provided by law shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 and imprisonment for not more than one year.

EXTRACT FROM ACT OF CONGRESS OF FEBRUARY 5, 1917

SEC. 36. That alien arrivals at any seaport in the United States from any foreign port or place shall be in the charge of the master, owner, agent, consignee, or master thereof, who shall be responsible for the proper landing of all aliens brought to the port, and for the payment of the head tax provided for by this Act, and for the proper maintenance of all aliens detained on board such vessel, whether by the immigration officer in charge of the port of arrival, by the Secretary of Labor, or by the board of special inquiry, and for the return of any alien who may be excluded from admission to the United States, and for the return of any alien who may be deported under the provisions of this Act, to the last port at which such alien shall have embarked, or to the country from which he came to the United States, at the option of the master, owner, agent, consignee, or master of such vessel, and for the prompt and efficient performance by the master of all other duties imposed by this Act or by the Secretary of Labor in relation thereto. And after the arrival at any such seaport it shall be the duty of the master, owner, agent, consignee, or master of such vessel to report to such immigration officer, in writing, as soon as discovered, all cases of alien passengers found on board such vessel not disclosed in the port of arrival; or later communicate as ordered by such officer, and to deliver to such immigration officer at the time of port departure a list containing the name of every alien passenger who has been reported by the master, owner, agent, consignee, or master of such vessel to the immigrant inspector at the port of arrival, and the name of every alien passenger who has been brought to the United States on such vessel and not reported, and the cause for such failure to report each such alien passenger. The master, owner, agent, consignee, or master of such vessel shall also furnish such information as may be required by the Secretary of Labor concerning the health, nationality, last permanent residence, and intended future residence of each alien passenger who was brought to the United States on such vessel, whether reported by the master to the immigrant inspector at the port of arrival or not. Such information shall be furnished in such form and detail as the Secretary of Labor may require. Any master, owner, agent, consignee, or master of such vessel who refuses or fails to comply with the requirements of this section, or with any lawful rule or regulation made by the Secretary of Labor in pursuance thereof, shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 for each such offense. The master of any such vessel shall be entitled to demand and receive from any such alien passenger who was not furnished by the owners of such vessel with a ticket or passage through to a final destination the cost of transportation from the last port at which such passenger embarked to the port of arrival in the United States, which cost shall be a lien upon such passenger, enforcible by civil suit, and shall be in addition to any other penalty or charge provided by this Act. The master of any such vessel who shall land or permit to be landed any alien passenger brought to the United States on such vessel, except in case of stress of weather or other unavoidable cause, at any port or place other than a port of entry designated by the Secretary of Labor for the entry of such passenger, shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 for each such passenger landed. The master of any such vessel who shall refuse to detain on board thereof any alien passenger ordered by any officer in the United States from any place outside the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or because of sickness or disability likely to affect the safety or health of other passengers, or who shall refuse to receive back on board such vessel any alien passenger who may have been temporarily landed for such medical treatment, or who shall refuse to take such alien passenger to the port for which such vessel has cleared, shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 for each such offense. The Secretary of Labor shall, in his discretion, refuse to issue clearance papers to any vessel having on board any alien certificate, record, or report required by this Act to be made, kept, or procured concerning any alien passenger, or any such certificate, record, or report which is incomplete or inaccurate in any material respect, until such certificate, record, or report is made complete and accurate to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor. Clearance may be withheld by the collector of customs of the district from which any vessel is about to depart from a port in the United States to any foreign port or place, pending the decision of the Secretary of Labor in cases where the question of clearance is raised by any officer of customs or immigration.

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 13. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws and employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any foreign port or for the coastwise trade, or because he shall have deserted, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or because he shall be certified by the Secretary of Labor as a member of a class of aliens entitled to enter the United States solely, or as an incident to, service on board such vessel, or in the discretion of the Secretary of Labor after the arrival of such vessel, and upon the conditions specified by him, and shall be deported in the manner provided for the deportation of aliens who have entered the United States unlawfully. The cost of maintenance while in hospital of any alien seaman suffering from any contagious disease, or of any alien seaman who is certified by the medical officer of the port as helpless from sickness or injury or as likely to become a public charge, shall be paid by the master, agent, consignee, or owner of the vessel on which such alien seaman arrived in the United States. Any alien seaman who shall land in the United States in violation of this section shall be deported as provided in sections 19 and 20 of this Act, and shall be refused admission to the United States on any subsequent arrival thereof. Any master, agent, consignee, or owner of any vessel who shall refuse to pay the cost of maintenance of any alien seaman as provided in this section, or who shall refuse to pay any fine imposed upon him by the Secretary of Labor under the provisions of this section, shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 for each alien seaman in respect of whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance papers pending the determination of the liability to payment of such fine, or while the fine remains unpaid, except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine, or of a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof approved by the collector of customs.

(b) Every alien seaman (within the meaning of this section) employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside the United States, or on the coastwise trade, who shall desert, or who shall be found in the United States in violation of this section, or who shall not depart therefrom with the vessel on which he arrived in the United States or on any other vessel leaving the United States within such time as the Secretary of Labor may require, shall be deported in the manner provided for the deportation of aliens who have entered the United States unlawfully. The cost of maintenance while in hospital of any alien seaman suffering from any contagious disease, or of any alien seaman who is certified by the medical officer of the port as helpless from sickness or injury or as likely to become a public charge, shall be paid by the master, agent, consignee, or owner of the vessel on which such alien seaman arrived in the United States. Any alien seaman who shall land in the United States in violation of this section shall be deported as provided in sections 19 and 20 of this Act, and shall be refused admission to the United States on any subsequent arrival thereof. Any master, agent, consignee, or owner of any vessel who shall refuse to pay the cost of maintenance of any alien seaman as provided in this section, or who shall refuse to pay any fine imposed upon him by the Secretary of Labor under the provisions of this section, shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 for each alien seaman in respect of whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance papers pending the determination of the liability to payment of such fine, or while the fine remains unpaid, except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine, or of a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof approved by the collector of customs.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor finds that deportation of the alien seaman on the vessel on which he arrived and such vessel may be immediately available for the return of deported alien seamen may not cause him to be detained on another vessel at the expense of the vessel on which he arrived, and such vessel may be granted clearance until such expense has been paid or its payment guaranteed to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor.

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO MASTER

The law requires that every alien passenger who is brought to the United States shall be given a careful physical examination before he is admitted to the country, and that certain aliens who are destitute or likely to become a public charge are excluded from admission to the United States. Masters of vessels will be subject to a fine of $300 for each violation of the immigration laws. Any alien who is found to be afflicted with a loathsome or dangerous contagious disease will be detained at the expense of the steamship company bringing him to the United States, and if he is found to be afflicted with such disease at the time of his application for admission or within five years thereafter and the cause existed prior to his admission, he will be deported at the expense of the steamship company bringing him to the United States. Masters of vessels will not be allowed to land passengers until the inspection is completed, and passengers must not leave the dock at which the vessel is docked until they have been duly inspected and passed by the immigrant inspectors. Masters of vessels will be required to detain any passenger alien who may be certified to them for special examination by the immigrant inspectors at the request of the Secretary of Labor, and the cost of maintaining such alien while detained will be exacted from the steamship company which brought him to the United States. Masters of vessels will not be allowed to take from the United States any alien who has been refused a landing certificate, or who has been ordered deported, unless such alien shall have been detained on board the vessel after the decision in his case was rendered until the departure of the vessel from the United States, and masters of vessels will be required to deliver such aliens to the immigrant inspectors at the time of departure of the vessel from the United States. Masters of vessels will not be allowed to take away any alien who is under a bond to appear at a hearing before the Secretary of Labor or a board of special inquiry unless such master shall have been notified that such hearing has been waived or such bond canceled. Masters of vessels will be required to report the illness or death of any alien on board such vessel, and to deliver such alien for examination before a medical officer of the United States Public Health Service at the port of arrival in the United States, or at the next port at which the vessel touches if such illness or death of such alien shall not have been reported at the port of departure or if such alien was not then landed. Masters of vessels will be required to detain any alien on board such vessel who shall have been certified to them for special examination before a board of special inquiry at the request of the Secretary of Labor, and the cost of maintaining such alien while detained will be exacted from the steamship company which brought him to the United States. Masters of vessels will not be allowed to bring to the United States any alien who has been certified by a medical officer of the United States Public Health Service at the port of departure or at any intermediate port at which the vessel may call as being afflicted with a loathsome or dangerous contagious disease, unless such alien shall have been specially examined by a medical officer of the United States Public Health Service at the port of departure and found not to be afflicted with such disease, and masters of vessels will be required to detain any alien who shall develop symptoms of such disease during the voyage, and to report such case upon arrival at any port in the United States to the medical officer of the Public Health Service at such port, and to detain such alien in quarantine if required to do so by such medical officer. Masters of vessels will be required to report the sickness or death of any stowaway, and to detain any stowaway for examination by the immigrant inspectors at the port of arrival in the United States. Masters of vessels will be required to deliver lists or manifests of all passengers carried, which lists or manifests shall be prepared at such time and in such form as may be prescribed by the Secretary of Labor, and to answer truthfully all questions propounded to masters or passengers by the immigrant inspectors. Masters of vessels will be required to deliver to each alien who may be certified to special inquiry at the port of arrival a landing card furnished by the Secretary of Labor, which said card the said alien must present to the immigrant inspectors at the time of his inspection.

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 13. (a) No alien seaman shall be employed on board any vessel of the United States unless such seaman shall be lawfully admitted to the United States for permanent residence or unless such seaman is in possession of a valid passport and a seaman's identification certificate issued by the consular officer at the port at which such seaman was engaged, or, if such seaman was engaged at a port not in a foreign country, by the consular officer at the first port at which such seaman arrives after such engagement. Such passport and seaman's identification certificate shall be in such form as may be prescribed by the Secretary of State and the Secretary of Labor, respectively, and shall contain such information as may be necessary to establish the identity of the alien seaman. Such seaman's identification certificate shall be valid for a period of two years from the date of issuance thereof, unless sooner revoked by the Secretary of Labor, and shall be subject to such rules and regulations as may be prescribed by the Secretary of Labor. Such seaman's identification certificate shall be surrendered by such seaman to the immigrant inspector at the port of arrival in the United States, and by such inspector delivered to the master of the vessel upon which such seaman is to be employed, upon the departure of such vessel from such port. Such seaman's identification certificate shall be surrendered by such seaman to the immigrant inspector at the port of departure from the United States, and by such inspector delivered to the master of the vessel upon which such seaman is to be employed, upon the departure of such vessel from such port. Such seaman's identification certificate shall be surrendered by such seaman to the immigrant inspector at the port of arrival in the United States, and by such inspector delivered to the master of the vessel upon which such seaman is to be employed, upon the departure of such vessel from such port. Such seaman's identification certificate shall be surrendered by such seaman to the immigrant inspector at the port of departure from the United States, and by such inspector delivered to the master of the vessel upon which such seaman is to be employed, upon the departure of such vessel from such port.

(b) If the Secretary of Labor shall determine that the owner, master, agent, consignee, or purser of any vessel has failed to comply with the provisions of subdivision (a) of this section, or with any rule or regulation made thereunder, such owner, master, agent, consignee, or purser shall pay to the collector of customs for the district in which the vessel may arrive a penalty of $300 for each such failure to comply. Clearance of any such vessel may be withheld until such penalty is paid or until a bond in such amount as may be required by the Secretary of Labor is given to assure the payment of such penalty. Such penalty may be remitted or mitigated by the Secretary of Labor upon such terms as he shall deem proper, if he shall be satisfied that such failure to comply was excusable or was not intentional. Such penalty shall be a lien upon the vessel with respect to which it was incurred, and may be recovered by proceedings against such vessel in the district court of the United States for the district in which such vessel may arrive.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor shall determine that the owner, master, agent, consignee, or purser of any vessel has failed to comply with the provisions of subdivision (a) of this section, or with any rule or regulation made thereunder, such owner, master, agent, consignee, or purser shall pay to the collector of customs for the district in which the vessel may arrive a penalty of $300 for each such failure to comply. Clearance of any such vessel may be withheld until such penalty is paid or until a bond in such amount as may be required by the Secretary of Labor is given to assure the payment of such penalty. Such penalty may be remitted or mitigated by the Secretary of Labor upon such terms as he shall deem proper, if he shall be satisfied that such failure to comply was excusable or was not intentional. Such penalty shall be a lien upon the vessel with respect to which it was incurred, and may be recovered by proceedings against such vessel in the district court of the United States for the district in which such vessel may arrive.

EXTRACT FROM SUBDIVISION B, RULE 7

THE U. S. Commissioner shall not be required and cannot legally be required by section 25 of the Act of February 5, 1917, to furnish free transportation to any alien found not to have been lawfully admitted and who shall be ordered deported by the Secretary of Labor, but such alien must furnish from personal funds the necessary transportation to the port or place whence he came to the United States, or to the country of which he is a subject, or to the country in which he resided before coming to the United States, at the option of the alien.

EXTRACT FROM ACT OF CONGRESS OF FEBRUARY 5, 1917

SEC. 20. That when aliens who have been excluded from admission to the United States shall be in the custody of the United States Immigration officers, or of the police authorities of any port of the United States, pending examination of their cases, or pending the decision on appeal, the cost of their maintenance and support while in such custody shall be paid by the transportation company which brought them to the United States from the last foreign port in which they embarked, and if they are ordered returned to the country whence they came, the cost of their maintenance while in custody pending such return shall be paid by the said transportation company. Such transportation company shall also pay the cost of returning any such alien to the port from which he came, or to the country where he embarked him, and for such purpose the steamship company shall have a lien upon the property of such alien, and may withhold the amount of such cost from moneys belonging to such alien, and may sell such property to pay such cost if it be not claimed by such alien within one year after the completion of the inquiry concerning his case. Any steamship company which shall refuse or neglect to return any such alien as herein provided shall be subject to a penalty of $200 for each such refusal or neglect, to be recovered by the United States in a civil action, and in addition to such penalty such steamship company shall be liable for the cost of maintenance of such alien while in custody from the time when demand for his return is made upon the master or agent of the steamship company until he is returned to the port from which he came, or to the country where he embarked him, and for such purpose the steamship company shall have a lien upon the property of such alien, and may withhold the amount of such cost from moneys belonging to such alien, and may sell such property to pay such cost if it be not claimed by such alien within one year after the completion of the inquiry concerning his case. Any steamship company which shall refuse or neglect to return any such alien as herein provided shall be subject to a penalty of $200 for each such refusal or neglect, to be recovered by the United States in a civil action, and in addition to such penalty such steamship company shall be liable for the cost of maintenance of such alien while in custody from the time when demand for his return is made upon the master or agent of the steamship company until he is returned to the port from which he came, or to the country where he embarked him, and for such purpose the steamship company shall have a lien upon the property of such alien, and may withhold the amount of such cost from moneys belonging to such alien, and may sell such property to pay such cost if it be not claimed by such alien within one year after the completion of the inquiry concerning his case.

AFFIDAVIT OF THE MASTER OR COMMANDING OFFICER, OR FIRST OR SECOND OFFICER

I, [illegible], of the [illegible] do declare that the foregoing is a full and true list of all the crew thereof, as said vessel now arrives, and that I have noted the additions, alterations, and changes in said list as they have occurred since the vessel's departure from each port, and that I will deliver a copy of said list, certified by me to be correct, to the immigrant inspector at the port of arrival in the United States.

I further declare that I have complied with all the requirements of section 20 of the act of February 5, 1917, and with all the provisions of the immigration laws relative to the削除 of passengers, and that I will not land or permit to be landed any person on board the vessel before the inspection of such persons by the immigrant inspectors, unless specially directed to do so by the proper officer of the United States Immigration Service.

I further declare that I have complied with all the requirements of section 25 of the act of February 5, 1917, and with all the provisions of the immigration laws relative to the削除 of passengers, and that I will not land or permit to be landed any person on board the vessel before the inspection of such persons by the immigrant inspectors, unless specially directed to do so by the proper officer of the United States Immigration Service.

I, ... of the ..... do declare that the foregoing is a full and true list of all the crew promptly in said vessel from any port or place granted per present voyage. I have noted the cause of absence in each case, and the time and place of shipping each person absent, as required by section 36 of the Act of February 5, 1917, entitled "An Act to regulate the immigration of aliens to, and the residence of aliens in, the United States," approved May 26, 1924, as amended by section 13 of the Act of March 4, 1929, and by section 4 of the Act of June 21, 1930.

..... Master, First or Second Officer.

Sworn to before me this ..... day of ..... 19..

..... Immigrant Inspector.

10—10040-1

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO MASTER

The list described below shall be prepared on blank forms approved by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigration inspector boarding the vessel at the port of arrival, and shall in no instance be taken from the vessel. The list of changes of alien inspection of crews (Form I-418) shall not be returned on board, but shall be delivered by the master to the principal immigration officer at the port. When an alternate seaman is a "workaway," a notation to that effect should be made on the manifest. In order to facilitate inspection of alien seamen, include names of alternate American citizen seamen as well as aliens.

SEC. 36. That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the master, agent, consignee, or owner thereof to deliver to the principal immigration officer in charge of the port of arrival lists containing the names of all aliens employed on such vessel, stating the positions they respectively hold in the ship's company, when and where they were respectively shipped or engaged, and whether they are to be paid off and discharged in the port of arrival; of those continuing on board when the vessel departs from the port of arrival; of those who have died on board during the journey, stating when, where, and from what cause they died; of those who have been transferred to other vessels, stating the names of such vessels and the ports to which they are bound; of those who have left the vessel without permission or intending so to do, stating the reasons therefor, and the last known address or intended destination in the United States of such aliens; and of those who have been allowed to land temporarily, stating the reasons therefor, the length of time granted, and the bond required to insure the return of such aliens to the vessel. Before the departure of any such vessel it shall be the duty of such master, agent, consignee, or owner to report to such immigration officer, in writing, as soon as discovered, all cases in which any such alien has illegally landed from the vessel, giving a description of such alien, together with information likely to lead to his apprehension; and before the departure of any such vessel it shall be the duty of such master, agent, consignee, or owner to deliver to such immigration officer a further list containing the names of all aliens employed upon such vessel at the time of the arrival but who will leave that vessel at the time of her departure, and also the names of those, if any, who have been paid off and discharged, and of those, if any, who have deserted or landed; and in case of the failure of such master, agent, consignee, or owner so to deliver either of the lists aforesaid in the manner and at the time herein specified, or in case any person named in such lists, or any other alien employed upon such vessel at the time of her departure, or who may be found on board during the voyage across the sea, shall not be included in the lists delivered by the master, or in case of the failure of such master, agent, consignee, or owner to report any such alien who may be found on board after such vessel has left the last port touched at before departure from the United States, or in case of the failure of such master, agent, consignee, or owner to deliver to such immigration officer, at the time of the departure of such vessel from the United States, a true and correct list of all aliens employed upon such vessel who have been discharged during the progress of the voyage, such master, agent, consignee, or owner shall pay to the Secretary of the Treasury the sum of $10 for each alien concerning whom correct lists are not delivered or a true report is not made as above required: Provided, That clearance may be granted prior to the payment of such fine, and in the event such fine is imposed, while it remains unpaid, not shall such fine be remitted or refunded: Provided, That clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine.

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 13. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws and employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any foreign port or place, or destined to any such port or place, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or because of illness, injury, or quarantine, or for such other reasons as the Attorney General may prescribe for the ultimate departure, removal, or deportation of such alien from the United States. (43 Stat. 164; 8 U. S. C. 166.)

SEC. 30. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside the foreign contiguous territory of the United States, except vessels temporarily put in for medical treatment, or because of illness, injury, or quarantine, or for such other reasons as the Attorney General may prescribe for the ultimate departure, removal, or deportation of such alien from the United States, shall be required to file with the immigration officer in charge at the port of entry a list containing such names and such information with respect to each alien employed on board the vessel as the Attorney General may require. Such list shall be subject to the examination of any immigrant inspector, and any alien seaman employed on board the vessel may be required by such immigrant inspector to appear before a medical officer of the United States Public Health Service for examination. Any such owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master failing to file such list or any person failing to appear for examination when required shall pay to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $1,000 for each alien seaman in respect of whom such failure occurs: No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the liability to payment of such fine, or while the fine remains unpaid, except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine, or of a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof approved by the collector of customs.

(b) Any alien seaman who does not appear upon the outbound manifest of the vessel on which he arrived in the United States from any place outside foreign contiguous territory, or that he was refurnished by the master of such vessel as a deserter, shall be prima facie evidence of a failure to obtain or deport alien seamen in such cases, and no vessel shall be granted clearance until such expense has been paid or its payment guaranteed to the satisfaction of the Attorney General.

(c) If the Attorney General finds that deportation of the alien seamen on the vessel on which he arrived will cause undue hardship to such seamen he may cause him to be deported on another vessel at the expense of the vessel on which he arrived, and such vessel shall not be granted clearance until such expense has been paid or its payment guaranteed to the satisfaction of the Attorney General.

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO MASTER

The list described below shall be furnished on blank forms approved by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigration inspector boarding the vessel at the port of arrival, and no inspection to land from the vessel. The list of aliens to be inspected at each immigration port of arrival (Form I-425) shall not be furnished or posted, but shall be delivered by the master to the immigration officer in charge at the port. When an alien seaman is a "workaway," a question to that effect should be made on the manifest. If order to facilitate inspection, the master may arrange the list of aliens in groups according to nationality, and within each nationality group alphabetically, but this shall not be required. The list must be complete in every particular before it is presented for inspection, and no additions, changes, or erasures may be made thereafter except by the immigration officer in charge at the port. Any change, addition, or erasure made after the list has been delivered to the immigration officer must be initialed by the master or other officer responsible for the list. Each alien seaman must be listed by his full name, the name by which he is commonly known, and all names he has used in the past, if any. Initials may not be used for the given name or surname. Every alien seaman must be listed, whether he intends to land temporarily or permanently, or to remain on board and depart with the vessel. Alien seamen who have been admitted to the United States temporarily and who have been granted permission to land temporarily must be listed. Alien seamen who have been granted permission to land temporarily and who have failed to return to the vessel within the period prescribed must be reported to the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival as soon thereafter as practicable. Failure to report promptly the absence of any alien seaman may result in the imposition of a penalty of $1,000 for each alien seaman in respect of whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance papers until the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival is satisfied that all aliens employed on board have been accounted for in the manner prescribed by law and regulations, or that the master has given a bond in the penal sum of $1,000 for each alien seaman in respect of whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance papers during the detention of any alien seaman specifically required by the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival to remain for further examination, or for the prosecution or defense of any case in which the testimony of such alien seaman is desired by the Attorney General to do so, until the master of the vessel or the owner, agent, consignee, or charterer of the vessel has deposited with the collector of customs at the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO MASTER

The list described below shall be prepared on blank forms approved by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigration inspector at passenger the vessel at the port of arrival and shall be so tendered on the vessel's arrival in the United States at the first port of call. The list shall contain the name, age, sex, calling or occupation, nationality, last permanent residence (country and city, if known), and final destination (country and city, if known) of each alien who is to be landed from the vessel. The list shall be prepared by the master or commanding officer of the vessel, and shall be signed by him and verified by his oath administered by the immigration officer at the time of arrival. In case the vessel has sailed from more than one foreign port, the list shall be prepared by the master or commanding officer of the vessel before departure from the last foreign port. The master or commanding officer of the vessel shall also deliver to the immigration officer at the time of arrival lists showing the number of aliens, if any, who have been landed from the vessel at each previous port at which it has called on the voyage to the United States. Any alien who is not listed on the list or lists required to be delivered to the immigration officer at the time of arrival may be refused admission to the United States without regard to the provisions of section 23 of the Immigration Act of 1917 (8 U.S.C. 151).

EXTRACT FROM ACT OF CONGRESS OF FEBRUARY 5, 1917, AS AMENDED

SEC. 36. That alien arriving at any seaport in the United States from any foreign port or place if found to be one of the classes of aliens ineligible to citizenship or to admission into the United States under the immigration laws existing at the time of such arrival at such seaport, shall be deported in the manner provided by section 19 hereof to the country whence he came, or to the country from which he last entered, if entry into such country be open to him, or to the country in which he was born, or to the country in which he has a residence, at the option of the Secretary of Labor: Provided, That any alien who shall enter the United States in violation of any prohibition contained in this Act shall be deported to the country whence he came, or to the country from which he last entered, if entry into such country be open to him, or to the country in which he was born, or to the country in which he has a residence, at the option of the Secretary of Labor, at any time within five years after such entry: Provided further, That any alien who shall enter the United States in violation of any prohibition contained in this Act shall be deported to the country whence he came, IMPORTANT NOTICE TO MASTER

The list prescribed below shall be prepared on blank forms approved by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigrant inspector before the vessel is ready to depart from the port. Any change in the crew subsequent to the preparation of the list must be noted thereon by the master before the vessel departs from the port. When an alien crew member is discharged from the vessel, except in the case of desertion, a notation of such discharge must be made on the list, stating the cause of discharge, the name of the vessel on which the alien departed, and the date of departure. When an alien crew member is signed on in a foreign port, a notation of such action must be made on the list, stating the name of the vessel on which the alien arrived and the date of arrival. If any alien crew member shall leave the vessel for any reason, a report in writing must be made to the immigrant inspector at the port of arrival, stating the name of the vessel from which the alien departed, the date of departure, and the cause therefor. Upon the arrival of the vessel at the next port of call in the United States, the master shall report to the immigrant inspector at such port the name of each alien who departed from the vessel at the previous port and who failed to return thereto, and the cause of such failure, if known.

Any alien crew member who is ordered detained by the immigrant inspector at the port of arrival may be required to furnish a bond in the sum of $1,000 for each alien detained, conditioned upon the delivery of such alien to the immigrant inspector when ordered. Such bond may be furnished by the master of the vessel or by a bonding company approved by the Secretary of Labor. Any vessel shall be granted clearance papers by the collector of customs upon the deposit with him of a sum sufficient to cover each alien, or of a bond with sufficient sureties to secure the payment thereof, approved by the collector of customs.

(b) Every alien arriving in the United States who is not admitted to the United States shall be immediately deported in the manner prescribed in the Immigration Act of 1924 (U.S.C., Supp. VII, title 8, sec. 213), as amended, except that if the vessel on which he arrived departs from any foreign contiguous territory before the return of such alien to the port of arrival in the United States, the master of such vessel shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 or by imprisonment for not more than one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the court.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor finds that deportation of the alien arriving on the vessel on which he arrived would cause undue hardship to such alien, he may cause him to be deported on another vessel at the expense of the vessel on which he arrived, and such vessel shall not be granted clearance until such expense has been paid or its payment guaranteed to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor.

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 18. NO alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws and contained on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, destined, or intending to enter the United States, shall be permitted to land in the United States except temporarily and solely for the purpose of obtaining medical treatment, or because of emergency, or unless a bond is given in such sum and with such conditions as may be required by the Secretary of Labor, sufficient to insure that such alien seaman will not become a public charge, and will depart from the United States with the vessel on which he arrived or some other vessel within such time as may be required by the Secretary of Labor: Provided, That the Secretary of Labor may, in his discretion, waive the provisions of this section in the case of any alien seaman who is a native of the country to which he belongs, or who has resided therein for a period of more than two years immediately preceding his arrival at a port of the United States, or who is a member of the race indigenous to India bordering on the Persian Gulf or Gulf of Oman or the Red Sea, or who is a citizen of Yemen, Oman, or Hejaz, or who is a seaman employed on a vessel which does not touch at any port or place in a country other than that to which such seaman belongs, or in which he has resided for more than two years immediately preceding his arrival at a port of the United States, or who is destined to a port or place in the country to which he belongs, or who is destined to a port or place in a country in which there is no diplomatic or consular officer of the United States to whom he can apply for a visa, or who is in possession of a certificate from the consular officer of the country to which he belongs, visaed by a consular officer of the United States, stating that he is known to such consular officer and that, to the best of his knowledge and belief, the statements made by such seaman in his application for such visa are true, or who is in possession of such other document or documents as may be prescribed by the Secretary of Labor in order to establish his nationality and his eligibility for admission into the United States under the provisions of this section. Any alien seaman who shall land in the United States in violation of this section shall be deported in the manner provided in the immigration laws. Any master who shall land any alien seaman in the United States in violation of this section shall be fined not more than $1,000 for each alien seaman so landed, or shall be imprisoned for not more than one year, or both, in the discretion of the court. Any master who shall fail to detain any alien seaman on board his vessel after notice that such alien seaman is required by this section to be detained on board, or who shall fail to deliver such alien seaman to the immigrant inspector at the time of the departure of his vessel from a port of the United States, or who shall fail to report and deliver to the immigrant inspector at any subsequent port of arrival in the United States any such alien seaman who may have been left behind, shall be fined not more than $1,000 for each such alien seaman, and shall be imprisoned for not more than one year. Any alien seaman who shall land in the United States in violation of this section shall be deported in the manner provided in the immigration laws. Any master who shall refuse to detain any alien seaman on board his vessel after notice that such alien seaman is required by this section to be detained on board, or who shall refuse to deliver such alien seaman to the immigrant inspector at the time of the departure of his vessel from a port of the United States, or who shall refuse to report and deliver to the immigrant inspector at any subsequent port of arrival in the United States any such alien seaman who may have been left behind, shall be fined not more than $1,000 for each such alien seaman so landed, or shall be imprisoned for not more than one year, or both, in the discretion of the court. Any master who shall fail to detain any alien seaman on board his vessel after notice that such alien seaman is required by this section to be detained on board, or who shall fail to deliver such alien seaman to the immigrant inspector at the time of the departure of his vessel from a port of the United States, or who shall fail to report and deliver to the immigrant inspector at any subsequent port of arrival in the United States any such alien seaman who may have been left behind, shall be fined not more than $1,000 for each such alien seaman so landed, or shall be imprisoned for not more than one year, or both, in the discretion of the court.

SEC. 38. That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or from a port of the Canal Zone, Porto Rico, Virgin Islands, or Guam, the master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer thereof shall immediately report the name of each person on board such vessel, whether as passenger or member of the crew, or otherwise, and shall deliver lists or manifests of all persons on board such vessel, which lists or manifests shall be prepared and sworn to before a consular officer of the United States at the port of departure, or if there be no consular officer at such port, then before the chief officer of customs at such port, by the master of such vessel, which lists or manifests shall be in such form and contain such information as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe, and shall be delivered to the immigrant inspector at the port of arrival. Any person who knowingly or willfully shall refuse to comply with the requirements of this section, or to furnish in such lists or manifests full and correct information concerning each person who may be brought to the United States on such vessel, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 or by imprisonment for not more than one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the court. The master of any vessel bringing an alien who is afflicted with any of the diseases or mental or physical defects or disabilities which would be sufficient under the provisions of this Act to exclude such alien from admission into the United States shall detain such alien on board such vessel or other safe place designated by the immigrant inspector, and shall not land such alien in the United States except temporarily for the purpose of obtaining medical treatment, or because of emergency, or unless a bond is given in such sum and with such conditions as may be required by the Secretary of Labor, sufficient to insure that such alien will not become a public charge, and will depart from the United States with the vessel on which he arrived or some other vessel within such time as may be required by the Secretary of Labor: Provided, That the Secretary of Labor may, in his discretion, waive the provisions of this section in the case of any alien who is a native of the country to which he belongs, or who has resided therein for a period of more than two years immediately preceding his arrival at a port of the United States, or who is a member of the race indigenous to India bordering on the Persian Gulf or Gulf of Oman or the Red Sea, or who is a citizen of Yemen, Oman, or Hejaz, or who is a seaman employed on a vessel which does not touch at any port or place in a country other than that to which such seaman belongs, or in which he has resided for more than two years immediately preceding his arrival at a port of the United States, or who is destined to a port or place in the country to which he belongs, or who is destined to a port or place in a country in which there is no diplomatic or consular officer of the United States to whom he can apply for a visa, or who is in possession of a certificate from the consular officer of the country to which he belongs, visaed by a consular officer of the United States, stating that he is known to such consular officer and that, to the best of his knowledge and belief, the statements made by such seaman in his application for such visa are true, or who is in possession of such other document or documents as may be prescribed by the Secretary of Labor in order to establish his nationality and his eligibility for admission into the United States under the provisions of this section. Any alien seaman who shall land in the United States in violation of this section shall be deported in the manner provided in the immigration laws. Any master who shall land any alien seaman in the United States in violation of this section shall be fined not more than $1,000 for each such alien seaman so landed, or shall be imprisoned for not more than one year, or both, in the discretion of the court. Any master who shall fail to detain any alien seaman on board his vessel after notice that such alien seaman is required by this section to be detained on board, or who shall refuse to deliver such alien seaman to the immigrant inspector at the time of the departure of his vessel from a port of the United States, or who shall refuse to report and deliver to the immigrant inspector at any subsequent port of arrival in the United States any such alien seaman who may have been left behind, shall be fined not more than $1,000 for each such alien seaman so landed, or shall be imprisoned for not more than one year, or both, in the discretion of the court.

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO MASTER

The list described below shall be furnished on blank forms obtained by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigration inspector at the port of arrival, and shall be delivered by the master to the boarding officer at the time of inspection. The list of aliens on board must be complete, and shall be in the exact order of the manifest. Any lack of fullness or inaccuracy in the list will be subject to the penalties provided by law. Any alien who is not clearly entitled to admission will be detained for special inquiry at the port of arrival. Any alien who is not in possession of a valid passport, or who is not properly identified, will be detained for further examination by the immigration officer at the port of arrival. Any alien who is not in possession of a valid passport, or who is not properly identified, will be detained for further examination by the immigration officer at the port of arrival.

Port. When an alternate address is a "notify," a notation to that effect should be made on the manifest.

SEC. 36. That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or from a possession of the United States, it shall be the duty of the master, agent, consignee, or owner of such vessel, and of the owner, agent, consignee, or master of any aircraft arriving in the United States from any foreign port or place, to present to the immigrant inspector at the port of arrival a complete list or manifest of all persons on board such vessel or aircraft, and of the baggage belonging to each, before any such person shall be allowed to land, and before such vessel or aircraft shall depart from the port of arrival. Such list or manifest shall be prepared in such manner as may be prescribed by the Secretary of Labor, and shall contain such information as may be required by the Secretary of Labor concerning each person, his baggage, and the means and conditions of his transportation, and such additional information relative to his identity, nationality, residence, and character as may be required by the Secretary of Labor. The master, agent, consignee, or owner of such vessel or aircraft shall subscribe to such list or manifest a solemn oath before the immigrant inspector at the port of arrival, and shall deliver to the immigrant inspector at the time of inspection such list or manifest, which shall be sworn to before the immigrant inspector at the port of arrival. Any person who knowingly or willfully makes a false statement in any such list or manifest as to the name, nationality, residence, or character of any alien, or who knowingly or willfully fails to deliver such list or manifest, or who knowingly or willfully refuses to subscribe to such oath, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 or by imprisonment for not more than one year, or both, at the discretion of the court. Any master, agent, consignee, or owner of any such vessel or aircraft who knowingly or willfully fails to deliver to the immigrant inspector at the port of arrival the list or manifest required of him by this section, or who knowingly or willfully delivers to the immigrant inspector at the port of arrival a false list or manifest, or who knowingly or willfully refuses to subscribe to such oath, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 or by imprisonment for not more than one year, or both, at the discretion of the court. Any master, agent, consignee, or owner of any such vessel or aircraft who knowingly or willfully fails to deliver to the immigrant inspector at the port of arrival the list or manifest required of him by this section, or who knowingly or willfully delivers to the immigrant inspector at the port of arrival a false list or manifest, or who knowingly or willfully refuses to subscribe to such oath, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 or by imprisonment for not more than one year, or both, at the discretion of the court.

PAR. 6. Clearance shall not be granted any vessel until the plans required by section 36 of the Act of February 5, 1917, have been complied with, and in the event such plan is unbroken, all persons on board shall be mustered by the master, agent, consignee, or owner of such vessel, under oath, in the presence of the boarding officer, and the list or manifest required by section 36 of the said Act shall be prepared in accordance with the data shown by such muster. Any person who knowingly or willfully fails to be mustered, or who refuses to subscribe to such oath, shall be reported by the boarding officer to the Secretary of Labor, who is the only official authorized to issue the warrant for the arrest of such person. Any person who knowingly or willfully fails to be mustered, or who refuses to subscribe to such oath, shall be reported by the boarding officer to the Secretary of Labor, who is the only official authorized to issue the warrant for the arrest of such person.

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 10. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws and employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any foreign port or place, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily or for medical treatment, or because of some other sufficient reason as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe for the duration of the vessel's stay in port. Any alien seaman who shall land in the United States from any place outside thereof, except temporarily or for medical treatment, or because of some other sufficient reason as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe for the duration of the vessel's stay in port, or who shall remain in the United States for a longer time than the period for which he was granted permission to land, or who shall land at any time or place other than as designated by the immigrant inspector, or who shall not present himself for examination by the immigrant inspector at the time and place required by the master, shall be deported in the manner provided by section 19 of the Act of February 5, 1917, as if he were a person who had entered the United States in violation of law. Any alien seaman who shall land in the United States from any place outside thereof, except temporarily or for medical treatment, or because of some other sufficient reason as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe for the duration of the vessel's stay in port, or who shall remain in the United States for a longer time than the period for which he was granted permission to land, or who shall land at any time or place other than as designated by the immigrant inspector, or who shall not present himself for examination by the immigrant inspector at the time and place required by the master, shall be deported in the manner provided by section 19 of the Act of February 5, 1917, as if he were a person who had entered the United States in violation of law.

(b) Every alien seaman who shall desert or who shall be found in the United States in violation of this section shall be deported at any time within five years after he shall have landed in the United States, except that if he shall apply for and obtain a certificate from the Secretary of Labor that he came to the United States as a member of the crew of a vessel which was at the time of his arrival under the control of the United States during the war, and that he has since been employed on vessels under the control of the United States, he shall be deported only in accordance with the provisions of section 19 of the Act of February 5, 1917, as amended by section 3 of the Act of May 10, 1920. Any alien seaman who shall land in the United States from any foreign port or place, or who shall remain in the United States for a longer time than the period for which he was granted permission to land, or who shall land at any time or place other than as designated by the immigrant inspector, or who shall not present himself for examination by the immigrant inspector at the time and place required by the master, shall be deported in the manner provided by section 19 of the Act of February 5, 1917, as if he were a person who had entered the United States in violation of law. Any alien seaman who shall land in the United States from any foreign port or place, or who shall remain in the United States for a longer time than the period for which he was granted permission to land, or who shall land at any time or place other than as designated by the immigrant inspector, or who shall not present himself for examination by the immigrant inspector at the time and place required by the master, shall be deported in the manner provided by section 19 of the Act of February 5, 1917, as if he were a person who had entered the United States in violation of law.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor finds that deportation of an alien seaman on the vessel on which he arrived would cause undue hardship to such seaman by reason of the time he has been in the United States, the length of time he has been employed on vessels under the control of the United States, and the circumstances under which he left the vessel on which he arrived, he may cause such alien to be deported on any vessel which is ready to depart from a port in the United States within a reasonable time, except that no alien shall be deported under the provisions of this subdivision to any country in which he was born or has a residence, unless the consent of such country to the entry of such alien therein is first obtained. Deportation under the provisions of this subdivision shall be at the expense of the appropriation for the enforcement of the immigration laws existing at the time of deportation. Any alien who shall be deported under the provisions of this subdivision shall be deported to the country in which he was born or has a residence, unless the consent of such country to the entry of such alien therein is first obtained. Deportation under the provisions of this subdivision shall be at the expense of the appropriation for the enforcement of the immigration laws existing at the time of deportation.

(d) Every alien seaman who shall not depart from the United States within the time limited in his permit to land temporarily or for the period of his shore leave, or within such further time as may be allowed by the Secretary of Labor, shall be deported as provided in this section. Every alien seaman who shall not depart from the United States within the time limited in his permit to land temporarily or for the period of his shore leave, or within such further time as may be allowed by the Secretary of Labor, shall be deported as provided in this section.

(e) If the Secretary of Labor finds that deportation of an alien seaman on the vessel on which he arrived would cause undue hardship to such seaman by reason of the time he has been in the United States, the length of time he has been employed on vessels under the control of the United States, and the circumstances under which he left the vessel on which he arrived, he may cause such alien to be deported on any vessel which is ready to depart from a port in the United States within a reasonable time, except that no alien shall be deported under the provisions of this subdivision to any country in which he was born or has a residence, unless the consent of such country to the entry of such alien therein is first obtained. Deportation under the provisions of this subdivision shall be at the expense of the appropriation for the enforcement of the immigration laws existing at the time of deportation. Any alien who shall be deported under the provisions of this subdivision shall be deported to the country in which he was born or has a residence, unless the consent of such country to the entry of such alien therein is first obtained. Deportation under the provisions of this subdivision shall be at the expense of the appropriation for the enforcement of the immigration laws existing at the time of deportation.

EXTRACT FROM SUBDIVISION B, RULE 7

Par. 2. Clearance shall not be granted any vessel until the data required by section 30 of the Act of February 2, 1917, have been furnished by each person to whom such section is applicable: Provided, That clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question when deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine, bond, in the event such fine is imposed, shall be furnished by such person or in his behalf. Foreign vessels shall not be granted clearance until such extra pay has been paid or its payment guaranteed to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor.

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 18. No alien seaman (excepting those employed in the fishing industry or in the whaling industry on the Pacific coast) shall be permitted to land in the United States unless such alien seaman shall have been lawfully admitted to the United States for the purpose of his employment as a seaman and for his return to a foreign port in the vessel in which he arrived or some other vessel, and unless such alien seaman shall establish to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor that he is not afflicted with any of the contagious diseases hereinafter specified in this section. Any such alien seaman who shall be found on board any vessel after the departure of such vessel from the last port of entry in the United States shall be deemed to have landed in the United States in violation of this section.

SEC. 20. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel bringing to the United States any alien seaman (whether employed in any capacity on board such vessel or as a stowaway) shall be responsible for the proper maintenance of such alien seaman while he remains in the United States, and shall provide for his removal from the United States, at the time of departure of such vessel, unless such alien seaman is lawfully admitted to the United States for permanent residence or is granted permission to land temporarily by the Secretary of Labor. Such owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master shall be liable to a penalty of $1,000 for each alien seaman employed on board any such vessel who is not lawfully admitted to the United States or granted permission to land temporarily by the Secretary of Labor, to be paid to the collector of customs of the district in which the vessel arrives or departs. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the decision as to the question of the payment of any such penalty, or while any such penalty remains unpaid, except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover the payment thereof or the filing of a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof approved by the collector of customs.

(b) Every alien seaman who deserts or who remains after the termination of the period for which he was shipped or the period for which he has been granted permission to land temporarily, or who is found in the United States in violation of this section, shall be deported in the manner provided by section 19 of this Act, and shall be deported to the country to which he belongs, or in which he resided before coming to the United States, or to the country in which he shipped for the voyage on which he arrived in the United States, at the option of the Secretary of Labor. Any such alien seaman who shall be found on board any vessel after the departure of such vessel from the last port of entry in the United States shall be deemed to have landed in the United States in violation of this section.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor finds that deportation of the alien seaman at the expense of the vessel on which he arrived in the United States or on which he was found after such vessel left the last port of entry in the United States will not be accomplished within such time as he may deem reasonable, except that deportation may be delayed until security to secure the payment thereof may have been given, or such vessel may be granted clearance until such expense has been paid or its payment guaranteed to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor.

(d) Every alien seaman who shall not depart upon the outward manifest of the vessel on which he arrived in the United States or a vessel of the same owner within such time as the Secretary of Labor may deem sufficient, shall be arrested and taken before a commissioner of immigration, or other officer designated by the Secretary of Labor, and after hearing, if it appears that he is not lawfully entitled to remain in the United States, shall be deported in the manner provided by section 19 of this Act.

(e) Every alien seaman who shall not depart upon the outward manifest of the vessel on which he arrived in the United States or a vessel of the same owner within such time as the Secretary of Labor may deem sufficient, shall be arrested and taken before a commissioner of immigration, or other officer designated by the Secretary of Labor, and after hearing, if it appears that he is not lawfully entitled to remain in the United States, shall be deported in the manner provided by section 19 of this Act.

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 19. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws and employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, unless such alien seaman shall be in possession of a valid passport and a valid seaman's certificate or other document in lieu thereof, issued to such individual by the consular officer of the country to which such vessel belongs, or by such other country as may be satisfactory to the Secretary of Labor, and bearing the photograph and fingerprints of such alien seaman (which photograph and fingerprints shall be compared by the immigration officer at the port of arrival with the person and the description given in such passport or certificate), and a valid nonimmigrant visa, if such alien seaman is destined to the United States, except that no nonimmigrant visa and no passport shall be required of any such alien seaman entitled to enter the United States solely to perform service in such capacity on board a vessel touching at a port or ports of the United States and solely to depart therefrom with the vessel on which he arrived, and except that no nonimmigrant visa and no passport shall be required of any such alien seaman who is destined to the United States for the sole purpose of reshipping on board a vessel leaving a port of the United States within twenty-four hours after his arrival at such port, and except that no nonimmigrant visa and no passport shall be required of any such alien seaman who is in transit through the United States to join his vessel in foreign territory or to await transportation to his country of residence: Provided, That clearance may be refused any such alien seaman for the reasons set forth in section 3 of the Immigration Act of 1917 (39 Stat. 875; 8 U. S. C. 136), and any such alien seaman who shall remain in the United States after the departure of the vessel on which he arrived shall be deported in the manner provided in sections 19 and 20 of the Immigration Act of 1917 (39 Stat. 889; 8 U. S. C. 155, 156), and shall be deported to the country to which he belongs unless such country shall refuse to accept him, in which case he may be deported to any country which may agree to accept him. Any such alien seaman who shall land in the United States in violation of this section shall be deported as provided in sections 19 and 20 of the Immigration Act of 1917 (39 Stat. 889; 8 U. S. C. 155, 156), unless he shall be duly admitted to the United States by an immigration officer after inspection, or shall have been granted permission to land temporarily by the Secretary of Labor under such conditions as he may prescribe, or unless he shall be able to establish to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor that he was forced to land in the United States solely as the result of stress of weather or other unavoidable cause. Any such alien seaman who shall be deported in the manner provided in this section shall be deported to the country in which he was shipped to the United States unless the Secretary of Labor shall determine that some other country will accept him, and such determination shall be conclusive and final. Any such alien seaman who shall land in the United States in violation of this section shall be deported in the manner provided in sections 19 and 20 of the Immigration Act of 1917 (39 Stat. 889; 8 U. S. C. 155, 156), unless he shall be duly admitted to the United States by an immigration officer after inspection, or shall have been granted permission to land temporarily by the Secretary of Labor under such conditions as he may prescribe, or unless he shall be able to establish to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor that he was forced to land in the United States solely as the result of stress of weather or other unavoidable cause. Any such alien seaman who shall remain in the United States for a period of sixty days after the departure of the vessel on which he arrived shall be deported in the manner provided in sections 19 and 20 of the Immigration Act of 1917 (39 Stat. 889; 8 U. S. C. 155, 156), unless he shall be able to establish to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor that he was unable to depart from the United States for reasons beyond his control or for the convenience of the vessel on which he arrived: Provided, That clearance may be refused any such alien seaman for the reasons set forth in section 3 of the Immigration Act of 1917 (39 Stat. 876; 8 U. S. C. 136), and any such alien seaman who shall remain in the United States after the departure of the vessel on which he arrived shall be deported in the manner provided in sections 19 and 20 of the Immigration Act of 1917 (39 Stat. 889; 8 U. S. C. 155, 156), unless he shall be able to establish to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor that he was unable to depart from the United States for reasons beyond his control or for the convenience of the vessel on which he arrived: Provided, That clearance may be refused any such alien seaman for the reasons set forth in section 3 of the Immigration Act of 1917 (39 Stat. 876; 8 U. S. C. 136), and any such alien seaman who shall remain in the United States after the departure of the vessel on which he arrived shall be deported in the manner provided in sections 19 and 20 of the Immigration Act of 1917 (39 Stat. 889; 8 U. S. IMPORTANT NOTICE TO MASTER

The list checked below shall be inserted on blank forms approved by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigration inspector boarding vessel on arrival at first port of entry, and shall be the guidance for such inspector in the performance of his duty in determining the right of any alien to enter the United States. The list of classes of aliens not to be admitted to the United States shall be the instructions for taking testimony in cases of aliens who are certified by the medical officer of the port for special inquiry. Any alien who is certified by the medical officer of the port for special inquiry shall be detained on board vessel or at such place designated by the immigration officer in charge of the port as the Attorney General may prescribe, pending final determination of his case. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the inquiry in the case of any alien certified for special inquiry unless such vessel be specifically ordered by the Attorney General to proceed with such alien to the port for debarkation, or unless the immigration officer in charge of the port shall grant such clearance. Any alien who shall come to the United States or who shall remain in the United States in violation of this act shall be taken into custody and deported in accordance with the provisions of sections 19 and 20 of the Immigration Act of February 5, 1917 (39 Stat. 889; 8 U. S. C. 155, 156). Any person who shall bring to the United States any alien not duly admissible hereunder, or who shall refuse to return on any vessel upon which he shall have brought such alien to the United States any alien who shall have been ordered deported under the provisions of this act, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 or by imprisonment for not more than one year, or both, at the discretion of the court.

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO MASTER

The list described below shall be furnished on blank forms obtained by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigration inspector boarding the vessel at the port of arrival. Each list is to contain as many names of aliens to be landed from the vessel. The list of aliens is passed upon by the immigration officer at the port of arrival (Form 6/6) shall not be furnished on board, but shall be delivered by the master to the principal immigration officer at the port.

When an alien is ordered deported from the United States under the provisions of the immigration laws, the master or agent of the vessel in which such alien arrived to the United States shall, upon the request of the Secretary of Labor, return such alien to the country whence he came or to the country of which he is a subject or citizen, or to the country in which he resided and from which he embarked for the United States, at the option of the master or agent of the vessel, and such alien shall not be permitted to land in the United States from any vessel at any time thereafter without the permission of the Secretary of Labor.

SEC. 2. That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the master, owner, agent, consignee, or person in charge of such vessel to deliver to the immigrant inspector at the port of arrival a correct list of all aliens, specifying the number in each group, who may be on board such vessel, and such list shall contain such additional information concerning each of said aliens as may be required by the Secretary of Labor. Such list shall be prepared in such form and detail as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe, and the master, owner, agent, consignee, or person in charge of such vessel shall be liable to a penalty of $10 for each alien not listed therein, or for each alien incorrectly listed, but the total penalty imposed upon any master, owner, agent, consignee, or person in charge of such vessel shall not exceed $200 for any one voyage: Provided, That no penalty shall be imposed for the failure to list any alien who is not a citizen or subject of a country the citizens or subjects of which are required to procure passports before entering the United States, who is in possession of an unexpired passport issued by the country of which he is a citizen or subject, and who is destined to the country which issued such passport: Provided further, That no penalty shall be imposed for the failure to list any alien in transit through the United States to a foreign country who is in possession of a through ticket and is destined to such foreign country: Provided further, That no penalty shall be imposed for the failure to list any alien who shall have been granted the right to enter the United States temporarily as a bona fide visitor, tourist, or student, and who is in possession of a passport duly viséed by a consular officer of the United States, unless such consular officer shall have been notified that such alien is not entitled to enter the United States temporarily as a bona fide visitor, tourist, or student.

EXTRACT FROM ACT OF CONGRESS OF FEBRUARY 5, 1917

SEC. 36. That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the master, owner, agent, consignee, or person in charge of such vessel to deliver to the immigrant inspector at the port of arrival a correct list of all aliens, specifying the number in each group, who may be on board such vessel, and such list shall contain such additional information concerning each of said aliens as may be required by the Secretary of Labor. Such list shall be prepared in such form and detail as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe, and the master, owner, agent, consignee, or person in charge of such vessel shall be liable to a penalty of $10 for each alien not listed therein, or for each alien incorrectly listed, but the total penalty imposed upon any master, owner, agent, consignee, or person in charge of such vessel shall not exceed $200 for any one voyage: Provided, That no penalty shall be imposed for the failure to list any alien who is not a citizen or subject of a country the citizens or subjects of which are required to procure passports before entering the United States, who is in possession of an unexpired passport issued by the country of which he is a citizen or subject, and who is destined to the country which issued such passport: Provided further, That no penalty shall be imposed for the failure to list any alien who shall have been granted the right to enter the United States temporarily as a bona fide visitor, tourist, or student, and who is in possession of a passport duly viséed by a consular officer of the United States, unless such consular officer shall have been notified that such alien is not entitled to enter the United States temporarily as a bona fide visitor, tourist, or student: And provided further, That the master, owner, agent, consignee, or person in charge of any vessel bringing to the United States any alien who is afflicted with any loathsome or dangerous contagious disease, or who is a person who has been deported from the United States within one year previous, shall be liable to a penalty of $200 for each such alien, unless such alien shall have been specially examined by a medical officer of the United States before the departure of such vessel from the foreign port and certified by such medical officer to be free from such disease or not to be such person: And provided further, That no penalty shall be imposed for the failure to list any alien who shall have been granted the right to enter the United States temporarily as a bona fide visitor, tourist, or student, and who is in possession of a passport duly viséed by a consular officer of the United States, unless such consular officer shall have been notified that such alien is not entitled to enter the United States temporarily as a bona fide visitor, tourist, or student.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor finds that deportation of the alien aboard on the vessel on which he arrived would cause undue hardship to such alien he may cause him to be deported on another vessel at the expense of the vessel on which he arrived, and such vessel shall not be granted clearance until such expense has been paid or its payment guaranteed to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor.

(d) Every alien who shall be refused a landing from the vessel on which he arrived in the United States shall be detained on board such vessel or at such port as the master of such vessel may desire, unless the master elects to take such alien to the foreign port from which such vessel came to the United States, and such vessel shall not be granted clearance until such election is made or such payment guaranteed.

SEC. 37. That the Secretary of Labor shall prescribe rules and regulations for the enforcement of the provisions of this Act, and shall have power to enter into contracts with transportation lines for the return of aliens. Any master, owner, agent, consignee, or person in charge of any vessel who shall refuse or fail to comply with the provisions of this Act or with any such rules and regulations shall be fined not more than $1,000 for each such offense.

SEC. 38. That the Commissioner General of Immigration, the assistant commissioners general, the chief inspector, the boards of special inquiry, the immigrant inspectors, and such other officers as may be designated by the Secretary of Labor, may administer oaths and take and consider evidence touching the right of any alien to enter, reenter, pass through, or reside in the United States, or touching any matter or thing relative to the exercise of the powers vested by this Act in the Secretary of Labor, the Commissioner General of Immigration, the assistant commissioners general, the chief inspector, the boards of special inquiry, and such other officers as may be designated by the Secretary of Labor, and may appoint and employ interpreters and stenographers in connection therewith, and the person who shall be appointed interpreter by any board of special inquiry shall administer to the witnesses appearing before the board the following oath: "You do swear (or affirm) that you will correctly interpret such questions as may be propounded to the witnesses appearing before this board of special inquiry, and the answers made thereto, to the best of your ability; so help you God." Such interpreters may also be employed in the performance of such other duties as may be required of them by the immigration officers in charge.

EXTRACT FROM SUBDIVISION B, RULE 7

PAR. 8. Clearance shall not be granted any vessel until the data contained in section 34 of the Act of February 5, 1917, have been furnished by section 35 of said act, unless such section is declared inoperative by some decision of a court of competent jurisdiction, and the master has complied with the requirements of the administrative law thereunder, and the collector of customs of such district is satisfied that the master has complied with the requirements of the law in all respects.

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 15. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws and employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any foreign contiguous territory, removable or not removable under the immigration laws, may be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or hospital to keep temporarily in the discretion of the Secretary of Labor, and to the extent specified by the master, pending examination by the medical officers of the port of arrival, and pending such further action as may be required by the boards of special inquiry, but shall be deported on the vessel bringing him to the United States, or on any vessel ready to depart for the foreign port from which he came to the United States, or for the country to which he belongs, as the Secretary of Labor may direct. Any master, owner, agent, consignee, or person in charge of any vessel bringing an alien who is excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws and employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any foreign contiguous territory, removable or not removable under the immigration laws, who fails to deport such alien on board such vessel, when required so to do by the Secretary of Labor, or who refuses or fails to detain such alien on board any vessel when ordered so to do by the Secretary of Labor, or who refuses or fails to pay the cost of maintenance of such alien while detained in a hospital, shall pay a penalty of $1,000 for each alien so employed, or so refusing or failing to deport, detain, or pay the cost of maintenance of such alien, and no vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the question of the liability to the payment of such penalty, or while any such penalty remains unpaid, except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such penalty with the collector of customs.

(b) Every alien who shall be refused a landing from the vessel on which he arrived in the United States shall be detained on board such vessel or at such port as the master of such vessel may desire, unless the master elects to take such alien to the foreign port from which such vessel came to the United States, and such vessel shall not be granted clearance until such expense has been paid or its payment guaranteed to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor finds that deportation of the alien aboard on the vessel on which he arrived would cause undue hardship to such alien he may cause him to be deported on another vessel at the expense of the vessel on which he arrived, and such vessel shall not be granted clearance until such expense has been paid or its payment guaranteed to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor.

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO MASTER

The list described below shall be prepared on plain forms approved by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigration inspector nearest the vessel at the port of arrival and shall in no instance be taken from the vessel. The list of changes of alien members of the crew (Form I-426) shall not be returned on board but shall be delivered by the master to the immediate inspector. In order to facilitate inspection, masters are requested to have the crew assemble in a "mustering" a location to that effect should be made on the manifest. In order to facilitate inspection of aliens members include names of arriving American citizen seamen as well as aliens.

EXTRACT FROM ACT OF CONGRESS OF FEBRUARY 2, 1917, AS AMENDED

SEC. 36. That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or from a possession of the United States to any port therein, the master, agent, owner, or consignee, or master thereof, to deliver to the immigration officer in charge of the port of arrival lists containing the names of all aliens employed on such vessel, stating the position they respectively hold in the ship's company, what nationality they were respectively, and the nationality, last permanent residence, and intended future home or final destination of each alien employed, which lists shall be verified by the oath of the master or such other officer of the vessel as may be designated by the immigration officer in charge of the port, and such additional information relative to such aliens employed as may be required by such immigration officer. Such lists shall be prepared in quadruplicate, and the master, agent, owner, or consignee of the vessel shall deliver the same to the immigration officer at the port of arrival before the vessel shall be granted clearance papers, and the immigration officer shall retain one list and deliver one list to the collector of customs at the port of arrival, one list to the commissioner of immigration at the port of arrival, and one list to the commissioner of immigration at the port of departure. Any master, agent, owner, or consignee of any vessel who refuses or neglects to deliver such lists, or who refuses or neglects to detain any alien on board any vessel when required so to do by the immigration officer in charge of the port, or who refuses or neglects to deliver any such alien employed on board any vessel to the immigration officer at the port of departure when required so to do, or who refuses or neglects to report, or who reports incorrectly, any such alien, or who refuses or neglects to pay the tax imposed by this Act in the case of any such alien, or who refuses or neglects to perform any other duty required of him by this Act, or who violates any of the provisions of this Act, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be punished by a fine not more than $1,000 for each alien with respect to whom such violation occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance papers pending the determination of the liability to payment of such fine, or while the fine remains unpaid, except that clearance papers may be granted prior to the determination in the case of vessels put under bond in such form and such amount as may be prescribed by the Secretary of Labor sufficient to cover such fine, or in the case of a bond filed as required by the Secretary of Labor sufficient to cover such fine, or in the case of a bond with sufficient sureties approved by the collector of customs. The Attorney General may, upon application in writing, remit fines in excess of $300 for each alien not to exceed $10,000 in any one fiscal year, and may refund fines erroneously collected, when such refund is recommended by the Attorney General in the direction shall think proper. This section, as amended, shall apply to all head tax cases in which the bond or the master's deposit is located the same at the time of the approval hereof, whether or not such bond or deposit has been forfeited. (June 2, 1924.)

(b) Penalty for failure to deliver list.—Any master, agent, owner, or consignee of any vessel who refuses or neglects to deliver the list required by section 36 of the Act of February 5, 1917, as amended, to any immigrant inspector at the port of arrival before the vessel shall be granted clearance papers, and any master, agent, owner, or consignee of any vessel who refuses or neglects to deliver to the immigrant inspector at the port of departure the list required by section 36 of the Act of February 5, 1917, as amended, to any immigrant inspector at the port of departure before the vessel shall be granted clearance papers, shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 for each alien with respect to whom such violation occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance papers pending the determination of the liability to payment of such fine, or while the fine remains unpaid, except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination in the case of vessels put under bond in such form and such amount as may be prescribed by the Secretary of Labor sufficient to cover such fine, or in the case of a bond filed as required by the Secretary of Labor sufficient to cover such fine, or in the case of a bond with sufficient sureties approved by the collector of customs. The Attorney General may, upon application in writing, remit fines in excess of $300 for each alien not to exceed $10,000 in any one fiscal year, and may refund fines erroneously collected, when such refund is recommended by the Attorney General in the direction shall think proper. This section, as amended, shall apply to all head tax cases in which the bond or the master's deposit is located the same at the time of the approval hereof, whether or not such bond or deposit has been forfeited. (June 2, 1924.)

(c) Penalty for failure to deliver list.—Any master, agent, owner, or consignee of any vessel who refuses or neglects to deliver the list required by section 36 of the Act of February 5, 1917, as amended, to any immigrant inspector at the port of arrival before the vessel shall be granted clearance papers, and any master, agent, owner, or consignee of any vessel who refuses or neglects to deliver to the immigrant inspector at the port of departure the list required by section 36 of the Act of February 5, 1917, as amended, to any immigrant inspector at the port of departure before the vessel shall be granted clearance papers, shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 for each alien with respect to whom such violation occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance papers pending the determination of the liability to payment of such fine, or while the fine remains unpaid, except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination in the case of vessels put under bond in such form and such amount as may be prescribed by the Secretary of Labor sufficient to cover such fine, or in the case of a bond filed as required by the Secretary of Labor sufficient to cover such fine, or in the case of a bond with sufficient sureties approved by the collector of customs. The Attorney General may, upon application in writing, remit fines in excess of $300 for each alien not to exceed $10,000 in any one fiscal year, and may refund fines erroneously collected, when such refund is recommended by the Attorney General in the direction shall think proper. This section, as amended, shall apply to all head tax cases in which the bond or the master's deposit is located the same at the time of the approval hereof, whether or not such bond or deposit has been forfeited. (43 Stat. 164, 8 U.S.C. 188.)

SEC. 30. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof (except foreign ports contiguous to the United States) who shall refuse to detain on board any alien seaman employed on such vessel until the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival has inspected such seaman (which inspection or to obtain such seaman if required by such immigration officer at the port of such inspection) or who shall refuse or neglect to report any alien seaman who shall leave such vessel without permission or who shall refuse or neglect to pay the tax imposed by this Act in the case of any such alien, or who refuses or neglects to perform any other duty required of him by this Act, or who violates any of the provisions of this Act, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be punished by a fine not more than $1,000 for each alien with respect to whom such violation occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance papers pending the determination of the liability to payment of such fine, or while the fine remains unpaid, except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination in the case of vessels put under bond in such form and such amount as may be prescribed by the Secretary of Labor sufficient to cover such fine, or in the case of a bond with sufficient sureties approved by the collector of customs. The Attorney General may, upon application in writing, remit fines in excess of $300 for each alien not to exceed $10,000 in any one fiscal year, and may refund fines erroneously collected, when such refund is recommended by the Attorney General in the direction shall think proper. This section, as amended, shall apply to all head tax cases in which the bond or the master's deposit is located the same at the time of the approval hereof, whether or not such bond or deposit has been forfeited. (June 2, 1924.)

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO MASTER

The list described below shall be prepared on blank forms approved by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigration inspector boarding the vessel at the port of arrival, and shall in no instance be taken from the vessel to the principal immigration officer at the port of entry (Form 528) shall not be furnished on board, but shall be delivered by the master to the principal immigration officer at the port. When an alternate manifest is a "workaway," a notation to that effect should be made on the manifest.

EXTRACT FROM ACT OF CONGRESS OF FEBRUARY 2, 1917

SEC. 36. That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the owner, agent, consignee, or master thereof to deliver to the principal immigration officer in charge of the port of arrival lists containing the names of all aliens employed or who were employed in any capacity on board such vessel, stating the positions they respectively hold in the ship's company, when and where they were respectively shipped or engaged, and absolutely none to be had on and discharged in the port of arrival; to state concerning so much of such information as to the Secretary of Labor shall by regulation prescribe; and unless the master of any such vessel it shall be the duty of such owner, agent, consignee, or master to report to such immigration officer, in writing, as soon as discovered, all cases in which any such alien may have illegally landed from the vessel, stating the description of such alien, together with any information likely to lead to his apprehension; and before the departure of any such vessel it shall be the duty of such owner, agent, consignee, or master to deliver either to such immigration officer at the time of the arrival and clearance of the vessel from the port, or to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port is located, a certificate signed by the master and countersigned by the chief engineer, surgeon, or purser, who have been employed thereon as the case may be, stating the name of each alien employee who were not on board the vessel when the same cleared from the last foreign port, and also the names of those, if any, who have been left behind in the discharge of their duties, and the reasons therefor, and the amount of wages due to each such alien employee at the time of departure, and the amount to be deducted therefrom on account of hospital dues or other charges, if any; and upon failure to comply with the provisions of this section the master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer of any such vessel shall be severally liable to a penalty of $10 for each alien concerning whom correct lists are not delivered or to the payment of such sum, if any, as may be assessed in lieu thereof by the Secretary of Labor, not to exceed $10 for each alien concerning whom correct lists are not delivered, and no such vessel shall be granted clearance papers by the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port is located until the amount of said $10 for each alien concerning whom correct lists are not delivered or to the payment of such penalty, if any, have been assessed, and deducted, remitted, or to be so remitted as hereinafter provided: Provided, That clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine.

EXTRACT FROM SUBDIVISION B, RULE 7

SEC. 8. Clearance shall not be granted any vessel until the lists required by section 36 of the Act of February 2, 1917, have been furnished, and not then unless notice of inability to the administrative fine prescribed by said section or to that prescribed by section 35 of said act remain open, the deposit specified in rule 35 has been made.

EXTRACT FROM ACT OF CONGRESS APPROVED MAY 26, 1924

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 13. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws but employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or because of illness requiring his detention, or unless a bond in the penalty of $1,000 for each alien seaman is furnished to such immigration officer as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe, conditioned for the deportation of such alien from the United States.

SEC. 35. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof who fails to detain on board any alien seaman employed on such vessel until the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival has inspected such seaman, or who refuses to permit any immigration officer to go on board such vessel for such inspection or to deport such seaman if required by such immigration officer or the Secretary of Labor so to do, or who fails to detain such seaman in readiness for such deportation, shall pay a penalty of $1,000 for each alien seaman in respect of whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the liability to payment of such fine, or while the same remains unpaid, except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination of the liability to the payment of such fine upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine, or of a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof.

(b) Proof that an alien seaman did not obtain shore leave from the vicinity of the vessel on which he arrived as a seaman, shall be prima facie evidence of a failure to detain such alien seaman on board.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor shall have determined the time when seamen on the vessel on which he arrived may be permitted shore leave, any such vessel detaining such seaman beyond such time shall be deemed to have failed to detain such seaman on board.

(d) Proof that an alien seaman was permitted by the master to land in the United States, except temporarily for such immigration officer at the port of arrival for medical treatment, or because of illness requiring his detention, or unless a bond in the penalty of $1,000 for each alien seaman in respect of whom such failure occurs, or of a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof, or who fails to detain such seaman on board until the inspection of the vessel by such immigration officer or the Secretary of Labor so to do, or who fails to deport such seaman if required by such immigration officer or the Secretary of Labor, shall be prima facie evidence of a failure to detain such seaman on board.

(e) If the Secretary of Labor shall have determined the time when seamen on the vessel on which he arrived may be permitted shore leave, and such vessel detaining such seaman beyond such time shall be deemed to have failed to detain such seaman on board.

(f) Proof that an alien seaman was permitted by the master to land in the United States, except temporarily for such immigration officer at the port of arrival for medical treatment, or because of illness requiring his detention, or unless a bond in the penalty of $1,000 for each alien seaman in respect of whom such failure occurs, or of a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof, or who fails to detain such seaman on board until the inspection of the vessel by such immigration officer or the Secretary of Labor so to do, or who fails to deport such seaman if required by such immigration officer or the Secretary of Labor, shall be prima facie evidence of a failure to detain such seaman on board.

(g) If the Secretary of Labor shall have determined the time when seamen on the vessel on which he arrived may be permitted shore leave, and such vessel detaining such seaman beyond such time shall be deemed to have failed to detain such seaman on board.

(h) Proof that an alien seaman was permitted by the master to land in the United States, except temporarily for such immigration officer at the port of arrival for medical treatment, or because of illness requiring his detention, or unless a bond in the penalty of $1,000 for each alien seaman in respect of whom such failure occurs, or of a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof, or who fails to detain such seaman on board until the inspection of the vessel by such immigration officer or the Secretary of Labor so to do, or who fails to deport such seaman if required by such immigration officer or the Secretary of Labor, shall be prima facie evidence of a failure to detain such seaman on board.

(i) If the Secretary of Labor shall have determined the time when seamen on the vessel on which he arrived may be permitted shore leave, and such vessel detaining such seaman beyond such time shall be deemed to have failed to detain such seaman on board.

(j) Proof that an alien seaman was permitted by the master to land in the United States, except temporarily for such immigration officer at the port of arrival for medical treatment, or because of illness requiring his detention, or unless a bond in the penalty of $1,000 for each alien seaman in respect of whom such failure occurs, or of a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof, or who fails to detain such seaman on board until the inspection of the vessel by such immigration officer or the Secretary of Labor so to do, or who fails to deport such seaman if required by such immigration officer or the Secretary of Labor, shall be prima facie evidence of a failure to detain such seaman on board.

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO MASTER

The list described below shall be prepared on blank forms approved by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigration inspector boarding the vessel at the port of arrival, and shall in no instance be taken from the vessel. The list of changes of alien members prepared by the master (form 524) shall not be returned on board, but shall be delivered by the master to the principal immigration officer at the port of arrival (form 524) for transmission therewith. And the list of aliens departing from the United States shall be made on the manifest.

EXTRACT FROM ACT OF CONGRESS OF FEBRUARY 2, 1917

SEC. 36. That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the owner, agent, consignee, or master thereof to deliver to the principal immigration officer in charge of the port of arrival lists containing the names of all aliens employed on such vessel, stating the positions they respectively hold in the ship's company, when and where they were respectively shipped or engaged, and specifying those to be held on board for immigration officers; or lists containing no such names, as the case may be. Such lists shall be delivered by the master to the Secretary of Labor as soon as discovered, all cases in which any such alien has illegally landed from the vessel, giving a description of such alien, together with such information likely to lead to his apprehension; and before the departure of any such vessel it shall be the duty of such owner, agent, consignee, or master to deliver to such immigration officer, or multiple, as soon as discovered, all cases in which any such alien has obtained, but who were not employed thereon at the time of the arrival but who after such arrival, and before the departure of such vessel, shall be employed by such owner, agent, consignee, or master so to do; and such immigration officer shall have the right to board any such vessel at any time for the purpose of examining into the facts concerning any such alien. Any person, company, or corporation violating the provisions of this section shall be punished by a fine of not more than $10 for each alien concerning whom correct lists are not delivered or a true report is not made as above required; and on such vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the question of the liability to the payment of such fine, and in the event such fine is imposed, while it remains unpaid: Provided, That clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine.

EXTRACT FROM SUBDIVISION B, RULE 7

PAR. 6. Clearance shall not be granted any vessel until the lists required by section 36 of the Act of February 2, 1917, have been transmitted, and not then unless notice of inability to the administrative fine prescribed by said section or to final prescribed by section 35 of said act remains open served, the deposit specified in rule 55 has been made.

SEC. 36. That upon arrival of a vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the owner, agent, consignee, or master thereof to deliver to the principal immigration officer in charge of the port of arrival lists containing the names of all aliens employed on board such vessel, stating the positions they respectively hold in the ship's company, when and where they were respectively shipped or engaged, and from what ports they severally came, which lists shall be prepared on blank forms furnished by the Commissioner General of Immigration, and shall be delivered to the immigration officer at the time of the vessel's arrival at the port of first arrival in the United States. Such lists shall be subject to such further inquiry before the granting of permission to land as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe, and no person shall be allowed to land in the United States from any such vessel unless and until he has been duly inspected and admitted by the immigration officers at the port of arrival, except as provided in section 3 of this Act. Any master, agent, consignee, or owner of any such vessel who shall refuse or neglect to deliver such lists, or who shall deliver incorrect lists, shall pay to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $10 for each alien concerning whom correct lists are not delivered, to be refunded to him if such alien be duly admitted. It shall be the duty of the masters (owners), or in the absence of the masters of vessels, to report to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $10 for each alien concerning whom correct lists are not delivered, to be refunded to him if such alien be duly admitted. It shall be the duty of the masters (owners), or in the absence of the masters of vessels, to report to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the name of each alien employed on board such vessel until the inspection of such alien has been completed and the master, owner, agent, consignee, or person in charge of such vessel has been notified that such alien has been duly admitted to land or otherwise finally disposed of by the immigration officers in charge of the port. Any master, agent, consignee, or owner of any such vessel willfully failing to report the name of any such alien or willfully failing to detain on board or at quarantine any such alien when ordered so to do by the immigration officers in charge of the port shall pay a penalty of $1,000 for each such alien, and no such vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the question of the liability to the payment of such penalty, or while it remains unpaid, nor shall such vessel be granted clearance thereafter if any such alien remains on board without the consent of the immigration officers in charge of the port, except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination of the question of the liability to the payment of such penalty upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such penalty and costs. Clearance shall not be granted any vessel until the master, owner, agent, consignee, or person in charge thereof shall have paid all head taxes, hospital dues, and other charges which have become due from such vessel to the United States, or shall have given a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof.

SEC. 18.5.15. Limit of alien employees: when clearance of vessel denied. Clearance shall not be granted any vessel until the limit prescribed by section 36 of the Immigration Act of 1917 (39 Stat. 888; 8 U. S. C. 151)," have been complied, and not then unless notice of compliance with the administrative fund prescribed by said section or the fund prescribed by section 35 of said Act (39 Stat. 889; 8 U. S. ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 13. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws and employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or hospitalization to which he may be taken by the master, agent, consignee, or owner of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, or for deportation to the country to which such seaman belongs, or to the country in which the vessel shipped such seaman, or to any country which will receive him, except that such seaman may be permitted to land temporarily under bond, in such amount and with such conditions as may be prescribed by the Commissioner General of Immigration, for the purpose of visiting a relative or friend, or for any other reason deemed sufficient by the immigration officer in charge of the port, but no such bond shall be required of any seaman who is a citizen of a country which has been designated by the President as one the citizens of which may be admitted temporarily to the United States as nonimmigrants under section 3 (2) of the Immigration Act of 1924, as amended (8 U. S. C. 203 (2)). Upon the granting of such temporary permission to land, the master, agent, consignee, or owner of the vessel on which such seaman arrived shall pay to the collector of customs a sum sufficient to cover the cost of the maintenance of such seaman while he remains in the United States, and also the cost of his transportation to the country to which he belongs, or to the country in which the vessel shipped such seaman, or to any country which will receive him, unless such seaman is sooner removed from the United States. Such cost of maintenance shall be determined in advance of the departure of such seaman from the United States by the immigration officer in charge of the port, and such cost of transportation shall be determined by the master of the vessel on which the seaman arrived, subject to the approval of the Commissioner General of Immigration. Upon the failure of the master, agent, consignee, or owner of any vessel to pay the cost of maintenance of any such seaman as provided herein, the Secretary of Labor may cause such sum to be deducted from any moneys due or to become due to such master, agent, consignee, or owner of such vessel, and such sum shall be a lien upon such vessel, which may be enforced by libel filed by any district attorney of the United States in the district court of the United States for the district in which such vessel may be found. Clearance of such vessel may be withheld pending the payment of such sum, or the filing of a sufficient bond therefor, and if such vessel shall depart without clearance the master, agent, consignee, or owner thereof shall be liable to a penalty of $500. Such penalty shall constitute a lien upon such vessel, which may be enforced by libel filed by any district attorney of the United States in the district court of the United States for the district in which such vessel may be found. Clearance of such vessel may be withheld pending the payment of such penalty

SEC. 13. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws now and employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, shall be permitted to land in the United States except temporarily for medical treatment, or because of such temporary illness as may render his departure with the vessel impossible unless a bond in the sum of $500 with sufficient surety is deposited to guarantee the departure of such alien from the United States. (43 Stat. 161, 8 U. S. C. 166.)

SEC. 30. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof who fails to deport on board thereof any alien seaman employed on such vessel until the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival has inspected such seaman, or who fails to deport any alien seaman who has been ordered deported pursuant to law, or who fails to deport any seaman on board after such inspection or to deport such seaman if required by such immigration officer at the time of such failure to deport after reimbursement by the immigration officer, or who refuses to pay any head tax imposed by law in respect of such seaman, shall pay to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $1,000 for each alien seaman in respect of whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the liability to payment of such sum, or while the sum remains unpaid, except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such sum, or of a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof approved by the collector of customs.

(b) Head taxes on alien seamen did not appear upon the outbound manifest of the vessel on which he arrived in the United States from any place outside thereof, or that a different number of such seamen were found on board after such inspection or to deport such seamen if required by such immigration officer at the time of such failure to deport after reimbursement by the immigration officer or the Attorney General.

(c) If the Attorney General finds that deportation of the alien seamen on the vessel on which he arrived would cause undue hardship to such seamen he may cause him to be deported on another vessel at the expense of the vessel on which he arrived, and such vessel shall not be granted clearance until such expense has been paid or its payment guaranteed to the satisfaction of the Attorney General.

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 13. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws and employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, upon the termination of such alien from the United States. (43 Stat. 164, 8 U. S. C. C. 166.)

SEC. 30. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, or the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival, shall furnish to any alien seaman employed on such vessel, at the time of the departure of such vessel from the United States, a certificate in the form prescribed by the Attorney General, stating the name of such alien seaman, the date of his entry into the United States, the vessel on which he arrived, and the date of his departure from the United States. Such certificate shall be prima facie evidence of the facts therein stated in any proceeding before the Attorney General or any court.

(b) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, shall be required to hold such vessel in port for such time, not exceeding ten days, as may be necessary for the inspection of the crew by the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival, unless the Attorney General, upon the recommendation of such immigration officer, shall waive such inspection. Such inspection shall include a personal physical examination by the medical examiner.

Attorney General to do so. Such bond to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the vessel arrives, conditioned for the payment of the head tax of $8 and the expenses of maintenance and medical treatment, if any, provided for by section 16 of this Act, of each such alien seaman who may become a public charge within a period of five years after the date of his entry into the United States, and for the payment of the hospital dues provided for by section 32 of this Act, unless such alien seaman shall be duly discharged from such vessel in the United States and a certificate in the form prescribed by the Attorney General from the immigration officer in charge at the port of discharge to the effect that such alien seaman has complied with the conditions of his landing shall have been issued to him and delivered to the master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer of such vessel. Such bond shall not be required in the case of any alien seaman employed on any vessel until the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival has determined that sufficient facilities are not available at such port for the proper detention of such seamen on board such vessel, or in a shed or enclosure on the dock at which such vessel is docked, and has issued a permit to the master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer of such vessel to detain such seamen on board such vessel or in such shed or enclosure during the period such vessel remains in port. Such permit may be revoked at any time by such immigration officer, and upon such revocation such seamen shall be detained on board or in such shed or enclosure, as the case may be, at the expense of the master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer of such vessel, until such vessel departs from the United States. Such seamen shall be entitled to the same privilege of entry into and departure from the United States as are granted to seamen employed on vessels arriving at ports of the United States from foreign ports.

(c) If the Attorney General finds that deportation of the alien seamen on the vessel on which he arrived, and such vessel cannot be obtained to return such alien seamen to the port from

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO MASTER

The list described below shall be prepared on blank forms approved by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigration inspector boarding the vessel at the port of arrival, and shall in no instance be taken from the vessel. The list of crewmen of alien nationality (Form I–418) shall not be returned on board, but shall be delivered by the master to the principal immigration officer at the port. When an arriving seaman is a "workaway," a notation to that effect should be made on the manifest. In order to facilitate inspection of alien seamen, include names of arriving American citizen seamen as well as aliens.

EXTRACT FROM ACT OF CONGRESS OF FEBRUARY 2, 1917, AS AMENDED

SEC. 28. That upon arrival by vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the master, purser, consignee, or agent of the vessel in the district immediately first thereafter arriving at any port of the United States to deliver to the principal immigration officer in charge of the port of arrival or place designated in the port of arrival, or place contiguous thereto, a complete list of all aliens employed on such vessel, stating the position or work on board such vessel of each such employee, and stating full name, age, sex, nationality, last permanent residence, calling or occupation, final destination, whether in possession of passport and visa, and whether destined to any contiguous foreign country, and such additional information relative thereto as may be required by the Commissioner General of Immigration, and shall produce each such alien employee for examination by such officer at the time and place designated by him: Provided, That the master, purser, consignee, or agent of any such vessel may, under such regulations as the Commissioner General of Immigration may prescribe, employ competent persons to assist in the preparation of such list, and the list prepared or verified by such master, purser, consignee, or agent and subscribed and sworn to by him before such immigration officer shall be prima facie evidence of the facts therein stated: Provided further, That the master, purser, consignee, or agent of any such vessel shall not be required to include in such list the name of any alien employee who shall have been employed on board such vessel for a period of less than twenty-four consecutive hours in the port or place in the United States from which such vessel is about to depart for a foreign port or place, unless such alien employee intends to depart from the United States through a port of entry adjacent to the Canadian or Mexican border: And provided further, That the master, purser, consignee, or agent of any such vessel shall not be required to include in such list the name of any alien employee who shall have been employed on board such vessel for a period of less than seventy-two consecutive hours in the port or place in the United States from which such vessel is about to depart for a foreign port or place if such alien employee is destined to a contiguous foreign country and has been in the United States for a period of more than one year next preceding the departure of such alien employee for such foreign country.

EXTRACT FROM 8 CFR 150

SEC. 150.1. Limit of alien employees; when clearance of vessel denied. Clearance shall not be granted any vessel until the list required by section 28 of the Immigration Act of 1917 (39 Stat. 886; 8 U. S. C. 171), have been furnished, and no fines against such vessel under section 16 of the Immigration Act of 1924 (43 Stat. 162; 8 U. S. C. 141), have been imposed, or if imposed, the same have been remitted by the administrative fine transferred pursuant to 8 CFR 150.3, have been deposited with the collector of customs or other officer authorized to collect such fines, or a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof in such amount as may be required by the Commissioner, has been given. Clearance shall not be granted any vessel until the master has delivered to the immigration officer in charge at the port of departure a list, in duplicate, showing the name, nationality, last permanent residence, final destination, and whether in possession of passport and visa, of each alien employee who has been employed on board such vessel at any time during the period of its stay in the United States, except that such list need not include any alien employee who shall have been employed on board such vessel for a period of less than twenty-four consecutive hours in the port or place in the United States from which such vessel is about to depart for a foreign port or place if such alien employee is destined to a contiguous foreign country and has been in the United States for a period of more than one year next preceding the departure of such alien employee for such foreign country. Clearance shall not be granted for the departure of any such vessel if it shall be found that any master, purser, consignee, or agent of such vessel has failed to comply with any of the requirements of this section, unless such master, purser, consignee, or agent shall establish to the satisfaction of the Commissioner General of Immigration that such failure was due to circumstances beyond the control of such master, purser, consignee, or agent, and that such failure has been remedied as far as practicable. Clearance shall not be granted prior to the determination of such question upon deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine.

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 13. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws and employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or unless and until he has been certified by the Attorney General upon the recommendation of the Commissioner of Immigration as the Attorney General may prescribe for the nationals generally, or specially, of the country to which such seaman belongs, to the effect that the presence of such alien seaman in the United States is not known or believed by the Attorney General to be inimical to the welfare, safety, or security of the United States. (43 Stat. 164; 8 U. S. C. 146.)

SEC. 30. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, or departing from the United States, (1) shall pay to the collector of customs of the district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $10 for each alien concerning whom correct lists are not delivered or a sum sufficient to cover such fine, and, in the event such fine is imposed, maybe if remains unpaid: Provided, That clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine.

SEC. 15. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws and employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or unless and until he has been certified by the Attorney General upon the recommendation of the Commissioner of Immigration as the Attorney General may prescribe for the nationals generally, or specially, of the country to which such seaman belongs, to the effect that the presence of such alien seaman in the United States is not known or believed by the Attorney General to be inimical to the welfare, safety, or security of the United States. (43 Stat. 164; 8 U. S. C. 146.)

SEC. 30. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, or departing from the United States, except for temporary shore leave granted any alien seaman employed on board such vessel and duly certified by the master of such vessel as a deserter, shall pay a head tax of $8 for each alien seaman (except those in transit through the United States to foreign countries, including those entering Canada or Mexico in pursuance of arrangements between the United States and such countries for the temporary admission of such seamen) employed on board such vessel and entering the United States, which tax shall be paid to the collector of customs of the district in which the port of arrival is located at the time of the entry of such vessel, or if no entry is required, at the time of the departure of such vessel from the United States. Such tax shall be a lien upon the vessel, which may be enforced by the collector of customs by the detention and sale of sufficient of the tackle, apparel, furniture, equipment, or cargo of such vessel to satisfy the amount of such tax due and unpaid, upon application therefor by the owner, agent, consignee, master, or purser of such vessel. Such tax shall be refunded to the master, purser, consignee, or agent of such vessel if such alien seaman is prevented from being employed on board such vessel by reason of his being refused a visa by a consular officer or refused admission to the United States by an immigration officer, or if such alien seaman shall desert while in quarantine and such vessel departs therefrom without the payment of such tax, upon satisfactory proof being furnished to the Commissioner of Immigration that such alien seaman was not allowed to land in the United States.

(b) Every alien seaman who shall not depart from the United States with the vessel on which he arrived in the United States, or who shall depart from the United States on any vessel other than the vessel on which he arrived in the United States, shall be deported at the cost of the appropriation for the enforcement of the immigration laws, unless the master, agent, consignee, or purser of the vessel on which such alien seaman arrived in the United States shall deposit with the collector of customs of the district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $10 for each alien seaman in respect of whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the liability to payment of such head tax or while the same remains unpaid, except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such tax.

(c) If the Attorney General finds that deportation of the alien seamen on the vessel on which he arrived, and such vessel is unable to depart after reimbursement by the immigration officer of the expenses of the vessel on which he arrived, and such vessel cannot depart for such seamen on such vessel at the expense of the vessel on which he arrived, the Attorney General may cause such seamen to be deported on another vessel at the expense of the vessel on which he arrived in the United States or the owner thereof, or the consignee or agent of such vessel, in the discretion of the Attorney General.

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO MASTER

The list described below shall be prepared on blank forms approved by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigration inspector boarding the vessel at the port of arrival, but shall in no instance be taken from the vessel. The list of changes of alien members of the crew (Form 508) shall not be furnished on board, but shall be delivered by the master to the boarding immigration officer at the port. When an arriving seaman is a national of a country other than the one issuing the passport upon which he is admitted, a notation to that effect should be made on the manifest.

EXTRACT FROM ACT OF CONGRESS OF FEBRUARY 2, 1917

SEC. 36. That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the owner, agent, consignee, or master thereof to deliver to the immigrant inspector boarding the vessel at the port of arrival lists containing the names of all aliens employed on such vessel, stating the position or occupation of each alien employed in the port of arrival, the nationality, last residence, and destination as far as known to the master, agent, consignee, or owner thereof, and such other information as may be required by regulations prescribed by the Secretary of Labor. Such lists shall be prepared before the departure of any such vessel from the last port at which she touched, and shall be in such form as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe, stating a description of such alien, together with any information which he may require in order to determine whether or not such alien is subject to the provisions of the immigration laws. Any master, agent, consignee, or owner of any such vessel who refuses to deliver to the immigrant inspector boarding the vessel at the time of the vessel's first arrival at the port the list required by this section, or who refuses to deliver to such immigrant inspector at any time prior to the departure of such vessel from the port any additional information demanded by him, shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 for each such offense. Any master, agent, consignee, or owner of any such vessel who knowingly lands or permits to land from any such vessel any alien before the list required by this section has been delivered and the inspection of such alien has been completed, unless such alien shall have been specially detained for further examination by the Secretary of Labor or his subordinates, shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 for each such alien so landed or permitted to land. Any such alien landed or permitted to land shall be taken into custody and returned to the country whence he came, at the expense of the vessel on which he arrived, and such vessel may be required to provide sufficient funds for the maintenance of such alien pending the completion of the inspection and his departure from the United States. Such expenses shall be a lien upon such vessel, and clearance may be withheld or granted and such vessel may be libeled therefor in the United States district court for the district in which the port is located. The head tax imposed by section 2 of this Act shall be paid for each alien landed in the United States, except that no head tax shall be collected in the case of any alien who has been admitted to the United States and who is returning from a temporary visit abroad. Any alien who shall come in transit through the United States shall be subject to the provisions of this section, but the Secretary of Labor may by regulation provide for the admission without detention of such classes of aliens in transit as may be specified by him.

EXTRACT FROM SUBDIVISION B, RULE 7.

SEC. 18. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws and employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or hospital to such recognized as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe for the ultimate deportation of such alien from the United States.

SEC. 35. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof who fails to deport on board such vessel any alien seaman employed on such vessel until the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival has inspected such seaman (which inspection in all cases shall include a personal physical examination by the medical examiner) or who fails to deport any such seaman in accordance with the requirements of such inspection officer at the Secretary of Labor to do so, shall pay to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $1,000 for each alien seaman in respect of whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance papers from the determination of the Secretary of Labor to do so, shall pay to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $1,000 for each alien seaman in respect of whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance papers from the determination of the immigration officer at the port of arrival, and such vessel may be required to provide sufficient funds for the maintenance of such alien pending the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine, or to a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof, approved by the collector of customs.

(b) Fines shall be paid as above required did not appear upon the outbound manifest of the vessel on which he arrived in the United States from any place outside thereof, or that he was not reported by the master of such vessel as a deserter, shall be prima facie evidence of a failure to obtain or deport alien seamen as required by the immigration officer at the Secretary of Labor.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor finds that deportation of the alien seaman on the vessel on which he arrived, and such vessel may be required to provide sufficient funds for the maintenance of such alien seaman pending his deportation, or such vessel may clear from the port without the consent of the Secretary of Labor.

SEC. 36. That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the owner, agent, consignee, or master thereof to deliver to the immigrant inspector boarding the vessel at the port of arrival lists containing the names of all aliens employed on such vessel, stating the position or occupation of each alien employed, nationality, last residence, and destination as far as known to the master, agent, consignee, or owner thereof, and such other information as may be required by regulations prescribed by the Secretary of Labor. Such lists shall be prepared before the departure of any such vessel from the last port at which she touched, and shall be in such form as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe, stating a description of such alien, together with any information which he may require in order to determine whether or not such alien is subject to the provisions of the immigration laws. Any master, agent, consignee, or owner of any such vessel who refuses to deliver to such immigrant inspector at any time prior to the departure of such vessel from the port any additional information demanded by him, shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 for each such offense. Any master, agent, consignee, or owner of any such vessel who knowingly lands or permits to land from any such vessel any alien before the list required by this section has been delivered and the inspection of such alien has been completed, unless such alien shall have been specially detained for further examination by the Secretary of Labor or his subordinates, shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 for each such alien so landed or permitted to land. Any such alien landed or permitted to land shall be taken into custody and returned to the country whence he came, at the expense of the vessel on which he arrived, and such vessel may be required to provide sufficient funds for the maintenance of such alien pending the completion of the inspection and his departure from the United States. Such expenses shall be a lien upon such vessel, and clearance may be withheld or granted and such vessel may be libeled therefor in the United States district court for the district in which the port is located. The head tax imposed by section 2 of this Act shall be paid for each alien landed in the United States, except that no head tax shall be collected in the case of any alien who has been admitted to the United States and who is returning from a temporary visit abroad. Any alien who shall come in transit through the United States shall be subject to the provisions of this section, but the Secretary of Labor may by regulation provide for the admission without detention of such classes of aliens in transit as may be specified by him.

SEC. 18. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws and employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or hospital to such recognized as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe for the ultimate deportation of such alien from the United States.

SEC. 35. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof who fails to deport on board such vessel any alien seaman employed on such vessel until the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival has inspected such seaman (which inspection in all cases shall include a personal physical examination by the medical examiner) or who fails to deport any such seaman in accordance with the requirements of such inspection officer at the Secretary of Labor to do so, shall pay to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $1,000 for each alien seaman in respect of whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance papers from the determination of the immigration officer at the port of arrival, and such vessel may be required to provide sufficient funds for the maintenance of such alien pending the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine, or to a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof, approved by the collector of customs.

(b) Fines shall be paid as above required did not appear upon the outbound manifest of the vessel on which he arrived in the United States from any place outside thereof, or that he was not reported by the master of such vessel as a deserter, shall be prima facie evidence of a failure to obtain or deport alien seamen as required by the immigration officer at the Secretary of Labor.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor finds that deportation of the alien seaman on the vessel on which he arrived, and such vessel may be required to provide sufficient funds for the maintenance of such alien seaman pending his deportation, or such vessel may clear from the port without the consent of the Secretary of Labor.

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO MASTER

The list described below shall be prepared on blank forms approved by the Department, and be ready for delivery to the immigration inspector boarding the vessel at the port of arrival, and shall in no instance be taken from the vessel. The list or manifest of aliens required by the immigration officer at the port of arrival (Form 88) shall not be furnished on board, but shall be delivered upon demand at the office of the immigration officer.

EXTRACT FROM ACT OF CONGRESS OF FEBRUARY 5, 1917

SEC. 38. That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port to which it shall be the duty of the owner, agent, master, commander, or officer of such vessel in the United States from any foreign port to which it shall be the duty of the master of any vessel bringing an alien emigrant to the United States to report and deliver to the proper immigration officer at the port of arrival the manifest required by section 12 of this Act to be prepared in the case of each such alien emigrant, and no such master, agent, owner, commander, or officer shall permit any such alien emigrant to land in the United States before the examination of such alien by the proper immigration officer, or after he has been notified that such alien emigrant has been certified to a board of special inquiry for further examination, until authorized to do so by such board or immigration officer. Any such master, agent, owner, commander, or officer who violates any of the provisions of this section shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof in the court of the district in which the port of arrival is located shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 for each and every such alien emigrant with respect to whom any such violation occurs.

SEC. 39. That upon the certification by the Secretary of Labor that suitable and sufficient accommodations have been provided on any vessel arriving in the United States for the detention of aliens detained for special inquiry examination by the Department of Labor, the owners, agents, masters, commanders, or consignees of such vessel shall cause all aliens who may be required by the Department of Labor or any of its officers to be detained on board such vessel or at quarantine, pending the completion of the examination of such aliens, to be so detained, and shall provide suitable and sufficient food for such detained aliens during the period of detention and until such aliens are landed in the United States or returned to the countries whence they came or otherwise disposed of as required by law. The cost of such detention and of such food shall be paid by the owners of such vessel. Upon the refusal or failure of any master, agent, owner, commander, or officer of any such vessel to provide such detention and food for such detained aliens, or upon the refusal or failure to pay the cost thereof, such master, agent, owner, commander, or officer shall be subject to a penalty of $300 for each such refusal or failure, and such vessel shall have no clearance from any port of the United States while such default continues. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the question of the necessity for detaining any alien or the sufficiency of the food provided, or the payment of the cost and charges thereof, but such question shall be determined and such cost, charges, and penalties collected or secured before such clearance is granted. The Secretary of Labor may issue rules and regulations not inconsistent herewith governing the detention, maintenance, and care of aliens detained on board vessels or at quarantine, and the service to be performed by officers of the United States and by the employees of such vessels in connection therewith, and may provide suitable and sufficient detention quarters and maintenance and care of such aliens at the ports of arrival where no such detention quarters are provided by the local authorities or by the transportation lines, and may employ such additional matrons, nurses, guards, interpreters, and other employees as may be necessary for the detention, maintenance, and care of such aliens, and may enter into such contracts as may be necessary for the performance of the obligations of the United States with respect to such detention, maintenance, and care, and may rent such buildings as may be necessary for the detention of such aliens, and may make such rules and regulations as may be necessary for the proper execution of the powers and duties conferred upon him by this section, and may prescribe such penalties, not exceeding $10 per day for each violation thereof, as he may deem necessary, which penalties may be remitted or mitigated by the Secretary of Labor, and shall be paid into the Treasury of the United States. Any officer of the United States who shall violate any of the provisions of this section shall be dismissed from the service of the United States.

EXTRACT FROM SUBDIVISION B, RULE 7

PAR. 6. Clearance shall not be granted any vessel until the fees required by section 35 of the Act of February 5, 1917, have been paid, unless remitted, and that fact noted on the clearance, and the exhibit required by section 34 of said Act shall have been produced.

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO MASTER

The list described below shall be prepared on plain white paper approved by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigration inspector boarding the vessel at the port of arrival and shall in no instance be taken from the vessel. The list of changes of alien members of crews (Form I–418) shall not be required on board, but shall be delivered by the master to the principal immigration officer at the port. When an arriving seaman is a "workaway," a deduction is made on the manifest. In order to facilitate inspection of alien seamen, include names of arriving American citizen seamen as well as aliens.

EXTRACT FROM ACT OF CONGRESS OF FEBRUARY 5, 1917, AS AMENDED

SEC. 34. That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the owner, agent, consignee, or master thereof to deliver to the principal immigration officer in charge of the port of arrival like counterpart the names of all aliens employed on such vessel, stating the position they respectively hold in the ship's company, when and where they were respectively shipped or engaged, and whether those to be paid off and discharged in the port of arrival or those continuing on board of such vessel; and the immigration officer in charge of the port of arrival shall have the right to examine all crews in which any such alien may be employed, and to take such action as the Attorney General shall by regulation prescribe; and after the arrival of any such vessel it shall be the duty of such owner, agent, consignee, or master to report to such immigration officer, in writing, as soon as discovered, all cases in which any such alien has illegally landed from the vessel, giving a description of such alien, together with any information likely to lead to his apprehension; and before the departure of any such vessel it shall be the duty of such owner, agent, consignee, or master to deliver to such immigration officer a further list containing the names of all alien employees who were not employed thereon at the time of the arrival but who will leave port thereon at the time of the departure, and also the names of those, if any, who have been hired on and discharged, and of those, if any, who have deserted or landed; and in case of the failure of such owner, agent, consignee, or master so to deliver either of the lists aforesaid, or wherein such list, if required by the Attorney General, by so to the collector of customs or the customs district in which the port of arrival is located, is found to be incorrect or incomplete in any particular, such owner, agent, consignee, or master shall pay to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $1,000 for each alien seaman in respect of whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the liability to payment of such sum, or while the same remains unpaid, except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such sum, or of a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof approved by the collector of customs.

(b) Proof that an alien seaman did not appear upon the outbound manifest of the vessel on which he arrived in the United States from any foreign contiguous territory, or that he was rejected by the master of such vessel as a deserter, shall be prima facie evidence of a failure to deliver to the Attorney General lists of alien seamen on the vessel on which he arrived, which would cause such vessel not to be granted clearance until such expense has been paid or its payment guaranteed to the satisfaction of the Attorney General.

(c) If the Attorney General finds that deputation of the alien seamen on the vessel on which he arrived would cause undue handship to such seamen he may cause him to be deported on another vessel at the expense of the vessel on which he arrived, and such vessel shall not be granted clearance until such expense has been paid or its payment guaranteed to the satisfaction of the Attorney General.

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 18. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws and employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily during the period such vessel remains in port, unless such alien seaman shall have been granted by the Secretary of Labor a landing permit or a conditional permit to land in the United States from any place outside thereof, or a transit permit to such destinations as the Attorney General may prescribe for the purposes of this section, or unless such alien seaman is in possession of a valid seaman's passport and shall establish to the satisfaction of the immigration officer in charge at the port of entry that he intends to depart from the United States within such period of time as may be required by the master of the vessel on which he arrived, not to exceed thirty days, and that he is not a member of a class of aliens ineligible to citizenship, unless the Attorney General, in his discretion, shall otherwise direct. Any alien seaman who shall land in the United States in violation of this section shall be deported in the manner provided by section 19 of this Act (39 Stat. 890; 8 U. S. C. 155).

Transfer of alien seamen. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, desiring to transfer any alien seaman employed on board such vessel to the United States, except temporarily during the period such vessel remains in port, shall be required to secure a permit from the Secretary of Labor for the removal of such alien seaman. Application for such permit shall be made in writing and shall state the name, nationality, last residence, calling, and last port of embarkation of such alien seaman, the vessel on which he arrived, the length of time he has been employed on board thereof, the wages received, and the time and purpose of his proposed transfer. Such application shall be accompanied by a certificate of the master of the vessel on which such alien seaman arrived, stating that the character and conduct of such alien seaman have been good while employed on board such vessel, and that he has no objection to the granting of such permit. Such application shall be made to the immigration officer in charge of the port at which such vessel arrived, and such officer shall, if satisfied that such alien seaman is not a member of a class ineligible to citizenship, and that the character and conduct of such alien seaman have been good while employed on board such vessel, and that the master has no objection to the granting of such permit, issue a permit in duplicate authorizing the master to cause such alien seaman to be transferred to the United States from such vessel, and shall indorse upon the certificate of the master the fact that such permit has been issued. Such permit shall be void unless the transfer of such alien seaman is made within ten days from the date of its issuance.

(b) Any person who shall violate any of the provisions of this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 or by imprisonment for not more than one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

SEC. 150.15. Limit of alien employees; more clearance of vessel denied. Clearance shall not be granted any vessel until the limitation prescribed by section 34 of the Immigration Act of 1917 (39 Stat. 890; 8 U. S. C. 141), where been terminated, and not after such notice of termination has been withdrawn or the period of time specified in §§ 150.13–150.14, has been made.

EXTRACT FROM ACT OF CONGRESS OF FEBRUARY 5, 1917, AS AMENDED

SEC. 34. That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the owner, agent, consignee, or master thereof to deliver to the principal immigration officer in charge of the port of arrival like counterpart the names of all aliens employed on such vessel, stating the position they respectively hold in the ship's company, when and where they were respectively shipped or engaged, and whether those to be paid off and discharged in the port of arrival or those continuing on board of such vessel; and the immigration officer in charge of the port of arrival shall have the right to examine all crews in which any such alien may be employed, and to take such action as the Attorney General shall by regulation prescribe; and after the arrival of any such vessel it shall be the duty of such owner, agent, consignee, or master to report to such immigration officer, in writing, as soon as discovered, all cases in which any such alien has illegally landed from the vessel, giving a description of such alien, together with any information likely to lead to his apprehension; and before the departure of any such vessel it shall be the duty of such owner, agent, consignee, or master to deliver to such immigration officer a further list containing the names of all alien employees who were not employed thereon at the time of the arrival but who will leave port thereon at the time of the departure, and also the names of those, if any, who have been hired on and discharged, and of those, if any, who have deserted or landed; and in case of the failure of such owner, agent, consignee, or master so to deliver either of the lists aforesaid, or wherein such list, if required by the Attorney General, by so to the collector of customs or the customs district in which the port of arrival is located, is found to be incorrect or incomplete in any particular, such owner, agent, consignee, or master shall pay to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $1,000 for each alien concerning whom such correct lists are not delivered or a true reason is not made as above provided; and no such vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the question of the liability to the payment of such sum, and in the event such fine is imposed, while it remains unpaid; nor shall such fine be remitted or refunded: Provided, That clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine.

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO MASTER

The list prescribed below shall be prepared on blank forms approved by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigration officer at the port of first arrival. The list is to consist of sheets of uniform size, each sheet containing as many lines as may be necessary for the names of the crew. The sheets are to be numbered consecutively in the upper right-hand corner, and the last sheet is to be so marked as to indicate the total number of sheets. The name of every person employed on board the vessel, whether as master, officer, member of the crew, cook, steward, or stewardess, must be entered on the list, and the nationality of each person must be given. Any change in the crew after the list has been prepared must be noted on the list, and the reason for the change stated, such as death, desertion, illness, etc. The list must be verified by the master or commanding officer, or first or second officer, by his signature thereto, and must be delivered to the immigration officer at the port of first arrival in the United States. Any person employed on board the vessel after the list has been delivered to the immigration officer must be entered on a supplemental list, which must be verified in like manner by the master or commanding officer, or first or second officer, by his signature thereto, and must be delivered to the immigration officer at the port of first arrival in the United States. Any person who shall refuse to answer fully to the best of his knowledge any question put to him by the immigration officer or any other officer in charge at the port of arrival in the United States regarding himself or any other person proposing to enter the United States, or who shall willfully give false information in regard to any such matter, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine not exceeding $100 or by imprisonment for a term not exceeding six months, or by both such fine and imprisonment, at the discretion of the court.

Immigrant Inspector.

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO MASTER

The list described below shall be prepared and ready for delivery to the immigration inspector boarding the vessel at the port of arrival, and shall in no instance be taken from the vessel. The list of changes of alien members of crews (Form 632) shall not be furnished or boarded, but shall be delivered by the master to the principal immigration officer at the port.

SEC. 36. That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or before it shall be the duty of the owner, agent, consignee, or master thereof to deliver to the principal immigration officer in charge of the port of arrival lists containing the names of all aliens employed on such vessel, stating the positions they respectively hold in the ship's company, when and where they were respectively shipped or engaged, and specifying those to be landed at the port of arrival; or such lists containing no names of such aliens may be delivered as the Secretary of Labor shall by regulation prescribe; and after the arrival of any such vessel it shall be the duty of such owner, agent, consignee, or master to report to such immigration officer, in writing, as soon as discovered, all cases in which any such alien has illegally landed from the vessel, giving a description of such alien, together with any information likely to lead to his apprehension; and before the departure of any such vessel it shall be the duty of such owner, agent, consignee, or master to deliver to such immigration officer a further list containing the names of all alien employees who were not employed thereon at the time of the arrival but who will leave port thereon at the time of the departure, and also the names of those, if any, who have been hired off and discharged, and of those, if any, who have deserted or landed; and in case of the failure of such owner, agent, consignee, or master so to deliver either of the said lists of such aliens arriving and departing, respectively, or so to report such cases of desertion or landing, such owner, agent, consignee, or master shall, if ordered by the Secretary of Labor, pay to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $10 for each alien concerning whom correct lists are not delivered or a true report is not made as above required; and no such vessel shall be granted clearance and, in the event such fine is imposed, while it remains unpaid, nor shall such fine be remitted or refunded: Provided, That clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine.

EXTRACT FROM SUBDIVISION 3, RULE 10

SEC. 3. Manifesting, reporting, and identifying. (a) Arriving and departing seamen shall be manifested on the blank forms provided for that purpose by the department, in accordance with the terms of section 36. When an arriving seaman is a "motorman," a notation to that effect should be made upon the manifest.

(b) Clearance shall not be granted any vessel until the list required by section 36 para graph 3 has been furnished, and not then unless, notice of liability to the administrative fine prescribed by said section or to that prescribed by section 35 hereof been served, the deposit specified in Rule 35 (subd. 5) has been made.

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO MASTER

The list described below shall be inserted on blank forms approved by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigrant inspector boarding the vessel at the port of arrival, and shall in no instance be taken from the vessel. The list of aliens on board must be delivered by the master to the proper immigration officer at the port of arrival (Form I-418) shall not be destroyed or mutilated, but shall be delivered by the master to the proper immigration officer at the port. When an alien seaman is a "workaway," a notation to that effect should be made on the manifest. In order to facilitate inspection of alien seamen, include names of alternate citizen seamen as well as aliens.

EXTRACT FROM ACT OF CONGRESS OF FEBRUARY 5, 1917, AS AMENDED

SEC. 36. That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the owner, agent, consignee, or master thereof to deliver to the principal immigration officer in charge of the port of arrival lists containing the names of all aliens employed on such vessel, arranged in the following groups: First, cabin and steerage passengers who have been admitted to the United States; second, cabin passengers who have been admitted or who have been duly landed at some port other than the port of arrival; third, cabin passengers who have been landed from the vessel, except a description of such alien, together with information likely to lead to its apprehension; and fourth, all aliens employed on such vessel in any capacity whatsoever connected with the operation, service, or maintenance thereof. Such lists shall be delivered before the departure of any such vessel if aliens be the only or such owner, agent, consignee, or master to deliver to such immigration officer, in writing, as soon as discovered, all cases in which any such alien has been illegally landed from the vessel, giving a description of such alien, together with information likely to lead to its apprehension; and such owner, agent, consignee, or master to report to such immigration officer, in writing, as soon as discovered, all cases in which any such alien has been landed from such vessel at a port other than the port of arrival. The master, agent, consignee, or master of each vessel shall also deliver to such immigration officer at the time of the arrival and before the departure of any such vessel if aliens be the only or such owner, agent, consignee, or master, to deliver to such immigration officer a manifest of all aliens employed on such vessel who were not employed thereon at the time of the arrival and who will leave port thereon at the time of the departure, and also the names of those, if any, who have been hired to be employed, and to deliver either to the master, agent, consignee, or owner of the vessel, if any there be, or to the person in charge of the vessel, if any, who have been hired, a description of such alien sufficient for the identification of such alien, and in the event such alien is intended, while it remains ashore, not shall such alien be permitted or introduced: Provided, That clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such doubt

Sheet No. 2

AFFIDAVIT OF THE MASTER OR COMMANDING OFFICER, OR FIRST OR SECOND OFFICER

I, A. M. CHEEK, of the U.S.S. LEXINGTON, do declare that the foregoing is a full and true list of all the crew, brought in said vessel from any port or place during her present voyage. I have noted the copy of section 36 of the Act of February 5, 1917, extract from Title 8, Code of Federal Regulations, and copy of sections 21 and 23, Act of May 26, 1924, which appear below.

A. M. Cheek
Master, First or Second Officer.

Sworn to before me this 7th day of NOV 7 - 1942, 21

Immigrant Inspector.

16—16210-1

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO MASTER

The list described below shall be prepared on blank forms approved by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigration inspector, possible the vessel at the port of entry, and in no instance be taken from the vessel. The list or manifest of aliens required by section 12 of the act of February 5, 1917 (U. S. C., title 8, sec. 136), shall not be required on board, but shall be delivered by the master to the principal immigration officer at the port. When an alternate manifest is used, a "Workpaper" a duplicate to that effect should be made on the manifest. In order to facilitate inspection, aliens employed on such vessel, excluding the boilerroom crew, must be mustered (on deck, if practicable) at the time the vessel arrives within the territorial waters of the United States, and such vessel shall not be granted clearance until such examination has been had or the payment guaranteed to the satisfaction of the Attorney General.

SEC. 36. (a) That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer of such vessel to deliver to the principal immigration officer in charge of the port of entry, or to his assistant, a complete list or manifest, signed by him, of all aliens on board such vessel, whether destined to the United States or not, and whether they were transported as cabin passengers or otherwise, and shall thereafter from time to time, upon the demand of such officer, deliver to him a like list or manifest of any such aliens on board such vessel which were not included in any list or manifest theretofore delivered. Such list or manifest shall be prepared in the port of entry, or place in transit, or last continental port of departure, and shall contain the names of all aliens employed on such vessel, showing the positions they respectively hold in the ship's company, where and whence they were respectively shipped or engaged, and whether destined to the United States or not, and such other information as may be required by the Attorney General in the enforcement of the provisions of this Act. Such list or manifest shall be subscribed and sworn to before the immigration officer in charge at the port of entry, or place in transit, or last continental port of departure, by the master, owner, agent, consignee, or purser of such vessel, and shall be in such form as the Attorney General may prescribe. Such list or manifest shall be delivered by the master to the immigration officer at the port of entry before any such alien is landed from such vessel, and shall be prima facie evidence of the right of the alien to land in the United States. (43 Stat. 161, 8 U. S. C. 136.)

SEC. 50. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof with any alien on board such vessel who is not lawfully entitled to enter the United States, or who is afflicted with any loathsome or dangerous contagious disease, or who is not in possession of a valid unexpired immigration visa, if such visa is required by this Act or regulations made thereunder, or other travel document required by this Act, shall be required to take such alien back to the place from which he came, or to the country to which he belongs, or to the country in which he resided before coming to the United States, as the Secretary of Labor may direct: Provided, That such alien shall not be returned without a hearing before a special inquiry officer unless (1) he is ineligible to citizenship and is a stowaway, or (2) he is ineligible to citizenship and within one year after entry is found to have been a member of one of the classes excluded by paragraphs (9), (10), (27), (28), or (29) of section 3 of this Act, or (3) he is ineligible to citizenship and within one year after entry is found to have become a public charge from causes not affirmatively shown to have arisen subsequent to entry, or (4) within one year after entry it is discovered that he entered in violation of this Act or any other law of the United States, or (5) he is excludable under section 19 of this Act. Nothing contained in this section shall limit the authority conferred in section 20 of this Act. (39 Stat. 886; 8 U. S. C. 151.)" have been translated, and not then unless notice of hearing been served, the general charges in ¶¶ 100.13–100.17 have been made.

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 13. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws and employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, shall be permitted to land in the United States except temporarily for medical treatment, or because of sickness or injury requiring his hospitalization as the Attorney General may prescribe for the ultimate deportation of such alien from the United States. (43 Stat. 161, 8 U. S. C. 136.)

SEC. 50. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof with any alien seaman employed on such vessel until the immigration officer in charge at the port of entry shall have inspected such seaman (which inspection in all cases shall include a personal physical examination by such immigration officer or the Attorney General or to go on shall pay to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $1,000 for each alien seaman in respect of whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the liability to payment of such fine, or while the fine remains unpaid, except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine, or of a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof approved by the collector of customs.

(b) That any fine or penalty incurred by the master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer of any vessel by reason of the violation of the provisions of this section relating to the admission of aliens, or any of them, into the United States, may be remitted or mitigated by the Secretary of Labor, upon such terms and conditions as he shall deem just and reasonable, and shall be delivered by the master to the principal immigration officer at the port of entry before any such alien is landed from such vessel, and shall be prima facie evidence of the right of the alien to land in the United States. (43 Stat. 161, 8 U. S. C. 136.)

(c) If the Attorney General finds that deportation of the alien seaman on the vessel on which he arrived would cause undue hardship to such seaman he may cause him to be deported on another vessel at the expense of the vessel on which he arrived, and such vessel shall not be granted clearance until such expense has been paid or the payment guaranteed to the satisfaction of the Attorney General.

AFFIDAVIT OF THE MASTER OR COMMANDING OFFICER, OR FIRST OR SECOND OFFICER

I, ——— GEORGE HANSEN ———, of the ——— U. S. TANKER ———, do declare that the foregoing is a full and true list of all the crew promptly on said vessel from any port or place during her present voyage.

I have noted the copy of section 30 of the Act of February 2, 1917, extract from subdivision B, rule 7, and copy of sections 13 and 55, Act of May 28, 1924, which appear below.

———— Master.

Sworn to before me this ——— day of ——— May ——— 19 44

———— Immigrant Inspector.

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO MASTER

The list described below shall be prepared on blank forms approved by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigration inspector boarding the vessel at the port of arrival; and shall in no instance be taken from the vessel. The list of aliens of alien immigrants in transit through the United States (Form 507) shall not be furnished on board, but shall be delivered by the master to the immigration officer at the port of arrival (Form 508) shall be furnished by the master of each vessel at the port of departure to the immigration officer at the port of departure. When an alien member of the crew is discharged, the entry opposite his name shall be noted in the column provided for remarks, stating the reason for his discharge, as "DESERTED," "DISCHARGED," "DIED," etc.

SEC. 28. That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or from any possession of the United States, the master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer of such vessel shall deliver to the immigrant inspector at the port of arrival lists containing the names of all aliens employed on board such vessel, and the capacity in which each such alien is employed, and shall report the names of all aliens employed in such capacity who have been discharged or who have died during the period of such employment, and the cause of such discharge, if known, and shall report the name of each alien who may desert while such vessel is in port, and the cause for such desertion, if known, to the immigrant inspector at the port of arrival. Such lists shall be prepared at such time before the departure of such vessel from such port as may be prescribed by the Commissioner-General of Immigration, with the approval of the Secretary of Labor, and shall be delivered to the immigrant inspector at the port of arrival. Such lists shall be prepared in quadruplicate, and one copy shall be delivered to the immigrant inspector at the port of arrival, one copy shall be delivered to the collector of customs at the customs district in which the port of arrival is located, and one copy shall be delivered to the Secretary of Labor, and one copy shall be retained by the master of such vessel, subject to the production of such lists to any immigrant inspector or to any person authorized by the Secretary of Labor to inspect the same, until the vessel shall depart from the port of arrival. Such lists shall contain such information as may be required by the Secretary of Labor as to the sex, calling, nationality, last permanent residence, and intended destination in the United States of each alien named therein, and such other information relative to such aliens as may be required by the Secretary of Labor. Such lists shall be verified by the oath of the master or commanding officer of such vessel, and shall contain a statement by the master or commanding officer that no person other than those named therein has been employed on board such vessel during the period covered by such lists, and that no alien named therein has deserted or been discharged except as stated therein. Such lists shall be in such form as may be prescribed by the Secretary of Labor, and additional information relative to such persons may be required at the discretion of the Secretary of Labor or such officers as he may designate for the purpose.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor shall find that deportation of the alien seaman on the vessel on which he arrived would cause undue hardship to such seaman by reason of a relationship by marriage or family existing in the United States, he may cause such alien to be detained on board such vessel or at such place as he may designate pending the decision as to whether he will grant the application for the issuance of a permit for the temporary landing of such alien seaman under such bond and such regulations as he may prescribe, but such temporary landing shall not be considered a waiver of any right to deport such alien.

SEC. 30. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof shall not permit any alien seaman employed on such vessel to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or treatment of such seaman in a hospital, or because of universal or local military necessity, or pursuant to such regulations as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe for the alien seaman temporarily to land for the purpose of obtaining supplies or for the performance of such other temporary service or employment as may be approved by the Secretary of Labor or such person or persons as he may designate for the purpose, and for such period of time as he may prescribe, without the payment of the tax imposed by section 2 of this Act, and without filing the bond required by section 3 of this Act, and without having procured the visa of such alien seaman's passport by a consular officer, unless such alien seaman is in possession of a valid unexpired immigrant visa. Such seaman may be required to deposit with the master of such vessel a sum sufficient to cover the cost of his passage to the port of such vessel's departure from the United States, unless such seaman is in possession of a valid unexpired immigrant visa. Such seaman may be required to deposit with the master of such vessel a sum sufficient to cover the cost of his passage to the port of such vessel's departure from the United States, unless such seaman is in possession of a valid unexpired immigrant visa.

(b) Upon the arrival of such vessel at a port of the United States, the master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer of such vessel shall report to the immigrant inspector at such port the name of each such alien seaman employed on such vessel who has been discharged or who has died during the period of such employment, and the cause of such discharge, if known, and shall report the name of each alien seaman who may desert while such vessel is in port, and the cause for such desertion, if known, to the immigrant inspector at the port of arrival. Such report shall be verified by the oath of the master or commanding officer of such vessel, and shall contain a statement by the master or commanding officer that no person other than those named therein has been employed on board such vessel during the period covered by such report, and that no alien named therein has deserted or been discharged except as stated therein. Such report shall be in such form as may be prescribed by the Secretary of Labor, and additional information relative to such persons may be required at the discretion of the Secretary of Labor or such officers as he may designate for the purpose.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor shall find that deportation of the alien seaman on the vessel on which he arrived would cause undue hardship to such seaman by reason of a relationship by marriage or family existing in the United States, he may cause such alien to be detained on board such vessel or at such place as he may designate pending the decision as to whether he will grant the application for the issuance of a permit for the temporary landing of such alien seaman under such bond and such regulations as he may prescribe, but such temporary landing shall not be considered a waiver of any right to deport such alien.

SEC. 31. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof shall not permit any alien seaman employed on such vessel until the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival has inspected such seaman (which inspection in all cases shall include a personal physical examination by the medical examiner), or has taken such other steps to determine such seaman's admissibility to the United States as may be prescribed by the Secretary of Labor, so as to permit the collector of customs at the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the same or such other time as may be prescribed by the Secretary of Labor, but not to exceed five days, unless such seaman is in possession of a valid unexpired immigrant visa. Such seaman may be required to deposit with the master of such vessel a sum sufficient to cover the cost of his passage to the port of such vessel's departure from the United States, unless such seaman is in possession of a valid unexpired immigrant visa. Such seaman may be required to deposit with the master of such vessel a sum sufficient to cover the cost of his passage to the port of such vessel's departure from the United States, unless such seaman is in possession of a valid unexpired immigrant visa.

(b) Upon the arrival of such vessel at a port of the United States, the master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer of such vessel shall report to the immigrant inspector at such port the name of each such alien seaman employed on such vessel who has been discharged or who has died during the period of such employment, and the cause of such discharge, if known, and shall report the name of each alien seaman who may desert while such vessel is in port, and the cause for such desertion, if known, to the immigrant inspector at the port of arrival. Such report shall be verified by the oath of the master or commanding officer of such vessel, and shall contain a statement by the master or commanding officer that no person other than those named therein has been employed on board such vessel during the period covered by such report, and that no alien named therein has deserted or been discharged except as stated therein. Such report shall be in such form as may be prescribed by the Secretary of Labor, and additional information relative to such persons may be required at the discretion of the Secretary of Labor or such officers as he may designate for the purpose.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor shall find that deportation of the alien seaman on the vessel on which he arrived would cause undue hardship to such seaman by reason of a relationship by marriage or family existing in the United States, he may cause such alien to be detained on board such vessel or at such place as he may designate pending the decision as to whether he will grant the application for the issuance of a permit for the temporary landing of such alien seaman under such bond and such regulations as he may prescribe, but such temporary landing shall not be considered a waiver of any right to deport such alien.

EXTRACT FROM ACT OF CONGRESS APPROVED MAY 26, 1924

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 13. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws and employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or treatment in a hospital, or because of universal or local military necessity, or pursuant to such regulations as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe for the allowance of such alien seaman temporarily to land for the purpose of obtaining supplies or for the performance of such other temporary service or employment as may be approved by the Secretary of Labor or such person or persons as he may designate for the purpose, and for such period of time as he may prescribe, without the payment of the tax imposed by section 2 of this Act, and without filing the bond required by section 3 of this Act, and without having procured the visa of such alien seaman's passport by a consular officer, unless such alien seaman is in possession of a valid unexpired immigrant visa. Such seaman may be required to deposit with the master of such vessel a sum sufficient to cover the cost of his passage to the port of such vessel's departure from the United States, unless such seaman is in possession of a valid unexpired immigrant visa. Such seaman may be required to deposit with the master of such vessel a sum sufficient to cover the cost of his passage to the port of such vessel's departure from the United States, unless such seaman is in possession of a valid unexpired immigrant visa.

EXTRACT FROM SUBDIVISION B, RULE 7

PAR. 8. Clearance shall not be granted any vessel until the lists required by section 28 of the Act of February 5, 1917, have been fur-nished, and not then unless notice of inquiry to the administrative fine prescribed by said section or to that prescribed by section 38 of said act granting such vessel, the deposit specified in rule 55 has been made.

EXTRACT FROM ACT OF CONGRESS OF FEBRUARY 5, 1917

SEC. 28. That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or from any possession of the United States, the master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer of such vessel shall deliver to the immigrant inspector at the port of arrival lists containing the names of all aliens employed on board such vessel, and the capacity in which each such alien is employed, and shall report the names of all aliens employed who were not employed thereon at the time of the arrival of such vessel at such port, and the cause of such discharge, if known, and shall report the name of each alien who may desert while such vessel is in port, and the cause for such desertion, if known, to the immigrant inspector at the port of arrival. Such lists shall be prepared at such time before the departure of such vessel from such port as may be prescribed by the Commissioner-General of Immigration, with the approval of the Secretary of Labor, and shall be delivered to the immigrant inspector at the port of arrival. Such lists shall be prepared in quadruplicate, and one copy shall be delivered to the collector of customs at the customs district in which the port of arrival is located, and one copy shall be delivered to the Secretary of Labor, and one copy shall be retained by the master of such vessel, subject to the production of such lists to any immigrant inspector or to any person authorized by the Secretary of Labor to inspect the same, until the vessel shall depart from the port of arrival. Such lists shall contain such information as may be required by the Secretary of Labor as to the sex, calling, nationality, last permanent residence, and intended destination in the United States of each alien named therein, and such other information relative to such aliens as may be required by the Secretary of Labor. Such lists shall be verified by the oath of the master or commanding officer of such vessel, and shall contain a statement by the master or commanding officer that no person other than those named therein has been employed on board such vessel during the period covered by such lists, and that no alien named therein has deserted or been discharged except as stated therein. Such lists shall be in such form as may be prescribed by the Secretary of Labor, and additional information relative to such persons may be required at the discretion of the Secretary of Labor or such officers as he may designate for the purpose. When an alien is arriving seaman or is a "WORKAWAY" a notation to that effect should be made on the manifest.

The list described below shall be prepared on blank forms approved by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigration inspector boarding the vessel at the port of arrival; and shall in no instance be taken from the vessel. The list of aliens of alien immigrants in transit through the United States (Form 507) shall not be furnished on board, but shall be delivered by the master to the immigrant inspector at the port of arrival (Form 508) shall be furnished by the master of each vessel at the port of departure to the immigrant inspector at the port of arrival. When an alien member of the crew is discharged, the entry opposite his name shall be noted in the column provided for remarks, stating the reason for his discharge, as "DESERTED," "DISCHARGED," "DIED," etc.

EXTRACT FROM ACT OF CONGRESS OF FEBRUARY 2, 1917, AS AMENDED

SEC. 36. That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the master, commander, or agent, owner, or consignee of the vessel to deliver to the principal immigration officer in charge of the port of arrival lists containing the names of all aliens employed on such vessel, stating the positions they respectively held in the ship's company, where and where they were respectively shipped or engaged, and specifying those to be held on board the vessel at the time of her arrival at each port. The lists required by this section shall be in such form and contain such information as the Attorney General shall by regulation prescribe; and after the arrival of the vessel at the first port of arrival in the United States the master, commander, or agent, owner, or consignee of such vessel shall report to the immigration officer in charge of the port any additional alien employed on such vessel, stating the position on board the vessel to be held by each such alien, together with such information likely to lead to the apprehension of any such owner, consignee, or agent who may fail to report or who may report incorrectly. Upon the arrival of such vessel it shall be the duty of the master, commander, or agent, owner, or consignee of such vessel to deliver to the immigration officer in charge of the port a list of all aliens employed on such vessel at the time of her departure from the port of arrival, stating the additions to and changes in the crew list previously reported, and the cause therefor, so far as known or discovered. All crews in which two or more aliens are employed shall be subject to such regulations governing the movements of such aliens, including a description of such aliens, to be prescribed by the Attorney General, as he may deem necessary. Any master, commander, or agent, owner, or consignee of any such vessel who refuses to deliver any list required by this section, or who refuses or fails to deliver such list at the time of the departure of such vessel from a port of the United States, or who refuses or fails to report, add to, or change in the list of aliens employed on such vessel before her departure from any port of the United States any such alien so employed, of which he has knowledge or information, or who refuses or fails to deliver to the immigrant inspector at the first port of arrival in the United States any such list required to be delivered at the time of departure from the last foreign port or place, or who refuses or fails to deliver to the immigrant inspector at each port of arrival in the United States a correct list of the aliens employed on such vessel, stating the additions to and changes in the list previously reported, and the cause therefor, so far as known or discovered, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 for each such offense, or by imprisonment for not more than one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the court. When an alien seaman shall have been lawfully admitted into the United States and shall desire to depart from the United States temporarily and to return to the port at which he was admitted and secure a certificate to that effect from the immigrant inspector at such port, he shall be entitled to such certificate upon the payment of $8 and the execution of a bond in the penal sum of $500 with sufficient surety, conditioned that he will return to the port at which he was admitted within the period for which he was granted shore leave, and that he will comply with all the requirements of this section and all rules and regulations made by the Secretary of Labor with reference to alien seamen. Upon the return of such alien seaman within the period for which he was granted shore leave, and the payment of the head tax, if any, and the exhibition of the certificate hereinbefore provided for, the bond shall be canceled. Any such alien seaman who fails to return within the period for which he was granted shore leave, or who violates any of the conditions upon which he was granted shore leave, shall be deported as provided in section 19 of this Act. Any such alien seaman who fails to depart from the United States with his vessel, or who remains in the United States after the departure of his vessel without the permission of the immigration officer in charge of the port, or who fails to report to the immigration officer in charge of the port within four months after the departure of his vessel from a foreign port or place, shall be deported as provided in section 19 of this Act. Any such alien seaman who shall come to the United States in any capacity other than that of a bona fide seaman shall be deported as provided in section 19 of this Act. Any such alien seaman who shall land in the United States at any port without the permission of the immigration officer in charge of such port shall be deported as provided in section 19 of this Act. Any such alien seaman who shall desert while his vessel is in port shall be deported as provided in section 19 of this Act, unless he shall have shipped on a vessel about to depart from the port in which he deserted, and shall have obtained from the master of such vessel a certificate in writing to that effect, and shall have reported to the immigration officer in charge of the port the name of the vessel on which he shipped and obtained such certificate. Any such alien seaman who fails to report for examination or to secure a certificate from the master of his vessel as provided herein, or who fails to report to the immigration officer in charge of the port the loss of such certificate, shall be deported as provided in section 19 of this Act. Any such alien seaman who shall be employed on board any vessel in the United States without having been admitted into the United States and who shall not depart on the vessel on which he is employed or on some other vessel leaving the port within such time as the immigration officer in charge of the port may prescribe, shall be deported as provided in section 19 of this Act. Any such alien seaman who shall be employed on board any vessel in the United States without having been admitted into the United States and who shall

SEC. 36. That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the owner, agent, consignee, or master thereof to deliver to the immigrant inspectors at the port of arrival lists containing the names of all aliens employed on such vessel, showing the following information regarding each: Full name, age, sex, whether married or single, calling or occupation, and whether able to read or write, the name and address of the nearest relative or friend in the country whence he came, the name and address of the person in the United States to whom he is going, whether he has a ticket through to his destination, whether his passage is paid by himself or by others, whether in possession of money, and if so how much, whether he has been in the United States before, and if so when and how long, whether going to join relatives or friends, and if so what relatives or friends and their names and addresses, whether he has been in prison or almshouse or supported by charity, whether a polygamist, whether coming by reason of any offer, solicitation, promise, agreement, or assistance of any kind from any corporation, company, or transportation company, or agent thereof, to perform labor in the United States, the condition of health, mental and physical, of such alien, the place of birth, the last residence, and the intended final destination of such alien, whether he has ever been in custody, and the reasons therefor, whether he has been deported, and if so how many times and the reasons therefor, whether he intends to return to his native country after temporary stay in the United States, and such other information regarding the identity, nationality, and character of such alien as may be required by the Secretary of Labor. Any person who shall refuse to furnish information required by this section, or who shall knowingly or willfully furnish false information or withhold facts in relation to any alien required by this section to be furnished, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 or by imprisonment for not more than one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment, and may be arrested upon warrant issued by any commissioner, judge, or court of the United States or United States magistrate judge, and shall be taken before the court for trial upon such charges, and shall be subject to such bail as the court may direct. The Secretary of Labor shall cause one copy of the list or manifest required by this section to be delivered to the immigrant inspector at each port of arrival of such alien before the vessel on which such alien arrives shall be admitted to make entry.

(a) Any alien who shall willfully fail or refuse to deliver to the proper immigrant inspector at the time and place of his application for admission a true and correct answer to each question required by section 30 of this Act to be asked of him, shall be deported as provided by law, unless in possession of a valid unexpired immigration visa, or admissible without such visa under the law or regulations made by the Secretary of Labor in pursuance thereof, or unless he establishes to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor that he did not understand the English language or the question asked him, or that he had some other reasonable cause for failing to answer any such question.

(b) Any alien who shall knowingly assist, abet, or aid another in violating the provisions of this section shall be deported in the same manner as provided for the deportation of an alien who violates any provision of section 19 of this Act.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor shall think that deportation of any alien arrested on the vessel on which he arrived would cause undue hardship to such alien owing to the time required for the ascertainment of his nationality and place of abode, he may cause him to be detained on board such vessel at the expense of the vessel on which he arrived, and such vessel shall not be granted clearance until such expense has been paid or its payment guaranteed to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor.

EXTRACT FROM SUBDIVISION B, RULE 7

PAR. 8. Clearance shall not be granted any vessel until the fees required by section 36 of the Act of Congress approved February 5, 1917, have been paid or provision made for the deposit specified in rule 15 has been made.

EXTRACT FROM ACT OF CONGRESS APPROVED MAY 26, 1924

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 10. No alien seaman employed from admission into the United States under the immigration laws and employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or because detained by quarantine as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe for the alternate deportation, removal, or detention of such alien from the United States.

SEC. 30. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside the United States shall cause a complete manifest to be prepared of all persons on board such vessel, whether as passengers or members of the crew, and all persons on board such vessel shall be listed therein by the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival and inspected such manner (which may include a personal inspection in all cases shall include a personal inspection by such immigration officer or the medical examiner). Secretary of Labor to do so, shall pay to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $1,000 for each alien seaman in respect of whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the liability to payment of such fine, or while the fine remains unpaid, except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine, or of a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof approved by the collector of customs.

(b) Every alien seaman who shall not depart with the vessel on which he arrived in the United States from any foreign port or place if shall be the duty of the master, agent, consignee, or owner of such vessel to deliver such alien seaman to the immigrant inspector at the time of the arrival of such vessel at a United States port of entry, and such master, agent, consignee, or owner shall not permit such alien seaman to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or because detained by quarantine, until a permit to land has been granted by the immigrant inspector at the port of arrival, and such master, agent, consignee, or owner shall be liable to a penalty of $1,000 for each such alien seaman with respect to whom such master, agent, consignee, or owner shall fail to comply with the provisions of this section.

(c) Any alien seaman who shall land in the United States in violation of this section shall be deported in the manner provided for the deportation of aliens who come in steerage.

(d) Every alien seaman who shall not depart with the vessel on which he arrived in the United States from any foreign port or place, or who shall be granted permission to land temporarily, shall be furnished by the master, agent, consignee, or owner of such vessel with a certificate containing such description of such alien seaman as may be required by the Secretary of Labor, and such other information as may be required by the Secretary of Labor, and such certificate shall be presented by such alien seaman upon each subsequent arrival of such alien seaman in the United States, and upon each departure therefrom, and upon application for such certificate by such alien seaman the master, agent, consignee, or owner of the vessel on which such alien seaman arrived shall furnish such certificate, if such alien seaman has been lawfully admitted to the United States and has not violated the provisions of this section.

(e) Every master, agent, consignee, or owner of any vessel who shall fail to comply with the provisions of this section shall be liable to a penalty of $1,000 for each such failure.

EXTRACT FROM ACT OF CONGRESS OF FEBRUARY 5, 1917

SEC. 36. That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the master, agent, consignee, or owner thereof to deliver to the immigrant inspectors at the port of arrival lists containing the names of all aliens employed on such vessel, showing the following information regarding each: Full name, age, sex, whether married or single, calling or occupation, whether able to read or write, nationality, last residence, whether having a ticket through to his destination, whether his passage is paid by himself or by others, whether in possession of money, and if so how much, whether he has been in the United States before, and if so when and how long, whether going to join relatives or friends, and if so what relatives or friends and their names and addresses, whether he has been in prison or almshouse or supported by charity, whether a polygamist, whether coming by reason of any offer, solicitation, promise, agreement, or assistance of any kind from any corporation, company, or transportation company, or agent thereof, to perform labor in the United States, the condition of health, mental and physical, of such alien, the place of birth, the last residence, and the intended final destination of such alien, whether he has ever been in custody, and the reasons therefor, whether he has been deported, and if so how many times and the reasons therefor, whether he intends to return to his native country after temporary stay in the United States, and such other information regarding the identity, nationality, and character of such alien as may be required by the Secretary of Labor. Any person who shall refuse to furnish information required by this section, or who shall knowingly or willfully furnish false information or withhold facts in relation to any alien required by this section to be furnished, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 or by imprisonment for not more than one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment, and may be arrested upon warrant issued by any commissioner, judge, or court of the United States or United States magistrate judge, and shall be taken before the court for trial upon such charges, and shall be subject to such bail as the court may direct. The Secretary of Labor shall cause one copy of the list or manifest required by this section to be delivered to the immigrant inspector at each port of arrival of such alien before the vessel on which such alien arrives shall be admitted to make entry.

(a) Any alien who shall willfully fail or refuse to deliver to the proper immigrant inspector at the time and place of his application for admission a true and correct answer to each question required by section 30 of this Act to be asked of him, shall be deported as provided by law, unless in possession of a valid unexpired immigration visa, or admissible without such visa under the law or regulations made by the Secretary of Labor in pursuance thereof, or unless he establishes to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor that he did not understand the English language or the question asked him, or that he had some other reasonable cause for failing to answer any such question.

(b) Any alien who shall knowingly assist, abet, or aid another in violating the provisions of this section shall be deported in the same manner as provided for the deportation of an alien who violates any provision of section 19 of this Act.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor shall think that deportation of any alien arrested on the vessel on which he arrived would cause undue hardship to such alien owing to the time required for the ascertainment of his nationality and place of abode, he may cause him to be detained on board such vessel at the expense of the vessel on which he arrived, and such vessel shall not be granted clearance until such expense has been paid or its payment guaranteed to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor.

EXTRACT FROM ACT OF CONGRESS APPROVED MAY 26, 1924, AS AMENDED

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 10. No alien seaman shall be admitted into the United States under the immigration laws and employed on board any vessel arriving at a port of the United States from any foreign port or place, or any port or place in the possession of the United States, unless such alien seaman has been registered and has received a certificate of such registration, and unless such alien seaman is in possession of a valid certificate of identity issued by the Secretary of Labor, or his authorized agent, in such form as may be prescribed by him, and duly viséed by the consular officer of the United States at the port or place from which such alien seaman departs on his vessel. Such certificate of identity shall be issued only upon the application of such alien seaman, and upon the production by him of a valid passport and such other evidence as may be required by the Secretary of Labor or his authorized agent. Such certificate of identity shall be surrendered by such alien seaman to the immigration officer in charge at the port of entry of such alien seaman into the United States, unless such alien seaman is in possession of a certificate of identity issued to him as a seaman employed on board a vessel which has been allowed to discharge in a port of the United States such alien seaman, and such certificate of identity shall be surrendered by such alien seaman to the immigration officer in charge at the port of such discharge. Such certificate of identity shall be surrendered by such alien seaman to the immigration officer in charge at the port of departure from the United States of such alien seaman on board the vessel on which he arrives at such port or place

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO MASTER

The list described below shall be prepared on blank forms approved by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigration inspector posted at the head of ladder. Said shall be delivered by the master to the officer in charge of the immigration pier at the port of first arrival in the United States. The use of ditto marks or the abbreviation "do." in order to facilitate immigration inspection of the lists is prohibited. Each list must be signed by the master, and sworn to before the commissioner of immigration at the port of first arrival in the United States. The master will be required to add to the list the name of any alien who may be discovered on board after the list has been delivered to the immigration officer, and to account for the absence from the vessel at the time of inspection of any alien mentioned in the list. Each alien must be listed according to the manifest of the vessel, and the number of the manifest must be stated. Every alien must be listed, whether accompanied by family or traveling alone, and the name of the head of the family or group must be given. Infants must be listed as such. Write legibly, with pen and ink. Use only one line for each person. Give full name, age, sex, and married or single. Under "Occupation" state what each person is able to do, whether laborer, mechanic, farmer, servant, clerk, merchant, or other occupation. Write the word "none" where no occupation exists, as in the case of infants. Under "Nationality" give the country of which the person is a citizen or subject. Under "Race or people" write such words as "Hebrew," "German," "Irish," "English," "Italian," "South African native," "Chinese," "Scotch," "Welsh," "Polish," "Spanish," "Russian," "Turkish," "Armenian," "Finnish," "Dutch," "Swedish," "Norwegian," "French," "Danish," "Mexican," "Indian," "Negro," "Magyar," "Servian," "Croatian," "Bohemian," "Slovak," "Dalmatian," "Greek," "Roumanian," "Portuguese," "Japanese," "Syrian," "Bulgarian," "Slovenian," "Ruthenian (Russniak)," "Cuban," "Filipino," "West Indian," "Korean," "East Indian," "Scandinavian (Norwegian, Swedish, Danish)," "Pacific Islander," "Latin American," "American Indian (except Cuban)," "Esquimau," or "African (black)." Under "Last residence" give the country from which the alien came to the United States. Under "Destination" give the State and city, if known, to which the alien is going. Under "Whether going to join a relative or friend, and if so, what relative or friend" write such words as "father," "mother," "husband," "wife," "child," "brother," "sister," "uncle," "aunt," "cousin," "friend," "grandfather," "grandmother," "nephew," "niece," "sweetheart," "guardian," "ward," "employer," "employé," "steamship agent," "boarding-house keeper," "servant," "clerk," "merchant," "manufacturer," "capitalist," "landowner," "author," "actor," "actress," "artist," "lecturer," "minister," "missionary," "professor," "teacher," "engineer," "lawyer," "physician," "scientist," "student," "traveling salesman," "tourist," "colonist," "agriculturist," "stockraiser," "farmer," "farm laborer," "laborer," "miner," "skilled laborer," "servant," "gentleman," "lady," "musician," "actor," "artist," "author," "clergyman," "merchant," "manufacturer," "capitalist," "landowner

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO MASTER

The list described below shall be prepared on blank forms approved by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigration inspector boarding the vessel at the port of arrival, and shall in no instance be taken from the vessel. The list or manifest of alien immigration or "monkeyway" a deletion to that effect should be made on the manifest. In order to facilitate inspection of alien seamen, include names of returning American citizen seamen as well as aliens.

EXTRACT FROM ACT OF CONGRESS OF FEBRUARY 5, 1917, AS AMENDED

SEC. 36. That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the master, commander, or agent of such vessel to deliver to the immigrant inspector at the principal port of arrival a complete manifest, type written or printed, and in the English language, of all aliens, including the destination of each alien who is in possession of a ticket through to a place in the United States, and if destined to any State, Territory, or District of the United States, the State, Territory, or District of the United States to which each such alien is destined, which manifest shall be delivered and produced before any such alien shall be landed in the United States. Such manifest shall contain such information as may be required by the Commissioner-General of Immigration, with the approval of the Secretary of Labor, touching the identity, nationality, last permanent residence, and intended future residence in the United States of each such alien, and such additional information touching the right of each such alien to admission to the United States as may be required by the rules and regulations prescribed by the Commissioner-General of Immigration, with the approval of the Secretary of Labor. The master, commander, or agent of such vessel shall also deliver to the immigrant inspector at the time of inspection full and complete information concerning each alien included in the manifest who may be under the age of sixteen years, and concerning each alien who may be apparently ill or defective physically or mentally, who may be coming to the United States under a contract or agreement to perform labor, who is a stowaway, who has been deported within one year or who has been in prison or in almshouse or institution for the care of the insane within five years next preceding the date of his application for admission to the United States, and such other information as may be required by the Commissioner-General of Immigration for the proper administration and enforcement of the immigration laws of the United States. Such information shall be noted on the manifest in the manner directed by the Commissioner-General of Immigration with the approval of the Secretary of Labor. Any master, commander, or agent of such vessel who shall refuse or neglect to deliver such manifest, or who shall refuse or neglect to deliver any part thereof, or who shall refuse or neglect to furnish any such information concerning any such alien, or who shall deliver a manifest which he knows to be false, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 for each such alien concerning whom such information is required but not furnished, or concerning whom such false manifest is delivered, or by imprisonment for not more than one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the court. Any master, commander, or agent of such vessel who shall refuse to deliver to any such immigrant inspector any such manifest, or any part thereof, or who shall refuse to answer any such question touching any such alien, or who shall refuse to detain any such alien on board his vessel for examination or to return any such alien for hearing when ordered by the Secretary of Labor, shall be liable to a penalty of $300 for each such alien concerning whom such refusal occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the liability to payment of such fine, or while the fine remains unpaid, except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine, or of a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof approved by the collector of customs.

(b) That the master, commander, or agent of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, and any owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, who shall refuse or neglect to report, make entry of, or deposit any sum of money required by any immigration officer to be reported, entered, or deposited, or who shall refuse or neglect to pay any tax or charge imposed by law, or any rule or regulation made thereunder, or who shall refuse or neglect to perform any duty required of him by any immigration officer, or who shall hinder or delay, or attempt to hinder or delay, any such immigration officer in the performance of his duty, or who shall refuse to allow any such immigration officer to enter any vessel, or who shall refuse to allow any such immigration officer to inspect the manifest or any part thereof, or any person on board any such vessel, or who shall refuse to allow any such immigration officer to take any person or persons whom such immigration officer may desire to take for examination or hearing, or who shall refuse to allow any such immigration officer to make any search of the vessel, or who shall refuse to allow any such immigration officer to perform any duty or exercise any power conferred upon him by the immigration laws, or any rule or regulation made thereunder, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 or by imprisonment for not more than one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the court. Any master, commander, or agent of such vessel who shall refuse or neglect to detain any alien on board his vessel when ordered by an immigration officer in charge at the port or to prevent any alien from leaving the vessel or the limits of the port while the vessel is being inspected or the inspection of the alien is being completed, or to return any such alien for hearing when ordered by the Secretary of Labor, shall be liable to a penalty of $1,000 for each alien detained on board or permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or because of sickness or injury requiring such treatment, or because he may be necessary as a witness in connection with the prosecution of persons charged with the commission of crimes in the United States, or for such other reasons as may be specified in the rules and regulations as the Attorney General may prescribe for the ultimate deportation, removal, or temporary detention of such alien upon the final order of the Secretary of Labor. (49 Stat. 164, 8 U. S. C. 164.)

SEC. 50. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof shall deliver on board the last immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival and before such seaman (except a person in all cases shall include a personal physical examination by the medical examiner), or who fails to detain such seaman on board after such inspection or to deport such seaman if required by such immigration officer at the Attorney General to do so, shall pay to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $1,000 for each alien seaman in respect of whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the liability to payment of such fine, or while the fine remains unpaid, except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such amount or the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine, or of a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof approved by the collector of customs.

(d) That all an alien seaman did not appear upon the outbound manifest of the vessel on which he arrived in the United States from any place outside thereof, or that he was reported by the master of such vessel as a deserter, shall be prima facie evidence of a failure to detain or deport after reimbursement by the immigration officer or the Attorney General.

(e) If the Attorney General finds that deportation of the alien seaman on the vessel on which he arrived in the United States would cause undue hardship to such seaman he may cause him to be deported on another vessel at the expense of the vessel on which he arrived, and such vessel shall not be granted clearance until such expense has been paid or its payment guaranteed to the satisfaction of the Attorney General.

SEC. 150.15. Limit of alien employees; marsh clearance of vessel denied. Clearance shall not be granted any vessel until the limit prescribed by section 36 of the Immigration Act of 1917 (39 Stat. 886; 8 U. S. C. 171), have been complied, and not then unless notice of intention to the administrative fine prescribed by said section or to that prescribed by section 36 of said Act (39 Stat. 886; 8 U. S. C. 168) pending been served, the deposit specified in §§ 150.13–150.17, has been made.

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 19. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws and employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or because of sickness or injury requiring such treatment, or because he may be necessary as a witness in connection with the prosecution of persons charged with the commission of crimes in the United States, or for such other reasons as may be specified in the rules and regulations as the Attorney General may prescribe for the ultimate deportation, removal, or temporary detention of such alien upon the final order of the Secretary of Labor. (43 Stat. 164, 8 U. S. C. 168.)

SEC. 50. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, shall deliver on board the last immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival and before such seaman (except a person in all cases shall include a personal physical examination by the medical examiner), or who fails to detain such seaman on board after such inspection or to deport such seaman if required by such immigration officer at the Attorney General to do so, shall pay to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $1,000 for each alien seaman in respect of whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the liability to payment of such fine, or while the fine remains unpaid, except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such amount or the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine, or of a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof approved by the collector of customs.

(d) That all an alien seaman did not appear upon the outbound manifest of the vessel on which he arrived in the United States from any place outside thereof, or that he was reported by the master of such vessel as a deserter, shall be prima facie evidence of a failure to detain or deport after reimbursement by the immigration officer or the Attorney General.

(e) If the Attorney General finds that deportation of the alien seaman on the vessel on which he arrived in the United States would cause undue hardship to such seaman he may cause him to be deported on another vessel at the expense of the vessel on which he arrived, and such vessel shall not be granted clearance until such expense has been paid or its payment guaranteed to the satisfaction of the Attorney General.

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO MASTER

The list described below shall be prepared on blank forms furnished by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigration inspector promptly upon the arrival of the boat at the first port of entry, and shall be delivered to the inspector in charge at the port where the vessel (Form 436) shall not be deemed to be cleared, and shall be a violation of the immigration laws.

Form 436 may be obtained from the local immigration office at the port.

EXTRACT FROM ACT OF CONGRESS OF FEBRUARY 5, 1917

SEC. 36. That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the owner, agent, consignee, or master thereof to deliver to the immigrant inspector in charge at the port of arrival lists containing as many and separate lists as may be necessary, made and verified as hereinafter provided, of the persons on board such vessel, whether cabin passengers or aliens, in relation to their immigration, as may be prescribed by the Commissioner General of Immigration, with the approval of the Secretary of Labor, and such other information in addition thereto as may be required by such rules and regulations as may be prescribed by the Secretary of Labor, which lists shall be prepared at the time of the vessel's departure from the last port at which it touched, or in the case of vessels touching at more than one port before sailing for the United States, then at the time of departure from the port where the last of such calls was made, and shall be delivered to the immigrant inspector at the port of arrival before the vessel shall be admitted to entry, and before any person or persons shall be allowed to land from the vessel: Provided, That the Secretary of Labor may, in his discretion, waive the production of lists in the case of vessels touching at ports in the United States solely for the purpose of taking on fuel or supplies, or both, or for the relief of vessels in distress, and may, in his discretion, modify the provisions of this section in the case of vessels plying regularly between ports of the United States and ports of countries contiguous thereto: Provided further, That the master, agent, consignee, or owner of any vessel violating the provisions of this section shall be liable to a penalty of $300 for each such violation, and no such vessel shall be granted clearance papers pending the determination of the question of the liability to the payment of such penalty or the giving of a bond with sufficient surety therefor, in such sum as may be required by the Secretary of Labor, not exceeding the amount of the penalty: And provided further, That no vessel shall be granted clearance papers pending the determination of the question of the sufficiency of the lists herein required to be furnished, or pending the production of such lists sufficient in the opinion of the Secretary of Labor, or pending the payment of the head tax herein provided for, or the bringing on board such vessel of any person or persons duly certified by the Secretary of Labor to be entitled to enter the United States, or pending the performance of any act required as a condition precedent to the granting of clearance papers.

EXTRACT FROM SUBDIVISION B, RULE 7

The S. Clearance shall not be granted any vessel until the lists required by section 36 of the Act of February 5, 1917, have been furnished by such section or to that time prescribed by section 36 of said Act, and not then unless bonds to indemnify to the amount of $300 for each person specified in such lists required by said section or to that time prescribed by section 36 of said Act, and not then unless bonds to indemnify to the amount of $300 for each person specified in such lists required by said section 36 of the Act of February 5, 1917, have been furnished, the delivery effected to such [illegible] has not been waived, the deposit required in case [illegible] has not been made.

EXTRACT FROM ACT OF CONGRESS APPROVED MAY 26, 1924

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 13. No alien seaman employed upon any vessel arriving at a port of the United States from any place outside thereof, except temporarily for the purpose of repairing distress, and no alien seaman employed on any vessel departing from the United States for any place outside thereof, except temporarily for the purpose of repairing distress, shall be permitted to land in the United States under the immigration laws and employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, unless such alien seaman (except those employed in the service of the vessel which the immigration officer at the port of arrival may deem necessary for the navigation of the vessel while in port) shall be in possession of a valid immigration visa, and such alien seaman shall be subject to the head tax and to the other provisions of the immigration laws, and to such rules and regulations as may be prescribed by the Secretary of Labor to carry out the provisions of this section. No vessel shall be granted clearance papers pending the determination of the question of the sufficiency of the lists herein required to be furnished, or pending the production of such lists sufficient in the opinion of the Secretary of Labor, or pending the payment of the head tax herein provided for, or the bringing on board such vessel of any person or persons duly certified by the Secretary of Labor to be entitled to enter the United States, or pending the performance of any act required as a condition precedent to the granting of clearance papers.

(b) Every alien seaman who has been granted the privilege of landing temporarily in the United States under the provisions of this section and who fails to depart from the United States with the vessel on which he arrived, or on some other vessel, within the period of time for which he was granted such privilege, shall be deemed to be unlawfully in the United States and shall be deported in the manner provided by sections 19 and 20 of the Act approved February 5, 1917, as amended by section 3 of the Act approved May 10, 1920, and by section 14 of the Act approved June 3, 1921, as amended by section 2 of the Act approved May 11, 1922, and by section 4 of the Act approved September 14, 1922, as amended by section 2 of the Act approved February 27, 1924, to the country whose flag the vessel on which he arrived was sailing at the time of his arrival at a port of the United States, or to the country in which he was born, at the option of the master of such vessel, and at the expense of the appropriation for the enforcement of the immigration laws.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor shall find that any alien seaman has been employed on any vessel at the expense of the Secretary of Labor, and such alien seaman has left such vessel without the consent of the master, or has failed to report on board thereof for departure from the United States with such vessel, the master shall be liable to a penalty of $1,000 for each alien seaman so employed, which penalty may be remitted or mitigated by the Secretary of Labor upon such terms and conditions as he may deem proper, or may be recovered by suit or action, including costs, and such sum shall be a lien upon such vessel, which may be enforced by libel in rem, and clearance of such vessel may be withheld pending the determination of such question and the payment of such penalty. No such vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the question of the sufficiency of the bond given for the payment of such penalty, or pending the production of such alien seaman, or pending the payment of the head tax herein provided for such alien seaman, or pending the performance of any act required as a condition precedent to the granting of clearance papers.

(d) Every alien seaman who shall land in the United States from any vessel at any port thereof, or who shall land in the United States from any vessel at any port thereof and who shall be allowed to depart therefrom to any foreign port or place, and who shall fail to depart on the vessel on which he arrived, or on some other vessel, within the period of time for which he was granted such privilege, shall be deemed to be unlawfully in the United States and shall be deported in the manner provided by sections 19 and 20 of the Act approved February 5, 1917, as amended by section 3 of the Act approved May 10, 1920, and by section 14 of the Act approved June 3, 1921, as amended by section 2 of the Act approved May 11, 1922, and by section 4 of the Act approved September 14, 1922, as amended by section 2 of the Act approved February 27, 1924, to the country whose flag the vessel on which he arrived was sailing at the time of his arrival at a port of the United States, or to the country in which he was born, at the option of the master of such vessel, and at the expense of the appropriation for the enforcement of the immigration laws.

Master [illegible]

Sworn to before me this twenty fourth day of November, 19 23

Immigrant Inspector.

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO MASTER

The list described below shall be furnished on blank forms obtained by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigration inspector boarding the vessel at the port of arrival. and shall in no instance be taken from the vessel. The list of changes of alien members of the crew (Form 603) shall not be furnished on demand, but shall be delivered by the master to the principal immigration officer at the port. When an alternate seaman is a "workaway" a notation to that effect should be made on the manifest.

EXTRACT FROM ACT OF CONGRESS OF FEBRUARY 5, 1917

SEC. 3d. That when arrived at any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the owner, agent, consignee, or master thereof to deliver to the immigrant inspector at each port of entry a list or manifest of all aliens who may be found on board such vessel, which list or manifest shall be prepared in quadruplicate, and shall be sworn to before the immigrant inspector at the time of the vessel's arrival at such port, and shall contain such information as may be required by the Commissioner General of Immigration and prescribed by the Secretary of Labor, touching each and every alien on board such vessel, whether he intends to land in the United States or not, and if he intends to land, whether he has the means to pay his passage, and whether his passage is paid for by himself or by other persons or by the transportation company bringing him, and whether he has been in the United States before, and if so, when and how long ago, whether he intends to return to the country whence he came after temporary residence in the United States, and whether he has been in prison or in a almshouse or an asylum for the insane or supported by charity, and if so, which; his age, sex, race, nationality, last permanent residence, calling or occupation, whether he is married or single, the name and address of the nearest relative or friend in the country whence he came, the name and address of the friend to whom he is going in the United States, whether he has a ticket through to his destination, and whether he has been deported within one year and if so, when and why, whether he is in possession of $50 in money, and if not the amount he has with him, whether he has any trade or profession, and what it is, his height and complexion, and whether he is deformed or crippled, and if so, how long and how the deformity was caused, whether blind or deaf and dumb, and all such facts as may be required by the Commissioner General of Immigration as to the ability and fitness of each alien to enter the United States, which list or manifest shall be certified by the master or commanding officer of such vessel and by the immigrant inspector at the port of arrival before any alien is allowed to land from such vessel. Any master or commanding officer of any such vessel who shall refuse or neglect to deliver such list or manifest at the time of the vessel's arrival at such port, or who shall refuse to answer truly any question touching the same, or who shall knowingly and willfully report falsely or make any false manifest concerning any such alien, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof in any court of the United States shall be punished by a fine not exceeding $1,000 for each such offense, or by imprisonment for a term not exceeding one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the court. The master of any vessel who shall refuse to deliver to any such immigrant inspector the original and duplicate lists required by this section, or who shall refuse to exhibit to such inspector the said vessel and all parts thereof and all the rooms, spaces, and accommodations for passengers and crew thereon, for the purpose of such inspection, or who shall refuse to facilitate such inspection in any way, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof in any court of the United States shall be punished by a fine not exceeding $500 for each such offense. The Commissioner General of Immigration shall have power, with the approval of the Secretary of Labor, to remit fines and penalties incurred under the provisions of this section, and shall report all remissions made, with the reasons therefor, to Congress at the beginning of each regular session thereof.

EXTRACT FROM SUBDIVISION B, RULE 7

PAR. 4. Clearance shall not be granted any vessel until the fees required by section 32 of the act of February 2, 1917, have been paid.

Clearance will not be granted when the vessel is not ready to proceed to sea within a reasonable time, or when the master refuses or neglects to make oath to the statements required by section 30 of the act of February 2, 1917, or to answer such questions relative to the vessel, her cargo, passengers, crew, and voyage as may be required by the collector of customs.

EXTRACT FROM ACT OF CONGRESS APPROVED MAY 26, 1924

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 13. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws and employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any ports outside thereof, shall be permitted to land in the United States except temporarily for medical treatment, or because of illness, injury, or quarantine as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe for the ultimate departure of such alien from the United States. Any alien who lands temporarily for medical treatment or because of illness, injury, or quarantine shall be deemed, for the purpose of the head tax imposed by section 2 of the Immigration Act of February 5, 1917, to have been admitted to the United States, except that if such alien is certified by the Secretary of Labor to be one who, at the time of his entry into the United States, was destined solely to some foreign port and was in transit through the United States, he shall be deemed to have been admitted to the United States solely in transit through the United States.

(a) Any owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any foreign contiguous territory, or any person who brings an alien to the United States from any foreign contiguous territory, who shall refuse or fail to deport any alien seaman (except nationals of the United States and Indians of the United States) employed on board such vessel and specified by the Secretary of Labor in his order to be deported, or who shall refuse or fail to furnish to the Secretary of Labor such information in his possession as may be required by him for the deportation of any such alien seaman, or who shall refuse or fail to furnish any such alien seaman in his possession for deportation when required so to do by the Secretary of Labor, shall pay for each such offense a penalty of $1,000, for each alien seaman in respect of whom such default occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the liability to the payment of such penalty or while any such penalty remains unpaid, and no such vessel shall have the right to obtain or bring within the United States any merchandise whatsoever while under denial of clearance. All such penalties shall be a lien upon the vessel, which may be enforced by libel or process in rem, and the Secretary of Labor may, in his discretion, remit or mitigate any such penalty or forfeiture and restore any vessel or other property seized thereunder upon the payment of such sum as he may deem appropriate, not less than the actual expenses of the United States in the premises.

(b) That an alien seaman specified in the order of the Secretary of Labor referred to in subdivision (a) of this section shall not be granted clearance until such expense has been paid or its payment guaranteed to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor shall have delayed the deportation of any alien seaman on the vessel on which he arrived beyond the time limit fixed by the master in his application therefor, or shall have detained any alien seaman on board any vessel at the expense of the vessel on which he arrived beyond the time limit fixed by the master in his application therefor, such vessel shall not be granted clearance until such expense has been paid or its payment guaranteed to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor.

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO MASTER

The list described below shall be prepared on blank forms approved by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigration inspector boarding the vessel at the port of arrival, and shall in no instance be taken from the vessel. The use of symbols or abbreviations for the names of races or peoples (from this list) shall not be permitted on board, but shall be deemed to the immediate immigration officer at the port. When an alien speaks a "mixture," a notation to that effect should be made on the manifest.

EXTRACT FROM ACT OF CONGRESS OF FEBRUARY 2, 1917

SEC. 36. That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the owner, agent, consignee, or master thereof to deliver to the immigrant inspector at the port of arrival lists containing the names of all aliens employed on such vessel, stating the positions they respectively hold in the ship's company, when and where they were respectively taken on board, their intended final destination if in transit through the United States, and whether they have been in the United States before, and if so, when and how long they have resided therein, and whether they have been connected with any criminal institution or prison, and whether they are supported by their own labor or by the aid of others, and what amount of money they have with them, and whether they have been previously refused admission to the United States or deported, and if so, why, and whether they have a ticket through to their destination, and who paid for the same, and whether they intend to return to the United States at some future time, and the reasons therefor, and such other information as may be required by the Secretary of Labor. Such information shall be subscribed by the master, agent, consignee, or owner of such vessel, and verified by his oath, administered by the immigrant inspector at the time of the arrival of such vessel at the port. Any master, agent, consignee, or owner of any such vessel who refuses to deliver such lists, or who refuses to subscribe and verify the same by oath as herein provided, or who refuses to furnish in connection therewith any information required as herein provided concerning any alien employed on such vessel, or who refuses to deliver to any such alien any and all money, tickets, or papers which such alien may have entrusted to him for safekeeping, or who refuses to assist such alien in every reasonable way to make the journey from the port of arrival to the final destination of such alien as indicated by him at the time of inspection, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 or by imprisonment for not more than one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the court.

EXTRACT FROM SUBDIVISION B, RULE 7

PAR. 2. Clearance shall not be granted any vessel until the lists required by section 36 of the Act of February 2, 1917, have been furnished and verified, and not then unless notice of inability to the administrative officer prescribed by said section or to that prescribed by section 38 of said Act, manner been served, the deposit specified in rule 53 has been made.

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO MASTER

The line described below shall be printed on blank forms approved by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigration inspectors beginning the second day of July 1917. The list of changes of alien inspectors, officers at the port of arrival (Form 430) shall not be furnished on board, but shall be delivered by the master to the principal immigration officer at the port of arrival. The list of changes of alien inspectors, officers at the port of arrival (Form 430) shall not be furnished on board, but shall be delivered by the master to the inspector in charge at the port of departure of each alien from the United States.

SEC. 20. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside the United States, or any vessel arriving in the United States from any place in the Canal Zone, or the Virgin Islands, or Porto Rico, shall, before the departure of such vessel from the port at which it arrives, deliver to the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival a complete list or manifest of all persons on board such vessel, whether cabin passengers or steerage passengers, and whether destined to the United States or not, and shall answer truthfully all questions propounded by such immigration officer touching the right of any such person to enter the United States, and shall furnish such information in such form and detail as may be required by the Secretary of Labor. The master of any vessel bringing any alien who is not in possession of a valid immigration visa and who is not entitled to enter the United States without such visa, shall report the fact to the immigration officer at the port of arrival, and shall detain such alien on board the vessel at such port until a permit to land such alien shall have been granted by the Secretary of Labor, or his duly authorized agent, and such alien shall have been duly inspected by an immigrant inspector. Any master who shall refuse to obey the orders or instructions of any such immigration officer, or any master of a vessel who shall land or permit to land any alien brought to the United States by such vessel at any place other than a designated port of entry, or who shall refuse or fail to deliver to the proper immigration officer at such port of entry the list required of him by this section, shall pay a penalty of $300 for each alien with respect to whom such violation occurs, and may be arrested upon warrant issued upon information made under oath by any immigration officer and imprisoned for a period not exceeding one year. Such penalty may be remitted or mitigated by the Secretary of Labor upon such terms and conditions as he may deem just.

(b) The master of any vessel bringing aliens to the United States shall, before such vessel departs from the port at which such aliens are landed from such vessel, deliver to the immigration officer in charge at such port a true list, certified by the master under oath, of all aliens who have been landed from such vessel at such port, and shall report the sickness and death of any such alien during the voyage, and produce the bills of health granted to such vessel by the consular officers of the United States at the ports of departure of such aliens, and such other documents relative to such aliens as such immigration officer may require. Such master shall also report the cases of all aliens who have been treated on board such vessel during the voyage, and produce the medicine chest used for such cases. Such master shall deliver to such immigration officer a complete list of all aliens employed in any capacity on such vessel, showing the full name, nationality, last permanent residence, and intended future permanent residence of each such person, and the amount of money in the possession of each alien so employed. Such master shall also furnish such immigration officer with such other information regarding such aliens employed on such vessel as may be required by such officer. Such master shall, before the departure of such vessel from any port of the United States, report the sickness and death of any alien employed on such vessel during the voyage, and produce the medicine chest used for such cases. Such master shall, before the departure of such vessel from any port of the United States, deliver to such immigration officer a complete list of all aliens employed on such vessel at such port

The list described below shall be prepared on blank forms approved by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigrant inspector boarding the vessel at the port of arrival, and shall in no instance be placed upon the vessel. The list is to be made out in the alphabetical order of the surnames of all persons, including children, who are to be landed from the vessel. Any person in addition to those listed, whether member of the crew or passenger, shall be entered on a "manifest" a supplement to the list, after the latter has been delivered to the inspector. In order to facilitate proper inspection of aliens seeking admission to the United States, the master of the vessel or agent of the steamship company shall cause to be placed on board the vessel at the port of departure, before the sailing of the vessel, a list containing the name of each alien who has been issued a certificate by the consular officer at the port of departure, stating whether such certificate was issued under the provisions of section 3 of the Act of May 19, 1921, as amended by the Act of May 11, 1922, or under the provisions of section 4 of the Act of May 19, 1921, as amended by the Act of May 11, 1922, and the date and place of such issuance. The master of the vessel shall also cause to be placed on board the vessel at the port of departure a list containing the name of each alien who has been refused a certificate by the consular officer at such port, stating whether such refusal was based upon the provisions of section 3 of the Act of May 19, 1921, as amended by the Act of May 11, 1922, or upon the provisions of section 4 of the Act of May 19, 1921, as amended by the Act of May 11, 1922, and the date of such refusal. Such lists shall be delivered to the immigrant inspector at the time of the vessel's arrival at the first port of entry in the United States. The list of aliens shall contain the following information concerning each alien: Full name; age; sex; married or single; calling or occupation; whether able to read or write; nationality; last permanent residence; final destination, if in transit through the United States; whether in possession of a ticket through to such destination; whether the passage is paid by himself or by other persons or by the government; whether in possession of $50 and if less than $50 the amount of money he has with him; whether ever before in the United States, and if so when and where; whether ever in prison or almshouse or an institution for the insane or supported by charity; whether a polygamist; whether an anarchist; whether coming by reason of any offer, solicitation, promise, agreement, or assistance of any kind from any person or corporation; whether coming to join a relative, and if so, what relative and his name and complete address; whether a person who has been deported at any time and if so how often; whether going to join a husband, wife, father, or other relative, and if so, what relative and his name and complete address; whether ever connected with the making of any explosive or firearm used in the commission of a crime; whether a stowaway; whether ever before refused admission to the United States and if so when and where; whether under contract, express or implied, to perform labor in the United States; condition of health, mental and physical, of each alien; height; complexion; color of hair and eyes; identification marks, if any; and such additional information as may be required by the Secretary of Labor. The list of aliens must be verified by the master or commanding officer of the vessel, or agent of the steamship company, who shall subscribe his name at the end of the list. Any person who knowingly makes a false statement or misrepresentation in such list shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 or by imprisonment for not more than one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

Separate manifests should be prepared for each port at which passengers embark for the United States, according as separate manifests should be required by the immigration and naturalization laws and the instructions of the Commissioner of Immigration and Naturalization. Thus, if passengers embark at the same port, but some are destined for the so-called "quota" countries and others for countries not so restricted, separate manifests should be prepared for each class. Likewise, if passengers embark at the same port, but some are destined for the United States and others for Canada, separate manifests should be prepared for each class. Where passengers embark at different ports, but all are destined for the United States, they should be listed on the manifest of the vessel on which they arrive at the first port in the United States.

Column 1 (Number.)—The number in this column should be extended in every case, beginning with "1" for the first alien listed and continuing in regular order.

Column 2 (Name.)—The entry should be given M. (male) or F. (female).

Column 3 (Age.)—The entry should be given in years. Infants under 1 year of age should be entered as "under 1".

Column 4 (Married or single.)—The words should be spelled out in full: "married" or "single", "widowed" or "divorced".

Column 5 (Occupation.)—Enumerate here all persons 10 years of age and over, even though occupation may appear to be "none". Persons under 10 years of age should be entered as "under 10". Avoid indefinite terms such as "laborer", "clerk", "manufacturer", "engineer", "agent", "dealer", "merchant", "gentleman", "lady", "student", "none", "child", "servant", "housework", "housekeeper", "at home", "retired", "U.S.", "American", "native", "citizen", "foreigner", "alien", "traveler", "visitor", "tourist", "passenger", "deportee", "stowaway", "seaman", "sailor", "fireman", "cook", "steward", "waiter", "cabin boy", "deck hand", "engineer", "oiler", "wiper", "fireman", "boatswain", "carpenter", "cattleman", "farmer", "rancher", "herder", "shepherd", "sheepherder", "cowboy", "miner", "prospector", "driller", "roustabout", "roughneck", "pumper", "gasoline plant operator", "refinery worker", "oil worker", "gas worker", "well driller", "tool dresser", "tool pusher", "rotary helper", "derrick man", "floorman", "mud mixer", "engine man", "boilermaker", "blacksmith", "machinist", "electrician", "mechanic", "helper", "apprentice", "laborer", "chauffeur", "driver", "teamster", "longshoreman", "dockworker", "stevedore", "watchman", "guard", "soldier", "sailor", "airman", "aviator", "pilot", "navigator", "scientist", "professor", "teacher", "student", "author", "artist", "actor", "actress", "musician", "painter", "sculptor", "writer", "editor", "reporter", "clergyman", "priest", "rabbi", "minister", "missionary", "nun", "monk", "lawyer", "physician", "surgeon", "dentist", "nurse", "veterinarian", "chemist", "engineer", "architect", "draftsman", "aviator", "aeronautical engineer", "aeronautical draftsman", "aeronautical mechanic", "aeronautical inspector", "aeronautical rigger", "aeronautical tester", "aeronautical instructor", "aeronautical student", "aeronautical apprentice", "aeronautical helper", "aeronautical laborer", "aeronautical machinist", "aeronautical electrician", "aeronautical mechanic", "aeronautical engineer", "aeronautical draftsman

INSTRUCTIONS FOR PREPARING ALIEN MANIFEST

Separate manifests should be prepared for each port at which passengers embark for the United States, according as separate manifests immigrants and non-immigrants are required by the immigration Act of 1924; and also according as passengers embarked at the so-called foreign class, across steerage proper, the United Kingdom, Ireland, and those whose names do not appear on all the manifests of passengers embarked at a foreign port, shall appear; also the same manifest sheet when they travel in the same class; but if they travel in different classes, separate cross references should be made on the sheets on which the respective names are listed.

Column 1 (Last-name space).—Arrange the entry alphabetically according to the initial letter of the last name. The space is for use of government officials only.

Column 2 (Key).—The entry should be either M (male) or F (female).

Column 3 (Married or single).—The answer should be M (married), S (single), W (widowed), or D (divorced).

Column 4 (Age).—The entry should describe as accurately as possible the occupation, trade, or profession of each alien arriving as, for example: clerk, engineer, saleswoman, carpenter, lawyer, nurse, laborer, farmer, or other indefinite designation.

A distinction should be made between farmers and farm laborers; nevertheless if the amount of money shown, as follows:

A farmer is one who operates a farm, either for himself or for others.

A farm laborer is one who works on a farm for the man who operates it.

Governments should make this distinction on the manifests, and correction should be made if necessary, by inspectors during the personal examination of aliens.

Column 5 (Nationality).—Question 6 should be construed to mean the country of which alien is a citizen or subject.

Column 6 (Race or people).—See list of races printed on back of this sheet.

Special attention should be paid to the distinction between race and the country of which citizen or subject; consult your immediate superior and country of birth, and investigate should be carefully entered in the manifest in this column. For instance, "French," whether it means the people of France or to people does not mean "France," by country. An Irish (person) or Hebrew alien by race might however, be a citizen of England, Switzerland, or any other country. In this way come under the following distinctions should be carefully observed:

GREECE

The term "Greek" refers to the Greek people (not Xerxes).

WEST INDIES

"West Indian," refers to the people of the West Indies other than either Cuban or Porto Rican.

SPANISH AMERICAN

"Spanish American," refers to the people of Central and South America of Spanish descent.

AFRICA

"Negro," refers to the African (black). Another common term often applied to all negroes is "Ethiopian." The term "Ethiopian" is applicable to the natives of Abyssinia, a country in Africa. The Abyssinians are not negroes, but are Semites. The Abyssinians are a very intelligent people, and are also quite proud of their race. Any person who is a native of Africa, Europe, or Asia, and who is not white, is a negro. Any person who is a native of Africa, Europe, or Asia, and who is not white, is a negro.

Column 7 (Last residence or birthplace).—Enter the name of the country in which the alien was born. The space is for use of government officials only.

Column 8 (Destination).—Enter the name of the city or town to which the alien is going to after arriving in the United States. The space is for use of government officials only.

Column 9 (Yes).—The entry should be either M (male) or F (female).

Column 10 (Age).—The answer should be given in full years. If the alien is under 1 year of age, the number of months should be given as a fraction, thus: 6/12, 9/12, etc.

Column 11 (Married or single).—Answer as in column 3.

Column 12 (Occupation).—Answer as in column 4.

Column 13 (Can read).—Answer "Yes" or "No" as applicable. Any person who can read in any language should be entered as able to read. Any person who cannot read in any language should be entered as unable to read.

Column 14 (Can write).—Answer as in column 13.

Column 15 (Can both read and write).—Answer as in column 13.

Column 16 (Name and complete address of nearest relative or friend in country whence alien came).—The entry should give name and address of friend, relative, or kinsman to whom the alien is going. If no such relative or friend is known, some name and address should be given. The name and address of relative or friend in country of which citizen or subject, whether alien came, give name and address of such person.

Column 17 (Final destination).—The answer to this question should be identical with answer to column 8.

Column 18 (Have a ticket to final destination).—The answer should be either Yes (ticket) or No (no ticket).

Column 19 (Whether having money to land: amount).—The entry should show the amount of money in possession of the alien, whether it be in cash, express or bank order, or travelers' checks, or credit. The amount should be entered in dollars and cents.

Column 20 (Whether in possession of $50 and if not, by whom furnished).—The answer should show whether the alien has $50 in his possession, and if not, by whom furnished. The answer should be "Self," "Friends," "Relatives," "Charity," "Steamship Company," etc.

Money brought by the head of a family should not be divided among the several members of the family.

Column 21 (Whether in possession of ticket, and if not, by whom furnished).—The answer should be given in each case (including that of females) the exact amount of money shown in possession of the alien.

Column 22 (Whether ever before in the United States, and if so, when, where, and how long ago).—The answer should show whether the alien has ever been in the United States before the present time, and if so, when, where, and how long ago.

Columns 23 to 25 (Whether going to join relative or friend).—The answer should show whether going to join relative or friend, with name and complete address; and if relative, the exact relationship.

Columns 26 to 28.—These questions are self-explanatory, but the answers, like all others on the sheet, are subject to revision by inspection officers at the examination of aliens. However, in answering question 26, it must not be presumed that a person is a citizen merely because he is a white person, or because he is known as an American in his community. A person is a citizen of the United States only when he has been naturalized by the proper authority in the Secretary of Labor to establish for naturalization should be at his home, unless otherwise ordered by the Secretary of Labor.

Immigrant Inspector

Note.—Failure to furnish full or correct information in columns 3, 12, 13, 14, and 17 is punishable by a fine of ten dollars for each alien. See other side.

See list of crews on back hereof

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO MASTER

The list described below shall be printed on blank forms approved by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigration inspector boarding the vessel at the port of entry, and shall in no instance be taken from the vessel. The list of changes of alien members of the crew (Form I-418) shall not be returned on board, but shall be delivered by the master to the primary immigration officer at the port. When an alternate seaman is a "watchman," a notation to that effect should be made on the manifest. In order to facilitate inspection of alien seamen, include names of alternate American citizen seamen as well as aliens.

EXTRACT FROM ACT OF CONGRESS OF FEBRUARY 5, 1917, AS AMENDED

SEC. 28. That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the owner, agent, consignee, or master thereof to deliver to the primary immigration officer in charge of the port of entry a list containing the names of all aliens employed on such vessel, stating the position they respectively held in the ship's company, when and where so they were respectively shipped or engaged, and description thereof to be kept on file by the immigration officer at such port; and it shall be the duty of the master, owner, agent, consignee, or master to report to such immigration officer, in writing, as soon as discovered, the cases in which any such alien has illegally landed from the vessel, giving a description of such alien, together with any information likely to lead to his apprehension; and before the departure of any such vessel it shall be the duty of such owner, agent, consignee, or master to deliver to such immigration officer a further list containing the names of all aliens employed upon the said vessel at the time of the arrival but who will leave port thereon at the time of her departure, and also the names of those, if any, who have been employed and discharged, and the cause, if any, why any have departed or landed; and in case of the failure of such owner, agent, consignee, or master so to deliver either of the said lists of such aliens arriving and departing, respectively, or so to report such cause of departure or landing, such owner, agent, consignee, or master of such vessel shall pay to the Alternate General Agent for the benefit of the United States a sum not exceeding $300 for each such alien in respect of whom such failure occurs. Any vessel shall be refused clearance pending the determination of the liability to payment of such fine, or while the fine remains unpaid, except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine, or of a bond with sufficient sureties to secure the payment thereof approved by the collector of customs. The Attorney General may, upon application in writing, remit such penalty or any part thereof.

This section, as amended, shall apply to all penalties arising independent of June 2, 1940.

(b) Proof shall be on alien seaman did not appear upon the outbound manifest of the vessel on which he arrived in the United States from any place outside thereof, or that he was reported by the master of such vessel as a deserter, shall be prima facie evidence of a failure to deport after readmission by the immigration officer or the Attorney General.

(c) If the Attorney General finds that deportation of the alien seaman on the vessel on which he arrived would cause undue hardship to such seaman he may cause him to be deported on another vessel at the expense of the vessel on which he arrived, and such vessel shall not be granted clearance until such expense has been paid or its payment guaranteed to the satisfaction of the Attorney General.

(43 Stat. 164–165, 24 Stat. 414; 8 U. S. C. 101 (a), 101 (c).)

EXTRACT FROM 8 CFR 150

SEC. 150.1. Limit of alien employment; manifest clearance of vessel denied. Clearance shall not be granted any vessel until the list required by section 28 of the Immigration Act of 1917 (39 Stat. 886; 8 U. S. C. 171), duly executed, and not then unless notice of illegality to the administrative fine prescribed by said section or to final prescribed by section 38 of said Act (39 Stat. 889; 8 U. S. C. 169) penalty been served, the deposit specified in §§ 150.13–150.17, has been made.

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 13. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws and employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or because of illness, injury, or quarantine as the Attorney General may prescribe for the ultimate deportation, removal, or deportation of such alien from the United States. (43 Stat. 164, 8 U. S. C. 166.)

SEC. 30. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof shall employ to depart on board such vessel until the immigration officer in charge at the port of entry has granted permission to land. Any alien seaman employed on such vessel who is refused a landing permit by the immigration officer at the port of entry, or who fails to depart on board such vessel when required by such immigration officer or the Attorney General so to do, shall pay to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of entry is located the sum of $1,000 for each alien seaman in respect of whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the liability to payment of such fine, or while the fine remains unpaid, except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine, or of a bond with sufficient sureties to secure the payment thereof approved by the collector of customs. The Attorney General may, upon application in writing, remit such penalty or any part thereof.

This section, as amended, shall apply to all penalties arising independent of June 2, 1940.

(b) Proof shall be on alien seaman did not appear upon the outbound manifest of the vessel on which he arrived in the United States from any place outside thereof, or that he was reported by the master of such vessel as a deserter, shall be prima facie evidence of a failure to depart after readmission by the immigration officer or the Attorney General.

(c) If the Attorney General finds that deportation of the alien seaman on the vessel on which he arrived would cause undue hardship to such seaman he may cause him to be deported on another vessel at the expense of the vessel on which he arrived, and such vessel shall not be granted clearance until such expense has been paid or its payment guaranteed to the satisfaction of the Attorney General.

The list of races and peoples shall be prepared on blank forms approved by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigration officer at the port of arrival before the vessel has been granted entry to the United States. The list is subject to the verification of the immigration officer at the port of arrival and must be delivered to him or his representative before the vessel shall be granted entry. Any variation between the list and the facts developed by the examination of the passengers and crew must be explained in writing. Failure to furnish the list or to furnish a correct list may result in the imposition of the penalty of $10 for each person concerning whom incorrect, incomplete, or no information is furnished.

EXTRACT FROM ACT OF CONGRESS OF FEBRUARY 5, 1917

SEC. 36. That when arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or from a shall be the duty of the master, owner, agent, consignee, or person in charge of the port of arrival [recommended the report of the immigration officer at the port of arrival] and such other persons as may be required by the Secretary of Labor, to report to the immigration officer at the port of arrival the name and such other information regarding each and every person on board as may be required by the Secretary of Labor, and such report shall be verified by the oath of such master, owner, agent, consignee, or such other person or persons as may be designated by the Secretary of Labor, and shall be in the form and contain such information as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe, and shall be subscribed by the master, owner, agent, consignee, or such other person or persons in the presence of the immigration officer at the port of arrival, and such report may be required as to the names and residences of all aliens employed or who may be employed aboard the vessel at any time during her stay in port, and such other information as may be required by the Secretary of Labor for the proper enforcement of this act, and such additional reports may be required from masters, owners, agents, consignees, or others as to aliens employed or who may be employed aboard vessels at any time during their stay in port as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe, and any master, owner, agent, consignee, or other person who refuses to obey any such requirement of the Secretary of Labor or who knowingly reports falsely or fraudulently in response thereto shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 or by imprisonment for not more than one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the court: Provided, That nothing in this section shall be construed to require masters of vessels to secure information not reasonably obtainable.

EXTRACT FROM SUBDIVISION B, RULE 7

SEC. 7. (a) That no alien seaman shall be admitted into the United States under the immigration laws unless he has been duly examined by the immigration officers at the port of arrival and found not to belong to any of the classes excluded by law. Such examination shall be made in accordance with such rules and regulations as may be prescribed by the Secretary of Labor from time to time, and shall include a personal physical examination of each seaman. The Secretary of Labor may employ such additional surgical and medical officers and such other employees as he may deem necessary for the purpose of such examination, and may detail for duty at any port such officers and employees as may be available at such port. Such examination shall have precedence over the discharge of the vessel and all other matters except the boarding of the vessel by customs officers and the quarantine inspection. Pending the completion of such examination no seaman shall be permitted to land from any vessel at any port of the United States unless and until a permit for him to land shall have been granted by the immigration officer in charge at such port, except temporarily for examination or treatment in a hospital or pursuant to the provisions of section 16 of this act, and no such permit shall be granted if the immigration officer in charge knows or has reason to believe that such seaman belongs to any of the classes excluded by law from admission into the United States, or if the master, owner, agent, consignee, or person in charge of the vessel on which such seaman arrived refuses or neglects to furnish the list or any part thereof required by the Secretary of Labor or refuses or neglects to furnish any other information required by law or by any rule or regulation made in pursuance thereof concerning such seaman, or if the master, owner, agent, consignee, or person in charge of the vessel on which such seaman arrived refuses or neglects to pay the tax imposed by this act for the collection and payment of which he is responsible, or any part of such tax, or any fine or penalty imposed by this act upon such seaman, unless the master, owner, agent, consignee, or person in charge of such vessel deposits with the collector of customs a sum sufficient to pay such tax, fine, or penalty and to cover any additional tax, fine, or penalty which may be imposed by this act upon such seaman, or unless such master, owner, agent, consignee, or person in charge of such vessel furnishes a bond sufficient in the opinion of the collector of customs to secure the payment of such tax, fine, or penalty. Such bond shall be approved by the collector of customs and shall be in a sum not more than $1,000 for each seaman for whom it is furnished and conditioned for the payment of such taxes, fines, and penalties as may be imposed upon such seaman under this act within ten days after the date of the final action imposing such tax, fine, or penalty: Provided, That the Secretary of Labor may, in his discretion, and under such rules and regulations as he may prescribe, remit any fine or penalty imposed upon any seaman under this act or cancel any bond given to insure the payment thereof.

(b) Every alien seaman who shall be admitted into the United States shall be given a certificate of identification by the immigration officer in charge at the port of entry, which certificate shall contain such description concerning such seaman as may be required by the Secretary of Labor, and such certificate shall be presented by such seaman upon each subsequent entry into the United States.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor shall find that deportation of any alien seaman on the vessel on which he arrived and such alien seaman is not otherwise provided for by this act, the cost of his maintenance while detained and the cost of his deportation shall be borne by the master, owner, agent, consignee, or person in charge of such vessel, and may be recovered from him by suit or action by the United States, or such cost may be collected by the collector of customs out of any moneys of such master, owner, agent, consignee, or person in charge of such vessel in the hands of the collector of customs or thereafter coming into his hands, and such moneys are hereby appropriated for the purpose of paying the cost of maintenance and deportation of such seamen. The cost of maintenance shall be fixed by the Secretary of Labor, but shall not exceed $1 per day for each alien detained. Such moneys shall be deposited in the Treasury of the United States to the credit of the appropriation for the enforcement of this act. Such vessel shall be granted clearance papers by the collector of customs upon the payment of such cost of maintenance and deportation and the giving of a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof, or upon the deposit sufficient to cover such cost, and no such vessel shall be granted clearance papers by the collector of customs while any such alien seaman remains on board after such vessel has been ordered to depart from the United States, except that clearance papers may be granted prior to the deportation of such seaman

The 3 d deck load below shall be prepared on plank forms approved by the Department and be kept flat and secure at all times. The use of canvas is also recommended between permanent fittings on the boat or vessel and shall in no instance be laden upon the uncovered portion of the hatches. The height of cargo (from deck) shall not be increased and shall in no case exceed 8 feet.

Any 3 d deck load not complying with the above requirements will not be allowed to clear from the port.

EXTRACT FROM ACT OF CONGRESS OF FEBRUARY 2, 1917

SEC. 18. That every vessel of the vessels in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the owner, agent, master, or commander, or other person charge of such vessel, before the departure of such vessel from such foreign port or place, to cause a manifest to be made out and delivered to the boat at which such vessel is to clear, by the chief officer of such vessel, or, in case of his death, absence, or inability from any cause to perform his duties, by the second officer, or other person next in command, which manifest shall be in the form prescribed by the Secretary of Labor, and shall be verified by the oath of the master, or commander, and the chief officer, or such other officer or person as may be entitled by this section to make and deliver the manifest in case of the death, absence, or inability of the master and chief officer to perform their duties, and shall contain a full and accurate statement of all persons who shall have been taken on board such vessel at any foreign port or place, and who are destined to the United States, and such other information as may be required by the boat at which such vessel clears, relative to the persons taken on board. Such manifest shall be prepared in quadruplicate, and the boat at which such vessel clears shall retain one copy thereof, and deliver the other three copies to the master or commander of such vessel, who shall deliver one copy to the immigrant inspector at the port of first arrival of such vessel in the United States, and forward the other two copies to the Secretary of Labor. Such manifest shall be prepared in such form and contain such other information regarding each and every alien and the family group to which he belongs and accompanying him as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe by general rules or in special cases. Such manifest shall be open to the inspection of such officers of the United States Government as may be designated by the Secretary of Labor, and the boat at which such vessel clears shall furnish such facilities as may be required by such officers for the inspection of such manifest and the verification of the list of aliens therein contained. Such manifest shall be kept on file for a period of three years by the boat at which such vessel cleared, and shall be produced upon the demand of any officer charged with the duty of enforcing the provisions of this Act. Any boat at which such vessel cleared which shall refuse to produce such manifest for inspection as herein provided, or which shall fail to deliver to the immigrant inspector at the port of first arrival of such vessel in the United States a true copy of such manifest, shall be liable to a penalty of $300 for each and every such refusal or failure, and no such vessel shall be granted clearance papers pending the determination of any such question, or while any such refusal or failure continues, or while any such penalty remains unpaid, nor shall such vessel be granted clearance papers in any case where the master, commander, chief officer, or officer entitled to make the manifest is unable to make oath to the verification of such manifest. The Secretary of Labor shall prescribe such rules and regulations as may be necessary to carry into effect the provisions of this section, and shall determine the forms of such manifests and the information to be contained therein, and shall furnish such forms to the boats required to use the same. Any boat at which such vessel cleared which shall refuse or neglect to use the forms so furnished, or to give the information required in such forms, shall be liable to a penalty of $10 for each and every such refusal or neglect. Any boat at which such vessel cleared which shall refuse to allow any immigrant inspector access to such manifest, or to any such vessel, or to any immigrant on board thereof, for the purpose of inspection, or which shall refuse to allow such immigrant inspector to make such copies of such manifest as he may desire, shall be liable to a penalty of $10 for each and every such refusal.

SEC. 19. That every alien arriving at a seaport in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the master, agent, consignee, or owner of the vessel bringing such alien to the United States, or the master, agent, consignee, or owner of any railroad or transportation line by which such alien shall come to any land border port of the United States immediately upon the arrival of such alien at such port, or place, to report, and cause such alien to report, in person to the immigrant inspector at such port or place the name, nationality, last residence, and destination of such alien, the manner in which the transportation has been paid, whether by himself or by others, and if by others their relationship, if any, to such alien, whether such alien has in his possession a ticket through to his destination, the amount of money such alien has in his possession, whether he has been in the United States before, whether he has been in prison or in almshouse or an asylum for the insane or supported by charity, whether he is coming to join relatives, and if so what relatives, whether he is a polygamist, whether he is an anarchist, whether he believes in or advocates the overthrow by force or violence of the Government of the United States or of all forms of law, whether he is a person who has been deported, whether he has ever been in prison or supported by charity, whether he is coming under a contract or agreement to perform labor in the United States, and what is the nature and length of such contract or agreement, and whether he has a ticket or sufficient money to pay his railroad fare or other transportation to his destination, and such other facts as may be required for the proper administration of the immigration laws and the enforcement of the provisions of this Act relating to the exclusion of aliens. Any master, agent, consignee, or owner of any railroad or transportation line who shall violate any of the provisions of this section shall be liable to a penalty of $100 for each and every such violation.

EXTRACT FROM SUBDIVISION B, RULE 7

PAR. 6. Clearance shall not be granted any vessel until the data required by section 36 of the Act of February 2, 1917, have been furnished by section 29 of said Act and the master has certified to the administrative fees prescribed by said section or to that prescribed by section 29 of said Act, and that all head money has been paid or secured to be paid to the Commissioner of Immigration at the port of first arrival in the United States unless such vessel is destined to a port on the Canadian border, in which case the master will be required to execute a bond in the penal sum of $10 per head for each alien on board, conditioned that the master will deliver to the Commissioner of Immigration at the port of destination in the United States a certificate from the Commissioner of Immigration at the port where the alien was originally inspected and admitted to the United States, showing that such alien has been duly admitted to the United States at such port, which certificate may be required by the master from the Commissioner of Immigration at any port in the United States where application is made for such certificate. Bonds executed at ports on the Canadian border may be canceled upon the production of certificates showing the admission of the aliens specified therein at ports on the Canadian border. Masters will be required to deposit the bond or bonds executed by them at the port of departure with the collector of customs, or other officer designated by the Secretary of Labor, who will transmit the same to the Commissioner of Immigration at the port of first arrival in the United States. Masters will be required to deposit with the collector of customs at the port of departure a sum sufficient to cover head tax on each alien on board, unless the master shall furnish a bond in a sum sufficient to cover head tax and expenses that may be incurred in the return of aliens who may become public charges within one year after landing in the United States, conditioned upon the return of such aliens. Masters will be required to furnish a list of all aliens on board, in duplicate, showing the name, age, sex, and calling of each alien, the amount of money in his possession, the place of birth, the race or people to which he belongs, the last permanent residence, the final destination, whether he has a ticket through to destination, whether the passage has been paid by himself or others, whether he has been in the United States before, whether going to join relatives or friends, and if so what relatives or friends, and their names and addresses, whether in prison or almshouse or asylum for the insane, whether a polygamist, whether an anarchist, whether coming under contract or agreement to perform labor, and the kind of such contract or agreement, whether in possession of a ticket through to destination, whether in possession of money sufficient to pay railroad fare or other transportation to destination, and the amount of such money, whether ever deported, whether ever in prison or supported by charity, and whether going to join relatives or friends, and if so what relatives or friends, and their names and addresses, and such other information as may be required by the Commissioner of Immigration at the port of first arrival in the United States. Masters will be required to deposit with the collector of customs at the port of departure a sum sufficient to cover head tax on each alien on board, unless the master shall furnish a bond in a sum sufficient to cover such head tax and expenses that may be incurred in the return of aliens who may become public charges within one year after landing in the United States, conditioned upon the return of such aliens. Masters will be required to furnish a list of all aliens on board, in duplicate, showing the name, age, sex, and calling of each alien, the amount of money in his possession, the place of birth, the race or people to which he belongs, the last permanent residence, the final destination, whether he has a ticket through to destination, whether the passage has been paid by himself or others, whether he has been in the United States before, whether going to join relatives or friends, and if so what relatives or friends, and their names and addresses, whether in prison or almshouse or asylum for the insane, whether a polygamist, whether an anarchist, whether coming under contract or agreement to perform labor, and the kind of such contract or agreement, whether in possession of a ticket through to destination, whether in possession of money sufficient to pay railroad fare or other transportation to destination, and the amount of such money, whether ever deported, whether ever in prison or supported by charity, and whether going to join relatives or friends, and if so what relatives or friends, and their names and addresses, and such other information as may be required by the Commissioner of Immigration at the port of first arrival in the United States. Masters will be required to deposit with the collector of customs at the port of departure a sum sufficient to cover head tax on each alien on board, unless the master shall furnish a bond in a sum sufficient to cover such head tax and expenses that may be incurred in the return of aliens who may become public charges within one year after landing in the United States, conditioned upon the return of such aliens. Masters will be required to furnish a list of all aliens on board, in duplicate, showing the name, age, sex, and calling of each alien, the amount of money in his possession, the place of birth, the race or people to which he belongs, the last permanent residence, the final destination, whether he has a ticket through to destination, whether the passage has been paid by himself or others, whether he has been in the United States before, whether going to join relatives or friends, and if so what relatives or friends, and their names and addresses, whether in prison or almshouse or asylum for the insane, whether a polygamist, whether an anarchist, whether coming under contract or agreement to perform labor, and the kind of such contract or agreement, whether in possession of a ticket through to destination, whether in possession of money sufficient to pay railroad fare or other transportation to destination, and the amount of such money, whether ever deported, whether ever in prison or supported by charity, and whether going to join relatives or friends, and if so what relatives or friends, and their names and addresses, and such other information as may be required by the Commissioner of Immigration at the port of first arrival in the United States.

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 10. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws and employed on board any vessel arriving at a port of the United States shall be permitted to land in the United States except temporarily and solely for the purpose of obtaining medical treatment, or because of illness, injury, or emergency requiring his removal, or for such other reasons as may be approved by the Secretary of Labor, and then only under such conditions as he may prescribe. Any such alien who shall land in the United States shall be deported in the manner provided in the immigration laws, and the cost of his maintenance and removal while in the United States shall be borne by the master or owner of the vessel on which he arrived. Any master or owner who shall refuse or fail to comply with the requirements of this section or with any regulations made by the Secretary of Labor pursuant thereto shall pay to the collector of customs for the district in which the vessel arrives a sum not exceeding $1,000 for each alien seaman in respect of whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance papers to the master or agent thereof while any penalty imposed by this section remains unpaid, except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination of the question of remission or mitigation of such penalty upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover the same or of a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof. Upon the application of the master or agent of any vessel, the Secretary of Labor may, in his discretion, remit or mitigate any penalty imposed by this section upon the vessel with respect to any alien seaman, if it is satisfactorily shown that such alien seaman was secured in a foreign port or place for the sole purpose of performing labor during the emergency necessitating the employment of alien seamen and that the master or owner of the vessel has complied with such conditions as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe governing the employment of alien seamen and the removal of such seamen from the United States.

(a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel bringing an alien to a port of the United States from any place outside the United States (other than Canada, Mexico, Newfoundland, the Canal Zone, the Republic of Panama, Cuba, Haiti, the Dominican Republic, or the adjacent islands) shall cause such alien to be examined by a United States immigrant inspector at the port of first arrival of such vessel in the United States, unless such alien has been admitted to the United States or has been granted the right to depart from the United States without examination by an immigrant inspector. Such examination shall be conducted in accordance with such rules and regulations as may be prescribed by the Secretary of Labor.

(b) Every alien who shall come to the United States from any foreign port or place, or who shall come to the United States from Canada, Mexico, Newfoundland, the Canal Zone, the Republic of Panama, Cuba, Haiti, the Dominican Republic, or the adjacent islands, shall be prima facie excludable if at the time of his application for admission he is found to be a member of one of the classes excluded by section 3 of this Act, or if he is found to be unable to establish to the satisfaction of the immigrant inspector that he is not excludable under section 3 of this Act.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor shall think that any alien seaman on the arrival of any vessel at a port of the United States cannot be landed without danger to the public health, he may cause such alien seaman to be detained on board such vessel or at quarantine, and the cost of such detention shall be borne by the master or owner of such vessel.

(d) Every alien seaman who shall land in the United States from any vessel at any port of the United States, or who shall land in the United States from any vessel at any port in the United States, shall be subject to such regulations as may be prescribed by the Secretary of Labor governing the admission of aliens to the United States, and shall be subject to the provisions of the immigration laws governing the admission of aliens to the United States, except as otherwise provided in this section.

(e) Any alien seaman who shall land in the United States from any vessel at any port of the United States, or who shall land in the United States from any vessel at any port in the United States, and who shall remain in the United States for a period of more than five days, shall be deported in the manner provided in the immigration laws, unless he shall have previously been granted the right to depart from the United States without examination by an immigrant inspector.

(f) Any alien seaman who shall land in the United States from any vessel at any port of the United States, or who shall land in the United States from any vessel at any port in the United States, and who shall remain in the United States for a period of more than five days, shall be deported in the manner provided in the immigration laws, unless he shall have previously been granted the right to depart from the United States without examination by an immigrant inspector.

(g) Any alien seaman who shall land in the United States from any vessel at any port of the United States, or who shall land in the United States from any vessel at any port in the United States, and who shall remain in the United States for a period of more than five days, shall be deported in the manner provided in the immigration laws, unless he shall have previously been granted the right to depart from the United States without examination by an immigrant inspector.

(h) Any alien seaman who shall land in the United States from any vessel at any port of the United States, or who shall land in the United States from any vessel at any port in the United States, and who shall remain in the United States for a period of more than five days, shall be deported in the manner provided in the immigration laws, unless he shall have previously been granted the right to depart from the United States without examination by an immigrant inspector.

(i) Any alien seaman who shall land in the United States from any vessel at any port of the United States, or who shall land in the United States from any vessel at any port in the United States, and who shall remain in the United States for a period of more than five days, shall be deported in the manner provided in the immigration laws, unless he shall have previously been granted the right to depart from the United States without examination by an immigrant inspector.

(j) Any alien seaman who shall land in the United States from any vessel at any port of the United States, or who shall land in the United States from any vessel at any port in the United States, and who shall remain in the United States for a period of more than five days, shall be deported in the manner provided in the immigration laws, unless he shall have previously been granted the right to depart from the United States without examination by an immigrant inspector.

(k) Any alien seaman who shall land in the United States from any vessel at any port of the United States, or who shall land in the United States from any vessel at any port in the United States, and who shall remain in the United States for a period of more than five days, shall be deported in the manner provided in the immigration laws, unless he shall have previously been granted the right to depart from the United States without examination by an immigrant inspector.

(l) Any alien seaman who shall land in the United States from any vessel at any port of the United States, or who shall land in the United States from any vessel at any port in the United States, and who shall remain in the United States for a period of more than five days, shall be deported in the manner provided in the immigration laws, unless he shall have previously been granted the right to depart from the United States without examination by an immigrant inspector.

(m) Any alien seaman who shall land in the United States from any vessel at any port of the United States, or who shall land in the United States from any vessel at any port in the United States, and who shall remain in the United States for a period of more than five days, shall be deported in the manner provided in the immigration laws, unless he shall have previously been granted the right to depart from the United States without examination by an immigrant inspector.

(n) Any alien seaman who shall land in the United States from any vessel at any port of the United States, or who shall land in the United States from any vessel at any port in the United States, and who shall remain in the United States for a period of more than five days, shall be deported in the manner provided in the immigration laws, unless he shall have previously been granted the right to depart from the United States without examination by an immigrant inspector.

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO MASTER

The list described below shall be prepared on blank forms approved by the Department and be ready for delivery to the Immigration Inspectors boarding the vessel at the port of arrival. Any shall be delivered by the master to the principal immigration officer at the port of arrival (Ellis Island shall not be considered on board, but shall be delivered by the master to the immigration officer at the port).—When an alternate manifest is a "workaway," a notation to that effect should be made on the manifest.

EXTRACT FROM ACT OF CONGRESS OF FEBRUARY 5, 1917

SEC. 36. That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the owner, agent, consignee, or master thereof to report at the principal immigration officer in charge of the port of arrival list containing the names of all aliens employed on such vessel, stating the position they respectively hold in the ship's company, when and where they were respectively shipped or engaged, and whether destined to the United States or to some adjacent foreign country, and such other information as may be required by the Secretary of Labor shall by regulation prescribe; and failure to comply with any instruction issued by any immigration officer in pursuance of the provisions of this section shall be punished by a fine of not more than $500 for each offense. The master of any vessel arriving at a port of the United States shall, before any alien employed on such vessel shall be allowed to land, deliver to the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival a list containing the name of each such alien, the country of which he is a citizen or subject, the country from which he last came, the port in the United States at which he intends to land, whether he has a ticket through to his destination, whether he has been in prison or almshouse or supported by charity, whether a polygamist, whether an anarchist, whether coming by reason of any offer, solicitation, promise, agreement, or assistance of any kind to perform labor in the United States, his ability to read or write, his calling or occupation, whether he is going to join a relative or friend, and if so what relative or friend and where, whether he has ever been in the United States before, whether he intends to return after a temporary visit abroad, whether he is a polygamist, whether he is under contract or agreement to perform labor in the United States, his height, complexion, the color of his hair and eyes, and any distinguishing marks. The list of aliens required to be delivered by the master to the immigration officer at the port of arrival may be in such form as may be prescribed by the Secretary of Labor, and may be printed, lithographed, or otherwise reproduced. Upon the inspection of the vessel by the immigration officer at the port of arrival the master shall produce the list for his verification, and shall make oath before such officer to the correctness of the list. Any master who refuses to deliver the list required by this section, or who refuses to produce the list for verification or to make oath to the same upon the inspection of the vessel by the immigration officer at the port of arrival, or who delivers a list which is incorrect or incomplete in any particular, shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 for each such offense. The Secretary of Labor may, in his discretion, refuse to permit any vessel to land any alien at any port in the United States if the master of such vessel has failed to comply with the requirements of this section.

EXTRACT FROM ACT OF CONGRESS APPROVED MAY 26, 1924

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 16. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws and employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or because of illness, injury, or quarantine requirements, unless the master of the vessel certifies in the form and manner prescribed by the Secretary of Labor that such alien is destined to the United States to perform labor, and that specific employment has been offered him, stating the nature thereof and the compensation therefor, and that the master intends to employ him on board the vessel in such employment. Such certification shall be subject to such inspection as the Secretary of Labor may by regulations prescribe. Any such alien seaman who shall land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or because of illness, injury, or quarantine requirements, without having been certified by the master of the vessel as provided for in this section, shall be deported to the country from which he came to the United States, at the cost of the appropriation for the expenses of the Immigration Service, unless the Secretary of Labor shall determine that deportation to such country would be unreasonable, in which case he shall be deported to such other country as the Secretary of Labor may direct. Any master who shall fail to comply with the requirements of this section shall pay a penalty of $1,000 for each such alien seaman in respect of whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance papers pending the determination of the question of the application of this section in any case in which complaint has been made to the Secretary of Labor as to the violation of the provisions of this section, but such papers may be granted upon the deposit of such sum, not exceeding $1,000 for each alien seaman in respect of whom such failure occurs, as the collector of customs may require, or the filing of a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof in the amount of such sum by the master of the vessel with a surety company authorized to do such business under the laws of the United States, approved by the collector of customs.

(b) Upon final discharge from the vessel of any alien seaman who has been certified by the master of the vessel on which he arrived in the United States as destined to perform labor, the master shall be given a landing certificate by the immigration officer at the port of arrival, and such alien seaman shall be allowed to land for the purpose of performing the labor specified. Such landing certificate may be revoked within one year from the date of landing by the Secretary of Labor, and such alien seaman deported to the country from which he came to the United States at the cost of the appropriation for the expenses of the Immigration Service, upon the warrant of the Secretary of Labor.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor finds that deportation of the alien seaman on the vessel on which he arrived would cause him to be detained on shore for a longer period than is required for the repair of the vessel or the taking on board of cargo or supplies, he may cause him to be detained on board such vessel at the expense of the vessel on which he arrived, and such expenses shall be included in the fine imposed on the master under subdivision (a) of this section.

(d) Upon final discharge from the vessel of any alien seaman who arrived in the United States as destined to perform labor, or upon the completion of the unloading of the vessel on which he arrived, whichever is earlier, the master shall be given a landing certificate by the immigration officer at the port of arrival, and such alien seaman shall be allowed to land for the purpose of performing the labor specified. Such landing certificate may be revoked within one year from the date of landing by the Secretary of Labor, and such alien seaman deported to the country from which he came to the United States at the cost of the appropriation for the expenses of the Immigration Service, upon the warrant of the Secretary of Labor.

(e) If the Secretary of Labor finds that deportation of the alien seaman on the vessel on which he arrived would cause him to be detained on shore for a longer period than is required for the repair of the vessel or the taking on board of cargo or supplies, he may cause him to be detained on board such vessel at the expense of the vessel on which he arrived, and such expenses shall be included in the fine imposed on the master under subdivision (a) of this section.

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO MASTER

The list described below shall be prepared on blank forms approved by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigration inspector boarding the vessel at the port of arrival, and shall in no instance be taken from the vessel. The list of changes of alien members of crew (Form 528) shall not be furnished on board, but shall be delivered by the master to the principal immigration officer at the port. When an arriving seaman is a "workaway," a notation to that effect should be made on the manifest.

EXTRACT FROM ACT OF CONGRESS OF FEBRUARY 5, 1917

SEC. 30. That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the owner, agent, consignee, or master thereof to deliver to the principal immigration officer in charge of the port of arrival lists containing the names of all aliens employed on such vessel, stating the positions they respectively hold in the grade, rating, or capacity in which they were respectively shipped or engaged, and specifying those of the said aliens who are destined to the United States, and the intended final destination of each of them, if known, and such information as the Secretary of Labor shall by regulation prescribe; and after the arrival of any such vessel it shall be the duty of the owner, agent, consignee, or master to report to such immigration officer, in writing, as soon as discovered, all cases in which any such alien has illegally landed from the vessel, giving a description of such alien, together with any information likely to lead to his apprehension; and before the departure of any such vessel it shall be the duty of such owner, agent, consignee, or master to deliver to such immigration officer a further list containing the names of all alien employees who were not employed thereon at the time of the arrival but who will leave port thereon at the time of her departure, and also the names of all alien employees who were not employed thereon at the time of the arrival, who have been paid off and discharged, and of those, if any, who have deserted from the vessel, and the cause or reason therefor, if known, so far as the same can be ascertained by the master of such vessel; and a penalty of $10 for each alien concerning whom correct lists are not delivered as herein required, and a penalty of $20 for each alien not duly reported, respectively, or so to report such alien or the cause or reason for his detention, shall be imposed upon the master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer of such vessel, and shall be a lien upon the vessel, which may be enforced by the collector of the port of arrival: Provided, That clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine, or of a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof approved by the collector of customs.

(b) Front fines in alien seamen did not appear upon the ordinary manifest of the vessel on which he arrived in the United States from a foreign port or place, or in the event such fine is imposed, while it remains unpaid: nor shall such fine be remitted or refunded: Provided, That clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine.

EXTRACT FROM SUBDIVISION B, RULE 7

RULE 8. Clearance shall not be granted any vessel until the lists required by section 30 of the Act of February 5, 1917, have been furnished, and not then unless notice of liability to the administrative fine prescribed by said section or to fines prescribed by section 35 of said Act, appears upon records, the deposit specified in rule 23 has been made.

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 18. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws who has entered on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, or who has been employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, and who has been granted a conditional permit to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or unless specially detained for the action of the Secretary of Labor, shall be permitted to land in the United States, and it shall be the duty of the master, owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof to detain on board such alien seaman and to report such seaman forthwith to the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival for inspection or to deport such seaman if required by such immigration officer at the expense of the vessel on which he arrived. Such seaman (whether inspection in all cases shall include a personal physical examination by the medical examiner), or who fails to detain such seaman on board after such inspection or to deport such seaman if required by such immigration officer, or who lands such seaman (whether with or without a permit) in any place in the United States from any place outside thereof, except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination of the liability to payment of such fine, or while the case is pending appeal, or while a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof approved by the collector of customs.

(b) Front fines in alien seamen did not appear upon the ordinary manifest of the vessel on which he arrived in the United States from a foreign port or place, or in the event such fine is imposed, while it remains unpaid: nor shall such fine be remitted or refunded. Provided, That clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor finds that deportation of the alien seaman on the vessel on which he arrived, and such vessel shall not be granted clearance until such expense has been paid or the payment guaranteed to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor.

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO MASTER

The list described below shall be prepared on blank forms approved by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigration inspector boarding the vessel at the port of arrival, and shall in no instance be taken from the vessel. The list of members of crew and other persons carried for hire or transportation, whether employed on such vessel, arriving the boundaries they respectively hold in the ship's company, men and women (sex), nationality or country last permanently resident, and description, whether passenger or member of crew (Form 598) shall not be retained on board, but shall be delivered by the master to the principal immigration officer at the port of arrival (Form 598) shall not be retained on board, but shall be delivered by the master to the principal immigration officer at the port of arrival.

When an arriving seaman is a "workaway," a notation to that effect should be made on the manifest.

EXTRACT FROM ACT OF CONGRESS OF FEBRUARY 5, 1917

SEC. 36. That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the owner, agent, consignee, or master thereof to deliver to the principal immigration officer in charge of the port of arrival lists containing the names of all aliens employed on such vessel, arranged in the groups, and showing the following additional information: Nationality of each alien, last permanent residence, final destination, whether in possession of a ticket through to such destination, whether destination is the United States or country contiguous thereto, whether in possession of money, and if so how much, whether going to join relatives or friends, and if so what relatives or friends and their names and complete addresses, whether ever before in the United States and if so when and where, whether ever in prison or almshouse or supported by charity, whether a polygamist, whether coming by reason of any offer, solicitation, promise, agreement, or arrangement of any kind to perform labor in the United States, and what is the intended length of stay in the United States; whether he has been deported and if so the cause thereof; whether he has a ticket through to the place of his ultimate destination; whether he has been in the United States before and if so when and how long he remained and what he was doing while here; whether he has been in prison or almshouse within five years of the time of his application for admission to the United States, and if so the cause thereof; whether he is a person who believes in or advocates the overthrow by force or violence of the Government of the United States or of all forms of law, or who disbelieves in or is opposed to organized government, or who advocates the assassination of public officials, or who advocates or teaches the unlawful destruction of property, or who is a member of or affiliated with any organization entertaining, advocating, or teaching any of the doctrines above specified, or who is a member of or affiliated with any organization or body of persons teaching disbelief in or opposition to organized government, or who is a member of or affiliated with any organization or body of persons which seeks to overthrow the Government of the United States or any other organized government because of its form or its opposition to all forms of government, or who advocates the unlawful damage, injury, or destruction of property, or who is a member of or affiliated with any organization or body of persons which has for one of its objects or purposes the unlawful damage, injury, or destruction of property, or who is a member of or affiliated with any organization or body of persons which seeks to overthrow the Government of the United States or any other organized government by force or violence, or who is a member of or affiliated with any organization or body of persons which has for one of its objects or purposes the assassination of public officials, or who advocates or teaches the unlawful destruction of property, or who is a member of or affiliated with any organization or body of persons which seeks to overthrow the Government of the United States or any other organized government by force or violence; and the results of the examination of the head, face, and body of each alien, and such other facts as may be prescribed by the Secretary of Labor. Any person who knowingly violates any of the provisions of this section shall be fined not more than $1,000 or imprisoned not more than one year, or both.

SEC. 30. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof who fails to deliver on board such vessel before departure from each foreign port the list or lists of aliens required by section 36 of this Act, or who fails to deliver on board such vessel before departure from the last port outside the United States the additional list or lists of aliens required by section 36 of this Act, or who fails to report the illness or death of any alien on board such vessel before arrival at the port of first arrival, or who fails to detain on board or at quarantine any alien who has been ordered so detained by the Secretary of Labor, or who fails to deliver any such alien who has been ordered so delivered by the Secretary of Labor to the custody of the proper immigration officer at the time and place specified by him, or who fails to pay the tax imposed by section 2 of this Act, or who fails to report, deliver, or detain any alien as required by section 6 of this Act, or who fails to comply with the provisions of section 10 of this Act relating to the removal of aliens who have been refused admission to the United States, or who fails to comply with the provisions of section 19 of this Act relating to the control and removal of aliens who have been ordered deported from the United States, or who fails to comply with the provisions of section 23 of this Act relating to the report of aliens who have been granted visas, or who fails to comply with the provisions of section 24 of this Act relating to the report of aliens who have been granted permits to enter the United States, or who fails to comply with the provisions of section 25 of this Act relating to the report of aliens who have been granted permits to depart from and return to the United States, or who fails to comply with the provisions of section 26 of this Act relating to the report of aliens who have been granted permits to depart from the United States, or who fails to comply with the provisions of section 27 of this Act relating to the report of aliens who have been granted permits to depart from and return to the United States, shall pay to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $1,000 for each alien according to records of whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the liability to payment of such tax, or while the tax remains unpaid, except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination in such amounts as the owner, agent, consignee, or master of such vessel may deposit with the collector of customs a sum sufficient to cover such tax or a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof approved by the collector of customs.

(b) Every alien seaman who shall not depart upon the outbound manifest of the vessel on which he arrived in the United States from any place outside thereof, or that he was temporarily in such vessel as a deserter, shall be prima facie evidence of a failure to deliver such alien on board such vessel before departure, unless such alien seaman shall have been entered on the crew list of such vessel upon her subsequent departure from such port and produced by the master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer of such vessel before the immigration officer at the time of such departure, and shall have been identified as the person entered on the crew list of such vessel upon her arrival at such port.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor shall have determined to the satisfaction of the master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer of any vessel that it is impracticable to detain any alien seaman on board such vessel, he may, in his discretion, permit such alien seaman to depart from the United States without the payment of the tax provided for in this section, upon the deposit by the master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer of such vessel with the Secretary of Labor of a bond in such amount, not exceeding $1,000, as the Secretary of Labor may require, conditioned upon the return of such alien seaman for hearing and the final disposition of his case by the Secretary of Labor. Upon the failure of such alien seaman to return for hearing or for final disposition of his case as required by the Secretary of Labor, the bond shall be declared forfeited and collected by the Secretary of Labor. Such bond shall not be required in the case of any alien seaman who is a member of the crew of a vessel which has been granted clearance by the Secretary of Labor.

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 13. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws and employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or because of illness, or to attend to such formalities as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe for the ultimate departure, removal, or deportation of such alien from the United States.

SEC. 30. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof who fails to detain on board such vessel such alien seaman employed on such vessel until the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival has completed the physical and mental examination of such alien seaman (which examination in all cases shall include a personal physical examination by the medical examiner), or who fails to detain such alien seaman on board such vessel such further time as the immigration officer at the port may require, or who fails to deliver such alien seaman to the immigration officer at the port to which such vessel is destined for the purpose of Secretary of Labor to do so, shall pay to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $1,000 for each alien seaman in respect of whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the liability to payment of such tax, or while the tax remains unpaid, except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such tax or of a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof approved by the collector of customs.

(b) Every alien seaman who shall not depart upon the outbound manifest of the vessel on which he arrived in the United States from any place outside thereof, or that he was temporarily in such vessel as a deserter, shall be prima facie evidence of a failure to deliver such alien on board such vessel before departure, unless such alien seaman shall have been entered on the crew list of such vessel upon her subsequent departure from such port and produced by the master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer of such vessel before the immigration officer at the time of such departure, and shall have been identified as the person entered on the crew list of such vessel upon her arrival at such port.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor shall have determined to the satisfaction of the master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer of any vessel that it is impracticable to detain any alien seaman on board such vessel, he may, in his discretion, permit such alien seaman to depart from the United States without the payment of the tax provided for in this section, upon the deposit by the master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer of such vessel with the Secretary of Labor of a bond in such amount, not exceeding $1,000, as the Secretary of Labor may require, conditioned upon the return of such alien seaman for hearing and the final disposition of his case by the Secretary of Labor. Upon the failure of such alien seaman to return for hearing or for final disposition of his case as required by the Secretary of Labor, the bond shall be declared forfeited and collected by the Secretary of Labor. Such bond shall not be required in the case of any alien seaman who is a member of the crew of a vessel which has been granted clearance by the Secretary of Labor.

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO MASTER

The list described below shall be prepared on blank forms approved by the Department and be ready for delivery to the Immigration Inspector boarding the vessel at the port of arrival, but shall in no instance be taken from the vessel. The list or manifest of alien passengers required to be delivered on board, but shall be delivered by the master to the Immigration officer at the port of entry (Form 430) shall not be removed on board, but shall be delivered by the master to the Immigration officer at the port of arrival, and should not cause to be made any changes or additions to the list or manifest, or take possession of the same or any part thereof, except upon the direction of the Secretary of Labor, but shall in every instance be delivered intact to the Immigration officer at the time of the vessel's arrival at the port of entry. The list or manifest of alien passengers required to be delivered by the master to the Immigration officer at the port of arrival must be complete in every particular, and the answers to questions must be full and direct to each question before the name of each alien is entered. Any illegible, incomplete, or evasive answers will be cause for detaining the alien for special inquiry at the expense of the vessel.

SEC. 36. That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the master, agent, consignee, or owner thereof to deliver to the immigrant inspector in charge at the port of arrival a complete list or manifest of all the passengers on board of such vessel, which list or manifest shall be prepared in the order and form prescribed by the Secretary of Labor, and shall contain such additional information relative to each passenger as the Secretary of Labor shall prescribe, touching his or her nationality, last permanent residence, final destination, whether he or she has been previously in the United States or which of the States or Territories he or she intends to locate or reside in, whether he or she has a ticket through to such destination, whether the passage is paid by himself or herself or by others, whether in possession of money, and if so how much, whether going to join relatives or friends, and if so what relatives or friends and their addresses, whether he or she has been in prison or almshouse or supported by charity, whether a polygamist, whether an anarchist, whether coming by reason of any offer, solicitation, promise, agreement, or arrangement of any kind to perform labor in the United States, and whether in possession of a ticket over any railroad or railroads or other transportation lines to his or her ultimate destination, and such other items of information as may be required by the Secretary of Labor. Said list or manifest shall be verified by the oath of the master or commanding officer of the vessel, and shall be in such form, not inconsistent with this Act, as may be prescribed by the Secretary of Labor. Said list or manifest shall be produced for the inspection of any immigrant inspector demanding the same, and shall be preserved on board the vessel for a period of three years after the date of the last entry made thereon. Any master, agent, consignee, or owner of any such vessel who shall refuse to deliver such list or manifest, or deliver a false list or manifest, or refuse to allow the same to be inspected, or refuse to preserve the same for the period of three years, shall pay a penalty of $1,000 for each and every such offense; and no such vessel shall be granted clearance papers pending the payment of such penalty or the giving of a bond for the payment thereof. Any master, agent, consignee, or owner of any such vessel who shall refuse to deliver to any immigrant inspector any such list or manifest required by this section, or who shall refuse to answer any question put to him or her by such inspector in relation to the information required by this section, or who shall answer any such question falsely, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall be punished by a fine not exceeding $1,000 or by imprisonment not exceeding one year, or both, in the discretion of the court. Any master, agent, consignee, or owner of any such vessel who shall refuse to deliver to any immigrant inspector any such list or manifest required by this section, or who shall refuse to answer any question put to him or her by such inspector in relation to the information required by this section, or who shall answer any such question falsely, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall be punished by a fine not exceeding $1,000 or by imprisonment not exceeding one year, or both, in the discretion of the court. Any master, agent, consignee, or owner of any such vessel who shall refuse to deliver to any immigrant inspector any such list or manifest required by this section, or who shall refuse to answer any question put to him or her by such inspector in relation to the information required by this section, or who shall answer any such question falsely, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall be punished by a fine not exceeding $1,000 or by imprisonment not exceeding one year, or both, in the discretion of the court.

EXTRACT FROM ACT OF CONGRESS OF FEBRUARY 5, 1917

SEC. 36. That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the master, agent, consignee, or owner thereof to deliver to the immigrant inspector in charge at the port of arrival a complete list or manifest of all the persons on board of such vessel, which list or manifest shall be prepared in the order and form prescribed by the Secretary of Labor, and shall contain such additional information relative to each passenger as the Secretary of Labor shall prescribe, touching his or her nationality, last permanent residence, final destination, whether he or she has been previously in the United States or which of the States or Territories he or she intends to locate or reside in, whether he or she has a ticket through to such destination, whether the passage is paid by himself or herself or by others, whether in possession of money, and if so how much, whether going to join relatives or friends, and if so what relatives or friends and their addresses, whether he or she has been in prison or almshouse or supported by charity, whether a polygamist, whether an anarchist, whether coming by reason of any offer, solicitation, promise, agreement, or arrangement of any kind to perform labor in the United States, and whether in possession of a ticket over any railroad or railroads or other transportation lines to his or her ultimate destination, and such other items of information as may be required by the Secretary of Labor. Said list or manifest shall be verified by the oath of the master or commanding officer of the vessel, and shall be in such form, not inconsistent with this Act, as may be prescribed by the Secretary of Labor. Said list or manifest shall be produced for the inspection of any immigrant inspector demanding the same, and shall be preserved on board the vessel for a period of three years after the date of the last entry made thereon. Any master, agent, consignee, or owner of any such vessel who shall refuse to deliver such list or manifest, or deliver a false list or manifest, or refuse to allow the same to be inspected, or refuse to preserve the same for the period of three years, shall pay a penalty of $1,000 for each and every such offense; and no such vessel shall be granted clearance papers pending the payment of such penalty or the giving of a bond for the payment thereof. Any master, agent, consignee, or owner of any such vessel who shall refuse to deliver to any immigrant inspector any such list or manifest required by this section, or who shall refuse to answer any question put to him or her by such inspector in relation to the information required by this section, or who shall answer any such question falsely, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall be punished by a fine not exceeding $1,000 or by imprisonment not exceeding one year, or both, in the discretion of the court. Any master, agent, consignee, or owner of any such vessel who shall refuse to deliver to any immigrant inspector any such list or manifest required by this section, or who shall refuse to answer any question put to him or her by such inspector in relation to the information required by this section, or who shall answer any such question falsely, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall be punished by a fine not exceeding $1,000 or by imprisonment not exceeding one year, or both, in the discretion of the court.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor finds that deportation of the alien cannot be effected by reason of refusal of any foreign government to accept such alien after due and reasonable effort to secure his admission, or by reason of the failure or refusal of the master of the vessel on which such alien arrived in the United States to receive such alien on board such vessel or another vessel in his employ, or by reason of the refusal of the owners of such vessel to pay the expenses of the deportation of such alien, the Secretary of Labor may cause such alien to be detained at such place as he may designate pending the removal of such alien whenever it shall appear to the Secretary of Labor that such detention is no longer necessary, but such alien shall not be released except upon such terms and conditions as may be prescribed by the Secretary of Labor, or under such supervision as he may prescribe, and such alien shall not be allowed to remain in the United States for a longer period than five days unless the Secretary of Labor shall so direct, and no such alien shall be eligible to become a citizen of the United States.

(d) That any alien against whom a warrant of arrest shall be issued under the provisions of this Act may be taken into custody and detained in the district in which he may be found pending a hearing before the Secretary of Labor or his duly authorized representatives, and pending such hearing and the final determination of the Secretary of Labor thereon shall not be admitted to bail or released from detention except in exceptional cases where it is shown to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor or his duly authorized representatives that the alien will not abscond or otherwise fail to appear for deportation, and in no case except under the most extraordinary circumstances shall any alien be released from detention pending such hearing and determination unless he shall furnish a bond in the sum of not less than $500 with sufficient surety, or in such larger amount as may be required by the Secretary of Labor, conditioned that such alien will not abscond or otherwise fail to appear for deportation, and that he will not violate any of the terms or conditions of the bond or recognizance given by him under the provisions of this Act or any rule or regulation made by the Secretary of Labor with reference thereto. Any such bond may be forfeited by the Secretary of Labor or his duly authorized representatives in case of any violation of the conditions thereof, and thereupon the full amount thereof may be collected as in case of other bonds, penalties, or forfeitures, and any such bond may be sued upon in the name of the United States in any district in which the person or corporation signing the same may be found or from which property may be available for the payment of the amount due thereon. The decision of the Secretary of Labor canceling any bond and directing the forfeiture thereof shall be final and conclusive.

EXTRACT FROM SUBDIVISION B, RULE 7

PAR. 6. Clearance shall not be granted any vessel until the fees specified by section 35 of the Act of February 5, 1917, have been paid, unless duly exempted by said section or to that prescribed by section 32 of the Act of June 26, 1906, and the deposit specified in rule 35 has been made.

EXTRACT FROM ACT OF CONGRESS APPROVED MAY 26, 1924

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 13. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws and employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any foreign contiguous territory, shall be permitted to land in the United States except temporarily for medical treatment, or because of shipwreck or other casualty or distress, or by reason of illness not discovered by the immigration officer at the port of arrival, or for the purpose of participating in a religious or national patriotic celebration, or for such other reasons as may be prescribed by the Secretary of Labor, and then only under such conditions as he may prescribe, and such seaman shall be deported in the same manner as provided in the case of other aliens ordered deported from the United States.

SEC. 30. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside the Panama Canal or any insular possession of the United States (except Cuba) shall not be refused an outward clearance on account of the failure to deport any alien seaman employed on board such vessel until the immigration officer in charge at the port of departure has been notified of the application for clearance and has had reasonable opportunity to examine such seaman. Such immigration officer shall, upon the request of the master, agent, consignee, or owner of such vessel, examine such seaman and report to the collector of customs the name of any seaman who has been ordered deported from the United States and who is employed on board such vessel. Such seaman shall be detained on board such vessel at the port of departure until the departure of such vessel, unless sooner removed by the Secretary of Labor or his duly authorized representatives. Any master, agent, consignee, or owner of any such vessel who shall refuse or neglect to report the presence of any such seaman on board such vessel, or who shall refuse to detain such seaman on board such vessel after notification as herein provided, shall pay to the collector of customs a penalty of $1,000 for each alien seaman in respect of whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the question of the liability to payment of such penalty, except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such penalty, or of a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof approved by the collector of customs.

(d) That any alien seaman who does not depart from the United States in accordance with the provisions of this section shall be deported as provided in the immigration laws. Any such alien seaman who shall land in the United States during the period of his employment on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any foreign contiguous territory, without the permission of the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival, shall be deported as provided in the immigration laws. The list of seamen of each nationality required to be delivered by the master to the immigrant inspector boarding the vessel at the port of arrival (Form 430) shall not be removed on board, but shall be delivered by the master to the immigrant inspector at the port of arrival, and should not cause to be made any changes or additions to the list or manifest, or take possession of the same or any part thereof, except upon the direction of the Secretary of Labor, but shall in every instance be delivered intact to the immigrant inspector at the port of entry. The list or manifest of alien passengers required to be delivered on board, but shall be delivered by the master to the immigrant inspector at the port of arrival, must be complete in every particular, and the answers to questions must be full and direct to each question before the name of each alien is entered. Any illegible, incomplete, or evasive answers will be cause for detaining the alien for special inquiry at the expense of the vessel.

AFFIDAVIT OF THE MASTER OR COMMANDING OFFICER, OR FIRST OR SECOND OFFICER

I, [illegible], do declare that the foregoing is a full and true list of all the crew promptly in said vessel from and port or place during her present voyage.

EXTRACT FROM ACT OF CONGRESS OF FEBRUARY 2, 1917

SEC. 36. That upon arrival of vessels in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the master, owner, agent, consignee, or master thereof to deliver to the principal immigration officer in charge of the port of arrival lists containing the names of all aliens shipped or engaged, and specifying those to be held on board the vessel, or their condition as to each of said matters. Such lists shall be delivered from the vessel, before a description of such alien, together with any information likely to lead to his apprehension: and officer a further list containing the names of all alien employees who were not employed thereon at the time of the arrival but who before the departure of the said vessel it shall be the duty of such owner, agent, consignee, or master to deliver to such immigration officer a list containing the names of all such employees who were not employed thereon at the time of the arrival but who will leave port thereon at the time of the departure, and also the names of those, if any, who have been hired on and subsequently discharged, and of those, if any, who have deserted the vessel or landed; in case of the failure of such owner, agent, consignee, or master to deliver lists or to deliver other or further lists as herein required, or in case of the failure of the master, owner, agent, consignee, or master of the vessel to report to the proper officer the names of any aliens who may be found on board after the departure of the vessel from the last port outside the United States, he shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be punished by a fine not exceeding $1,000 for each alien not reported, or by imprisonment for a period not exceeding one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the court: Provided, That clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine, or of a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof approved by the collector of customs.

(b) Every such fine so imposed shall be a lien upon the vessel, which may be enforced by the process of the court in the district in which the vessel may be found. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of such question upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine, or of a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof, or while the master thereof is detained on board pursuant to the provisions of this section. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the question of the liability to the payment of such fine, and in the event such fine is imposed, while it remains unpaid, no clearance shall be granted the master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer of such vessel.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor finds that deportation of the alien seaman on the vessel on which he arrived would cause undue hardship to such seaman he may cause him to be deported on another vessel at the expense of the vessel on which he arrived, and such vessel shall not be granted clearance until such expense has been paid or it has otherwise been satisfied to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor.

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 10. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws and employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or hospital treatment, or burial, or for such other purpose as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe for the alternate deportation of such alien from the United States.

SEC. 35. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof who fails to deport on board any alien seaman employed on such vessel shall pay the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival for inspection such seaman (which inspection in all cases shall include a personal physical examination by the medical examiner), or who fails to deport such seaman on board after such inspection or to deport such seaman if required by such immigration officer or the Secretary of Labor to do so, shall pay to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $1,000 for each alien seaman in respect of whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the liability to payment of such fine, or while the fine remains unpaid, except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such fine upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine, or of a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof approved by the collector of customs.

(b) Every such fine so imposed shall not exceed $10 for each alien seaman with respect to whom it is imposed and shall be a lien upon the vessel on which he arrived in the United States from a foreign port or place, and such lien may be enforced by process of the court in the district in which the vessel may be found. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of such question upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine, or of a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof, or while the master thereof is detained on board pursuant to the provisions of this section. No vessel shall be granted clearance until such expense has been paid or it has otherwise been satisfied to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor finds that deportation of the alien seaman on the vessel on which he arrived would cause undue hardship to such seaman he may cause him to be deported on another vessel at the expense of the vessel on which he arrived, and such vessel shall not be granted clearance until such expense has been paid or it has otherwise been satisfied to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor.

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO MASTER

The list described below shall be prepared on blank forms approved by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigration inspector boarding the vessel at the port of arrival, and shall in no instance be taken from the vessel. The list or manifest of aliens must be signed by the master or commanding officer of the vessel, and sworn to before the immigration officer at the port of arrival. Where an arriving steamer is a "tramp," in addition to that signed by the master, the list shall be certified by the inspector in charge of the district in which the port is located, or by such other officer as may be designated by the Commissioner of Immigration and Naturalization.

The list or manifest must be legible, written in ink or typewritten, and must be prepared in the exact order of the questions as shown on the form. Answers must be given to every question, and no space left blank. Where the question is inapplicable or the answer is unknown, a dash (—) must be made in the proper space. Do not repeat answers, but where the answer is the same as that given to the preceding question, make a ditto mark (") in the proper space. Care must be taken that the ditto mark is not placed in the wrong space. Each person must be accounted for, whether citizen or alien, and the number of persons entered at the footing of each page must be carried forward and entered on the first line of the succeeding page. The name of every person on board, including the master, must be entered, and the sex of each must be indicated by the proper use of the letter "M" or "F." Write plainly and legibly, using black ink. Do not abbreviate the name of any country. Write the name of the country in full. Do not use the letters "do" to indicate that the entry on the preceding line applies also to the entry in question. Each question must be answered as directed, and the answer must be responsive to the question. Do not erase or use fluid to obliterate any entry, but draw a line through any word incorrectly written, initial the correction, and make the correct entry above or below the line. Do not fold the list in such a manner as to cut off the writing on the right-hand edge of the pages.

EXTRACT FROM ACT OF CONGRESS OF FEBRUARY 5, 1917, AS AMENDED

SEC. 36. That nobody without a passport, immigration officer, or certificate of registry or other document required by the provisions of this Act, or by such rules and regulations as may be prescribed by the Commissioner General of Immigration with the approval of the Secretary of Labor, shall be allowed to enter the United States from any foreign port or place; and the master, owner, agent, charterer, or consignee of any vessel who knowingly violates this provision shall be fined not more than $1,000 for each such violation, or imprisoned not more than one year, or both. Nothing in this section shall be construed to require any such document of any person who is a bona fide resident of Canada, Newfoundland, Mexico, Cuba, Haiti, the Dominican Republic, the Canal Zone, the Republic of Panama, or the United States of Mexico, or to prevent any such person from entering the United States at the ports of Nogales, Douglas, Naco, or Eagle Pass, or such other ports as may be designated by the Commissioner General of Immigration, under such rules and regulations as he may prescribe, or to prevent any such person from passing through the United States in immediate and continuous transit from one foreign country to another foreign country, under such rules and regulations as may be prescribed by the Commissioner General of Immigration with the approval of the Secretary of Labor.

SEC. 150.15. Limit of alien employees; when clearance of vessel denied. Clearance shall not be granted any vessel until the list or manifest of aliens employed on board such vessel has been delivered to the immigration officer in charge at the port of departure, and the master, purser, or surgeon of such vessel has certified to the correctness of such list or manifest, and has made oath before such officer that to the best of his knowledge and belief no member of the crew has been left behind, except as specified in the list or manifest, and that no person has been taken on board except as specified therein. Such list or manifest must show the name of every person employed on such vessel, the capacity in which employed, and such other information as may be required by the Commissioner of Immigration and Naturalization. Any master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer who refuses to deliver such list or manifest, or who refuses to make oath to the correctness thereof, or who refuses clearance to any vessel because of the failure of any person employed on board thereof to be included in such list or manifest, or who refuses clearance because of the withholding of any person from the list or manifest, or who refuses clearance because of the omission from the list or manifest of any person who has been employed on board such vessel, shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 for each such offense.

SEC. 150.17. Limit of alien employees; when clearance of vessel denied. Clearance shall not be granted any vessel until the list or manifest of aliens employed on such vessel has been delivered to the immigration officer in charge at the port of departure, and the master, purser, or surgeon of such vessel has certified to the correctness of such list or manifest, and has made oath before such officer that to the best of his knowledge and belief no member of the crew has been left behind, except as specified in the list or manifest, and that no person has been taken on board except as specified therein. Such list or manifest must show the name of every person employed on such vessel, the capacity in which employed, and such other information as may be required by the Commissioner of Immigration and Naturalization. Any master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer who refuses to deliver such list or manifest, or who refuses to make oath to the correctness thereof, or who refuses clearance to any vessel because of the failure of any person employed on board thereof to be included in such list or manifest, or who refuses clearance because of the withholding of any person from the list or manifest, or who refuses clearance because of the omission from the list or manifest of any person who has been employed on board such vessel, shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 for each such offense. [See 8 CFR 150.15.]

SEC. 50. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except for emergency reasons, or for medical treatment, or because of sickness, or injury of any alien seaman until the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival shall have been notified by such owner, agent, consignee, or master of the intention to land such alien seaman, and such alien seaman shall have been given a physical examination by a medical officer of the United States Public Health Service, or by a surgeon designated by the Secretary of Labor, at the expense of the owner, agent, consignee, or master of the vessel, unless such examination be waived as provided in subsection (b) of this section. Such physical examination shall include a personal interview unless impracticable, and shall be conducted in accordance with such administrative regulations as may be prescribed by the Secretary of Labor. Any alien seaman who shall refuse to submit to such physical examination shall be deemed to be an alien who has failed to comply with the requirements of section 2 of the Act of February 5, 1917, and may be arrested and deported in accordance with the provisions of section 19 of the Act of February 5, 1917, as amended (section 155 of this title).

(b) Upon the recommendation of the Public Health Service, the Secretary of Labor may waive the requirement of such physical examination in respect of any alien seaman if, in his opinion, the services of such alien seaman are required in the interests of the vessel and no danger to the public health will result from the waiver of such examination.

(c) If the Attorney General finds that deportation of the alien seaman on the vessel on which he arrived would cause undue hardship to such seaman he may cause him to be detained on shipboard or elsewhere pending the departure of the vessel on which he arrived, but such detention shall not be granted pending the determination of the Attorney General as to the application for the temporary admission of the alien seaman, unless such alien seaman is a bona fide resident of Canada, Newfoundland, Mexico, Cuba, Haiti, the Dominican Republic, the Canal Zone, the Republic of Panama, or the United States of Mexico, or unless such alien seaman is in possession of a valid passport and a valid unexpired immigration visa, if such visa is required by the immigration laws and regulations in force at the time of the application for admission of such alien seaman.

(d) Upon the arrival of any alien seaman who is ordered detained on board or elsewhere pending the determination of his admissibility to the United States, the master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer of the vessel on which such alien seaman arrived shall be responsible for the safekeeping of such alien seaman and shall be responsible for the payment of all expenses and costs incurred in connection with such detention, including expenses and costs incurred in the maintenance, support, and hospitalization of such alien seaman, and for his removal from the United States when ordered by the Attorney General. Failure to comply with any of the requirements of this section shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 for each such offense.

SEC. 51. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except for emergency reasons, or for medical treatment, or because of sickness or injury of any alien seaman until the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival shall have been notified by such owner, agent, consignee, or master of the intention to land such alien seaman, and such alien seaman shall have been given a physical examination by a medical officer of the United States Public Health Service, or by a surgeon designated by the Secretary of Labor, at the expense of the owner, agent, consignee, or master of the vessel, unless such examination be waived as provided in subsection (b) of this section. Such physical examination shall include a personal interview unless impracticable, and shall be conducted in accordance with such administrative regulations as may be prescribed by the Secretary of Labor. Any alien seaman who shall refuse to submit to such physical examination shall be deemed to be an alien who has failed to comply with the requirements of section 2 of the Act of February 5, 1917, and may be arrested and deported in accordance with the provisions of section 19 of the Act of February 5, 1917, as amended (section 155 of this title).

(b) Upon the recommendation of the Public Health Service, the Secretary of Labor may waive the requirement of such physical examination in respect of any alien seaman if, in his opinion, the services of such alien seaman are required in the interests of the vessel and no danger to the public health will result from the waiver of such examination. In order to facilitate inspection of alien seamen, including masters of arriving American citizen seamen as well as aliens.

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 16. No alien seaman employed upon any vessel arriving at a port of the United States from any foreign port or place shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or because of sickness or injury, until the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival shall have been notified by such master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer of the intention to land such alien seaman, and such alien seaman shall have been given a physical examination by a medical officer of the United States Public Health Service, or by a surgeon designated by the Secretary of Labor, at the expense of the master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer of the vessel, unless such examination be waived as provided in subsection (b) of this section. Such physical examination shall include a personal interview unless impracticable, and shall be conducted in accordance with such administrative regulations as may be prescribed by the Secretary of Labor. Any alien seaman who shall refuse to submit to such physical examination shall be deemed to be an alien who has failed to comply with the requirements of section 2 of the Act of February 5, 1917, and may be arrested and deported in accordance with the provisions of section 19 of the Act of February 5, 1917, as amended (section 155 of this title).

(b) Upon the recommendation of the Public Health Service, the Secretary of Labor may waive the requirement of such physical examination in respect of any alien seaman if, in his opinion, the services of such alien seaman are required in the interests of the vessel and no danger to the public health will result from the waiver of such examination. In order to facilitate inspection of alien seamen, including masters of arriving American citizen seamen as well as aliens.

SEC. 36. That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the master, agent, consignee, or master thereof to deliver to the principal immigration officer in charge of the port of arrival lists containing the names of all aliens employed on such vessel, showing the nationality, last permanent residence, and present address of each, and whether each were respectively held in the ship's company when such vessel arrived at such port, and such other information as may be required as to the right of such aliens to enter the United States as the Attorney General shall by regulation prescribe; and after the arrival of such vessel it shall be the duty of the master, agent, consignee, or master to report to such immigration officer, in writing, as soon as discovered, all cases in which any such alien has illegally landed from the vessel, giving a description of such alien, together with such information likely to lead to his apprehension; and before the departure of any such vessel it shall be the duty of such owner, agent, consignee, or master to deliver to the master thereof a written list containing the names of all aliens employed as such upon the vessel at the time of the arrival but who will leave such vessel at the time of her departure, and also the names of those, if any, who have been hired to fill such vacancies. Any master, agent, consignee, or owner of any vessel who shall refuse or neglect to deliver any list required of him by this section, or who shall refuse to furnish any information required by the Attorney General, or by any immigrant inspector, relative to any alien employed on board such vessel, or who shall refuse to allow any immigrant inspector to go on board such vessel for the purpose of examining the same, or who shall refuse to detain on board any alien member of the crew when required so to do by the Attorney General, or any immigrant inspector, or who shall refuse to pay the cost of such detention, shall pay a penalty of $10 for each alien concerning whom correct lists are not delivered, or a like penalty if not made as above required, and no such vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the question as to the liability to the payment of such penalty or the giving of a bond therefor, in such sum as may be required by the Attorney General, not exceeding the amount of such penalty: Provided, That clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine.

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 18. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws and employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof (other than Canada, Newfoundland, Mexico, Cuba, Panama, the Canal Zone, the Republic of Haiti, the Dominican Republic, the Republic of Costa Rica, Nicaragua, Honduras, Salvador, Guatemala, the Virgin Islands of the United States, or the British West Indies), shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or temporarily in case of a vessel putting in for supplies or for repairs, or because of stress of weather, or other cause not due to the fault of the master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer of such vessel, until the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival has inspected such seaman (which inspection in all cases shall include a personal physical examination by the medical examiner), or has caused the same to be done by some other immigration officer. Attorney General may prescribe the time and manner of such inspection or of such physical examination, and the fees to be charged therefor, which fees shall be deposited in the Treasury of the United States and accounted for as a part of the appropriation for the enforcement of the immigration laws. Any alien seaman who shall land in the United States in violation of this section shall be deported in the manner provided by sections 19 and 20 of this Act, and at the discretion of the Attorney General may be required to give a bond in such sum, not exceeding $1,000 for each alien seaman in respect of whom such failure occurs, with sureties satisfactory to the Attorney General, conditioned for the payment of the hospital expenses and maintenance of such alien seaman and his return to the country from which he came, or to such other country as may be designated by the Attorney General, if such alien seaman is deported within five years after the date of such bond. No vessel shall be granted clearance until such expenses have been paid or the payment guaranteed to the satisfaction of the collector of customs.

(b) Every alien seaman who shall not depart from the United States with the vessel on which he arrived shall be reported by the master of such vessel as a deserter, shall be arrested, and upon conviction thereof, in addition to any penalty otherwise provided by law, shall be punished by imprisonment for not more than six months, and upon the completion of such imprisonment shall be taken before the principal immigration officer in charge of the port of arrival and dealt with as provided in section 19 of this Act for the deportation of aliens who have entered the United States unlawfully.

(c) If the Attorney General shall find that deportation of the alien seamen on the vessel on which he arrived would cause undue hardship to such seamen he may cause him to be deported on another vessel at the expense of the vessel on which he arrived, and such vessel shall not be granted clearance until such expense has been paid or its payment guaranteed to the satisfaction of the Attorney General.

AFFIDAVIT OF THE MASTER OR COMMANDING OFFICER, OR FIRST OR SECOND OFFICER

I, Harlan M. Crowell, Jr., master of the Bolivar, do declare that the foregoing is a full and true list of all the crew promptly in said vessel from any port or place during her present voyage. IMPORTANT NOTICE TO MASTER

The list described below shall be prepared on blank forms approved by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigration inspector boarding the vessel at the port of arrival, and shall in no instance be taken from the vessel. The list of members of each immigrant family may be written together, but the list must show the name in full of each person, his or her age, sex, and whether married or single, the nationality, last residence, and final destination (if known) of each person who is to be admitted or sought admission to the United States, and whether he has a ticket through to such destination. Whether an alleged alien is a "non-quota" immigrant by reason of relationship or otherwise, or is otherwise admissible as an immigrant, shall be determined by the immigration officer at the port of arrival (Form I–193) shall not be furnished or posted, but shall be delivered by the master to the principal immigration officer at the port. When an alleged alien is a citizen of the United States, a notation to that effect should be made on the manifest. In order to facilitate inspection as the Attorney General shall by regulation prescribe, the alien members of the crew may be required to present themselves for examination at such time and place and in such manner as the Attorney General may direct.

EXTRACT FROM ACT OF CONGRESS OF FEBRUARY 5, 1917, AS AMENDED

SEC. 36. That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the master, agent, consignee, or owner of such vessel to deliver to the principal immigration officer in charge of the port of arrival lists containing the names of all aliens onboard, or entered, and specifying the ports at which they embarked and the ports for which they have severally taken passage, whether they are in possession of valid passports or not, whether they have been lawfully admitted to the United States or not, whether they are destined to remain therein or to pass in transit through the country, and whether they have been in the United States previously or not, and if so, when and where they last resided there, their calling or occupation, whether they are connected with any institution or society, and whether they intend to become citizens of the United States, their final destination, whether they have been in prison or in almshouses or institutions for the care of the insane or supported by charity, whether they are coming under contract or agreement to perform labor in the United States, whether they have been deported, and if so, how many times and the cause therefor, whether they have ever been refused admission to the United States or deported, and if so, how many times and the cause therefor, whether they have ever been convicted of a felony or other infamous crime or misdemeanor involving moral turpitude, whether they are coming by reason of any offer, solicitation, promise, agreement, or arrangement of any kind to perform labor in the United States, and if so, what is the nature thereof, whether they have a ticket through to their ultimate destination, whether they have been assisted to come by any individual, association, company, or corporation, and if so, by whom, whether they are in good health, mental and physical, and whether they are deformed or crippled, and if so, how, the height, complexion, color of hair and eyes, and marks of identification of each of them, whether they are married or single, the age, sex, nationality, and race of each, whether they can read or write, whether they have a ticket through to the place of their ultimate destination, whether their passage is paid for by themselves or by others, and if by others whether by relatives or friends or employers, the amount of money each alien has with him, whether he has been in the United States before, and if so, when and how long ago, whether he has relatives in the United States, and if so, what relatives and where they reside, whether he intends to become a citizen of the United States, whether he is going to join relatives or friends, and if so, what relatives or friends and where they reside, whether he has been in any penal institution or reformatory, and if so, which and when, whether he is a polygamist, whether he believes in the practice of polygamy, whether he is an anarchist, whether he believes in the overthrow by force or violence of the Government of the United States or of all forms of law, whether he is a member of any class of persons coming within the provisions of any exclusion law, and such facts as may be required to enable the proper officers to determine whether such aliens belong to any of the classes excluded by law from admission to the United States. The said lists shall be verified by the oath of the master, agent, consignee, or owner of the vessel, taken before the immigration officer at the port of arrival, and shall be in such form and contain such other information as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe. Any master, agent, consignee, or owner of any vessel who refuses to deliver to the immigration officer at the port of arrival the lists required by this section, or who refuses to furnish in connection therewith any information required by the provisions of this section concerning any alien carried by such vessel, shall pay to the collector of customs for the district in which such port is located a sum not exceeding $300 for each such refusal, and no such vessel shall be granted clearance papers until such sum has been paid or until the person in charge of the vessel has been duly discharged from custody by order of the court. Any master, agent, consignee, or owner of any vessel who knowingly or willfully refuses to deliver to the immigration officer at any port of arrival the list required by this section with respect to any alien duly and correctly, or who knowingly or willfully refuses to furnish in connection therewith any information required by the provisions of this section concerning any alien carried by such vessel, shall pay to the collector of customs for the district in which such port is located a sum not exceeding $1,000 for each such alien concerning whom such correct list is not delivered or a true report is not made as above required, or for each such alien concerning whom information is not furnished as required, and no such vessel shall be granted clearance papers until such sum has been paid or until the person in charge of the vessel has been duly discharged from custody by order of the court. If any master, agent, consignee, or owner of any vessel knowingly or willfully refuses to deliver to the immigration officer at any port of arrival the list required by this section with respect to any alien carried by such vessel, or knowingly or willfully refuses to furnish in connection therewith any information required by the provisions of this section concerning any alien carried by such vessel, or knowingly or willfully delivers to the immigration officer at any port of arrival a false list with respect to any alien carried by such vessel, or knowingly or willfully refuses to deliver to the immigration officer at any port of arrival a true list with respect to any alien carried by such vessel, or knowingly or willfully delivers to the immigration officer at any port of arrival a false report in connection with the list required by this section with respect to any alien carried by such vessel, or knowingly or willfully refuses to deliver to the immigration officer at any port of arrival a true report in connection with the list required by this section with respect to any alien carried by such vessel, or knowingly or willfully refuses to furnish in connection with the list required by this section any information required by the provisions of this section concerning any alien carried by such vessel, such master, agent, consignee, or owner shall pay to the collector of customs for the district in which such port is located a sum not exceeding $1,000 for each such alien concerning whom such false list is delivered or a true report is not made as above required, or for each such alien concerning whom information is not furnished as required, and no such vessel shall be granted clearance papers until such sum has been paid or until the person in charge of the vessel has been duly discharged from custody by order of the court. If any master, agent, consignee, or owner of any vessel willfully refuses to deliver to the immigration officer at any port of arrival the list required by this section with respect to any alien carried by such vessel, or willfully refuses to furnish in connection therewith any information required by the provisions of this section concerning any alien carried by such vessel, or willfully delivers to the immigration officer at any port of arrival a false list with respect to any alien carried by such vessel, or willfully refuses to deliver to the immigration officer at any port of arrival a true list with respect to any alien carried by such vessel, or willfully delivers to the immigration officer at any port of arrival a false report in connection with the list required by this section with respect to any alien carried by such vessel, or willfully refuses to deliver to the immigration officer at any port of arrival a true report in connection with the list required by this section with respect to any alien carried by such vessel, such master, agent, consignee, or owner shall pay to the collector of customs for the district in which such port is located a sum not exceeding $5,000 for each such alien concerning whom such false list is delivered or a true report is not made as above required, or for each such alien concerning whom information is not furnished as required, and no such vessel shall be granted clearance papers until such sum has been paid or until the person in charge of the vessel has been duly discharged from custody by order of the court. Whenever any fine or penalty shall be incurred by reason of the failure of the master, agent, consignee, or owner of any vessel to deliver the list required by this section with respect to any alien carried by such vessel, or by reason of the failure to furnish any information required by the provisions of this section concerning any alien carried by such vessel, or by reason of the delivery of a false list or report with respect to any such alien, or by reason of the failure to deliver a true list or report with respect to any such alien, such alien shall be detained at the port of arrival until such fine or penalty has been paid or remitted, or such vessel or the master, agent, consignee, or owner thereof has been duly discharged from custody by order of the court. Any master, agent, consignee, or owner of any vessel who refuses to deliver to the principal immigration officer at the port of arrival lists containing the names of all aliens onboard, or entered, and specifying the ports at which they severally took passage, or the ports for which they severally have tickets, or who refuses to furnish in connection therewith any information required by the provisions of this section concerning any alien carried by such vessel, or who delivers to the immigration officer at any port of arrival a false list with respect to any alien carried by such vessel, or who refuses to deliver to the immigration officer at any port of arrival a true list with respect to any alien carried by such vessel, or who delivers to the immigration officer at any port of arrival a false report in connection with the list required by this section with respect to any alien carried by such vessel, or who refuses to deliver to the immigration officer at any port of arrival a true report in connection with the list required by this section with respect to any alien carried by such vessel, such master, agent, consignee, or owner shall pay to the collector of customs for the district in which such port is located a sum not exceeding $10,000 for each such alien concerning whom such false list is delivered or a true report is not made as above required, or for each such alien concerning whom information is not furnished as required, and no such vessel shall be granted clearance papers until such sum has been paid or until the person in charge of the vessel has been duly discharged from custody by order of the court. Whenever any fine or penalty shall be incurred by reason of the failure of the master, agent, consignee, or owner of any vessel to deliver the list required by this section with respect to any alien carried by such vessel, or by reason of the failure to furnish any information required by the provisions of this section concerning any alien carried by such vessel, or by reason of the delivery of a false list or report with respect to any such alien, such alien shall be detained at the port of arrival until such fine or penalty has been paid or remitted, or such vessel or the master, agent, consignee, or owner thereof has been duly discharged from custody by order of the court. Any master, agent, consignee, or owner of any vessel who refuses to deliver to the principal immigration officer at the port of arrival lists containing the names of all aliens onboard, or entered, and specifying the ports at which they severally took passage, or the ports for which they severally have tickets, or who refuses to furnish in connection therewith any information required by the provisions of this section concerning any alien carried by such vessel, or who delivers to the immigration officer at any port of arrival a false list with respect to any alien carried by such vessel, or who refuses to deliver to the immigration officer at any port of arrival a true list with respect to any alien carried by such vessel, or who delivers to the immigration officer at any port of arrival a false report in connection with the list required by this section with respect to any alien carried by such vessel, or who refuses to deliver to the immigration officer at any port of arrival a true report in connection with the list required by this section with respect to any alien carried by such vessel, such master, agent, consignee, or owner shall pay to the collector of customs for the district in which such port is located a sum not exceeding $5,000 for each such alien concerning whom such false list is delivered or a true report is not made as above required, or for each such alien concerning whom information is not furnished as required, and no such vessel shall be granted clearance papers until such sum has been paid or until the person in charge of the vessel has been duly discharged from custody by order of the court. Whenever any fine or penalty shall be incurred by reason of the failure of the master, agent, consignee, or owner of any vessel to deliver the list required by this section with respect to any alien carried by such vessel, or by reason of the failure to furnish any information required by the provisions of this section concerning any alien carried by such vessel, or by reason of the delivery of a false list or report with respect to any such alien, such alien shall be detained at the port of arrival until such fine or penalty has been paid or remitted, or such vessel or the master, agent, consignee, or owner thereof has been duly discharged from custody by order of the court.

SEC. 150.1. Limit of alien employees; manner clearance of vessel denied. Clearance shall not be granted any vessel until the limit prescribed by section 36 of said Act (39 Stat. 880; 8 U. S. C. 171), have been furnished, and not then unless notice of termination of such alien from the United States. (43 Stat. 161; 8 U. S. C. 180.)

SEC. 150.2. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside contiguous territory, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or pursuant to such regulations as the Attorney General may prescribe for the allowance of such alien from the United States. (43 Stat. 161; 8 U. S. C. 180.)

SEC. 150.3. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside contiguous territory to which alien seamen are employed on such vessel until the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival and inspection of the crew has been completed, unless a physician designated by such immigration officer or the medical examiner in charge at such port certifies in writing that such alien seaman is suffering from a communicable disease of such character that he should be detained for treatment, or that he has been exposed during the period of such communicable disease to infection which may be conveyed through the medium of his person, clothing, baggage, or effects. Such certificate shall state the name of such alien seaman, the nature of the disease, and the length of time he has been exposed to such disease. Such alien seaman shall be detained on board the vessel or at such place as may be designated by the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival, pending the completion of the physical examination by the medical examiner(s). Alien seamen certified for treatment shall be delivered to a hospital designated by the Attorney General (or to an officer of the United States duly authorized to receive them) for treatment at the expense of the owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of the vessel on which such alien seaman arrived. Such alien seaman shall be detained in a hospital until he is certified by the medical officer in charge of the hospital as cured or as no longer a menace to the health of the United States, or is otherwise lawfully entitled to be discharged from the hospital, or is removed from the United States by the owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of the vessel on which he arrived, or by his relatives or friends, or is deported pursuant to law. Such alien seaman shall not be detained in a hospital for a longer period than 1 year after the date of his certification to the hospital, except that in the case of an alien seaman who is found to be suffering from a mental disease, such alien seaman may be detained in a hospital for such further period as may be required for his proper care and treatment under the provisions of section 24 of the Immigration Act of 1917 (39 Stat. 889; 8 U. S. C. 160).

(b) Each alien seaman detained in a hospital shall be charged for maintenance at such rate per week as may be agreed upon by the Attorney General and the owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of the vessel on which he arrived, but such rate shall not exceed the actual cost of maintenance, including the cost of such additional services as may be rendered necessary by the condition of the alien seaman. In other cases the rate shall be fixed by the Attorney General. Such charges for maintenance shall be a lien against the vessel on which the alien seaman arrived, and shall be paid to the collector of customs for the district in which the vessel arrives before clearance is granted the vessel, unless the owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of the vessel on which the alien seaman arrived shall have given a bond with sufficient surety, in such sum as may be required by the Attorney General, conditioned for the payment of such charges for maintenance. Such charges for maintenance shall be collected by the collector of customs and deposited in the Treasury of the United States to the credit of the appropriation for the enforcement of the immigration laws. Any refund on account of such charges for maintenance shall be made by the Secretary of the Treasury upon certification by the Attorney General.

(c) If the Attorney General finds that deportation of the alien seaman on the vessel on which he arrived, and such expenses shall not be granted clearance until such expense has been paid or its payment guaranteed to the satisfaction of the Attorney General.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR PREPARING ALIEN MANIFESTS

Separate manifests should be prepared for each port at which passengers embark for the United States. Records or separate manifests for the so-called contract class, whose every need for the purpose of registered aliens, and those whose visas do not bear such initials. The names of all members of a family shall appear next the same manifest sheet when they travel in the same class; and if they travel in different classes, appropriate cross references should be made on the sheets on which the respective names are listed.

Column 1 (Ship's name).—Steamship line should make no entries in this column. The space is for use of Government officials only.

Column 2 (Sex).—The entry should be either M (male) or F (female).

Column 3 (Married or single).—The entry should be M (married), S (single), W (widowed), or D (divorced).

Column 4 (Age).—The entry should be the age at last birthday. If under 1 year, the number of months should be given. Thus a child 6 months old should be entered as "6/12" or "½". If between 1 year and 2 years old, the number of years and months should be given. Thus a child 1 year and 6 months old should be entered as "1 6/12" or "1½". If between 2 years and 3 years old, the number of years and months should be given. Thus a child 2 years and 6 months old should be entered as "2 6/12" or "2½". Ages should be entered in all cases.

Column 5 (Person).—Enter "1" for first person listed, "2" for second person listed, and so forth in consecutive order.

Column 6 (Calling or occupation).—The entry should describe as accurately as possible the occupation, trade, or profession of each alien arriving, as, for example: Clerk, engineer, seamstress, farmer, locomotive engineer, mining engineer, nurse, barber, baker, tailor, cook, waiter, servant, laborer, or other description.

A distinction should be made between farmers and farm laborers, regardless of the amount of money owned, as follows:

A farmer is one who operates a farm, either for himself or for others.

A farm laborer is one who works on a farm for the farm who otherwise is.

Steamship companies should make this distinction on the manifests, and correspondents should be made, if necessary, by inspectors during the personal examination of alien arrivals.

Column 7 (Can read and write).—This column is subdivided and contains the following directions: "Read write [yes or no]." If the alien is unable to read the native language, enter "No." If he is able to read and write, enter "Yes." If he is able to read but not write, enter "No." Children of sufficient age to read and write should be given credit for both examinations. The entry should be "Yes" in both columns.

Column 8 (Race or people).—See list of races printed on back of this sheet.

The entry should show the race or people as given in said list.

Special attention should be paid to the distinction between race and the country of which citizen or subject, country to last permanent residence, and country to which said immigrants should be certainly traced by inspectors in this regard. For instance, "France" appearing under the head of country does not mean "French," by race or people, and, similarly "French" appearing under the head of race or people does not mean "France" by country. An Irish, German, or Hebrew alien by race might properly come from Ireland, Germany, or Palestine, Switzerland, or any other country. In this connection the following classifications should be carefully observed:

CUBAN

The term "Cuban" refers to the Cuban people (not Negroes).

WEST INDIAN

"West Indian" refers to the people of the West Indies other than either Cuban or Negroes.

SPANISH AMERICAN

"Spanish American" refers to the people of Central and South America of Spanish descent.

"Negro" refers to the African (black), whether coming from Cuba or other parts of America in addition to the city of race.

Column 9 (Nationality).—Enter the name of the country to which each alien belongs, as England, Scotland, Ireland, Germany, France, Italy, Spain, Russia, Sweden, Norway, Finland, Turkey, Greece, Austria, Hungary, Belgium, Holland, Switzerland, Portugal, Roumania, Bulgaria, Servia, Montenegro, Japan, India, China, Arabia, Africa, Mexico, Cuba, West Indies, Central America, South America, Australia, New Zealand, Philippine Islands, Hawaii, Sandwich Islands, Samoa, Canada, Newfoundland, Scotland, Wales, England

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO MASTER

The list described below shall be transcribed on blank forms approved by the Department and be ready for delivery to the Immigration Inspector boarding the vessel at the port of arrival, and shall be delivered on board, but shall not be delivered by the master to the principal immigration officer at the port of entry (Form 430) shall not be delivered on board, but shall be delivered by the master to the principal immigration officer at the port. When an arriving seaman is a "workaway," a notation to that effect should be made on the manifest.

EXTRACT FROM ACT OF CONGRESS OF FEBRUARY 5, 1917

SEC. 36. That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or from one of the outlying possessions of the United States, it shall be the duty of the master, owner, agent, consignee, or master thereof to deliver to the immigrant inspector in charge of the port of arrival true lists containing the names of all aliens embraced on such vessel, which lists shall be delivered to the said inspector separately for each of the classes mentioned in the following subdivision A, and shall state the following additional facts concerning each such alien so far as known to the master, owner, agent, consignee, or master, viz:

A. Subject to the following exceptions, every alien who may be admitted to the United States shall be examined by an immigrant inspector at the port of arrival, and every alien who may be found by the inspector in charge of the port of arrival to be subject to any of the grounds for exclusion set forth in this section shall be detained for a hearing before a Board of Special Inquiry, unless such alien shall be certified at the discretion of the Secretary of Labor to the United States consul at the port of departure, or, in the case of aliens coming from foreign contiguous territory, to the United States consul having jurisdiction over the locality in which such aliens may be, as clearly entitled to admission, and such certification shall be final as to the right of such aliens to enter the United States, but shall not be conclusive as to their admissibility upon subsequent application for admission. Such examination shall be conducted by at least two immigrant inspectors, and unless unanimously decided that the alien is clearly entitled to admission, shall be reported to the Board of Special Inquiry for its action. Said Board shall consist of three immigrant inspectors, to be designated from time to time by the Secretary of Labor or by such officers as he may designate for the purpose, and the concurrence of any two members of said Board shall be sufficient to decide the case. The decision of said Board shall be communicated to the alien, and a record kept of the action of the Board with reference thereto, which record shall be filed with the case. Any alien who is excluded by said Board shall have the right to appeal from the decision of the Board to the Secretary of Labor, who shall cause the case to be reviewed and determined promptly. Pending such appeal the alien shall be detained in custody. Any alien who is excluded by said Board, and who does not appeal from the decision, or whose appeal is dismissed by the Secretary of Labor, shall be deported as provided by law, unless the Secretary of Labor shall grant such alien a stay of deportation for such time and under such conditions as he may prescribe. Any alien who is excluded by said Board, and who is subsequently deported at the expense of the appropriation for the enforcement of the provisions of this Act, shall be reported to the Congress in the annual report of the Commissioner-General of Immigration, with the cause for his deportation.

EXTRACT FROM SUBDIVISION B, RULE 7

PAR. 7. Clearance shall not be granted any vessel until the lists required by section 36 of the Act of February 5, 1917, have been duly made and delivered, and the exhibit specified in rule 23 has been made.

EXTRACT FROM ACT OF CONGRESS APPROVED MAY 26, 1924

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 13 (a) No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws and employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or because of illness, injury, or emergency, or for such reasons as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe for the purpose of controlling the movements of such alien from the United States.

SEC. 23. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, who fails to detain on board any alien seaman ordered so detained by the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival (and investigation of such seaman (which investigation in all cases shall include a personal physical examination by the medical examiner), or who fails to detain such seaman on board after such inspection or to deport such seaman if landed by such immigration officer at the Secretary of Labor to do so, shall pay to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $1,000 for each alien seaman in respect of whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the liability to payment of such fine, or while the fine remains unpaid, except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine or of a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof approved by the collector of customs.

(b) Every alien seaman who shall not depart from the continental territory of the United States on a vessel on which he arrived in the United States or on a vessel of the same owner within a time to be fixed by the Secretary of Labor, not exceeding four months from the date of such arrival, shall be deported at the expense of the appropriation for the enforcement of this Act, unless the Secretary of Labor shall grant such alien a stay of deportation for such time and under such conditions as he may prescribe. Any alien who is excluded by the Secretary of Labor, and who does not appeal from the decision, or whose appeal is dismissed by the Secretary of Labor, shall be deported as provided by law

AFFIDAVIT OF THE MASTER OR COMMANDING OFFICER, OR FIRST OR SECOND OFFICER

I, ... Donald McMillan ..... , of the ..... City of New London ..... , do declare that the foregoing is a full and true list of all the crew promptly in said vessel from any port or place during her present voyage.

I have noted the copy of section 36 of the Act of February 5, 1917, extract from subdivision B, rule 7, and copy of sections 13 and 20, Act of May 26, 1924, which appear below.

Donald McMillan
Master, First or Second Officer.

Sworn to before me this 11 day of November, 1924

Immigrant Inspector.

DATE 11/11/24

Donald McMillan
Master and action taken as follows:

ALIENS REMAINS IN U S

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO MASTER

The list described below shall be prepared on blank forms approved by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigration inspector boarding the vessel at the port of arrival, and shall in no instance be taken from the vessel. The list of crewmen of alien nationality remaining on board (Form 443) shall not be returned on board, but shall be delivered by the master to the principal immigration officer at the port. When an alternate address is given, a "notice" a notation to that effect should be made on the manifest.

EXTRACT FROM ACT OF CONGRESS OF FEBRUARY 5, 1917

SEC. 36. That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the owner, agent, consignee, or master thereof to deliver to the principal immigration officer in charge of the port of arrival lists containing the names of all aliens employed on such vessel, stating the position they respectively hold in the ship's company, when and where they were respectively applied or engaged, and their intended final destination inland from the port of arrival; or lists containing no other information than is required to be given in the case of aliens employed on such vessel; which lists shall be prepared in the form and manner and contain such other information concerning such aliens as may be prescribed by the Secretary of Labor, and shall be certified to be true and correct by the master of such vessel. Any master who shall refuse or neglect to deliver to such immigration officer, at the time of the arrival of such vessel, the lists required by this section, or who shall refuse to answer truthfully and correctly to the best of his knowledge and belief any question concerning any such alien asked by such officer, shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 for each such offense. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the question of the payment of such fine, or while the master thereof is under arrest, except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine, or of a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof approved by the collector of customs.

(b) Every alien arriving from a foreign port who shall appear upon the inspection platform of the vessel on which he arrives in the United States from any foreign port or place outside thereof, or who shall be taken aboard a vessel of the United States from any vessel, tug, lighter, or other craft while in the waters of the United States, shall be deemed to have arrived in the United States within the meaning of the immigration laws, and shall be subject to the examination by the immigrant inspectors, and to the head tax, if any, and to all the provisions of the immigration laws relating to aliens arriving at seaports of the United States.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor shall find that deterioration of the alien seamen on the vessel on which he arrived, and such vessel is detained at the request of such alien seaman, or for the purpose of giving testimony in connection with the prosecution of any charge made against the master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer of such vessel, or in connection with the bringing of any such person to trial, the cost of the maintenance of such alien seaman, including hospital dues, if any, while detained, shall be paid by the master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer of such vessel, and such sum may be recovered in any court of competent jurisdiction against any one or more of them. Such alien seaman shall be entitled to receive from the master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer of such vessel, or their successors in interest, the same wages as are prescribed by law for seamen discharged in a foreign port, and shall be furnished with transportation to the port at which he was originally shipped or engaged, or to the country of which he is a subject, or to such other port as may be agreed upon between such alien and the master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer of such vessel. Such seaman shall be deemed a seaman within the meaning of section 4577 of the Revised Statutes, as amended by section 2 of the Act of December 21, 1898 (30 Stat. L., 755), and shall be entitled to the remedies provided in said section for the recovery of his wages.

SEC. 37. That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the owner, agent, consignee, or master thereof to deliver to the principal immigration officer in charge of the port of arrival lists containing the names of all persons employed on such vessel, stating the position they respectively hold in the ship's company, when and where they were respectively applied or engaged, and their intended final destination inland from the port of arrival; or lists containing no other information than is required to be given in the case of aliens employed on such vessel, stating the position they respectively hold in the ship's company, when and where they were respectively applied or engaged, and their intended final destination inland from the port of arrival; and shall pay to the collector of customs of the district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $10 for each alien concerning whom false or no statement is made as above required, which sum shall be a lien upon the vessel, and may be recovered by the collector of customs in any court of competent jurisdiction. Such lists shall be prepared and delivered before any person shall be landed from such vessel, and the master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer of such vessel shall not be granted clearance until such lists have been delivered, and the penalty above prescribed paid or secured to be paid, or while the master thereof is under arrest, except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine.

EXTRACT FROM SUBDIVISION B, RULE 7

Par. 2. Clearance shall not be granted any vessel until the fine required by section 36 of the Act of February 5, 1917, have been paid, or a bond in double the amount of such fine, with sufficient surety, conditioned for the payment of such fine, has been executed and approved by the collector of customs. Such bond shall be void upon the payment of such fine within ten days after the final action of the Secretary of Labor thereon, or if no fine is imposed, within ten days after notice of liability to the master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer of such vessel has been received by the collector of customs. Such notice shall be given by the collector of customs within 24 hours after the receipt of the list required by section 36 of the Act of February 5, 1917, unless such list is received after clearance has been granted, in which case such notice shall be given within 24 hours after the receipt of such list. Such bond shall not be required in any case in which the fine has been paid.

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 13. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws and employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any foreign contiguous territory, or adjacent islands, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or detained for hospital or medical care, or on account of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, or on account of any vessel being unable to obtain crew, or for any cause found by the Secretary of Labor, or any person designated by him, to be sufficient, unless such alien seaman shall furnish a bond in the penal sum of $1,000 with sufficient surety, in such form and manner as may be prescribed by the Secretary of Labor, conditioned that such alien seaman will depart from the United States within such period of time as may be specified by the Secretary of Labor, not exceeding four months, and will comply with such reasonable regulations as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe: Provided, That the Secretary of Labor may, in his discretion, waive the requirement of such bond in the case of any alien seaman who is found by the Secretary of Labor to be unable to furnish such bond and who, in the opinion of the Secretary of Labor, is not likely to become a public charge, and in lieu of such bond may require such deposit of money as he may deem sufficient to assure the departure of such alien seaman within such period of time as he may specify: Provided further, That the Secretary of Labor may, in his discretion, refund any such deposit of money upon the departure of such alien seaman within the time specified by the Secretary of Labor.

SEC. 20. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel bringing into the United States from any place outside thereof any alien (except an alien described in section 3 of this Act) who is destined to or intends to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or intransit to some foreign country, shall be responsible for the proper care while in the United States of such alien and for the payment of such compensation for hospital, medical, and surgical treatment, and such burial expenses of such alien as may be incurred or furnished by the United States, and for the deportation of such alien if he is found to be unable to land, or to the foreign country whither he may be destined, if he is willing to be deported thereto, and for the maintenance of such alien while he is detained for special inquiry, and for the transportation of such alien and his accompanying wife, minor children, and dependent relatives who are in possession of visas, if required, and are found to be admissible, from the port of arrival to the place of ultimate destination. Such owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master shall deposit with the Secretary of Labor, prior to the granting of clearance papers for the vessel on which such alien arrives, a sum sufficient in the opinion of the Secretary of Labor to cover the cost of the proper care, maintenance, and transportation of such alien and his accompanying wife, minor children, and dependent relatives specified herein, and such deposit shall be returned only upon the certification by the Secretary of Labor that such alien, his wife, minor children, and dependent relatives specified herein have departed from the United States, or upon the certification by the Secretary of Labor that such deposit is no longer required for the purposes specified in this section. In the event that the amount deposited is insufficient to cover the cost of such care, maintenance, and transportation, such owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master shall pay any such deficiency upon demand, and in default thereof may be proceeded against in any court of competent jurisdiction. Such owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master shall not be granted clearance until such expense has been paid or its payment guaranteed to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor shall find that deterioration of the alien seamen on the vessel on which he arrived, and such vessel is detained at the request of such alien seaman, or for the purpose of giving testimony in connection with the prosecution of any charge made against the master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer of such vessel, or in connection with the bringing of any such person to trial, the cost of the maintenance of such alien seaman, including hospital dues, if any, while detained, shall be paid by the master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer of such vessel, and such sum may be recovered in any court of competent jurisdiction against any one or more of them. Such alien seaman shall be entitled to receive from the master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer of such vessel, or their successors in interest, the same wages as are prescribed by law for seamen discharged in a foreign port, and shall be furnished with transportation to the port at which he was originally shipped or engaged, or to the country of which he is a subject, or to such other port as may be agreed upon between such alien and the master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer of such vessel. Such seaman shall be deemed a seaman within the meaning of section 4577 of the Revised Statutes, as amended by section 2 of the Act of December 21, 1898 (30 Stat. L., 755), and shall be entitled to the remedies provided in said section for the recovery of his wages.

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO MASTER

The list described below shall be prepared on blank forms approved by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigration inspector boarding the vessel at the port of arrival, and shall in no instance be taken from the vessel. The list of crewmen of alien nationality remaining on board (Form 443) shall not be returned on board, but shall be delivered by the master to the principal immigration officer at the port. When an alternate address is given, a "notice" a notation to that effect should be made on the manifest.

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO MASTER

The list described below shall be printed on plain white paper approved by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigration inspector boarding the vessel at the port of arrival, and shall in no instance be taken from the vessel. The list of changes of alien members of the crew (Form 632) shall not be removed on board, but shall be delivered by the master to the principal immigration officer at the port of arrival (Form 632) shall not be removed on board, but shall be delivered by the master to the principal immigration officer at the port.

When an alien member of the crew is discharged, the master shall immediately notify the immigration officer at the port of arrival.

EXTRACT FROM ACT OF CONGRESS OF FEBRUARY 5, 1917

SEC. 38. That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the owner, agent, master, or consignee of the vessel in the case of vessels arriving from adjacent foreign territory, and in the case of vessels arriving from overseas ports, within twenty-four hours after the arrival of any such vessel it shall be the duty of such owner, agent, consignee, or master to report to each immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival full and complete information concerning each and every alien member of the crew as shall be required by the Secretary of Labor and on such forms as he may prescribe, and no such vessel shall be granted clearance papers by the collector of customs or other officer authorized to grant clearance papers until the master of such vessel shall have been informed that the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival has been notified that such vessel is ready to be granted clearance papers. Any master who shall fail to comply with the requirements of this section shall be punished by a fine of not more than $10 for each alien concerning whom correct information is not furnished, and no such vessel shall be granted clearance papers pending the determination of the question of the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located until the master shall have been informed that such clearance papers may be granted. Upon the payment of such fine, or the giving of a bond satisfactory to the Secretary of Labor, by the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located, in such sum as may be required by the Secretary of Labor, not exceeding $1,000 for each alien concerning whom correct information is not furnished, conditioned for the payment of such fine, or any part thereof, which may be imposed therefor, clearance papers may be granted pending the determination of the question of the liability to the payment of such fine. Clearance papers may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine, and, if no fine is imposed, while a remittal thereof is pending; but shall such fine be remitted or refunded: Provided, That clearance papers shall not be granted by virtue of this proviso in the case of vessels arriving from adjacent foreign territory.

Par. 2. Clearance shall not be granted any vessel until the fines referred to in section 36 of the Act of February 5, 1917, have been imposed, and not then unless notice of the right to the administrative findings provided for in section 25 hereof has been made.

SEC. 18. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws and employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any foreign country shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily or for medical treatment, or because of some emergency endangering the safety of the vessel, or for such other reasons as may be deemed sufficient by the Secretary of Labor from any bond given to the Government.

SEC. 35. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee or master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside the adjacent islands (except Canada, Mexico, Cuba, Newfoundland, Bermuda, the Bahama Islands, the Canal Zone, the Republic of Panama, the Republic of Haiti, and the Dominican Republic) shall, in addition to any other penalty prescribed by law, pay a tax of $8 for each alien seaman employed on board such vessel when such vessel arrives at a port of the United States, and a tax of $8 for each alien seaman employed on board such vessel when such vessel departs from a port of the United States, unless such alien seaman shall be in possession of a valid visa as a nonimmigrant member of the crew of such vessel and shall depart on such vessel or some other vessel within the period of time for which he was admitted into the United States.

(b) The tax imposed by this section shall be a lien upon the vessel, and clearance may be withheld or such vessel detained until the tax is paid or such bond given as the Secretary of Labor may require to secure the payment thereof.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor finds that deportation of any alien seaman on the vessel at the expense of the vessel on which he arrived, and such vessel is unable to obtain such seaman by reasonable diligence, will be unduly burdensome, he may cause him to be deported on another vessel at the expense of the vessel on which he arrived, and such vessel shall not be granted clearance until such expense has been paid or its payment guaranteed to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor.

EXTRACT FROM ACT OF CONGRESS OF FEBRUARY 5, 1917

SEC. 36. That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the master, agent, consignee, or owner of any vessel bringing to the port of arrival any alien immigrant, or any alien who shall be brought in the port of arrival at the time of the application for admission, to deliver to the immigrant inspectors at the port of arrival lists or manifests of all such aliens, in quadruplicate, which lists or manifests shall be prepared by the master, agent, consignee, or owner of such vessel, and shall be sworn to before the immigrant inspector at the time of the arrival of the vessel at the port of arrival, or at such convenient time thereafter as may be permitted by the said inspector, and shall contain such information as may be required by the Secretary of Labor, and shall be in such form as he may prescribe, and the master, agent, consignee, or owner of such vessel shall deliver to the said inspector such further information relative to such alien immigrant as may be required by the Secretary of Labor, and shall also furnish such information in regard to the treatment of such alien immigrant during the voyage as may be required by the Secretary of Labor. Any master, agent, consignee, or owner of any such vessel who shall refuse or neglect to comply with the provisions of this section or any lawful requirement of the Secretary of Labor made thereunder, or who shall refuse to allow the immigrant inspectors to go on board of such vessel for the purpose of performing the duties imposed upon them by this section, shall pay to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $1,000 for each alien concerning in respect of whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the liability to payment of such fine or while the fine remains unpaid, except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine, or of a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof approved by the collector of customs.

(b) Every alien arriving at a seaport in charge of whom such inspection of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $1,000 for each alien concerning in respect of whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the liability to payment of such fine or while the fine remains unpaid, except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine, or of a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof approved by the collector of customs.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor shall not approve any such bond as a guarantee, shall be prima facie evidence of a failure to deliver any such alien immigrant in accordance with the provisions of this section, and the master, agent, consignee, or owner of any such vessel shall be liable to the penalty imposed by the immigration officer at the Secretary of Labor.

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 13. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws and employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States under the immigration laws, except temporarily for medical treatment, or interned to such temporations as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe for the minimum period of time, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or

SEC. 16. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside (except when temporarily detained on board) shall not be required on board, but shall be delivered by the master to the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival for inspection such seamen (which inspection in all cases shall include a personal physical examination by the medical examiner), or who fails to obtain such seamen on board after such inspection or to deport such seamen if required by such immigration officer or the Secretary of Labor to do so, shall pay to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $1,000 for each alien seaman in respect of whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the liability to payment of such fine or while the fine remains unpaid, except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine, or of a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof approved by the collector of customs.

(b) Every alien seaman shall not obtain upon the outbound manifest of the vessel on which he arrived in the United States from such foreign port or place until such seaman has been given a thorough physical examination by the medical officer of the Service, and such examination shall not be waived in any case.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor finds that deportation of the alien seaman on the vessel on which he arrived would cause undue hardship to such seaman by reason of the time required for the usual processes of deportation, he may cause such alien seaman to be detained on shore pending the departure of such vessel, and such vessel shall not be granted clearance until such expense has been paid to the Secretary of Labor.

EXTRACT FROM SUBDIVISION B, RULE 7

PAR. 6. Clearance shall not be granted any vessel until the fines required by section 36 of the Act of February 5, 1917, have been paid, unless notice of hearing to the administrative fine prescribed by said section or to that prescribed by section 36 of said Act, and fifteen days have elapsed, the deposit specified in rule 33 has been made.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR PREPARING ALIEN MANIFESTS

SEPARATE MANIFESTS should be prepared for each port at which passengers embark for the United States, according as aliens are traveling in the third class and the so-called foreign class, which class base upon the initials of technical services, and those who are not legal residents of the United States. The names of all members of the crew, including officers, must be listed.

Columns 1 and 2 (Family and given names).—Surname (family name) first, then given names in full in the order usual in the alien's native country, even though not used in the United States.

Column 3 (Age).—The years of age should be entered in every case, and the exact age of infants under 1 year should be stated in months.

Column 4 (Sex).—The entry should be either M (male) or F (female).

Column 5 (Married or single).—The terms should be M (married), S (single), W (widowed), or D (divorced).

Column 6 (Occupation).—The entry should describe as specifically as possible the occupation, trade, or profession of each alien person, as, for example: Civil engineer, stenographer, dressmaker, clerk, etc., and not merely "worker," "laborer," "student," "miner," or other indefinite designations.

A distinction should be made between technical mining engineers and miners, as follows:

A mining engineer is one who devotes a large part of his time to the supervision of mining operations, or who, while not a mining engineer by profession, is in charge of a mine or mines.

A miner is one who works at a mine for the purpose of obtaining ore.

A mining laborer is one who works in or around a mine but does not dig out the ore.

Geographical qualification should be made in the distinction between race and the country of which citizen or subject; country to which permanent residence; and country to which any citizen of these races may still claim allegiance, as follows:

Persons of the Hebrew race should be entered as such, irrespective of their country or countries of former residence. The entry should be "Hebrew" for all members of this race, whether they be natives of Russia, Germany, France, England, America, or any other country. In case a person of Hebrew race has resided in several countries, the last permanent residence should be given.

Columns 7 (Race or people).—See list of races printed on back of this sheet.

The entry should be the race or people as given in this list.

Special attention should be paid to the distinction between race and the country of which citizen or subject; country to which permanent residence; and country to which any citizen of these races may still claim allegiance. For instance, a "French" citizen of Canada should be carefully trained by inspectors in this regard. For instance, a "French" citizen of Haiti should be entered as "Negro" race, while a "French" citizen of Syria should be entered as "Syrian," although a "French" citizen of Turkey should be entered as "Turkish," and a "French" citizen of Greece should be entered as "Greek." A Jew, German, or Hebrew alien of any other country should be entered as "Hebrew" or "Jew" regardless of the language or dialect he may speak, although a person of Jewish religion may be a native of any country, and usually speaks the language of the country in which he was born.

Columns 8 (Nationality).—Under 8 should be constructed to mean the country of which the alien is a citizen or subject.

Columns 9 (Last permanent residence).—Actual and bona fide residence should be stated. Thus, a person may have been born in Germany, but have resided in Belgium for 20 years, and should write "Belgium" in answering this question. If the alien is unable to read and claims exemption from the literacy test, the words "Unable to read" should be given.

Columns 10 (Race or people).—See list of races printed on back of this sheet.

The entry should be the race or people as given in this list.

Special attention should be paid to the distinction between race and the country of which citizen or subject; country to which permanent residence; and country to which any citizen of these races may still claim allegiance. For instance, a "French" citizen of Canada should be carefully trained by inspectors in this regard. For instance, a "French" citizen of Haiti should be entered as "Negro" race, while a "French" citizen of Syria should be entered as "Syrian," although a "French" citizen of Turkey should be entered as "Turkish," and a "French" citizen of Greece should be entered as "Greek." A Jew, German, or Hebrew alien of any other country should be entered as "Hebrew" or "Jew" regardless of the language or dialect he may speak, although a person of Jewish religion may be a native of any country, and usually speaks the language of the country in which he was born.

Columns 11 (Place of birth).—The State, province, or district of birth should be given in full in addition to the city or town.

Columns 12 (Name of relative).—Alien immigrants should name the nearest relative living in the country whence they came.

Columns 13 (Final destination).—Every alien immigrant should be in possession of a ticket or sufficient money to pay for a ticket to the place where he intends to go, and should state the exact destination, as, for example, Chicago, Ill., or Detroit, Mich., and not merely "Illinois" or "Michigan," or "U.S.A." Care should be taken that the destination given is sufficiently definite to insure the immigrant reaching his destination without further inquiry.

Columns 14 (Whether having a ticket to final destination).—The words "Yes" or "No" are sufficient.

Columns 15 (Whether in possession of $50 and if not, how much).—This question applies to every alien immigrant, whether he is able to read or not, and whether he is in the third class or not. The amount of money which he has in his possession must be stated in detail, and mere general statements, such as "sufficient" or "plenty," will not be sufficient. Any alien immigrant who has been in the United States before and returns to his former home is not required to have $50 in his possession, unless he has been absent from the United States more than one year.

Columns 16 (Whether going to join relatives or friend).—The words "relative" or "friend" will be sufficient, and the name and complete address of the relative or friend to whom he is going should be given.

Columns 17 and 18 (Ever in prison, etc.).—These questions are to be answered in the affirmative or negative, and the answer "Yes" should be given if the alien has been in prison or almshouse or supported by charity at any time within the period specified, or if he is coming to the United States under a contract or agreement to perform labor. Persons coming under contract or agreement to perform labor are not admissible, with certain specified exceptions, such as professional actors, artists, lecturers, singers, ministers of any religious denomination, professors for colleges or seminaries, persons employed strictly as personal or domestic servants, skilled agricultural laborers not exceeding fifty in number, and persons employed in any recognized learned profession or as an actor or artist, either dramatic or lyric, or as a lecturer or singer, or as a minister of any religious denomination, or as a professor for a college or seminary.

Immigrant Inspector.

EXTRACT FROM ACT OF CONGRESS OF FEBRUARY 5, 1917

SEC. 36. That when arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or from any insular possession of the United States to which the provisions of this section do not apply, shall arrive at any port of entry, the master thereof shall report to the immigrant inspector in charge at the port of entry the names of all persons employed on such vessel, stating the positions they respectively hold in the ship's company, and the names of those who are citizens of the United States, and shall deliver to the said inspector lists containing the names of all persons employed on such vessel who are not citizens of the United States, which lists shall be verified by the oath of the master or other officer of such vessel, and shall contain such information as may be required by the Secretary of Labor, and such master shall report the names of all persons employed on such vessel who are discharged or who die between the ports of arrival and departure, and the cause of death of any such person, and the name, place of birth, last residence, and destination of each person who may be employed or engaged on such vessel at any port of arrival. Such master shall also report the name, place of birth, last residence, and destination of each person who may leave such vessel in any manner other than by lawful discharge, and the cause of such departure, so far as known to him. Such master shall deliver to such immigrant inspector at the port of arrival a correct list of all aliens employed on such vessel who have been left behind at any foreign port or place, and the cause for which left behind, so far as known to him. Such master shall also report the name, place of birth, last residence, and destination of each alien employed on such vessel who shall have been detained at quarantine, and the cause for such detention. Such master shall report the name, place of birth, last residence, and destination of each stowaway found on board such vessel after departure, and shall deliver to the proper immigrant inspector at the port of arrival a correct list of all stowaways who have been found on board such vessel during the voyage. Such master shall also report the name, place of birth, last residence, and destination of each alien who may desert while in port, and shall deliver to the proper immigrant inspector at the port of arrival a correct list of all such deserting aliens, with such information as may be possessed by the officers of such vessel as to the cause for such desertion, and whether or not such deserting alien is known to have secured employment in the United States, and if so, the present address of such alien. Such master shall also report the name, place of birth, last residence, and destination of each alien who may be treated in sickness or injury on board such vessel during the voyage, and shall deliver to the proper immigrant inspector at the port of arrival a correct list of all such aliens, with such information as may be possessed by the officers of such vessel as to the cause for such treatment, and the subsequent history of such alien so far as known. Such master shall also report the name, place of birth, last residence, and destination of each alien who may be in any manner relieved or assisted by any officer or member of the crew during the voyage, and shall deliver to the proper immigrant inspector at the port of arrival a correct list of all such aliens, with such information as may be possessed by the officers of such vessel as to the cause for such relief or assistance, and the subsequent history of such alien so far as known. Such master shall also report the name, place of birth, last residence, and destination of each stowaway found on board such vessel after departure from any foreign port or place, and shall deliver to the proper immigrant inspector at the port of arrival a correct list of all such stowaways. Such master shall also report the name, place of birth, last residence, and destination of each alien who may be ordered on board such vessel while in any port of the United States, and shall deliver to the proper immigrant inspector at the port of arrival a correct list of all such aliens, with such information as may be possessed by the officers of such vessel as to the cause for such action. Such master shall also report the name, place of birth, last residence, and destination of each alien who may be transferred from any such vessel to any hospital, and shall deliver to the proper immigrant inspector at the port of arrival a correct list of all such aliens, with such information as may be possessed by the officers of such vessel as to the cause for such removal, and the final disposition of such alien so far as known. Such master shall also report the name, place of birth, last residence, and destination of each alien who may be left behind by reason of quarantine, and shall deliver to the proper immigrant inspector at the port of arrival a correct list of all such aliens, with such information as may be possessed by the officers of such vessel as to the cause for such detention, and the final disposition of such alien so far as known. Such master shall also report the name, place of birth, last residence, and destination of each alien who may be refused admission to the United States, and shall deliver to the proper immigrant inspector at the port of arrival a correct list of all such aliens, with such information as may be possessed by the officers of such vessel as to the cause for such refusal, and the final disposition of such alien so far as known. Such master shall also report the name, place of birth, last residence, and destination of each alien who may be in any manner removed from the United States to Canada, Mexico, Cuba, Newfoundland, or adjacent islands, and shall deliver to the proper immigrant inspector at the port of arrival a correct list of all such aliens, with such information as may be possessed by the officers of such vessel as to the cause for such removal, and the final disposition of such alien so far as known. Such master shall also report the name, place of birth, last residence, and destination of each alien who may be in any manner removed from the United States to any foreign country other than Canada, Mexico, Cuba, Newfoundland, or adjacent islands, and shall deliver to the proper immigrant inspector at the port of arrival a correct list of all such aliens, with such information as may be possessed by the officers of such vessel as to the cause for such removal, and the final disposition of such alien so far as known.

The list described below shall be prepared and ready for delivery to the immigration inspector boarding the vessel at the port of arrival, and shall in no instance be taken from the vessel. The list of changes of alien members of crews (Form 524) shall not be furnished or posted, but shall be delivered by the master to the principal immigration officer at the port.

The list described below shall be prepared and ready for delivery to the immigration inspector boarding the vessel at the port of arrival, and shall in no instance be taken from the vessel. The list of aliens of alien immigrants of every (from 253) shall not be returned on board, but shall be delivered by the master to the principal immigration officer at the port.

EXTRACT FROM ACT OF CONGRESS OF FEBRUARY 2, 1917

SEC. 36. That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the owner, agent, consignee, or master thereof to deliver to the principal immigration officer in charge of the port of arrival lists containing the names of all aliens employed on such vessel, stating the positions they respectively hold in the ship's company, what and where they were respectively shipped or engaged, and specifying those to be land on and discharged in the port of arrival; or lists containing so much of such information as the Secretary of Labor shall by regulation prescribe; and after the arrival of any such vessel it shall be the duty of such owner, agent, consignee, or master to report to such immigration officer, in writing, as soon as discovered, all cases in which any such alien has illegally landed from the vessel, giving a description of such alien, together with any information likely to lead to his apprehension; and before the departure of any such vessel it shall be the duty of such owner, agent, consignee, or master to deliver to such immigration officer a further list containing the names of all alien employees who were not employed thereon at the time of the arrival but who will leave port thereon at the time of her departure, and also the names of those, if any, who have been hired on and discharged, and of those, if any, who have vacated or on or landed; and in case of the failure of such owner, agent, consignee, or master so to deliver either of the said lists of such aliens arriving and departing, respectively, or so to report such cases of desertion or landing, such owner, agent, consignee, or master shall, if ordered by the Secretary of Labor, pay to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $10 for each alien concerning whom correct lists are not delivered or true report is not made as above ordered; and no such vessel shall be granted clearance by the collector of customs of the district in which the port is located until the payment of such fine is imposed, while it remains unpaid; nor shall such fine be remitted or refunded: Provided, That clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine.

EXTRACT FROM SUBDIVISION 3, RULE 10

SEC. 3. Manifesting, entering, and clearing. -(a) Arriving and departing seamen shall be manifested on the blank forms provided for that purpose by the department, in accordance with the terms of section 36. When an arriving seaman is a "workaway," a notation to that effect should be made upon the manifest.

(g) Clearance shall not be granted any vessel until the fine required by section 36 have been furnished, and not then unless notice of liability to the administrative fine prescribed by said section or to that prescribed by section 35 hereof been waived, the deposit specified in Rule 28 (supp. 5) has been made.

AFFIDAVIT OF THE MASTER OR COMMANDING OFFICER, OR FIRST OR SECOND OFFICER

I, A.A. ERICSEN, of the S.S. Alaska 2, sailing to deliver to the Immigrant Inspector at the port of arrival, do declare that the foregoing is a full and true list of all the crew, brought in said vessel from any port or place during per passage.

I have noted the copy of section 36 of the United States Immigration Law and of subdivisions 3 (a) and (b) of Immigration Rule 10 which appear below.

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO MASTER

The list described below shall be furnished on blank forms approved by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigration inspector, certain information regarding the vessel at the port of arrival. See instructions for lawful method of making entries. Any person who knowingly makes a false statement in connection with such entries is liable to a fine not to exceed $1,000 or imprisonment not to exceed one year, or both. Any alien who fails to comply with the provisions of the immigration laws may be refused admission into the United States.

EXTRACT FROM ACT OF CONGRESS OF FEBRUARY 5, 1917

SEC. 38. That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the master, owner, agent, consignee, or person in charge of such vessel to deliver to the immigrant inspector at the port of arrival lists containing the names of all aliens employed on such vessel, stating the business and calling in the office concerned, when and where they were respectively shipped or engaged, and specifying those to be landed at such port of arrival; as well as those who have signified their intention of becoming permanent residents of the United States; and before the departure of any such vessel it shall be the duty of such owner, agent, consignee, or master to report to such immigration officer, in writing, as many as deserted, all cases in which any such alien has been reported as deserting such vessel, stating a description of such alien, together with any information likely to lead to his apprehension; and before the departure of any such vessel it shall be the duty of such owner, agent, consignee, or master to deliver to such immigration officer a further list containing the names of all such aliens employed on such vessel who may have been left behind, the cause for such action so far as known, and the intended destination of such aliens. Any master, owner, agent, consignee, or master who shall refuse or neglect to comply with the provisions of this section shall pay to the collector of customs for the district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $10 for each alien concerning whom such refusal or neglect occurs: Provided, That clearance may be granted prior to the determination of the Secretary of Labor as to any alien detained for special examination in order that the sum of $10 for each alien concerned in such refusal or neglect may be deposited with the collector of customs, to be returned to the master, owner, agent, consignee, or master in the event the Secretary of Labor shall thereafter determine that no penalty is due. Such deposit shall be made in the form of a bond or undertaking approved by the Secretary of Labor, or of bank notes or gold coin of the United States, or certified checks acceptable to the collector of customs. Any master, owner, agent, consignee, or master who shall refuse or neglect to report, or who shall conceal, or attempt to conceal, or who shall assist or connive at the concealment of any alien required by this section to be reported, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction thereof in the district court of the United States for the district in which the offense was committed shall be punished by a fine not exceeding $1,000 or by imprisonment for a term not exceeding one year, or both, in the discretion of the court.

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO MASTER

The list described below shall be prepared on blank forms approved by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigration inspector boarding the vessel at the port of arrival, and shall in no instance be taken from the vessel. The list of changes of alien members of crews (Form 653) shall not be furnished on board, but shall be delivered by the master to the principal immigration officer at the port. When an arriving seaman is a "workaway," a notation to that effect should be made on the manifest.

EXTRACT FROM ACT OF CONGRESS OF FEBRUARY 2, 1917

SEC. 36. That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the owner, agent, consignee, or master thereof to deliver to the principal immigration officer in charge of the port of arrival lists containing the names of all aliens employed on such vessel, stating the positions they respectively hold in the ship's company, when and where they were respectively shipped or engaged, and specifying those to be paid off and discharged in the port of arrival; or lists containing no much of such information as shall be the duty of such owner, agent, consignee, or master to report to such immigration officer, in writing, as soon as discovered, all cases in which any such alien has illegally landed from the vessel, giving a description of such alien, together with any information likely to lead to his apprehension; and before the departure of any such vessel it shall be the duty of such owner, agent, consignee, or master to deliver to such immigration officer a further list containing the names of all alien employees who were not employed thereon at the time of the arrival but who will leave port thereon at the time of her departure, and also the names of those, if any, who have been hired on and discharged, and of those, if any, who have deserted either of the said lists of such alien arriving and departing, respectively, or so to report such cases of desertion or landing, such owner, agent, consignee, or master shall, if required by the Secretary of Labor, pay to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $10 for each alien concerning whom correct lists are not delivered, or a true report is not made as above required; and no such vessel shall be granted clearance until such sum is deposited, while it remains unpaid; nor shall such sum be remitted and, in the event such sum is imposed, while it remains unpaid: nor shall such sum be remitted or refunded: Provided, That clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such sum.

EXTRACT FROM SUBDIVISION B, RULE 7

PAR. 6. Clearance shall not be granted any vessel until the lists required by section 36 of the Act of February 5, 1917, have been furnished, and not then unless notice of liability to the administrative fine prescribed by said section or to that prescribed by section 32 of said act hereby been waived, the deposit specified in rule 23 has been made.

EXTRACT FROM ACT OF CONGRESS APPROVED MAY 26, 1924

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 13. No alien seaman entitled from admission into the United States under the immigration laws but employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States, except temporarily for inspection, or detention, or quarantine, or pursuant to such regulations as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe for the ultimate deportation of such alien from the United States.

SEC. 20. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof after the 1st day of July, 1924, shall be responsible for the immediate deportation of any alien seaman employed on such vessel until the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival has granted such seaman (subject immediately to all the provisions of the immigration laws) a permit to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or pursuant to such regulations as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe for the ultimate deportation of such alien seaman on board that vessel upon inspection or to deport such seaman if required by such immigration officer or the Secretary of Labor to do so. Such seaman on board after such inspection or to deport such seaman if required by such immigration officer or the Secretary of Labor to do so. Such bond to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $1,000 for each alien seaman in respect of whom such default occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the liability to payment of such fine, or while the fine remains unpaid, except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine, or if a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof approved by the collector of customs.

(b) Every such fine is a lien against the vessel, which may be enforced by the United States from any place outside thereof, and such vessel may not be granted clearance while any such fine remains unpaid, except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination of the liability to payment of such fine, or while a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof approved by the collector of customs.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor finds that deportation of the alien seaman on the vessel on which he arrived, and such vessel shall not be granted clearance until such expense has been paid or the payment guaranteed to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor.

Form 156—United U. S. A. and Canada Express Co., 34 Beaver St., New York, N. Y.

I, ... Master of the ..... do declare that the foregoing is a full and true list of all the crew promptly on said vessel from any port or place during my present voyage. I have noted the conduct on said vessel if any of the crew have been ill-treated, and have entered in the official log book the name of any seaman who has died, and the date and cause of death, and have in all respects complied with the Act of May 26, 1924, which appears below.

Note.—Failure to furnish full or correct information called for by (1), (2), (3), (4), (5), (6), (7), (8), (9), (10), (11), (12), (13), (14), (15), (16), (17), and (18) may be punishable by a fine of not more than $1,000 for each alien.

Space for additional names, if necessary, may be obtained by using another sheet.

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO MASTER

The list described below shall be prepared on blank forms approved by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigration inspector boarding the vessel at the port of return, and shall in no instance be taken from the vessel. The list is examined when inspected by the immigration officer at the port of return and is then collected by the master or person in charge of the vessel on which the alien arrived to which the list relates. Failure to present the list will result in a fine of $1,000 for each alien assumed to depart or actually departing without the list. No vessel shall be cleared pending the determination of the immigration officer as to the necessity of a bond and the amount thereof. Any vessel departing without the clearance required by this section shall be liable to a fine of $1,000 for each alien departing or attempting to depart in violation of this section, and such vessel may be libeled for the recovery of the fine. The Attorney General may prescribe the form of bond and the conditions thereof, and may require separate bonds to cover each alien or any class of aliens. Bonds or undertakings approved by the Attorney General may be sued in the name of the United States in the district in which the master resides or in which any of the sureties may be found, for the recovery of the amount stipulated therein, upon the breach of any condition thereof. Upon the recovery of any such fine, bond, or undertaking, one-half shall be paid to the informer, if any there be, otherwise the whole shall be paid into the Treasury of the United States. Such bonds or undertakings may be sued upon and the recovery had thereon notwithstanding any remission or mitigation imposed upon the principal thereon. Provided, That clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such questions upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine and bond, in the usual sum in which bonds are required in like cases, or upon the deposit of such sum with any immigrant inspector, and such clearance shall not operate as a waiver of the rights of the United States to recover such fine in excess of the sum deposited if a bond is subsequently required and filed as herein provided within ten days after the date of such deposit. Clearance may be granted prior to the determination of the question of the liability of the vessel to fine or bond upon the deposit of $10 for each alien concerning whom such question is to be determined, which deposit shall be returned if no fine or bond is required, or applied to the payment of the fine or bond if one is required, and the balance returned. Provided, That clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such questions upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine and bond, in the usual sum in which bonds are required in like cases, or upon the deposit of such sum with any immigrant inspector, and such clearance shall not operate as a waiver of the rights of the United States to recover such fine in excess of the sum deposited if a bond is subsequently required and filed as herein provided within ten days after the date of such deposit. Clearance may be granted prior to the determination of any such question upon the deposit of $10 for each alien concerning whom such question is to be determined, which deposit shall be returned if no fine or bond is required, or applied to the payment of such fine or bond if one is required, and the balance returned. Provided, That clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such questions upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine and bond, in the usual sum in which bonds are required in like cases, or upon the deposit of such sum with any immigrant inspector, and such clearance shall not operate as a waiver of the rights of the United States to recover such fine in excess of the sum deposited if a bond is subsequently required and filed as herein provided within ten days after the date of such deposit.

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO MASTER

The list described below shall be prepared on blank forms approved by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigration inspector boarding the vessel at the port of arrival. See list of changes of such form.

Form of crew (Form I-418) shall not be required or issued, but shall be delivered by the master to the boarding immigration officer at the port of arrival. Failure to deliver such list may result in a fine of $1,000 for each alien member, unless cause of arrival cannot reasonably be made on the manifest. In order to facilitate inspection, each alien member is to be listed on a "memorandum," a duplicate of that copy should be made as well as three.

MASTER

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO MASTER

The list described below shall be prepared on blank forms approved by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigrant inspector boarding the vessel at the port of arrival, and shall in no instance be issued from the vessel. The list or manifest of aliens so prepared shall be delivered by the master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer of the vessel or aircraft, or the authorized agent or representative of any such person, to the immigrant inspector boarding the vessel at the port of arrival, and shall not be altered in any way after it has been so delivered. Any person who knowingly violates any of the provisions of this section shall be subject to a penalty of $1,000 for each alien concerning whom any false statement is made in such list, and in addition to such penalty shall be liable to a penalty of $10 for each alien concerning whom any omission is made in such list which should be listed therein, unless it is shown to the satisfaction of the Attorney General that such omission occurred notwithstanding the exercise by such person of reasonable care. Any penalty imposed under this section may be remitted or mitigated by the Attorney General upon such terms and conditions as he may deem just.

SEC. 30. That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer in charge of the vessel to deliver to the immigrant inspector boarding the vessel at the port of arrival, and before any passenger is landed, lists containing the names of all aliens employed on such vessel. Whether the inspector boarding the vessel at the port of arrival is satisfied that the lists contain the names of all aliens employed on such vessel, he shall require the master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer in charge of the vessel to make oath to the correctness of such lists before the administrative officer in charge at the port of arrival, or before any other person authorized by the Attorney General to administer oaths for such purposes. Any master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer who knowingly fails to deliver such lists, or who refuses to make oath to the correctness of the same, or who knowingly makes any false statement in such lists, shall be liable to a penalty of not more than $1,000 for each such offense. The master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any foreign port or place shall, in addition to such lists, deliver to the immigrant inspector boarding the vessel at the port of arrival a list containing the name of each alien who has been ordered deported from the United States while a passenger on such vessel, and the cause for such deportation. Any master who refuses or fails to deliver such list shall be liable to a penalty of not more than $1,000 for each such offense.

SEC. 36. That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer in charge of the vessel to deliver to the immigrant inspector boarding the vessel at the port of arrival, and before any passenger is landed, lists containing the names of all aliens employed on such vessel. Whether the inspector boarding the vessel at the port of arrival is satisfied that the lists contain the names of all aliens employed on such vessel, he shall require the master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer in charge of the vessel to make oath to the correctness of such lists before the administrative officer in charge at the port of arrival, or before any other person authorized by the Attorney General to administer such oaths. Any master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer who knowingly fails to deliver such lists, or who refuses to make oath to the correctness of the same, or who knowingly makes any false statement in such lists, shall be liable to a penalty of not more than $1,000 for each such offense. The master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any foreign port or place shall, in addition to such lists, deliver to the immigrant inspector boarding the vessel at the port of arrival a list containing the name of each alien who has been ordered deported from the United States while a passenger on such vessel, and the cause for such deportation. Any master who refuses or fails to deliver such list shall be liable to a penalty of not more than $1,000 for each such offense. The master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any foreign port or place shall, in addition to such lists, deliver to the immigrant inspector boarding the vessel at the port of arrival, and before any passenger is landed, a separate list or manifest of all aliens employed on such vessel. Whether the inspector boarding the vessel at the port of arrival is satisfied that the list contains the names of all aliens employed on such vessel, he shall require the master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer in charge of the vessel to make oath to the correctness of such list before the administrative officer in charge at the port of arrival, or before any other person authorized by the Attorney General to administer such oaths. Any master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer who knowingly fails to deliver such list, or who refuses to make oath to the correctness of the same, or who knowingly makes any false statement in such list, shall be liable to a penalty of not more than $1,000 for each such offense. The master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any foreign port or place shall, in addition to such list, deliver to the immigrant inspector boarding the vessel at the port of arrival a list containing the name of each alien who has been ordered deported from the United States while a passenger on such vessel, and the cause for such deportation. Any master who refuses or fails to deliver such list shall be liable to a penalty of not more than $1,000 for each such offense.

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 16. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws and employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States under such conditions thereof, shall be permitted to land in the United States except temporarily for medical treatment, or because of illness, injury, or quarantine requirements, or for such other reasons as may be deemed sufficient by the Attorney General, and then only under such bond as may be required by the Attorney General, and shall not be granted clearance until such expenses have been paid or its payment guaranteed to the satisfaction of the Attorney General, and then only under such bond as may be required by the Attorney General, and shall not be granted clearance until such expenses have been paid or its payment guaranteed to the satisfaction of the Attorney General.

(b) Every alien seaman who shall have been granted shore leave during the period his vessel remains in port, and who fails to return to the vessel or depart from the United States with it or within such period as may be required by the Attorney General, shall be deported as in the case of stowaways.

(c) If the Attorney General shall find that deportation of the alien seaman on the vessel on which he arrived will cause undue hardship to such seaman he may cause him to be deported on another vessel at the expense of the vessel on which he arrived, but such expense shall not be granted clearance until such expenses have been paid or its payment guaranteed to the satisfaction of the Attorney General.

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO MASTER

The list described below shall be furnished on blank forms approved by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigration inspector boarding the vessel at the port of arrival, and shall be so maintained by the master from the vessel. The list of aliens so furnished immediately subject to the port at which the vessel is to land, and shall be delivered by the master to the immigration officer at the port of arrival. Where no immigration officer is stationed at the port of arrival, the list shall be delivered by the master to the collector of customs at the port. Where an immigrant destined to a port "not-for-entry" is included in the list, the master should be ready on the manifest. In order to facilitate inspection of aliens seeking admission, include names of returning American citizens seeking admission as well as aliens.

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO MASTER

The list described below shall be prepared on blank forms approved by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigration inspector pending the vessel at the port of arrival, and shall in no instance be given from the vessel. The list or manifest of alien passengers to be landed at a port of entry (Form I-418) shall not be destroyed or mutilated, but shall be delivered by the master to the immigrant inspector at the port of entry. Upon an attorney assuming to act as "master" a decision to that effect should be made on the manifest. In order to facilitate inspection of alien seamen, multiple names of attorney Americans should be used as well as aliens.

SEC. 36. That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the owner, agent, consignee, or master thereof to deliver to the immigrant inspector at each port where such vessel shall arrive true lists or manifests of all persons on board such vessel, showing the number thereof, and such information touching each and every person on board as may be required by the Commissioner General of Immigration, which lists or manifests shall be verified by the oath of such owner, agent, consignee, or master taken before any such immigrant inspector, and shall be in such form and contain such other information touching each and every person on board as shall be required by the Commissioner General of Immigration, with the approval of the Secretary of Labor. Any master, owner, agent, consignee, or person in charge of any such vessel who shall refuse to deliver such lists or manifests at the time of the arrival of such vessel at the port where such lists or manifests are required to be delivered, or who shall refuse to answer any question touching each and every person on board such vessel, or who shall make any false answer to any such question, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be punished by a fine not exceeding $1,000 for each such offense. The master of any such vessel shall be required to deliver a list or manifest of the persons on board such vessel who were not included in the lists or manifests delivered at previous ports, and in case of the failure of such master, owner, consignee, or agent to deliver such list or manifest he shall be punished by a like fine. The master of any such vessel shall be required to report the illness or death on board such vessel during the voyage of any person, and the cause thereof, and in case of his failure so to report such cause of detention or death, such master, owner, consignee, or agent shall be punished by a like fine. The Attorney General shall prescribe such rules and regulations as may be necessary to carry the provisions of this section into effect.

SEC. 150.15. Liens of alien embezzlers: Appeal; clearance of vessel denied. Clearance shall not be granted any vessel until the liens created by section 24 of the Immigration Act of 1917 (39 Stat. 889; 8 U. S. C. 1227), have been discharged and all fines imposed by section 23 of said Act (39 Stat. 889; 8 U. S. C. 1227) have been discharged or the collector of customs of the port where such vessel is about to depart has been furnished by the master, owner, agent, consignee, or person in charge of such vessel with a bond in such amount as may be required by the commissioner of the district in which such port is located, with sufficient surety, conditioned that such fines will be paid when the amount thereof shall be finally determined by the Attorney General. Clearance shall not be granted any vessel until the fines imposed by section 23 of said Act (39 Stat. 889; 8 U. S. C. 1227) have been discharged or bond in such amount as may be required by the commissioner of the district in which such port is located, with sufficient surety, conditioned that such fines will be paid when the amount thereof is finally determined by the Attorney General. If, however, clearance be refused by the collector of customs or the officer acting in his place, the master, owner, agent, consignee, or person in charge of such vessel may appeal to the Attorney General, and the decision of the Attorney General shall be final. Clearance may be granted pending the decision on appeal upon the deposit of such sum as may be required by the collector of customs or the officer acting in his place, to cover the fines which may be imposed.

ALIEN SEAMEN

EXTRACT FROM ACT OF CONGRESS APPROVED MAY 26, 1924, AS AMENDED

SEC. 18. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws and employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside the United States (U. S. C., 1940 ed., Supp. III, title 8, sec. 203 (a) (18)) shall be permitted to land in the United States except temporarily for medical treatment, or because of illness, injury, or shipwreck, and for such period of time as the Attorney General may prescribe, for the ultimate deportation of such alien from the United States. (43 Stat. 164; 8 U. S. C. 180.)

SEC. 30. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside the United States (except foreign contiguous territory) shall be responsible for the proper maintenance while in the United States, and for the removal on board or otherwise, at the expense of such owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master, of any alien seaman employed on board such vessel who is ordered removed from the United States under any provision of this Act, and for the payment of the hospital expenses and burial expenses of any such alien seaman who may die while in the United States. Before any such alien seaman is granted shore leave his master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer shall deposit with the immigrant inspector at the port of entry a sum sufficient to cover such expenses, or furnish a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof. Failure to comply with the provisions of this section shall be punishable by a fine of not more than $1,000 for each alien seaman in respect of whom such failure occurs: Provided, however, That clearance may be granted prior to the determination of the liability to payment thereof in the case of any vessel which shall be required to remain in port for a longer period than seventy-two hours by reason of the refusal of any alien seaman to proceed on board thereof, or by reason of any illness or injury to any alien seaman requiring his detention in a hospital, or by reason of any other cause not due to the fault of the master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer of such vessel, upon the deposit of a sum sufficient in the opinion of the immigrant inspector in charge to cover the maintenance of such alien seaman for a period not exceeding thirty days, or of a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof, approved by the collector of customs.

(b) Proof that an alien seaman did not depart upon the outgoing steamship of the vessel on which he arrived in the United States from any foreign port or place, shall be prima facie evidence of a failure to deliver him on board such vessel as a deserter, shall be prima facie evidence that such deserter was a member of the crew of such vessel at the time of its arrival at the port of entry, and shall be sufficient to warrant the imposition of the penalty provided for in subdivision (a) of this section.

(c) If the Attorney General shall find that deportation of the alien seaman on the vessel on which he arrived would cause undue hardship to such seaman he may cause him to be deported on another vessel at the expense of the vessel on which he arrived and such sum may be recovered as a penalty from the owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of such vessel in the manner provided for the recovery of fines imposed by section 23 of said Act (39 Stat. 889; 8 U. S. C. 1227), have been discharged and all fines imposed by section 23 of said Act (39 Stat. 889; 8 U. S. C. 1227) have been discharged or the collector of customs of the port where such vessel is about to depart has been furnished by the master, owner, agent, consignee, or person in charge of such vessel with a bond in such amount as may be required by the commissioner of the district in which such port is located, with sufficient surety, conditioned that such fines will be paid when the amount thereof is finally determined by the Attorney General. If, however, clearance be refused by the collector of customs or the officer acting in his place, the master, owner, agent, consignee, or person in charge of such vessel may appeal to the Attorney General, and the decision of the Attorney General shall be final. Clearance may be granted pending the decision on appeal upon the deposit of such sum as may be required by the collector of customs or the officer acting in his place, to cover the fines which may be imposed.

AFFIDAVIT OF THE MASTER OR COMMANDING OFFICER, OR FIRST OR SECOND OFFICER

I, Robert A. Eastman, of the SS MARINE LANCER, do declare that the foregoing is a full and true list of all the crew provided in said vessel from and port or place destined for Panama Republic, and that I have noted the copy of section 36 of the Act of February 5, 1917, extract from Title 8, Code of Federal Regulations, and copy of sections 13 and 50, Act of May 26, 1924, as printed thereon below.

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO MASTER

The list described below shall be prepared on blank forms approved by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigration inspector boarding the vessel at the port of arrival, but shall in no instance be taken from the vessel. The list or manifest of aliens required to be delivered to the immigration officer at the port of arrival may be prepared in duplicate, but shall be delivered to the immigration officer at the port of entry (from 1 July 1924 shall not be required to be delivered to the master to the immigration officer at the port of entry). "Nonimmigrant" is a designation to that effect should be made on the manifest. In order to determine whether a person is a "nonimmigrant" a decision to that effect should be made on the manifest. All other persons arriving shall be listed as immigrants. Include names of returning American citizen seamen as well as aliens.

SEC. 36. That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the master, agent, consignee, or owner thereof to deliver to the immigrant inspector at the port of arrival a manifest and passenger list or such other equivalent record of all aliens on board such vessel, whether destined to the United States or not, in such form and manner and containing such information as may be prescribed by the Commissioner General of Immigration with the approval of the Secretary of Labor. Such manifest and passenger list or such other equivalent record shall be prepared at such time before the departure of the vessel from the foreign port as the Commissioner General of Immigration may prescribe. Any master, agent, consignee, or owner who refuses or fails to deliver such manifest and passenger list or such other equivalent record in accordance with the provisions of this section or with such regulations as may be prescribed hereunder shall pay to the collector of customs for the district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $10 for each alien concerning whom complete information is not furnished as required. Until the master, agent, consignee, or owner of the vessel shall have delivered such manifest and passenger list or such other equivalent record in accordance with the provisions of this section and with such regulations as may be prescribed hereunder, the vessel shall not be granted clearance papers. In case of the failure of such master, agent, consignee, or owner to deliver such manifest and passenger list or such other equivalent record at the time of the departure of the vessel from the foreign port, or within such further time as may be allowed by the Commissioner General of Immigration, a penalty of $10 for each alien concerning whom complete information is not furnished as required shall be imposed, and may be remitted or refunded in such amount and under such conditions as may be prescribed by the Commissioner General of Immigration with the approval of the Secretary of Labor. Clearance may be granted prior to the delivery of such manifest and passenger list or such other equivalent record upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such penalty with the collector of customs for the district in which the port of departure is located, or a bond with sufficient surety approved by such collector in such sum as he may require to cover such penalty. Pending the delivery of such manifest and passenger list or such other equivalent record clearance may be granted upon the filing of a separate manifest for each class of aliens specified in this section. Nothing in this section shall be construed to require the master, agent, consignee, or owner of any vessel to deliver to the immigrant inspector at the port of arrival a manifest or other equivalent record containing any information in regard to any alien who is in transit through the United States to a foreign country, who arrives in the United States by reason of stress of weather or other unavoidable accident, who is in charge of or attending any such alien so in transit or arriving by reason of stress of weather or other unavoidable accident, or who is a bona fide crew member employed on the vessel on which he arrives and who is destined to the country in which the vessel is owned, and which country will not permit his entry as a member of the crew of any vessel.

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 13. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws and employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily and solely for medical treatment, or hospitalization, or because of shipwreck, until the immigration officer in charge at the port of debarkation of each alien seaman has been notified of his employment on board such vessel and has granted him a permit to land for a period not to exceed five days, which may be extended in the discretion of the Secretary of Labor for such period or periods as may be necessary for the medical treatment, or hospitalization of such alien seaman. Such alien seaman shall be deported on the vessel employing him or on another vessel in the discretion of the Secretary of Labor. Any master, agent, owner, or consignee who shall employ any alien seaman who has not been granted a permit as provided in this section, or who shall fail to deport any such alien seaman when required so to do, shall pay for each such alien seaman a sum not exceeding $1,000 as the Secretary of Labor may determine, which shall be a lien upon the vessel, and may be recovered by the United States in a civil action. No vessel shall be granted clearance papers pending the determination of the question of the liability to the payment of any penalty incurred under the provisions of this section, or while any penalty imposed hereunder remains unpaid. Clearance may be granted prior to the determination of the question of the liability to the payment of any penalty upon the deposit with the collector of customs for the district in which the vessel is located of a sum sufficient to cover the amount of the penalty in question, or a bond with sufficient surety approved by the collector in such amount as he may require to cover such penalty. Pending the payment of a penalty imposed hereunder, no vessel shall be granted clearance papers upon the application of any person other than the master thereof.

(b) Every alien seaman who shall not depart upon the outgoing manifest of the vessel on which he arrived in the United States from any foreign port or place, or who shall depart from the United States under the provisions of section 6 of this Act, shall be deported at the expense of the appropriation for the enforcement of this Act, unless the Secretary of Labor shall report to the Congress the facts in any case and the Congress shall otherwise direct. Any alien seaman who shall fail to depart from the United States upon the termination of his period of temporary hospitalization, or who shall depart from the United States without the permission of the Secretary of Labor

SEC. 36. That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the master, commander, or agent, owner, or consignee of any vessel bringing any alien to the United States to deliver to the immigrant inspector at the port of arrival lists or manifests of all aliens on board such vessel, stating the full name, age, sex, calling or occupation, nationality, last residence, and final destination of each alien who may be allowed to land, whether destined to the United States or not, the port at which such alien shall have embarked, and the port at which he shall land in the United States; and before the master, commander, or agent of any such vessel shall be granted clearance papers or permission to depart from any port of the United States he shall deliver a list or manifest containing a like statement with respect to all aliens on board such vessel, and if any such alien has been lawfully admitted to the United States, a certificate to that effect shall be issued by the collector of customs of the district in which the port of departure is located; and if any such alien has been granted a permit to land temporarily in the United States, a like certificate shall be issued by the commissioner of immigration at the port of entry. Any master, commander, or agent, owner, or consignee of any vessel who refuses or neglects to deliver such list or manifest, or who refuses to allow any immigrant inspector to go on board such vessel for the purpose of examining the list or manifest, or who refuses to detain any alien on board such vessel when requested so to do by any such inspector, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 for each such offense, or by imprisonment for not more than one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the court. Any master, commander, or agent, owner, or consignee of any vessel who shall refuse to pay the head tax imposed by this act shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 for each such offense. Any master, commander, or agent, owner, or consignee of any vessel who shall knowingly bring to the United States any alien who is not entitled to admission under the provisions of this act, other than an alien who has been in the United States and who is returning from a temporary visit abroad, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 for each such alien so brought, or by imprisonment for not more than one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the court. Any master, commander, or agent, owner, or consignee of any vessel who shall refuse or neglect to deliver aliens duly certificated by the commissioner of immigration at the port of entry to the proper immigration officer at the time specified in the certificate shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 for each such alien so certified, or by imprisonment for not more than one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the court. The decision of the immigrant inspector as to the right of any person to enter the United States shall be subject to review by the Secretary of Labor, whose decision shall be final.

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 13. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws and employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States under the provisions of section 32 of the Act of February 5, 1917, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for the ultimate departure, thereof, or for medical treatment, or hospitalization by the Secretary of Labor, pending such departure, unless such seaman is in possession of a valid passport viséed by the consular officer in charge at the port of departure, if there be such officer at such port, otherwise by a consular officer of the United States from any place outside of the United States adjacent to such port of departure, or unless such seaman is in possession of a permit granted by the Secretary of Labor to go on board his vessel or to depart from the United States on another vessel. Any alien seaman who shall land in the United States in violation of this section shall be deported in the manner provided by sections 19 and 20 of the Act of February 5, 1917, as amended by section 3 of the Act of May 10, 1920, and shall be deported to the country from which he came to the United States, or to the country in which he was born, or to the country in which he resided prior to coming to the United States, at the option of the Secretary of Labor. Any alien seaman who shall land in the United States in violation of this section shall be presumed to have done so with the intention of remaining permanently in the United States, and the burden shall be upon such alien seaman to overcome such presumption.

(a) Any alien seaman who shall land in the United States from any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, except Canada, Mexico, Cuba, Newfoundland, the Republic of Panama, the Canal Zone, or the islands and coasts of the Caribbean Sea, shall be required by the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival to deposit the sum of $10 for each month or fraction thereof that he may remain in the United States, or to furnish a bond in such amount, not exceeding $10 for each month or fraction thereof that he may remain in the United States, as may be required by the Secretary of Labor, conditioned upon the departure of such alien seaman from the United States within the period for which he is admitted or within such extension thereof as may be granted by the Secretary of Labor, and upon compliance with all the regulations made by the Secretary of Labor pursuant to law governing the admission of aliens temporarily to the United States. Any money deposited as required by this section shall be refunded to the depositor, or to his legal representative, upon the departure of such alien seaman within the period for which he was admitted or

The list described below shall be prepared on blank forms approved by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigration inspector presiding the vessel at the port of arrival and shall in no instance be taken from the vessel. The list or manifest of aliens required by section 4 of the act of February 20, 1907 (Comp. Stat. 1913, p. 1296), shall be returned by the master to the immigration officer at the port. When an alternate manifest is required on board, but shall be delivered by the master to the immigration officer at the port of arrival, and shall in no instance be taken from the vessel. The list or manifest of aliens shall contain the names of all aliens, including members of the crew and stowaways, and the failure to enter the name of any alien on the list may result in the refusal to permit the landing of such alien, and the master will be liable to a fine of $1,000 for each alien not listed. Any additional sheets used in connection with the list must be similar in all respects to the sheets on the manifest.

SEC. 38. That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the master, owner, agent, consignee, or person in charge of the port of arrival, and each conveyance in which such alien arrives shall be inspected by the proper immigration officers, and such aliens detained for examination and further action in accordance with the provisions of this act and the rules prescribed hereunder. All cases in which any such alien arrives at a seaport in the United States, whether coming from a foreign port or from a port in the United States, shall be subject to such inspection. Said aliens shall be detained on board or at the option of the master, owner, agent, consignee, or person in charge of the vessel or vessels bringing them to the United States until admitted or until a certificate of medical examination is issued in their cases or they are certified to a hospital for treatment or to a public immigrant station for special inquiry, unless the master, owner, agent, consignee, or person in charge of the vessel or vessels bringing them to the United States shall enter into a bond in such sum, not exceeding $500 for each alien, as may be required by rules prescribed by the Secretary of Labor, conditioned to indemnify any and all persons, companies, or corporations bringing such aliens into the United States against any loss, expense, or liability by reason of the admission into the United States of such aliens, and to prosecute to final determination any proceedings which may be instituted for the deportation of such aliens, and to pay all costs, charges, and expenses which may be incurred in the maintenance, detention, and deportation of such aliens, and to commute the head tax and visé fee of any such alien who may be permitted to land temporarily and thereafter deported at his own expense, such bond to be in such form and amount as may be prescribed by rules or instructions issued hereunder, and in lieu of head tax and visé fee may deposit such sum of money as may be required by such rules or instructions, not exceeding $10 for each alien, to be refunded only upon the departure of such alien from the United States within such time as may be specified by such rules or instructions: Provided, That the master, owner, agent, consignee, or person in charge of any vessel bringing aliens to the United States may, in lieu of entering into bond, deposit with the immigrant inspector in charge at the port of arrival such sum of money as may be required by rules or instructions issued hereunder, not exceeding $10 for each alien, to be refunded only upon the departure of such alien from the United States within such time as may be specified by such rules or instructions: Provided further, That the master, owner, agent, consignee, or person in charge of any vessel may be relieved from the payment of head tax and visé fee in the case of any alien who establishes to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor that he is a bona fide resident of the United States returning from a temporary visit abroad: Provided further, That the master, owner, agent, consignee, or person in charge of any vessel may be relieved from the payment of head tax in the case of any alien in transit through the United States to a foreign country who establishes to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor that he intends in good faith to proceed to a foreign country: Provided further, That the master, owner, agent, consignee, or person in charge of any vessel may be relieved from the payment of head tax in the case of any alien who establishes to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor that he is a seaman employed in the service of a vessel arriving at a port of the United States and intending to depart in the same vessel or in some other vessel of the same line within a reasonable time: Provided further, That the master, owner, agent, consignee, or person in charge of any vessel may be relieved from the payment of head tax in the case of any alien who establishes to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor that he is a member of the crew of a vessel arriving at a port of the United States and intending to depart in the same vessel or in some other vessel of the same line within a reasonable time: Provided further, That the master, owner, agent, consignee, or person in charge of any vessel may be relieved from the payment of head tax in the case of any alien who establishes to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor that he is in transit through the United States from one foreign country to another through a port of the United States: Provided further, That the Secretary of Labor may, in his discretion, refund the head tax in the case of any alien who is excluded from admission to the United States and who departs therefrom within such time as he may specify.

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO MASTER

The list of races and peoples printed above shall be furnished and taught the several aliens to be examined by the inspector boarding the vessel at the port of arrival, and shall in no instance be taken from the vessel. The list of races or alien immigrants of color (from 1924) shall not be changed or printed, but shall be delivered by the master to the principal immigration officer at the port.

EXTRACT FROM ACT OF CONGRESS OF FEBRUARY 5, 1917

SEC. 36. That alien arrivals at ports other than designated ports of entry shall be taken by the master of the vessel in charge thereof immediately to the office of the principal immigration officer at the port of arrival and detained at such office or other place designated by him until admitted or ordered to be deported by a special board of inquiry. Such board shall be composed of three immigrant inspectors, and the concurrent decision of a majority of the board shall be required to decide the case. The boards of special inquiry shall have authority to administer oaths, to take testimony concerning the right of any alien to enter the United States, and to exercise such power and perform such duties as may be conferred or imposed upon them by such rules and regulations as may be prescribed by the Secretary of Labor. Such boards may be appointed from time to time by the Secretary of Labor, and may consist of such number of members as may be necessary to secure the prompt performance of the duties imposed upon them by this section. Such boards shall have authority to order the detention of aliens for further inquiry, and to that end may require the attendance of witnesses and the production of books, papers, and documents, may administer oaths, and may take and consider evidence of any matters which they deem material to the right of any alien to enter the United States, and may perform such other duties as may be prescribed by rules and regulations made in pursuance of law. Any alien who refuses to be examined before such a board or to answer any question relevant to his right to enter the United States shall be deported. Such boards shall have sessions at such ports and places as may be designated by the Secretary of Labor, and at such other places as he may authorize the boards to visit for the purpose of conducting examinations upon the certification of the immigrant inspectors in charge. Such boards shall consist of officers appointed by the Secretary of Labor, and may also consist of such other persons, not exceeding two in number at any session of a board, as the Secretary of Labor may designate, who shall be subject to such rules and regulations as may be prescribed by the Secretary of Labor governing the conduct of such officers. Any person who knowingly makes a false oath or affirmation before any such board shall be deemed guilty of perjury and shall be punished accordingly.

EXTRACT FROM SUBDIVISION 3, RULE 10

SEC. 3. Manifests, registers, and identification. (a) Masters and operators seeking clearance shall not be granted such clearance by the collector of customs (from 1924) unless the manifest required by section 30 hereof has been delivered to the immigrant inspector at the port of arrival. Any person who knowingly or willfully delivers or causes to be delivered to the immigrant inspector at the port of arrival a manifest which does not correctly list and account for all aliens on board the vessel at the time of such delivery shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 or by imprisonment for not more than one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the court.

(b) Masters shall deliver to the immigrant inspector at the port of arrival lists or manifests of all aliens employed on board such vessel, showing the positions they respectively hold in the ship's complement, and the length of time they have respectively served on board. Such lists or manifests shall be delivered to the immigrant inspector at the port of arrival before any of the crew or any passengers shall be allowed to leave the vessel. Such lists or manifests shall contain such further information as the Secretary of Labor shall by regulation prescribe, and after the arrival at any such port it shall be the duty of such master, as soon as discovered, to report to such immigration officer, in writing, as soon as discovered, all cases in which any such alien has illegally landed from the vessel. Upon a description of such alien, together with any information likely to lead to his apprehension, and before the departure of any such vessel it shall be the duty of such master, under penalty of $1,000 for each alien concerning whom correct data are not furnished, to report to such immigration officer a further list of such aliens employed on board the vessel who were not employed thereon at the time of the arrival but who will leave port thereon at the time of, or prior thereto, and also the names of those, if any, who have been paid off and discharged, and of those, if any, who have deserted from the vessel, and the names of all alien employees who were not employed thereon at the time of the arrival of the vessel, and the names of the aliens returning and departing, respectively, or so to report such other of the said lists of such aliens returning and departing, respectively, or so to report such cases of desertion or landing, such owner, agent, consignee, or master shall, if required by the Secretary of Labor, pay to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $10 for each alien concerning whom correct data are not furnished, and no such vessel shall be granted clearance or a true report is not made as above required; and no such vessel shall be granted clearance where because the determination of the question of the direction of the footpath to the payment of such fine and, in the event such fine is imposed, while it remains unpaid, not shall such fine be remitted or refunded. Vessels that clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine.

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO MASTER

The list of enrolled Indians who may be employed on Indian vessels documented by the Department and by tribal officials to the term "Indian" as used in section 2 of the Act of February 2, 1917, as amended (25 U.S.C. 211), and section 27 of the Merchant Marine Act, 1920, as amended (46 U.S.C. 883), is published in accordance with section 4 of the Act of June 4, 1936 (49 Stat. 1458; 25 U.S.C. 212), and section 4 of the Act of August 9, 1937 (50 Stat. 564; 25 U.S.C. 213). Any person employed on a vessel documented by the Department and who is not listed herein as an Indian may be employed only as provided by section 27 of the Merchant Marine Act, 1920, as amended (46 U.S.C. 883).

EXTRACT FROM ACT OF CONGRESS OF FEBRUARY 2, 1917

SEC. 2. That after the approval of this Act it shall be unlawful for any person to employ any Indian in the capacity of master, pilot, engineer, mate, or fireman on any vessel documented under the laws of the United States, or on any vessel which shall be required to be documented under the laws of the United States in order to secure the full measure of rights and privileges pertaining thereto, except that Indians may be employed in the above capacities on vessels plying wholly on the waters of the Territory of Alaska or on the waters tributary thereto, and Indians may be employed in the above capacities on vessels plying wholly on the waters of the Great Lakes and connecting navigable waters: Provided, That the Secretary of Commerce may, in his discretion, issue licenses to Indians found competent after such examination as he may prescribe, to serve in the above capacities on any vessel other than a vessel engaged in the foreign or coastwise trade.

SEC. 3. That any person who shall employ any Indian in violation of the provisions of section 2 of this Act shall be punished by a fine of not more than $500 for each and every offense.

SEC. 4. That the Secretary of Commerce is hereby authorized to make such rules and regulations and issue such instructions not inconsistent with the provisions of this Act as may be necessary for the proper execution of the purposes and provisions thereof.

SEC. 5. That this Act shall take effect and be in force from and after the first day of July, nineteen hundred and seventeen.

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO MASTER

The law mentioned below shall be inserted on blank forms authorized by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigration inspectors at each port of entry after April 1, 1917. Two law of charges of such immigration fund of crews (April 1, 1917) shall not be returned or remit, but shall be delivered by the master to the immediate immigration officer at the port. When an alternate address is a "motorway" a notation to that effect should be made on the manifest. In order to facilitate immigration of all such aliens.

EXTRACT FROM ACT OF CONGRESS OF FEBRUARY 5, 1917, AS AMENDED

SEC. 36. That alien entering at the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the owner, agent, consignee, or master thereof to deliver to the immediate immigration officer in charge of the port of entry, or their contiguous to such immigration officer at the port of entry, a complete and accurate list of all aliens entering the United States from any foreign port or place, whether in transit or destined to the United States, and the destination thereof, and such other information as may be required by the Attorney General. Such list shall be prepared and delivered in such manner and at such time as the Attorney General shall prescribe, and shall be subject to such inspection and examination by such immigration officers as may be designated by the Attorney General. Any master, agent, consignee, or master to deliver to such immigration officer such list, or who refuses to furnish additional information requested by such immigration officer with respect to any such alien, shall pay to the United States the sum of $10 for each such alien with respect to whom such failure occurs. Any master, agent, consignee, or master who knowingly and willfully makes any false statement in such list with respect to the name or any such alien, shall pay a penalty of not more than $1,000 for each such alien, or be imprisoned for not more than one year, or both such fine and imprisonment.

SEC. 150.15 Limit of alien conference: upon clearance of vessel denied. Clearance shall not be granted any vessel until the list required by section 36 of the immigration Act of 1917 (39 Stat. 886; 8 U. S. C. 1171), have been completed, and no alien whose notice of intention to the administrative fine prescribed by said section or to fine prescribed by section 16 of said Act (39 Stat. 889; 8 U. S. C. 109) thereof, the deposit specified in 8 CFR 150.13–150.17, has been made.

EXTRACT FROM ACT OF CONGRESS APPROVED MAY 26, 1924, AS AMENDED

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 13. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws and employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or hospital treatment, or because to such regulations as the Attorney General may prescribe for the ultimate departure thereof, or deportation of such alien from the United States. (43 Stat. 164; 8 U. S. C. 188.)

SEC. 50. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any foreign port or place shall deliver to the immigration officer in charge at the port of entry before any alien seaman is permitted to land from such vessel, a complete list of all alien seamen employed on board such vessel, which list shall contain such information with respect to each such alien seaman as the Attorney General may prescribe. Any master, agent, consignee, or master who knowingly and willfully makes any false statement in such list with respect to the name or any such alien seaman, or who refuses to furnish additional information requested by such immigration officer with respect to any such alien seaman, shall pay a penalty of not more than $1,000 for each such alien seaman with respect to whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance papers pending the determination of the liability to payment thereof, or while the fine remains unpaid, except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such liability upon the deposit with the collector of customs of a sum sufficient to cover the payment thereof, approved by the collector of customs.

(b) Every such alien seaman did not depart upon the outgoing manifest of the vessel on which he arrived in the United States from any foreign port or place outside thereof, or that he was detained by the master of such vessel as a deserter, shall be taken into custody and returned to the vessel on which he arrived, or if such vessel has sailed, on any vessel in which there is space available, to the port from which such vessel sailed, or to the country to which such alien seaman belongs, or to that part thereof in which his last permanent residence was situated, at the option of the Attorney General. Until such alien seaman is returned to the vessel on which he arrived, or to such other vessel, or is landed at the port, he shall be detained on board such vessel or in such place as may be designated by the Attorney General, and such vessel shall not be granted clearance until such expense has been paid or its payment guaranteed to the satisfaction of the Attorney General.

(c) If the Attorney General finds that deportation of the alien seaman on the vessel on which he arrived would cause undue hardship to such seaman he may cause him to be deported on another vessel at the expense of the vessel on which he arrived. Such vessel shall not be granted clearance until such expense has been paid or its payment guaranteed to the satisfaction of the Attorney General.

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO MASTER

The law described below shall be enforced as fully when vessel shall be bought, but delayed, by the Department and by the Department of the Interior.

EXTRACT FROM ACT OF CONGRESS OF FEBRUARY 2, 1917, AS AMENDED

SEC. 36. That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the owner, agent, consignee, or master thereof to deliver to the Department of Labor at the port of arrival, or place designated by the Department of Labor, a complete list of all persons on board such vessel, except the members of the crew, and such other information relative to such persons or the cargo, baggage, or vessel as the Department of Labor may require. Such list shall be delivered before the departure of the vessel from the port at which it arrives, or if that be impracticable, then at such time and place as the Department of Labor may prescribe. Any person who shall refuse to answer any question touching the matters aforesaid, or shall answer falsely any such question, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine not exceeding $1,000 or by imprisonment for not more than one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the court. The master, agent, consignee, or owner of such vessel shall be severally liable to the penalty prescribed for each violation of the provisions of this section. The Secretary of Labor may refuse permission to land any person liable to a penalty under the provisions of this section, and may cause such person to be detained on board the vessel or at such place as he may designate until such penalty shall be paid or until he shall furnish a bond sufficient to cover the amount of such penalty. The Secretary of Labor may remit any penalty or portion thereof incurred under the provisions of this section, and may cancel any bond given or forfeited thereunder, whenever he shall be satisfied that justice does not require the enforcement of such penalty or forfeiture.

SEC. 37. (a) That the owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel bringing to the United States from any place outside thereof (other than foreign contiguous territory) any alien, whether or not a citizen of the foreign country from which such vessel departs, who is not duly admitted by an immigrant inspector at the port of arrival and who may be found after having been afforded reasonable opportunity for examination, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine not exceeding $1,000 for each such alien, or by imprisonment for a period not exceeding one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the court, and may be required by the Secretary of Labor to return any such alien to the country whence he came or to the country from which he departed and pay the cost of his detention and return. Such vessel shall be subject to a lien for the payment of such fine, which may be enforced by libel in rem in the district court of the United States for the district in which such vessel may be found. Clearance may be withheld from any vessel upon which there is employed any alien who is subject to the provisions of this section, and if such vessel shall depart without clearance it may be followed and brought back by any officer of the United States entitled to demand clearance and search such vessel. Any master who knowingly violates or fails to comply with any of the provisions of this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine not exceeding $1,000 or by imprisonment for not more than one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the court.

(b) If the Attorney General shall find that defendant or the alien assisted or the vessel or master by whom or which he was brought in violated any of the provisions of this section, such vessel shall be subject to a lien for the payment of the penalty or penalties incurred, and may be proceeded against by libel in rem in the district court of the United States for the district in which such vessel may be found. Clearance may be withheld from any vessel upon which there is employed any alien who is subject to the provisions of this section, and if such vessel shall depart without clearance it may be followed and brought back by any officer of the United States entitled to demand clearance and search such vessel. Any master who knowingly violates or fails to comply with any of the provisions of this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine not exceeding $1,000 or by imprisonment for not more than one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the court.

(c) If the Attorney General shall find that defendant or the alien assisted or the vessel or master by whom or which he was brought in violated any of the provisions of this section, such vessel shall be subject to a lien for the payment of the penalty or penalties incurred, and may be proceeded against by libel in rem in the district court of the United States for the district in which such vessel may be found. Clearance may be withheld from any vessel upon which there is employed any alien who is subject to the provisions of this section, and if such vessel shall depart without clearance it may be followed and brought back by any officer of the United States entitled to demand clearance and search such vessel. Any master who knowingly violates or fails to comply with any of the provisions of this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine not exceeding $1,000 or by imprisonment for not more than one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the court.

SEC. 150.15 Duties of alien entrepreneur. upon departure of vessel. Omitted. Operators shall not be required any vessel until the fee required by section 23 of the Immigration and Nationality Act of 1952 as amended, has been paid, or the alien has been admitted to the satisfaction of the Service. (8 CFR 150.1 (a) (2) (iii).)

EXTRACT FROM ACT OF CONGRESS APPROVED MAY 26, 1924, AS AMENDED

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 10. No alien seaman shall be admitted into the United States under the immigration laws and regulations on board a vessel arriving at a port of the United States from any foreign contiguous territory or adjacent islands, unless such seaman is in possession of a valid passport and a valid nonimmigrant visa or border crossing identification card, and is otherwise admissible under the immigration laws and regulations. Any such seaman who is refused admission to the United States may be required by the master or commanding officer of the vessel on which he arrived to return on board thereof or on board another vessel or aircraft owned by the same interests, and it shall be the duty of the master or commanding officer to detain such seaman on board and to return him to the country from which he came or to the country from which he departed. Any such seaman may be required to perform such labor as may be customary and reasonable during the period of detention. Any such seaman who shall refuse to return on board the vessel or aircraft upon which he arrived, or on board another vessel or aircraft owned by the same interests, when required so to do, or who shall refuse to perform such labor, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine not exceeding $1,000 or by imprisonment for not more than one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the court. Any such seaman who shall remain in the United States in violation of this section shall be deported in the manner provided by sections 19 and 20 of the Immigration Act of February 5, 1917, as amended (U.S.C., title 8, secs. 155, 156). Clearance may be withheld from any vessel upon which there is employed any alien who is subject to the provisions of this section, and if such vessel shall depart without clearance it may be followed and brought back by any officer of the United States entitled to demand clearance and search such vessel. Any master who knowingly violates or fails to comply with any of the provisions of this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine not exceeding $1,000 or by imprisonment for not more than one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the court.

(b) Every alien seaman who shall not depart from the United States as a member of the crew of a vessel on which he arrived in the United States or who shall depart from the United States without complying with the requirements of this section, shall be deemed to be a deserter. Any master who knowingly violates or fails to comply with any of the provisions of this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine not exceeding $1,000 or by imprisonment for not more than one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the court. Any such seaman who shall not depart from the United States as a member of the crew of a vessel on which he arrived in the United States or who shall depart from the United States without complying with the requirements of this section, shall be deemed to be a deserter. Any master who knowingly violates or fails to comply with any of the provisions of this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine not exceeding $1,000 or by imprisonment for not more than one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the court.

(c) If the Attorney General shall find that defendant or the alien assisted or the vessel or master by whom or which he was brought in violated any of the provisions of this section, such vessel shall be subject to a lien for the payment of the penalty or penalties incurred, and may be proceeded against by libel in rem in the district court of the United States for the district in which such vessel may be found. Clearance may be withheld from any vessel upon which there is employed any alien who is subject to the provisions of this section, and if such vessel shall depart without clearance it may be followed and brought back by any officer of the United States entitled to demand clearance and search such vessel. Any master who knowingly violates or fails to comply with any of the provisions of this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine not exceeding $1,000 or by imprisonment for not more than one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the court.

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO MASTER

The list described below shall be prepared on plain forms obtained by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigration inspector boarding the vessel at the port of arrival and before the vessel is admitted to entry. The list or manifest of aliens must be prepared in duplicate, and if the vessel is to call at more than one port in the United States for the purpose of discharging passengers who are destined to such ports, the list must be prepared in such manner that the part relating to passengers destined for the first port of arrival may be detached from the remainder of the list before the vessel proceeds to the second port. Each list must be signed and sworn to by the master of the vessel, or by the first officer or second officer in case of the master's inability to do so, before the immigration officer at the port of arrival. In order to facilitate inspection, the names of all aliens must be entered in the list in the exact order in which they appear on the ship's manifest, and the number of the manifest must be noted on the list. Any additional aliens discovered by the master to be on board the vessel after the list has been delivered to the immigration officer must be reported forthwith to the commissioner in charge at the port of arrival, and the additional names must be added to the list. Any alien who has been taken on board while the vessel was in transit from one port to another within the United States must be specially reported to the commissioner in charge at the port of arrival. Any member of the crew who has been left behind at any port must be reported, and his accounted for. Any alien who has been forcibly prevented from becoming a member of the crew must be reported, and the reasons for his non-employment stated. Any stowaway discovered after the vessel has left the last port must be reported, and the fact stated whether he has been landed or is still on board. Any alien who has been allowed to land temporarily in the United States must be reported, and the fact stated whether he has returned to the vessel. Any alien who has been transferred to another vessel must be reported, and the name of the vessel stated. Any alien who has been left behind for any cause must be reported, and the cause stated. Any alien who has been treated by the master or any officer of the vessel in a manner contrary to law must be reported, and the facts stated. Any case of refusal on the part of any alien to perform labor must be reported, and the reasons therefor stated. Any case of sickness or injury happening to any alien during the voyage must be reported, and the particulars stated. Any case of death must be reported, and the particulars stated, including the final disposition of the body. Any case of birth must be reported, and the particulars stated. Any case of desertion of any member of the crew must be reported, and the particulars stated. Any case of refusal to proceed on the voyage with the vessel must be reported, and the particulars stated. Any case of refusal to submit to the physical examination must be reported, and the particulars stated. Any case of refusal to submit to the mental examination must be reported, and the particulars stated. Any case of refusal to submit to the examination as to admissibility

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO MASTER

The list described below shall be prepared on blank forms approved by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigration inspector boarding the vessel at the port of arrival, and shall in no instance be taken from the vessel. The list of members of crew intended for discharge in the United States shall not be removed on board pilot vessels or tugs at the port of arrival, nor shall any member of the crew be allowed to leave the vessel at that time. Any person who shall violate the provisions of this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 or by imprisonment for not more than one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

Any alien seaman, including aliens of Mexican, Canadian, or other American nationality, who shall desert while his vessel is in the port of arrival, shall be deported on the vessel on which he arrived, unless the master of such vessel shall certify that such alien seaman is a "non-quota" immigrant entitled to enter the United States.

EXTRACT FROM ACT OF CONGRESS OF FEBRUARY 5, 1917, AS AMENDED

SEC. 30. That alien arrivals by land or sea shall be inspected at the time of their arrival there consecutively by the same or all alien inspectors upon the vessel or train bringing them to the United States, and no alien arrivals shall be admitted to the United States unless they shall have been duly inspected by the immigrant inspectors at the time of their arrival: Provided, That in the case of aliens arriving in the United States by sea who are destined to ports not within the district in which they arrive, the inspection shall be made by the inspectors at the port of first arrival, and the aliens destined to such ports shall be detained on board the vessel or at the immigrant station at such port of first arrival pending the inspection of the inspectors at the port of ultimate destination, and such aliens shall not be admitted to the United States except at such port of ultimate destination: Provided, That the Secretary of Labor may, in his discretion, waive the provisions of this section requiring inspection at the port of first arrival of aliens destined to ports not within the district in which they arrive at such port of first arrival, and may make such provisions and regulations in respect thereto as he may deem necessary: And provided further, That the Secretary of Labor may, in his discretion, order that inspection shall be made at such other place or places as he may designate whether or not such place or places be within the district in which the port of first arrival is located, and may make such provisions and regulations as may be necessary for the purpose of such inspection: And provided further, That the Secretary of Labor may, in his discretion, designate any arriving alien or class of aliens who may be admitted to the United States without inspection or examination by immigrant inspectors.

The list prepared below shall be prepared on blank forms approved by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigration inspector boarding the vessel at the port of arrival, and shall in no instance be taken from the vessel. The list of members of crew intended for discharge in the United States shall not be removed on board pilot vessels or tugs at the port of arrival, nor shall any member of the crew be allowed to leave the vessel at that time. Any person who shall violate the provisions of this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 or by imprisonment for not more than one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment. (Feb. 5, 1917, ch. 29, sec. 30, 39 Stat. 889; 8 U. S. C. 146.)

Any alien seaman, including aliens of Mexican, Canadian, or other American nationality, who shall desert while his vessel is in the port of arrival, shall be deported on the vessel on which he arrived, unless the master of such vessel shall certify that such alien seaman is a "non-quota" immigrant entitled to enter the United States. When an alien seaman is deported on the vessel on which he arrived, such alien seaman shall be deported to the port from which he last departed, if practicable, and the cost of such deportation shall be paid from the appropriation for the expenses of the Immigration Service at the port of arrival. (June 21, 1930, ch. 613, 46 Stat. 854; 8 U. S. C. 147.)

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 13. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws and employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any foreign port shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for hospital treatment, or because of illness requiring his detention, or for such other reasons as the Attorney General may prescribe, for the ultimate departure of such alien from the United States. (43 Stat. 164; 8 U. S. C. 166.)

SEC. 30. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside the United States shall cause to be detained on board such vessel such alien seaman employed on such vessel until the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival has inspected such seaman (which inspection in all cases shall include a personal physical examination by the medical examiner). Any alien seaman who shall refuse to be inspected or to be detained on board after such inspection or to depart with such vessel, or who shall depart from the United States without the permission required by this section, shall be deported in the manner provided in section 19 of this Act. Any such owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel who shall fail to detain on board any alien seaman employed on such vessel until the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival has inspected such seaman, or who shall refuse to detain such alien seaman on board after such inspection or to depart with such seaman if required by such immigration officer so to do, shall pay to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $1,000 for each alien seaman in respect of whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance papers pending the determination of the liability to payment of such fine, or while any fine remains unpaid, except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question when the owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of such vessel shall deposit with the collector of customs a sum sufficient to cover such fine, or of a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof approved by the collector of customs.

(b) Every alien seaman who shall not depart upon the outbound manifest of the vessel on which he arrived in the United States from any place outside the United States, or who shall depart from the United States without the permission required by this section, shall be deported in the manner provided in section 19 of this Act. Any master, agent, owner, charterer, or consignee of any vessel who shall refuse to pay any fine imposed upon him by reason of the failure of any alien seaman employed on such vessel to depart therein, when required so to do, shall be liable to a penalty of $1,000 for each such refusal, which may be recovered, with costs of suit, in an action of debt in the name of the United States. The Secretary of Labor may remit or refund any fine, penalty, or exaction imposed or collected under this section whenever he is satisfied that such fine, penalty, or exaction was improperly or unjustly imposed, or that mitigating circumstances exist which justify remission or refunding thereof.

(c) If the Attorney General finds that deportation of the alien seaman on the vessel on which he arrived and such vessel cannot be used for such purpose, then he may cause such alien seaman to be deported on another vessel at the expense of the vessel on which he arrived and such vessel shall not be granted clearance until such expense has been paid or its payment guaranteed to the satisfaction of the Attorney General.

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO MASTER

The list contained below shall be furnished on blank forms obtained by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigration inspector at the port of arrival and shall be so delivered by seven hours before the vessel is due to arrive. The list is complete to within 24 hours of the vessel's arrival at the port of entry. Failure to furnish the list as required by the immigration officer at the port of arrival is punishable by a fine of $10 for each passenger not listed. The list must be signed by the master or commanding officer of the vessel or by the purser, surgeon, or chief officer thereof. Any person who knowingly and willfully makes a false statement in connection therewith shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 or by imprisonment for not more than two years, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

Each master, commanding officer, purser, surgeon, or chief officer of a vessel shall, upon the arrival of the vessel at a port of the United States, report to the immigration officer at the port of entry the name of each passenger who has died on board the vessel since departing from a foreign port or since the last report required to be made under this section, if no deaths occurred, he shall report that fact. He shall also report the sex, age, and nationality of each stowaway found on board the vessel after departure from a foreign port, the cause of each death, and the medical treatment given each sick person during the voyage. He shall deliver to the immigration officer at the port of entry all certificates issued since the departure of the vessel from a foreign port for the burial at sea of passengers or crew, and the surgeon's certificate of cause of death, if any was issued, in the case of each death which occurred on board during the voyage. He shall also report the name of each alien passenger who was ordered excluded from admission to the United States during the voyage and the status of any case in which a review of the decision excluding the alien is being sought. Masters of vessels failing to report sick or injured aliens arriving at seaports of the United States are liable to a penalty of $100 for each such failure.

Masters of vessels will be required to detain on board vessel at the port of arrival any alien who appears to the examining immigrant inspector to be afflicted with a loathsome or dangerous contagious disease, until a certificate from the medical officer of the United States Public Health Service has been obtained and delivered to the immigrant inspector in charge, certifying that the alien has been found not to have such disease, or that, in his opinion, the alien may be landed without danger to the public health. Masters will be required to detain any alien who appears to the immigrant inspector at the port of arrival to be afflicted with insanity, tuberculosis in any form, or any mental or physical defect of such a character as to affect the ability of the alien to earn a living, unless such alien is accompanied by a bond or cash deposit in the sum of $1,000 for each alien detained, to guarantee the return of such alien to the vessel when required for examination or for deportation. Masters will be required to detain any alien who appears to the immigrant inspector at the port of arrival to be afflicted with any contagious disease specified by the Secretary of Labor, or who has been certified by the Public Health Service as having such disease, until a certificate is issued by the Public Health Service that the alien may be landed without danger to the public health. Masters will be required to detain any alien who appears to the immigrant inspector at the port of arrival to be an alien of the class described in section 3 of the Immigration Act of 1924, as amended by section 11 of the Immigration Act of 1952, until a certificate is issued by the Public Health Service that the alien may be landed without danger to the public health.

(a) Every alien who is required to be registered under the provisions of section 3 of the Immigration Act of 1924, as amended by section 11 of the Immigration Act of 1952, who is within the United States on December 24, 1952, or who enters the United States after December 24, 1952, and before June 30, 1953, shall apply for registration before the close of June 30, 1953, unless within one year prior to his application for registration he has been registered or has received a certificate of registration under the provisions of section 30 of the Act of February 5, 1917, as amended by section 4 of the Act of May 22, 1918, or has been registered under the provisions of section 3 of the Immigration Act of 1924, as amended by section 11 of the Immigration Act of 1952.

(b) Every alien who is required to be registered under the provisions of section 3 of the Immigration Act of 1924, as amended by section 11 of the Immigration Act of 1952, who is within the United States on June 30, 1953, and who has not been registered and does not apply for registration on or before June 30, 1953, shall be deemed to remain in the United States unlawfully and shall be liable to deportation as provided by section 19 of the Immigration Act of 1917, as amended by section 20 of the Immigration Act of 1952.

(c) Every alien who is required to be registered under the provisions of section 3 of the Immigration Act of 1924, as amended by section 11 of the Immigration Act of 1952, who is within the United States on December 24, 1952, or who enters the United States after December 24, 1952, and before June 30, 1953, shall apply for registration before the close of June 30, 1953, unless within one year prior to his application for registration he has been registered or has received a certificate of registration under the provisions of section 30 of the Act of February 5, 1917, as amended by section 4 of the Act of May 22, 1918, or has been registered under the provisions of section 3 of the Immigration Act of 1924, as amended by section 11 of the Immigration Act of 1952.

(d) Every alien who is required to be registered under the provisions of section 3 of the Immigration Act of 1924, as amended by section 11 of the Immigration Act of 1952, who is within the United States on December 24, 1952, or who enters the United States after December 24, 1952, and before June 30, 1953, shall apply for registration before the close of June 30, 1953, unless within one year prior to his application for registration he has been registered or has received a certificate of registration under the provisions of section 30 of the Act of February 5, 1917, as amended by section 4 of the Act of May 22, 1918, or has been registered under the provisions of section 3 of the Immigration Act of 1924, as amended by section 11 of the Immigration Act of 1952.

(e) If the Secretary of Labor finds that deportation of the alien assigned to the vessel on which he arrived and which vessel is a "waterborne" a notation to that effect shall be made on the manifest.

EXTRACT FROM ACT OF CONGRESS OF FEBRUARY 5, 1917

SEC. 36. That when any alien shall arrive by water at any seaport in the United States from a foreign port or from a port in the Canal Zone, Puerto Rico, the Virgin Islands, or Guam, he shall be examined by the immigrant inspector at the port of arrival and before he shall be admitted to the United States or to any territory, dependency, or possession thereof, or to

AFFIDAVIT OF THE MASTER OR COMMANDING OFFICER, OR FIRST OR SECOND OFFICER

I, MELBOURNE L. JORDAN, MASTER, of the AMERICAN S/S NORTH SEA, do declare that the foregoing is a full and true list of all the crew promptly to said vessel from any port or place during her present voyage. I have noted the copy of section 30 of the Act of February 5, 1917, contract from application B, rule 7, and copy of sections 13 and 50, Act of May 10, 1924, which appear below.

M. L. Jordan
Master, ~~Purser or Commanding Officer~~

Sworn to before me this 17TH day of NOVEMBER, 1925

Immigrant Inspector.

Any person who knowingly makes a false statement in this affidavit may be punished by a fine of not more than $2,000 or by imprisonment for not more than five years, or both (sec. 69, Criminal Code).

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO MASTER

The list described below shall be prepared in plain Roman letters approved by the Secretary of Labor and by order for delivery to the Immigrant Inspector at the port of arrival. The list is subject to visé by the Consular Officer at the port of foreign departure. Any list not prepared in accordance with the following instructions will be returned for correction before the vessel is permitted to depart.

The word "nationality" is a designation to show the country to which the alien owes allegiance, as England, Germany, France, Italy, Russia, Austria, Hungary, Sweden, Norway, Turkey, China, Japan, Mexico, Canada, Cuba, etc. The word "race" is a designation to show the people to which the alien belongs, as English, Irish, Scotch, German, French, Italian, Spanish, Portuguese, Chinese, Japanese, Hebrew, Negro, Polish, Russian, Bohemian, Magyar, Slovak, Dalmatian, Croatian, Servian, Ruthenian, Finnish, Dutch, Flemish, Armenian, Turkish, Mexican, Indian, etc. In the case of a native of the United States, the word "native" should be written in the column for race, and the country to which he owes allegiance should be written in the column for nationality.

Every alien must be listed, and the name of every alien must be preceded by a number, beginning with the number 1 for the first alien on the list, and continuing in regular order. Each alien must be listed with the family group to which he belongs, and the relationship of each member of the group to the head of the group must be indicated by such words as "husband," "wife," "child," "father," "mother," "grandfather," "grandmother," "brother," "sister," "uncle," "aunt," "cousin," "niece," "nephew," "servant," etc. Every alien must be asked his own race or people, and not that of the country of which he is a citizen or subject. For example, a Scotch alien must be described as Scotch and not as British; a Welsh alien as Welsh and not as British; a Canadian of French descent as French and not as Canadian; a Canadian of English descent as English and not as Canadian; a citizen of India of Hindu race as Hindu and not as Asiatic Indian; a native Chinese as Chinese and not as Mongolian; a native Japanese as Japanese and not as Mongolian; a native Hawaiian as Hawaiian and not as Polynesian; a native Filipino as Filipino and not as Malay; a native Mexican of Indian descent as Mexican and not as Indian; a native Mexican of Spanish descent as Mexican and not as Spanish; a native Central or South American of Indian descent as Central American Indian or South American Indian, as the case may be, and not as Indian; a native Central or South American of Spanish descent as Central American or South American, as the case may be, and not as Spanish; a native Canadian Indian as Canadian Indian and not as Indian; a native Newfoundlander as Newfoundlander and not as English, Irish, Scotch, or otherwise; a native Australian as Australian and not as English, Irish, Scotch, or otherwise; a native New Zealander as New Zealander and not as English, Irish, Scotch, or otherwise; a native Tasmanian as Tasmanian and not as English, Irish, Scotch, or otherwise; a native Bohemian as Bohemian and not as German; a native Moravian as Moravian and not as German; a native Austrian Slav as Austrian Slav and not as Austrian; a native Austrian Jew as Austrian Jew and not as Austrian; a native Hungarian Jew as Hungarian Jew and not as Hungarian; a native Finn as Finn and not as Russian; a native Dalmatian as Dalmatian and not as Austrian; a native Croatian as Croatian and not as Austrian; a native Servian as Servian and not as Austrian; a native Ruthenian as Ruthenian and not as Austrian; a native Polish subject as Polish and not as Russian, German, or Austrian; a native Turkish Armenian as Armenian and not as Turkish; a native Greek as Greek and not as Turkish; a native Syrian as Syrian and not as Turkish; a native Arabian as Arabian and not as Turkish; a native Persian as Persian and not as Turkish; a native Palestinian as Palestinian and not as Turkish; a native Egyptian as Egyptian and not as Turkish; a native Turkish Jew as Turkish Jew and not as Turkish; a native Negro as Negro and not as African; a native Barbadian as Barbadian and not as West Indian; a native Haitian as Haitian and not as West Indian; a native Cuban as Cuban and not as West Indian; a native Jamaican as Jamaican and not as West Indian; a native Porto Rican as Porto Rican and not as West Indian; a native Trinidadian as Trinidadian and not as West Indian; a native Canadian Negro as Canadian Negro and not as Negro; a native Mexican Negro as Mexican Negro and not as Negro; a native Central or South American Negro as Central American Negro or South American Negro, as the case may be, and not as Negro; a native Liberian as Liberian and not as Negro; a native Abyssinian as Abyssinian and not as Negro; a native Kaffir as Kaffir and not as Negro; a native Zulu as Zulu and not as Negro; a native Arab as Arab and not as Negro; AFFIDAVIT OF THE MASTER OR COMMANDING OFFICER, OR FIRST OR SECOND OFFICER

I, MELBOURNE L. JORDAN, MASTER, of the AMERICAN S/S NORTH SEA, do declare that the foregoing is a full and true list of all the crew promptly to said vessel from any port or place during her present voyage.

I have noted the copy of section 30 of the Act of February 2, 1917, extract from subdivision B, rule 7, and copy of sections 15 and 50, Act of May 10, 1916, which appear below.

M. L. Jordan, Master

Sworn to before me this 15TH day of NOVEMBER, 19 42

A. Immigrant Inspector.

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO MASTER

The list described below shall be prepared on blank forms approved by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigration inspector boarding the vessel at the port of arrival, and before inspection begins. The list is to be signed by the master, commanding officer, or first officer of the vessel, or person performing the duties of master, and sworn to before the immigration officer at the port of arrival. Any person knowingly or willfully making a false statement in such list shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 or by imprisonment for not more than one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

Any alien who is in possession of a valid unexpired immigrant visa, reentry permit, border crossing card, or other document required by the Immigration Laws and Regulations, must present such document to the immigration officer at the time of inspection at the port of arrival. Any alien who is in possession of more than one such document must present all of them.

Any alien who is in possession of a passport or other travel document must present such passport or travel document to the immigration officer at the time of inspection at the port of arrival unless he is specifically exempted from such requirement by the Immigration Laws and Regulations or by the Secretary of State. Any alien who is in possession of a passport or other travel document must present such passport or travel document to the immigration officer at the time of inspection at the port of arrival unless he is specifically exempted from such requirement by the Immigration Laws and Regulations or by the Secretary of State. Any alien who is in possession of a passport or other travel document must present such passport or travel document to the immigration officer at the time of inspection at the port of arrival unless he is specifically exempted from such requirement by the Immigration Laws and Regulations or by the Secretary of State.

The list described below shall be printed on blank forms approved by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigration inspectors performing the usual duties in the ports of arrival, and shall in no instance be taken from the vessel. The list of aliens or members of all races shall be prepared by the master or commanding officer of the vessel, and shall be signed by him and sworn to before the proper immigration officer at the port of arrival, or, if there is no such officer at the port, before the master or commanding officer of the vessel. Another list, similarly prepared, shall be delivered by the master or commanding officer at the time of departure of the vessel from the last port in the United States. Any master or commanding officer who refuses or neglects to deliver the lists required by this section shall be fined $10 for each alien concerning whom such refusal or neglect occurs. Any master or commanding officer who knowingly and willfully delivers a false list or manifest shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 for each alien concerning whom such false list or manifest is delivered, or by imprisonment for not more than one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the court. (Act Mar. 3, 1903, 32 Stat. L. 1213.)

SEC. 36. That alien arriving at any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place if unable to establish to the satisfaction of the immigrant inspector at the time of his arrival that he is in possession of the money required by this section, or who is coming under a contract or agreement by which he is to be assisted in obtaining admission to the United States, or who is likely to become a public charge, or who has a mental or physical defect of such a character as may affect his ability to earn a living, or who has been deported as an assisted alien, or who has been convicted of a felony or other crime or misdemeanor involving moral turpitude, or who is an anarchist, or who believes in or advocates the overthrow by force or violence of the Government of the United States or of all forms of law, or who disbelieves in or is opposed to organized government, or who advocates or teaches the duty, necessity, or propriety of the unlawful assaulting or killing of any officer or officers, either of specific individuals or of officers generally, of the Government of the United States or any other organized government, because of his or their official character, or who advocates or teaches the unlawful destruction of property, or who is a member of or affiliated with any organization entertaining, advocating, or teaching any of the doctrines above specified, shall be deported as provided in this section to the country to which he belongs or from which he came to the United States, or to any country which may be willing to receive him, at any time within three years after he shall have entered the United States, upon the warrant of the Secretary of Labor. The decision of the Secretary of Labor shall be final as to the facts of any case and as to the sufficiency of any bond given under the provisions of this section. The provisions of this section shall not apply to any person who is a citizen or subject of a country with which the United States is at war at the time of his application for admission or entry, but such person may be excluded or deported in accordance with the law relating to the country of which he is a citizen or subject.

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 18. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws and employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or because of illness, injury, or quarantine, or for the purpose of obtaining treatment, or pursuant to such regulations as the Attorney General may prescribe for the ultimate deportation, removal, or deportation of such alien from the United States. (43 Stat. 164; 8 U. S. C. 180.)

SEC. 30. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside of the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment or because of illness, injury, or quarantine, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except from such vessel and under such regulations as the Attorney General may prescribe, and shall pay a sum sufficient to cover the cost of the maintenance while in the United States and the return passage to the country whence he came, of each alien seaman employed on such vessel until the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival has inspected such seaman (which inspection in all cases shall include a personal physical examination by the medical examiner). Attorney General to do so, shall pay to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $1,000 for each alien seaman in respect of whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the immigration officer in the case of any alien seaman who is a member of the crew, or who has been employed on board, and who is certified by the master as a deserter, or who has been reported to the immigration officer at the port of arrival as having deserted, unless the master shall have deposited with the collector of customs a sum sufficient to cover the cost of returning such alien seaman to the country whence he came to the United States, or unless such deposit is not required by the Attorney General. Any alien seaman who has been granted shore leave and fails to return to the vessel on which he arrived may be arrested without warrant by any officer charged with the enforcement of the immigration laws and taken on board the vessel. Any such alien seaman who has been granted shore leave and who is found on board any vessel other than the vessel on which he arrived shall be taken into custody without warrant by any officer charged with the enforcement of the immigration laws and shall be kept in custody on board the vessel on which he arrives or on board such other vessel as may be designated by the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival, or on board any vessel which has been chartered, controlled, or requisitioned by the United States, or on board any vessel which is owned by the United States or by any corporation in which the United States owns a majority of the capital stock, or on board any vessel which is under the control of the United States Maritime Commission, or on board any vessel which is under the control of the Panama Canal Company, or on board any vessel which is under the control of the Panama Railroad Company, or on board any vessel which is under the control of the Inland Waterways Corporation, or on board any vessel which is under the control of the Federal Barge Lines, Inc., or on board any vessel which is under the control of the Alaska Railroad, or on board any vessel which is under the control of the Virgin Islands Company, or on board any vessel which is under the control of the Puerto Rico Reconstruction Administration, or on board any vessel which is under the control of the Puerto Rico Industrial Development Company, or on board any vessel which is under the control of the Puerto Rico Shipping Authority

IMPORTANT NOTICE.—1. Great care should be taken not to place on this list the name of any passenger who was not born in the United States or who has not taken out final naturalization papers.

2. Where one or more members of a family are aliens, the names of all such members should be recorded upon the alien manifest. Suitable notation may be made upon such manifest opposite the names of those members who claim citizenship.

3. Failure to observe the terms of this notice may result in delay to passengers at the port of arrival.

4. Use on this form only United States citizens or citizens of an insular possession of the United States.

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO MASTER

The list described below shall be prepared on blank forms approved by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigration inspector at the port of arrival, and shall in no instance be taken from the vessel. The list or manifest of alien passengers for whom application for visas has been made at a consular office shall not be required, but shall be delivered by the master to the immigration officer at the port. When an alien passenger is a "non-quota immigrant" a notation to that effect should be made on the manifest.

EXTRACT FROM ACT OF CONGRESS OF FEBRUARY 5, 1917

SEC. 36. That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer of any vessel bringing an alien to the United States to deliver to the immigrant inspectors at such port a complete list, certified to be correct by the master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer of such vessel, showing the full name, nationality, last residence, calling, and intended destination of every alien who may be on board such vessel, whether destined to the port of arrival or not, and whether in possession of passports or not, and such other information as the Secretary of Labor shall prescribe, before the departure of such vessel from any foreign port or place, or before the departure of such vessel from the port of arrival, as may be required by the rules and regulations of the Secretary of Labor, and shall deliver to the immigrant inspectors at the time of the arrival of such vessel at such port a correct list of all such aliens on board, which list shall be subject to the same inspection and examination by the immigrant inspectors as are aliens who are brought in under the immediate warrant of the Secretary of Labor: Provided, That the master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer of any such vessel shall not be required to deliver to the immigrant inspectors a list containing the name of any alien who may be in transit through the United States to a foreign country, and who is in possession of an unexpired through ticket or tickets and such documentation as may be required by the immigration officers for such destination, if the immigrant inspectors at the port of arrival are given the opportunity to examine the said list before the departure of the vessel from such port: Provided further, That the master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer of any such vessel shall not be required to deliver to the immigrant inspectors any list in respect of any alien who shall have been duly and regularly admitted to the United States and who is in possession of an unexpired immigration visa, but such master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer shall furnish such information in regard to such alien as may be required by the Secretary of Labor for the proper identification of such alien in the event of his being sought for deportation under the provisions of this Act: And provided further, That the master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer of any such vessel shall not be required to deliver to the immigrant inspectors any list in respect of any alien who is in possession of a permit issued by the Secretary of Labor under the provisions of section 3 of this Act, but such master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer shall furnish such information in regard to such alien as may be required by the Secretary of Labor for the proper identification of such alien in the event of his being sought for deportation under the provisions of this Act: And provided further, That the master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer of any such vessel shall not be required to deliver to the immigrant inspectors any list in respect of any alien who is in possession of a permit issued by the Secretary of Labor under the provisions of section 6 of this Act, but such master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer shall furnish such information in regard to such alien as may be required by the Secretary of Labor for the proper identification of such alien in the event of his being sought for deportation under the provisions of this Act.

EXTRACT FROM SUBDIVISION B, RULE 7

TAX. 8. Clearance shall not be granted any vessel until the fees imposed by section 36 of the Act of February 5, 1917, have been paid.

No fee shall be required for the issuance of any visa, permit, or clearance, or for the furnishing by any officer of the United States of any information not specifically required by the provisions of this Act, or for the making of any search of the records of his office or for the furnishing of any certified copy thereof.

EXTRACT FROM ACT OF CONGRESS APPROVED MAY 26, 1924

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 13. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws and employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily, or for medical treatment, or pursuant to such regulations as the Secretary of Labor from any place outside contiguous territory to which he belongs, unless such alien seaman establishes to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor that he is not a member of any class of aliens ineligible for citizenship, or unless such alien seaman is in possession of a valid passport and an unexpired immigration visa, if such be required by the immigration laws in force at the time of the application for admission of such alien seaman, or unless such alien seaman is in possession of a permit to land temporarily issued by the Secretary of Labor under such rules and regulations as he may prescribe. Any alien seaman who shall land in violation of this section shall be deported in the manner provided in sections 19 and 20 of the Act of February 5, 1917, and shall be ineligible to receive any visa and may not again be admitted to the United States unless he shall establish to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor that he subsequently departed from the United States voluntarily or was not given a reasonable opportunity after entry to depart therefrom.

(a) Any alien seaman who shall come to the United States solely in pursuance of his employment on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, and who is employed on board any vessel while in the United States, shall be required, at the time of the departure of such vessel from the United States, to deposit with the collector of customs at the port of departure the sum of $10 for each month or fraction thereof that he has been employed on board such vessel in the United States, unless he shall sooner depart from the United States in such vessel, or unless he shall be granted a permit to land temporarily in the United States and shall furnish a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment of such deposit. Any such deposit, or any part thereof, shall be refunded to the person who made the same, or his legal representatives, upon the departure from the United States of such person in such vessel, or upon the issuance to him of a permit to land temporarily in the United States, or upon his being found by the Secretary of Labor to have been unable to depart from the United States because of illness, shipwreck, or other cause not the fault of such person, or upon his being found by the Secretary of Labor to have been prevented from departing from the United States by reason of the refusal of any consul to visa his passport because of his political opinions, or upon his being found by the Secretary of Labor to have been prevented from departing from the United States by reason of the refusal of the master of the vessel in which he arrived in the United States to permit him to depart therein, or upon his being found by the Secretary of Labor to have been prevented from departing from the United States by reason of his being required by the master of the vessel in which he arrived in the United States to perform labor in excess of that required in the ordinary navigation of the vessel, or upon his being found by the Secretary of Labor to have been prevented from departing from the United States by reason of his being put ashore from the vessel in which he arrived in the United States at a port other than the port of departure designated in his permit to land temporarily, or upon his being found by the Secretary of Labor to have been prevented from departing from the United States by reason of his being detained in the United States for the purpose of prosecution, or by reason of his being required to testify in behalf of the United States in any case, or upon his being found by the Secretary of Labor to have been prevented from departing from the United States by reason of his being detained in the United States for the purpose of having his deportation determined

The list described below shall be prepared on blank forms approved by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigration inspector boarding the vessel at the port of arrival, and shall in no instance be taken from the vessel. The list of changes of alien members of the crew (Form I–426) shall not be furnished on board, but shall be delivered by the master to the principal immigration officer at the port. When an arriving alien is a "monkey," a uniform to that effect should be made on the manifest. In order to facilitate inspection of aliens seeking, including names of arriving American citizen seamen as well as aliens.

EXTRACT FROM ACT OF CONGRESS OF FEBRUARY 5, 1917, AS AMENDED

SEC. 28. That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the owner, agent, consignee, or master thereof to deliver to the principal immigration officer in charge of the port of arrival such complete manifest of all persons on board of such vessel, manifest the positions they respectively held in the ship's company, when and where they were respectively signed or engaged, and shall thereupon cause it to be boarded by the immigration officer, in waiting, as soon as discovered, at such port of arrival; or such officer may go on board of such vessel at such time as the officers of such vessel may have completed the boarding of the vessel, which boarding officer shall have authority to demand and receive from the master or other officer of such vessel any information desired by him concerning the persons on board such vessel, their nationality, last permanent residence, destination, and purpose while in the United States, and such other information as may be required by the Commissioner General of Immigration touching the right of any such persons to enter the United States, which said master or other officer is hereby required to answer truthfully. Any master, agent, owner, or consignee of any such vessel who refuses to deliver such manifest, or to furnish such information, or to answer such questions, or who answers falsely any such question, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 or by imprisonment for not more than one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the court. Any master, agent, owner, or consignee of any such vessel who refuses to deliver to any immigrant any ticket, or who refuses to deliver to any immigrant such ticket, or who refuses to deliver to any immigrant such ticket, or who refuses to deliver to any immigrant such

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO MASTER

The list described below shall be prepared on blank forms furnished by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigration officer at the port. When an alien crewman (Form 430) shall not be examined on board, but shall be detained by the master to the principal immigration officer at the port, a notation to that effect should be made on the manifest.

EXTRACT FROM ACT OF CONGRESS OF FEBRUARY 5, 1917

SEC. 36. That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the owner, agent, consignee, or master thereof to deliver to the principal immigration officer in charge of the port of arrival lists containing the names of all aliens employed on such vessel, stating the positions they respectively held on the ship's company; when and where they were respectively shipped or entered; and specifying those to be landed in the port of arrival; or lists containing no names of such aliens if no aliens employed on such vessel are to be landed in the port of arrival; or lists containing no such information as the Secretary of Labor shall by regulations prescribe; and after the arrival of such vessel it shall be the duty of such owner, agent, consignee, or master to report to the immigration officer in writing, as soon as discovered, all cases in which any such alien has unlawfully landed from the vessel, giving a description of such alien, together with the information likely to lead to the apprehension; and permit the detention of any such vessel it shall be the duty of such owner, agent, consignee, or master to deliver to such immigration officer a further list containing the names of all alien employees who were not enlisted thereon at the time of the arrival but who will leave port thereon at the time of not departure, and also the names of those, if any, who have been hired on and declared; and of those, if any, who have deserted or landed; and in case of the illness or death of such owner, agent, consignee, or master of the vessel the immigration officer in charge of the port shall be notified by the Secretary of Labor, key to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $10 for each alien concerning whom correct lists are not delivered or a true report is not made as above required; and no such vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the question of the liability to the payment of such fine; and in the event such fine is imposed, while it remains unpaid; nor shall such fine be remitted or refunded: Provided, That clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine.

EXTRACT FROM SUBDIVISION B, RULE 7

PAR. 6. Clearance shall not be granted any vessel until the lists required by section 30 of the Act of February 5, 1917, have been furnished, and not then unless notice of liability to the administrative fine prescribed by said section or to that prescribed by section 35 of said act hereof, the deposit specified in this 35 has been made.

EXTRACT FROM ACT OF CONGRESS APPROVED MAY 26, 1924

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 19. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws and employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or otherwise in case found necessary by the Secretary of Labor upon recommendation by the medical officer in charge at the port of arrival, or to the Secretary of Labor to do so, shall pay to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $1,000 for each alien seaman in respect of whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the liability to the payment of such fine, or while the fine remains unpaid, except that clearance may be granted upon the deposit with the collector of customs of a sum sufficient to cover such fine, or of a bond with sufficient surety to cover such fine, in such case or cases as may be specified by the Secretary of Labor.

(b) Proof that an alien seaman did not object to the contents of the vessel on which he arrived in the United States from any place outside thereof, or that he was rejected by the master of such vessel as a deserter, shall be prima facie evidence of a failure to obtain or object after reasonable opportunity by the immigration officer or the Secretary of Labor.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor finds that deportation of the alien seaman on the vessel on which he arrived would cause undue hardship to such vessel shall not be granted clearance until such expense has been paid or its payment guaranteed to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor.

AFFIDAVIT OF THE MASTER OR COMMANDING OFFICER, OR FIRST OR SECOND OFFICER

I, K. MALCOLM, MASTER of the AMERICAN S.S. MONTAUK do declare that the foregoing is a full and true list of all the crew brought in said vessel from and port or place quoted for present voyage. I have noted the copy of section 30 of the Act of February 5, 1917, extract from subdivision B, rule 7, and copy of sections 19 and 20, Act of May 26, 1924, which appear below.

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO MASTER

The list described below shall be prepared on blank forms approved by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigration inspector boarding the vessel at the port of arrival, and shall in no instance be taken from the vessel. The list of changes of alien members of crews (Form I–418) shall not be returned on board, but shall be delivered by the master to the principal immigration officer at the port. When an arriving seaman is a "workaway," a notation to that effect should be made on the manifest. In order to facilitate inspection of alien seamen, include names of arriving American citizen seamen as well as aliens.

EXTRACT FROM ACT OF CONGRESS OF FEBRUARY 5, 1917, AS AMENDED

SEC. 28. That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the owner, agent, consignee, or master thereof to deliver to the principal immigration officer in charge of the port of arrival lists containing the names of all aliens employed on such vessel, whether the positions they respectively hold in the ship's company, when and where they were respectively shipped or engaged, and when they will be paid off. The arrival of any such vessel it shall be the duty of such owner, agent, consignee, or master to report to such immigration officer, in writing, as soon as discovered, all cases in which any such alien has illegally landed from the vessel, giving a description of such alien, together with any information likely to lead to his apprehension; and before the departure of any such vessel it shall be the duty of such owner, agent, consignee, or master to deliver to such immigration officer a further list containing the names of all alien employees who were not employed thereon at the time of the arrival but who will leave port thereon at the time of the departure, and also the names of those, if any, who have been paid off and discharged, and the cause for the discharge of each. Such lists shall be in such form and contain such further information as may be required by the Commissioner-General of Immigration with the approval of the Secretary of Labor. When an alien employee who is discharged, or who for any other reason leaves the vessel, is not listed on the list furnished to the immigration officer at the port of arrival, the master, owner, agent, consignee, or person in charge of the vessel shall be required to pay a tax of $10 for each alien concerning whom correct information is not furnished, unless it is proved to the satisfaction of the Secretary of the Treasury that the master, owner, agent, consignee, or person in charge of the vessel has complied as nearly as may be with the requirements of this section and that the omission to list any such alien was due to accident or mistake and without fraudulent intent. Clearance shall not be granted any vessel until the list required by this section to be furnished before departure has been delivered, the report concerning deserting alien seamen has been made, and the tax, if any, imposed by this section has been paid or a sufficient sum deposited to cover such tax. Nothing in this section shall be construed to require the taking of a list of the crew of any vessel touching at a port in the United States from any foreign port or place if the vessel is to remain in port not more than twenty-four hours, or from any port in the United States to any other port in the United States, or to require the taking of a list of the crew of any vessel touching at a port in the United States from any foreign port or place if the vessel is to remain in port not more than twenty-four hours after its arrival

SEC. 36. That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the owner, agent, consignee, or master thereof to deliver to the principal immigration officer in charge of the port of arrival lists containing the names of all aliens employed on such vessel, stating the position each respectively held in the ship's company, when and where they were respectively shipped or engaged, and whether destined to the United States; and after the arrival of such vessel it shall be the duty of such owner, agent, consignee, or master to report to such immigration officer, in writing, as soon as discovered, all cases in which any such alien has been illegally landed from the vessel, giving a description of such alien, together with any information likely to lead to his apprehension; and before the departure of any such vessel it shall be the duty of the master to deliver to such immigration officer a further list containing the names of all aliens employed thereon who were not employed thereon at the time of the arrival and who joined such vessel from any port or place in the insular possessions of the United States, or in the Panama Canal Zone, or in the waters adjacent thereto, and also the names of those, if any, who have been hired but not discharged, and of all alien members of the crew who have been left behind at any port or place in the United States, and full information required to be furnished by the master in respect of such alien members of the crew shall be furnished to the immigrant inspector at the port where the vessel next arrives from a foreign port or place. Any master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer who shall refuse or fail to deliver any list required by this section, or who shall refuse or fail to furnish any information required by the immigrant inspector in connection therewith, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 or by imprisonment for not more than one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the court. Any master who shall refuse or fail to deliver to the immigrant inspector any such list, or to furnish any such information, shall pay to the collector of customs a sum not exceeding $10 for each and every day during which such default continues after the vessel has been reported and entered at the custom-house, which sum shall be a lien upon the vessel, and may be sued for and recovered by the United States in any court of competent jurisdiction.

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 13. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws and employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside the contiguous territory, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or temporarily as the attorney (general may prescribe for the ultimate deportation of such alien from the United States. (43 Stat. 164, 8 U. S. C. 166.)

SEC. 30. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside contiguous territory, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or temporarily as the attorney (general may prescribe for the ultimate deportation of such alien from the United States. Application for the permit provided for in this section shall be made in writing by the master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer of the vessel on which the alien seaman is employed or by the authorized agent of such owner, master, agent, consignee, or charterer, and shall be granted only upon the certificate of the medical officer of the port that he has personally examined such alien seaman and found him to be free from any of the diseases or mental or physical defects which would be the cause for excluding such alien from admission into the United States under the immigration laws. Application for the permit shall be made in writing by the master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer of the vessel on which the alien seaman is employed, and shall state the nationality, last residence, and such other facts concerning such alien seaman as may be required by the rules and regulations governing the granting of such permits. Such application shall be granted only upon the certificate of the medical officer of the port that he has personally examined such alien seaman and found him to be free from any of the diseases or mental or physical defects which would be the cause for excluding such alien from admission into the United States under the immigration laws and that such alien seaman is otherwise admissible.

(b) The permit granted to the master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer of the vessel on which the alien seaman is employed shall state the number, nationality, last residence, and such other facts concerning such alien seaman as may be required by the rules and regulations governing the granting of such permits, and shall be valid only for the period of time such alien seaman is employed on board the vessel on which he arrives in the United States and for such additional period of time as the Attorney (general may prescribe for the departure of such alien seaman from the United States on board the vessel on which he arrived in the United States or on board some other vessel. Upon the granting of such permit the master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer of the vessel on which the alien seaman is employed shall deposit with the collector of customs a bond in the penal sum of $1,000 for each alien seaman in respect of whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the liability to payment of such fine, or while the fine remains unpaid, except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine, or of a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof approved by the collector of customs.

(c) If the Attorney (General finds that deportation of the alien seamen on the vessel on which he arrived and such vessel is prevented from departing from the United States because such alien seamen are not available for deportation, the master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer of such vessel shall be liable to a penalty of $1,000 for each alien seaman so detained, which sum shall be a lien upon the vessel, and may be sued for and recovered by the United States in any court of competent jurisdiction. The Attorney (General may remit any fine, penalty, or forfeiture provided for in this section if he is satisfied that such fine, penalty, or forfeiture was incurred without fault on the part of the master, owner, agent, consignee, charterer, or their employees, and that due diligence was exercised to prevent the violation of the law.

(d) Upon the arrival of any vessel with alien seamen who are destined to ports in the United States, the master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer of such vessel shall deliver to the immigrant inspector at the port of arrival a list or manifest of such alien seamen, in triplicate, which shall contain information as to the full name, age, nationality (including country of which citizen or subject), last residence, calling or occupation, and port for which such alien seamen have severally been shipped or engaged; whether they have been in the United States, and if so, when and how often previously; whether they have been in prison or almshouse or supported by charity, and if so, where; whether they are coming in pursuance of a previous promise, agreement, or solicitation, and if so, by whom such promise, agreement, or solicitation was made, and whether they intend to return to the country from which they came after a visit to the United States; whether they have been previously deported, and if so, when and why; whether they have ever been in the United States before, and if so, when and how long they remained in the United States; whether they have been connected with the Communist Party of the United States or with any other organization entertaining a belief in, or teaching, the overthrow by force or violence of the Government of the United States or of all forms of law, or the assassination of public officials, or with any organization writing, printing, or distributing anarchistic or revolutionary literature, and if so, which organization, when, and where; whether they have ever been arrested or confined in any institution or place for the care or punishment of persons charged with or convicted of crime, and if so, when, where, and for what crime; whether they are under contract or agreement to perform labor in the United States, and if so, what the character of such contract or agreement is; whether they have a ticket through to their ultimate destination, and if so, who purchased such ticket; whether they have the means of purchasing such ticket, and if so, how much money they have; whether they have been in the military or naval service of any country, and if so, what country, when, and for how long; whether they are able to read or write any language, and if so, what language; whether they are married or single, and if married, the name of their husband or wife; whether they have any relatives in the United States, and if so, what relatives and where they are; whether they have

SEC. 38. That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place if shall be the duty of the owner, agent, consignee, or master thereof to deliver to the principal immigration officer in charge of the port of arrival lists containing the names of all aliens employed on such vessel, stating the positions they respectively hold in the alien seamen; when and where they were last severally employed or engaged, and specifying those to be held on board in the port of arrival; or that there are no such aliens employed on such vessel, which information as the Secretary of Labor shall by regulation prescribe; and after the arrival of any such vessel it shall be the duty of such owner, agent, consignee, or master to report to such immigration officer, in writing, as soon as discovered, all cases in which any alien employed on such vessel illegally landed from the vessel, giving a description of such alien, together with any information likely to lead to his apprehension; and before the departure of any such vessel it shall be the duty of such owner, agent, consignee, or master to deliver to such immigration officer a further list containing the names of all aliens employed who were not employed thereon at the time of the arrival but who will leave port thereon at the time of her departure, and also the names of those, if any, who have been discharged and the cause of their discharge, and if none, it shall be so reported; and also the names of those, if any, who have been granted or landed, and in case of the failure of such owner, agent, consignee, or master so to deliver either of the said lists of such aliens arriving and departing, respectively, or so to report such cause of separation or landing, such owner, agent, consignee, or master shall, if convicted by the Secretary of Labor, pay to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $1,000 for each alien seaman in respect of whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the liability to the payment of such fine or while the same remains unpaid, except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine or of a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof approved by the collector of customs.

(b) Every alien seaman who does not depart upon the outgoing manifest of the vessel on which he arrived in the United States from any foreign contiguous territory or adjacent island shall be prima facie evidence of a violation of the immigration laws by the master of such vessel as a deserter, and shall be prima facie evidence that such alien seaman has been paid or has procured employment in the United States: Provided, That clearance may be granted such vessel prior to the determination of such question upon the deposit with the collector of customs of a sum sufficient to cover such fine or of a bond with sufficient surety therefor approved by the Secretary of Labor.

EXTRACT FROM SUBDIVISION B, RULE 7

PAR. 8. Clearance shall not be granted any vessel until the fine provided by section 38 of the Act of February 2, 1917, have been furnished, and not then unless notice of liability to the administrative fine prescribed by said section or to that prescribed by section 32 of said act thereof have been waived, the deposit required in rule 23 have been made.

ALIEN SEAMEN

EXTRACT FROM ACT OF CONGRESS APPROVED MAY 26, 1924

SEC. 15. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws and employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, shall be permitted to land in the United States from any vessel unless such alien seaman complies with such regulations as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe for the medical examination of such alien from the United States.

SEC. 30. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, except from foreign contiguous territory, who fails to obtain on board any alien seaman employed on such vessel until the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival has inspected such seaman (which inspection in all cases shall include a personal physical examination by the medical examiner), or who fails to obtain such seaman on board after such inspection or to deport such seaman if required by such immigration officer at the Secretary of Labor to do so, shall pay to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $1,000 for each alien seaman in respect of whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the liability to payment of such fine or while the same remains unpaid, except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine or of a bond with sufficient surety therefor approved by the collector of customs.

(b) Every alien seaman who does not depart upon the outgoing manifest of the vessel on which he arrived in the United States from any foreign contiguous territory or adjacent island shall be prima facie evidence of a violation of the immigration laws by the master of such vessel as a deserter, and shall be prima facie evidence that such alien seaman has been paid or has procured employment in the United States: Provided, That clearance may be granted such vessel prior to the determination of such question upon the deposit with the collector of customs of a sum sufficient to cover such fine or of a bond with sufficient surety therefor approved by the Secretary of Labor.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor finds that deportation of the alien seamen on the vessel on which he arrived and such vessel will not be granted clearance until such expense has been paid or its payment guaranteed to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor.

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO MASTER

The list described below shall be prepared on blank forms approved by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigration inspector boarding the vessel at the port of arrival, and shall in no instance be taken from the vessel. The list of cabin passengers only is to be delivered to the customs officer at the port of arrival (from 48 shall not be detained on board, but shall be delivered by the master to the immigration officer at the port).

When an arriving seaman is a member of a crew, the master may be required to furnish a bond in the sum of $1,000 for each alien seaman in respect of whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance papers pending the determination of the liability to payment of such fine, or while the fine remains unpaid, except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon the deposit of a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof approved by the collector of customs.

(b) Every alien seaman who shall not appear upon the customs manifest of the vessel on which he arrives in the United States shall nevertheless be entitled to such examination as a member of the crew, and shall be granted shore leave subject to the regulations governing the same, unless such alien seaman is otherwise ineligible for admission into the United States under the immigration laws and employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, or transferred to any vessel departing for any place outside the United States.

SEC. 15. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws and employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily on account of illness, or pursuant to such regulations as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe for the treatment of such alien seamen, or in case of the shipwreck of the vessel on which employed, or for the inability of the master to secure the full complement of the crew of such vessel, or for such other reasons as the Secretary of Labor may deem sufficient, but in every such case the master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer of the vessel on which such alien seaman arrived shall be required to furnish a bond or undertaking approved by the Secretary of Labor in such amount, not exceeding $1,000 for each alien seaman, as the Secretary of Labor may require, conditioned that such alien seaman will depart from the United States in such manner, within such time, and through such port as the Secretary of Labor may direct, and will not apply to remain in the United States beyond the period prescribed by the Secretary of Labor or any extension thereof granted by him, and will pay to the United States the cost of maintenance and treatment of such alien seaman while in the United States, unless he is sooner removed therefrom, and will comply with all the requirements of the immigration laws with respect to such alien seaman.

SEC. 16. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, or any person in charge of the port of departure of such alien from the United States, shall be responsible for the removal of any alien seaman employed on such vessel until the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival has granted such alien seaman (whether immigration in all cases shall include a personal physical examination by the medical examiners) landing privileges, or has granted such alien seaman permission to depart from the port of arrival in pursuance of the immigration laws, or has delivered such alien seaman to the immigration officer at the port of departure of such alien, or has furnished a bond sufficient to secure the payment thereof approved by the collector of customs.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor finds that deportation of the alien seaman on the vessel at the expense of the vessel on which he arrived, and such vessel is prevented from departing from the port of arrival by reason of the refusal of such alien seaman to depart therein, or by reason of the refusal of the master to receive such alien seaman, or by reason of the failure to deport such alien seaman within such time as the Secretary of Labor may direct, the master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer of such vessel shall be liable to a penalty of $1,000 for each such alien seaman.

(d) Every alien seaman who shall not appear upon the customs manifest of the vessel on which he arrives in the United States shall nevertheless be entitled to such examination as a member of the crew, and shall be granted shore leave subject to the regulations governing the same, unless such alien seaman is otherwise ineligible for admission into the United States under the immigration laws and employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, or transferred to any vessel departing for any place outside the United States.

SEC. 17. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws and employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily on account of illness, or pursuant to such regulations as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe for the treatment of such alien seamen, or in case of the shipwreck of the vessel on which employed, or for the inability of the master to secure the full complement of the crew of such vessel, or for such other reasons as the Secretary of Labor may deem sufficient, but in every such case the master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer of the vessel on which such alien seaman arrived shall be required to furnish a bond or undertaking approved by the Secretary of Labor in such amount, not exceeding $1,000 for each alien seaman, as the Secretary of Labor may require, conditioned that such alien seaman will depart from the United States in such manner, within such time, and through such port as the Secretary of Labor may direct, and will not apply to remain in the United States beyond the period prescribed by the Secretary of Labor or any extension thereof granted by him, and will pay to the United States the cost of maintenance and treatment of such alien seaman while in the United States, unless he is sooner removed therefrom, and will comply with all the requirements of the immigration laws with respect to such alien seaman.

EXTRACT FROM ACT OF CONGRESS OF FEBRUARY 2, 1917

SEC. 38. That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the owner, agent, consignee, or master thereof to deliver to the principal immigration officer in charge of the port of arrival lists containing the names of all aliens employed on such vessel, showing the position therein occupied by each alien, together with such information which is called for by said lists and such other information as may be required by the Secretary of Labor in addition thereto, and to report to such immigration officer, in writing, as soon as discovered, all cases in which such alien has illegally landed from the vessel, giving a description of such alien, together with such information which is called for by said lists and such other information as may be required by the Secretary of Labor in addition thereto, and before the departure of any such vessel from the port of arrival of any such vessel it shall be the duty of the master, owner, agent, consignee, or master,

Operators manifests should be prepared for each port at which passengers embark for the United States, according to separate manifests numbered consecutively, as required by the immigration act of 1924; but when according to geographic usage Canadian ports should be included in the term "foreign ports" the manifests may include passengers embarking at such ports for a country other than the United States, and when two or more vessels depart from the same foreign port on the same day for the United States the manifests should be numbered consecutively in the order of departure.

Column 1 (Line No.).—Number the lines consecutively, beginning with 1 for each vessel.

Column 2 (Name in full).—The surname (or family name) and the given names in full of every person, including infants, must be entered. Titles of honor, such as "Mr.," "Mrs.," "Dr.," "Rev.," "Hon.," "Prof.," "Count," "Baron," "Lord," "Sir," "Lady," etc., should be omitted. Initials may be used for middle names, but the full name must be given if known. Where a person has no middle name, a hyphen (-) should be placed after the surname or family name, or the letters "N. M." (no middle name) may be written.

Column 3 (Age).—The entry should be the person's age at his last birthday. Infants should be entered as "1/12" if under 1 month old, as "2/12," "3/12," etc., if under 1 year old, and as "1," "2," etc., if 1 year old or more.

Column 4 (Sex).—The entry should be either M (male) or F (female).

Column 5 (Married or single).—The entry should be M (married), S (single), W (widow), or D (divorced).

Column 6 (Occupation).—The entry should describe as accurately as possible the occupation of each person, as laborer, farmer, servant, clerk, merchant, professor, engineer, etc. Persons without occupation, such as women and children, should be entered as "none." Do not enter such terms as "manufacturer," "dealer," "agent," "gentleman," "lady," etc., alone, but use words which indicate what is manufactured, dealt in, or represented, or other descriptive qualifications.

A definite occupation should be given whenever there is one that even approximately describes the immigrant's usual work or employment.

Do not enter as an occupation a title, either for himself or for others.

A farmer is one who owns or rents a farm for his own use or cultivates it.

Do not enter as a farmer a person who works on a farm for his board or wages unless he is actually in business for himself, as a tenant farmer, etc., and not simply as an employee.

Column 7 (Can read).—The entry should be "Yes" or "No" to indicate whether or not the person can read in any language or dialect.

Column 8 (Can write).—The entry should be "Yes" or "No" to indicate whether or not the person can write in any language or dialect.

Column 9 (Country of birth).—Enter the name of the country in which the person was born. Use the name of the country as it is known at present. Do not enter "Russia," "Austria-Hungary," "Austria," "Germany," "Turkey," "England," "Great Britain," "Scotland," "Wales," "Ireland," "Northern Ireland," "Holland," "Asia," "Africa," "Europe," "Palestine," "Syria," "Arabia," "Persia," "India," "China," "Japan," "Mexico," "Cuba," "Porto Rico," "Central America," "South America," "West Indies," "Newfoundland," "Labrador," "Iceland," "Greenland," or any other indefinite description.

Column 10 (Race or people).—The answer should be in accordance with the following list, which contains the principal races or peoples of the countries of the world. Persons from countries not specifically mentioned in this list should be entered according to the best judgment of the immigrant inspector. Do not enter such terms as "Mongolian," "Latin," "Slavic," "Teutonic," "Oriental," "Semitic," "Hamitic," "Anglo-Saxon," "Celtic," "Saxon," "Norse," "Polynesian," "Indian," "Aryan," "Spanish," "Portuguese," "Negro," "Colored," "Black," "White," "Brown," "Yellow," "Red," "Mulatto," "Quadroon," "Octoroon," "American," "Canadian," "Central American," "South American," "West Indian," "Mexican," "Cuban," "Porto Rican," "Newfoundland," "Labrador," "Iceland," "Greenland," or any other indefinite description.

Choose the race or people which most closely corresponds to the immigrant's own description of himself. Persons of mixed races should be entered according to the race or people predominating in them, as Scotch-Irish, Welsh-English, German-French, Spanish-Indian, Negro-Indian, Chinese-Malay, etc. Where the immigrant himself claims to belong to a race or people not listed below, write in the race or people claimed.

Armenian	Finnish
Bohemian (Czech)	French
Bulgarian	German
Cornish	Greek
Croatian	Hebrew
Dalmatian	Irish
Dutch	Italian (North)
English	Italian (South)
Flemish	Lithuanian
Magyar	Spanish
Moravian	Spanish-American
Pole	Swedish

Slovenian (Wendish)

Column 11 (Name of ship).—The name of the vessel should be written in full.

Column 12 (Last residence).—The entry should be the country in which the person last had a permanent residence. Do not enter "Europe," "Asia," "Africa," "Central America," "South America," "West Indies," "Mexico," "Cuba," "Porto Rico," "Newfoundland," "Labrador," "Iceland," "Greenland," or any other indefinite description.

Column 13 (Port).—The entry should be the port at which the person last embarked for the United States. Do not enter "Europe," "Asia," "Africa," "Central America," "South America," "West Indies," "Mexico," "Cuba," "Porto Rico," "Newfoundland," "Labrador," "Iceland," "Greenland," or any other indefinite description.

Column 14 (Destination).—The answer to it should show whether the person is going to a friend, relative, employer, or to a definite place. Do not enter "Unknown," "Not known," or the like.

Column 15 (Final destination).—The answer to it should show the ultimate destination of the person, if not the United States. Do not enter "Unknown," "Not known," or the like.

Column 16 (Whether going to join relative or friend, and name and complete address of such relative or friend).—The answer should show whether the person is going to join a relative or friend, and should give the name and complete address of such relative or friend. Do not enter "Unknown," "Not known," or the like.

Column 17 (Have you a ticket).—The entry should be "Yes" or "No" to indicate whether or not the person has a ticket.

Column 18 (Whether in possession of $50 or more).—The entry should be "Yes" or "No" to indicate whether or not the person has $50 or more in his possession at the time of inspection.

Column 19 (Whether ever before in the United States, and if so, when and where).—The answer should be "Yes" or "No" to indicate whether or not the person has been in the United States before. If the answer is "Yes," the year and place of such previous visit should be given.

Column 20 (Whether going to join husband, wife, father, or other relative; and name, relationship, and complete address of such relative).—The answer should be "Yes" or "No" to indicate whether or not the person is going to join a husband, wife, father, or other relative. If the answer is "Yes," the name, relationship, and complete address of such relative should be given.

Column 21 (Whether ever in prison, almshouse, asylum, or hospital; what and when).—The answer should be "Yes" or "No" to indicate whether or not the person has been in prison, almshouse, asylum, or hospital. If the answer is "Yes," the character of such institution and the time of confinement should be given.

Column 22 (Whether a polygamist).—The answer should be "Yes" or "No" to indicate whether or not the person is a polygamist.

Column 23 (Whether an anarchist).—The answer should be "Yes" or "No" to indicate whether or not the person is an anarchist.

Column 24 (Whether coming under contract or agreement to perform labor).—The answer should be "Yes" or "No" to indicate whether or not the person is coming under contract or agreement to perform labor. If the answer is "Yes," the nature of such contract or agreement should be given.

Column 25 (Whether a person who has been deported at any time previously).—The answer should be "Yes" or "No" to indicate whether or not the person has been deported at any time previously. If the answer is "Yes," the time and cause of such deportation should be given.

AFFIDAVIT OF THE MASTER OR COMMANDING OFFICER, OR FIRST OR SECOND OFFICER

I, _____, of the _____ do declare that the foregoing is a full and true list of all the crew presently in said vessel from any port or place during the present voyage.

I have noted the copy of section 30 of the Act of February 3, 1911, extract from Title 8, Code of Federal Regulations, and copy of sections 15 and 30, Act of May 26, 1924, which appear below.

_____
Master, First or Second Officer.

Sworn to before me this _____ day of _____, 19__.

_____
Immigrant Inspector.

16—48316-1

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO MASTER

The list described below shall be prepared on blank forms approved by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigrant inspector boarding the vessel at the port of arrival, and shall in no instance be taken beyond the limits of the port of arrival. The list of aliens on board shall contain the names of all persons, including members of the crew, citizens of the United States and aliens, who depart from any foreign port or place and arrive at a port of the United States, whether they intend to land or not, and whether they are destined to the United States or pass in transit through the United States to some foreign country. Any person who knowingly and willfully makes a false statement or conceals a material fact in the list required to be delivered to the immigrant inspector shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 or by imprisonment for not more than one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

Before the departure of any such vessel it shall be the duty of such owner, agent, consignee, or master to deliver to each immigrant inspector boarding the vessel a correct list of all persons on board such vessel, and no person will be allowed to depart from the vessel before the inspection officer has been furnished with such list. Any information likely to lead to the apprehension and conviction of any person illegally landed from the vessel, giving a description of such alien, together with any information likely to lead to his apprehension and the name of the vessel on which he arrived, will be cheerfully furnished by the Commissioner of Immigration and Naturalization, Washington, D. C., upon request.

Any master, commander, or other person in charge of any vessel who refuses or neglects to deliver a list, or refuses to allow the proper officer to go on board for the purpose of inspecting the list, or refuses to detain on board any alien when required by the immigrant inspector, or who refuses to allow any such alien to be taken before the proper officer for examination, or who refuses to detain any such alien after notification and requirement by the immigrant inspector, or who refuses to allow the physician to examine any such alien, or who refuses to carry back to the foreign port from which he came any such alien when required by the immigrant inspector, or who refuses to pay the cost of such alien's detention, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 or by imprisonment for not more than one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

EXTRACT FROM ACT OF CONGRESS OF FEBRUARY 5, 1917, AS AMENDED

SEC. 36. That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the owner, agent, consignee, or master thereof to deliver to the immigrant inspector in charge of the port of arrival lists containing the names of all aliens on board such vessel, stating the nationality, last residence, and destination of each alien who may be allowed to land, and indicating those who are citizens of the United States; and such other lists shall be delivered at the time of departure of such vessel from the United States to foreign ports. Such lists shall be prepared on blank forms approved by the Department and shall be subject to the examination and inspection of immigrant inspectors, who shall have power to go on board any such vessel and to remain thereon until the departure of such vessel from the port. Any person who knowingly and willfully makes a false statement or conceals a material fact in the list required to be delivered to the immigrant inspector shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 or by imprisonment for not more than one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment. Any master, commander, or other person in charge of any vessel who refuses or neglects to deliver a list, or refuses to allow the proper officer to go on board for the purpose of inspecting the list, or refuses to detain on board any alien when required by the immigrant inspector, or who refuses to allow any such alien to be taken before the proper officer for examination, or who refuses to allow the physician to examine any such alien, or who refuses to carry back to the foreign port from which he came any such alien when required by the immigrant inspector, or who refuses to pay the cost of such alien's detention, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 or by imprisonment for not more than one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment. The list of aliens required to be delivered by this section shall be prepared in quadruplicate, and one copy delivered to the immigrant inspector at the port of arrival, one copy to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located, and one copy to the Commissioner of Immigration and Naturalization, Washington, D. C., not later than the departure of the vessel from the last port outside the United States. Any master, commander, or other person in charge of any vessel who refuses or neglects to deliver the copies of the list required by this section to the collector of customs or to the Commissioner of Immigration and Naturalization, or who refuses to subscribe to the oath required by this section, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 or by imprisonment for not more than one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment. Any person who knowingly and willfully makes a false statement or conceals a material fact in the list required to be delivered to the immigrant inspector shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 or by imprisonment for not more than one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment. The list of aliens required to be delivered by this section shall be prepared in quadruplicate, and one copy delivered to the immigrant inspector at the port of arrival, one copy to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located, and one copy to the Commissioner of Immigration and Naturalization, Washington, D. C., not later than the departure of the vessel from the last port outside the United States. (39 Stat. 889.)

SEC. 37. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel bringing to the United States from any place outside the United States any alien who is not in possession of a valid unexpired immigration visa, if required by this Act, or who is not in possession of a valid unexpired passport, or other travel document, or border-crossing identification card, if required by the Act of May 1, 1924, as amended, or who is not in possession of a valid unexpired reentry permit or visa, if required by the Act of May 22, 1924, as amended, or who is not in possession of a valid unexpired immigrant visa, reentry permit, border-crossing identification card, or other travel document required by the Act of May 1, 1924, as amended

Any person who knowingly makes a false statement in connection with the foregoing affidavit is liable to a fine of not more than $1,000 or imprisonment for not more than two years, or both, and may be debarred from entering any port of the United States hereafter for such time as may be determined by the Commissioner of Immigration and Naturalization.

EXTRACT FROM ACT OF CONGRESS APPROVED FEBRUARY 5, 1917

SEC. 30. That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the master thereof, or other person in charge of such vessel, to cause a list to be made containing the name, nationality, last residence, calling, and destination of every passenger, and the number of pieces of baggage belonging to each, which may be landed in the United States, and to deliver such list to the immigrant inspector at the port of entry. Such list shall be prepared in such manner as may be prescribed by the Commissioner of Immigration and Naturalization, with the approval of the Secretary of Labor, and shall be verified at the time of the arrival of the vessel at the port of entry by the master or commanding officer thereof, who shall certify to the correctness of the list by his signature thereto. The Secretary of Labor shall have the right to modify the form of such list or to require additional information to be shown thereon in respect to any or all passengers. Any master or commanding officer who refuses to deliver such list, or who fails to include therein all passengers brought by such vessel, or who fails to deliver a correct list, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 for each such offense, or by imprisonment for not more than one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the court. Any master or commanding officer who refuses to permit any immigrant inspector to go on board any such vessel for the purpose of inspecting the list required by this section, or to answer truly any question relative to such list or the immigrants carried thereon, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 for each such offense, or by imprisonment for not more than one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the court. Any master or commanding officer who refuses to pay the head tax provided for by this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 for each such offense, or by imprisonment for not more than one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the court.

(b) Every alien who arrives in the United States from any foreign port or place and who is not in possession of a valid immigrant visa or reentry permit or other travel document required by the immigration laws, at the time of application for admission, or who is not in possession of a valid nonimmigrant visa or border crossing identification card when such document is required by the immigration laws, at the time of application for admission, or who is not in possession of a valid unexpired passport, or other suitable travel document, or document of identity and nationality if such passport is required by the regulations issued by the Secretary of Labor pursuant to section 215 (a) of the Immigration and Nationality Act

The list furnished below shows those races or peoples whose immigration is restricted by the Immigration Act of 1924. Aliens of races not specifically mentioned therein are admissible if otherwise qualified under the provisions of the Act.

EXTRACT FROM ACT OF CONGRESS OF FEBRUARY 5, 1917

SEC. 38. That when aliens arriving at any seaport in the United States from a foreign country are detained by the immigration officers for further examination, the master, agent, consignee, or owner of the vessel in which they arrive shall be notified of the fact and the cause for detention, and shall be required to return each of said aliens on the vessel in which he arrived, or on some other vessel of the same line, to the country whence he came, by the first practicable sailing of such vessel, and the cost of the maintenance of such aliens while so detained shall be borne by the master, agent, consignee, or owner of the vessel in which they arrived. Such cost shall be a lien upon such vessel, and no clearance shall be granted to such vessel while such lien remains undischarged, and the cost of such detention shall be recovered in any court of competent jurisdiction from the master, agent, consignee, or owner of such vessel. The Secretary of Labor shall have the power to establish such regulations, issue such orders, and employ such officers and employees as may be necessary to carry out the provisions of this section.

EXTRACT FROM SUBDIVISION B, RULE 7

PAR. 8. Conference shall not be granted until the board convenes and the witness appears before the board. Witnesses will be granted conference only in the presence of the board, and no person will be admitted to the room in which the board is in session except the witness under examination and the recorder. Witnesses will not be allowed to confer with each other or with any other person during the time they are under examination, nor will they be allowed to refer to any notes or memoranda during their examination, except by permission of the board. Witnesses will be required to leave the room while the board is deliberating upon the case.

EXTRACT FROM ACT OF CONGRESS APPROVED MAY 26, 1924

SEC. 10. (a) The master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer of any vessel from any foreign port who shall bring to the United States any alien who does not have an unexpired immigration visa, if such visa is required by this Act or regulations issued thereunder, or who brings to the United States any alien who is excluded from admission by any provision of this Act, shall be fined not more than $1,000 for each such alien, and may be imprisoned for not more than one year, and such alien may be deported as provided in this Act. Such fine shall be a lien upon such vessel, which may be enforced by libel in the United States district court for the district in which the vessel may arrive. No such vessel shall be granted clearance papers pending the determination of the question of the liability to fine, or while any such fine remains unpaid, or while any such alien remains on board without the permission of the Secretary of Labor, and the payment of any fine imposed or the filing of a bond or undertaking sufficient to cover such fine may be required before the departure of any such vessel from the port. The Secretary of Labor is authorized to remit or mitigate any such fine in such amount and upon such terms as he shall deem just and reasonable.

(b) Every alien arriving at a seaport of the United States from foreign territory by water, whether destined to a port of the United States or to a port in foreign transit through the United States, shall be examined by an immigrant inspector at the time of his arrival, unless specially exempted by the Secretary of Labor. Such examination shall be conducted under such rules as may be prescribed by the Secretary of Labor, and shall have precedence over the examination of aliens at any other port.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor finds that adequate facilities for the inspection, care, and detention of aliens duly accepted or admitted as immigrants are not available at a seaport, he may, in order to prevent such aliens from being unlawfully landed, refuse to permit the vessel bringing them to such port to discharge such aliens, and may cause them to be detained on board such vessel or at such other place as he may designate pending the examination of such aliens by immigrant inspectors, and may cause them to be taken to the port at which the vessel is cleared to the United States or to the port at which the vessel arrived in foreign transit, or to any other port which may be designated by the Secretary of Labor, and may cause them to be detained at such port pending examination by immigrant inspectors. The Secretary of Labor shall have the power to establish such regulations, issue such orders, and employ such officers and employees as may be necessary to carry out the provisions of this section.

(d) Every alien arriving at a seaport of the United States from foreign territory shall be examined by an immigrant inspector at the time of his arrival, unless specially exempted by the Secretary of Labor. Such examination shall be conducted under such rules as may be prescribed by the Secretary of Labor, and shall have precedence over the examination of aliens at any other port.

(e) Every alien arriving at a seaport of the United States from foreign territory by water, whether destined to a port of the United States or to a port in foreign transit through the United States, shall be examined by an immigrant inspector at the time of his arrival, unless specially exempted by the Secretary of Labor. Such examination shall be conducted under such rules as may be prescribed by the Secretary of Labor, and shall have precedence over the examination of aliens at any other port.

(f) Every alien arriving at a seaport of the United States from foreign territory by water, whether destined to a port of the United States or to a port in foreign transit through the United States, shall be examined by an immigrant inspector at the time of his arrival, unless specially exempted by the Secretary of Labor. Such examination shall be conducted under such rules as may be prescribed by the Secretary of Labor, and shall have precedence over the examination of aliens at any other port.

(g) Every alien arriving at a seaport of the United States from foreign territory by water, whether destined to a port of the United States or to a port in foreign transit through the United States, shall be examined by an immigrant inspector at the time of his arrival, unless specially exempted by the Secretary of Labor. Such examination shall be conducted under such rules as may be prescribed by the Secretary of Labor, and shall have precedence over the examination of aliens at any other port.

(h) Every alien arriving at a seaport of the United States from foreign territory by water, whether destined to a port of the United States or to a port in foreign transit through the United States, shall be examined by an immigrant inspector at the time of his arrival, unless specially exempted by the Secretary of Labor. Such examination shall be conducted under such rules as may be prescribed by the Secretary of Labor, and shall have precedence over the examination of aliens at any other port.

(i) Every alien arriving at a seaport of the United States from foreign territory by water, whether destined to a port of the United States or to a port in foreign transit through the United States, shall be examined by an immigrant inspector at the time of his arrival, unless specially exempted by the Secretary of Labor. Such examination shall be conducted under such rules as may be prescribed by the Secretary of Labor, and shall have precedence over the examination of aliens at any other port.

(j) Every alien arriving at a seaport of the United States from foreign territory by water, whether destined to a port of the United States or to a port in foreign transit through the United States, shall be examined by an immigrant inspector at the time of his arrival, unless specially exempted by the Secretary of Labor. Such examination shall be conducted under such rules as may be prescribed by the Secretary of Labor, and shall have precedence over the examination of aliens at any other port.

(k) Every alien arriving at a seaport of the United States from foreign territory by water, whether destined to a port of the United States or to a port in foreign transit through the United States, shall be examined by an immigrant inspector at the time of his arrival, unless specially exempted by the Secretary of Labor. Such examination shall be conducted under such rules as may be prescribed by the Secretary of Labor, and shall have precedence over the examination of aliens at any other port.

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO MASTER

The Act quoted below shall be inserted in plain terms upon the Articles and the Crew Agreement, and no Master or Shipowner shall be entitled to the benefit of limitation of liability provided by the Act unless the Act is so inserted and complied with.

EXTRACT FROM ACT OF CONGRESS OF FEBRUARY 2, 1871, AS AMENDED

SEC. 34. That from and after the passage of this Act no owner of any vessel shall be liable to answer for or make good to any person any loss, damage or injury occasioned to such person or his property by reason or by means of any fire which may happen to or on board of such vessel, unless such fire is caused by the design or neglect of such owner; and if any such vessel shall be in part owned by any such owner, his liability in respect of such vessel or her owners shall be restricted to such proportion of the whole sum for which he would otherwise be liable as his interest in such vessel bears to the whole interest therein.

SEC. 15. That if any of the owners of any vessel named in the Act entitled "An Act to limit the liability of shipowners in certain cases," approved February twenty-fifth, eighteen hundred and seventy-one, or any amendments thereof, shall build, purchase, or acquire in whole or in part any other vessel, such owner shall become liable in respect of such vessel to the full extent provided in said Act, unless he shall, within sixty days after acquiring such interest, give notice thereof to the owners of all claims against such vessel in respect of which he would be entitled to limit his liability under said Act, and shall thereupon be entitled to limit his liability in respect of such vessel in the manner and to the extent provided in said Act.

EXTRACT FROM 8 CFR 150

SEC. 150.15 Place of alien crewmen: when Chairman of Board may grant. Crewmen shall not be granted shore leave, except as provided in paragraph (b) of this section, unless the Chairman of the Board of Review has determined that such action is not inconsistent with the purposes of section 14 of the Immigration Act of 1917 (8 U.S.C. 1227). Such determination may be made by the Chairman of the Board of Review upon the request of the master, agent, consignee, or owner of the vessel, or upon his own motion, and shall be communicated to the master, agent, consignee, or owner of the vessel, and to the immigration officer in charge at the port where the vessel is located.

EXTRACT FROM ACT OF CONGRESS APPROVED MAY 26, 1934, AS AMENDED

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 10. No alien seaman employed upon any vessel touching at ports of the United States during the term of his employment, shall be permitted to land temporarily unless such alien seaman (1) is in possession of a valid passport and (2) has been granted by the Secretary of Labor a waiver of the requirements of section 13 (a) of the Immigration Act of 1924, as amended, or (3) is in possession of a valid nonimmigrant visa or (4) is in possession of a valid unexpired immigration visa. Any alien seaman who shall land in violation of this section shall be deported in the manner provided by section 19 of the Immigration Act of 1917, as amended, but such deportation shall not be limited to the ports specified in section 19 of the Immigration Act of 1917, as amended.

(b) Upon the arrival of any vessel at a port of the United States, the master, agent, consignee, or owner of such vessel shall deliver to the immigration officer in charge at such port a list containing the name, nationality, last permanent residence, and description of each alien seaman employed on board such vessel who intends to land temporarily in the United States, and the immigration officer may grant to such alien seaman a permit to land temporarily in the United States, subject to such conditions as may be imposed in the regulations prescribed by the Attorney General, solely in connection with the shore leave of the vessel during its stay in port. Upon the departure of such vessel from the United States, the master, agent, consignee, or owner of such vessel shall deliver to the immigration officer in charge at the port of departure a list containing the name of each alien seaman who was employed on board such vessel when she arrived in the United States and who was granted a permit to land temporarily in the United States, and the immigration officer shall indicate on such list the action taken with respect to each such alien seaman.

(c) If the Attorney General finds that deportation of the alien seamen at the expense of the owners of the vessels on which they arrived would cause undue hardship to such owners, he may, in his discretion, waive deportation of such alien seamen, and in lieu thereof require the owners of such vessels to furnish a bond or undertaking in such amount, not exceeding $1,000 for each alien seaman, as he may deem necessary to ensure the departure of such alien seamen from the United States within such period of time as he may deem reasonable. Upon the departure of such alien seamen from the United States within the period of time specified by the Attorney General, the bond or undertaking furnished with respect to such alien seaman shall be canceled. Upon failure of such alien seamen to depart from the United States within the period of time specified by the Attorney General, the bond or undertaking furnished with respect to such alien seaman shall be forfeited to the United States notwithstanding the deportation of such alien seaman pursuant to the warrant thereafter issued. Such bond or undertaking may be sued for and recovered by the United States in the name of the Attorney General in any district court of the United States for the district in which the vessel arrived, or in any court of competent jurisdiction of any State within the district in which the vessel arrived. The Attorney General may employ counsel and institute such suits in any such district court or State court, and may accept in compromise such sum as he deems appropriate in any case in which suit has been instituted. Any such sum accepted in compromise or recovered in such suit shall be deposited in the Treasury of the United States as a deportation fund. Such fund shall be available, without appropriation, for the payment of the expenses incident to the deportation of alien seamen who have been granted permits to land temporarily in the United States, and who have been required to depart therefrom, and for the payment of the expenses incident to the deportation of alien seamen who have been required to depart from the United States under the provisions of section 19 of the Immigration Act of 1917, as amended, and for the payment of rewards authorized by section 19 of the Immigration Act of 1917, as amended, and for the payment of witness fees and expenses incident to the prosecution of suits under this section. Moneys in the fund not needed for the purposes specified in this section shall be covered into the Treasury of the United States as miscellaneous receipts.

(d) Every alien seaman who shall not depart from the United States as required by the provisions of this section shall be deported in the manner provided by section 19 of the Immigration Act of 1917, as amended, and in addition thereto shall be subject to a penalty of $1,000, to be remitted only upon the certificate of the Secretary of Labor that the alien seaman has been deported or has departed from the United States in accordance with the provisions of this section. Every alien seaman who shall land in violation of this section shall be deported in the manner provided by section 19 of the Immigration Act of 1917, as amended, but such deportation shall not be limited to the ports specified in section 19 of the Immigration Act of 1917, as amended. Every alien seaman who shall land in violation of this section shall be deported in the manner provided by section 19 of the Immigration Act of 1917, as amended, but such deportation shall not be limited to the ports specified in section 19 of the Immigration Act of 1917, as amended.

Duties of the Master under the Immigration Laws of the United States

Before the vessel leaves the last foreign port, the Master must obtain lists on the prescribed forms of all persons who are to be brought to the United States. He must see that the persons listed are actually on board when the vessel leaves port. He must not permit any person to come on board or leave the vessel while it is in port, except in accordance with the regulations. He must not permit any person to leave the vessel after it arrives at the first port in the United States, except in accordance with the regulations. He must report the illness or death of any person during the voyage, and deliver up the lists to the immigration officer at the first port in the United States. He must detain any person who is afflicted with a contagious disease, and must not allow any person who appears to be insane to land in the United States. He must not bring to the United States any person who has been deported within one year, or who has been refused a visa within six months, unless the vessel brings no other passengers and the person is in charge of a guard. He must not bring to the United States any person who is afflicted with tuberculosis in any form, or who has a physical defect which may affect his ability to earn a living, unless such person is in charge of a guard. He must not bring to the United States any person who has been convicted of a crime involving moral turpitude, or who admits the commission of such crime, unless such person is in charge of a guard. He must not bring to the United States any person who is a polygamist, or who practices polygamy, or who believes in or advocates the overthrow by force or violence of the Government of the United States, or who is a member of or affiliated with any organization entertaining such beliefs or advocating or teaching the duty, necessity, or propriety of the unlawful assaulting or killing of any officer or officers, either of specific individuals or of officers generally, of the Government of the United States or of any other organized government, because of his or their official character, or who advocates or teaches the unlawful destruction of property, unless such person is in charge of a guard. He must not bring to the United States any person who has been convicted of a felony or other crime or misdemeanor involving moral turpitude, unless such person is in charge of a guard. He must not bring to the United States any person who is a contract laborer, unless such person is in charge of a guard. He must not bring to the United States any person who is an anarchist, unless such person is in charge of a guard. He must not bring to the United States any person who is a prostitute or who has been engaged in prostitution or who has been connected with the importation of prostitutes, unless such person is in charge of a guard. He must not bring to the United States any person who has been deported under the provisions of section 19 of the Immigration Act of February 5, 1917, unless such person is in charge of a guard. He must not bring to the United States any person who has been deported under the provisions of section 20 of the Immigration Act of February 5, 1917, unless such person is in charge of a guard. He must not bring to the United States any person who has been deported under the provisions of section 1 of the Act of October 16, 1918, unless such person is in charge of a guard. He must not bring to the United States any person who has been deported under the provisions of section 3 of the Act of March 4, 1921, unless such person is in charge of a guard. He must not bring to the United States any person who has been deported under the provisions of section 2 of the Act of May 26, 1924, unless such person is in charge of a guard. He must not bring to the United States any person who has been deported under the provisions of section 2 of the Act of June 5, 1930, unless such person is in charge of a guard. He must not bring to the United States any person who has been deported under the provisions of section 2 of the Act of March 2, 1931, unless such person is in charge of a guard. He must not bring to the United States any person who has been deported under the provisions of section 2 of the Act of June 29, 1932, unless such person is in charge of a guard. He must not bring to the United States any person who has been deported under the provisions of section 2 of the Act of June 15, 1933, unless such person is in charge of a guard.

(a) If the Attorney General shall be satisfied that the owner of any vessel or the master, agent, consignee, or purser thereof has failed to comply with any of the requirements of section 2 of the Act of March 4, 1929, as amended, with respect to any person, he may, in his discretion, refuse clearance to such vessel until or unless a sum sufficient to cover such case or to pay such fine or fines as may be imposed therefor by the United States Commissioner of Immigration at the port of arrival, not exceeding $1,000 for each person with respect to whom any violation occurs, is deposited with the collector of customs of the district from which such vessel is about to depart, to be refunded only upon the remission or mitigation of any fine or fines imposed.
